Item 1.01 - Entry into Material Definitive Agreements

On July 8, 2005, Reunion Industries, Inc. (?Reunion?) entered into a Settlement Agreement (the ?Settlement Agreement?) with Shaw NapTech, Inc. (?NapTech?). Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, on July 12, 2005, Reunion paid NapTech $1.65 million (the ?Reunion Settlement Payment?) in settlement of Reunion?s indebtedness to NapTech in the approximate amount of $5.1 million under a promissory note and related judgment.

In connection with the NapTech settlement, Wachovia Bank, National Association (?Wachovia?) made a $3.1 million supplemental loan to Reunion under its existing $25 million loan facility, thereby increasing the total amount of the supplemental loan portion of the facility to $6.1 million. Reunion used $1.65 million of this additional supplemental loan to make the Reunion Settlement Payment to NapTech and will use the balance of the loan proceeds for inventory purchases and to support letters of credit that may be issued for it under the Wachovia facility. Wachovia required, as a condition to making the additional supplemental loan, that LC Capital Master Fund, Ltd. (?LCC?) purchase an additional $3.1 million junior participation interest in the Wachovia loan facility, and LCC did so, thereby increasing its junior participation interest in the facility to $6.1 million. LCC in turn simultaneously sold a 50% interest in its junior participation interest to WebFinancial Corporation (?Web?).

To induce LCC to purchase the additional junior participation interest in the Wachovia loan facility and to induce Web to purchase a 50% interest in such junior participation interest, Reunion issued warrants to LCC and Web, as described in Item 3.02, below.

Reunion?s indebtedness under the Wachovia loan facility, including the supplemental loans, is secured by liens on substantially all of Reunion?s assets.

As a result of the NapTech settlement, Reunion will recognize a gain on debt extinguishment of approximately $3.4 million.

Item 3.02 ? Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On July 12, 2005, Reunion issued two warrants (the ?Warrants?), one to LCC and one to Web, to purchase, in each case, 387,500 shares of Reunion?s common stock at a price of $0.01 per share. The Warrants are exercisable at anytime until July 12, 2010.

Reunion issued the Warrants in consideration of (1) LCC?s purchase of an additional $3.1 million junior participation interest in the Wachovia loan facility and (2) Web?s purchase from LCC of a 50% participation interest in such junior participation interest, as described above in Item 1.01. Reunion did not receive any cash consideration for the issuance of the Warrants.

Edgar Filing: REUNION INDUSTRIES INC - Form 8-K

The issuance of the Warrants is exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission under such Act, based on the following:

(1) This transaction was a private placement, with the Warrants being issued to only two entities, LCC and Web. (2) Each of LCC and Web has represented to Reunion that it is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D. (3) Both LCC and Web at all relevant times had access to the same kind of information about Reunion that would be included in a registration statement covering the Warrants and the shares issued upon exercise thereof. (4) Each of LCC and Web has represented to Reunion that it is or will be acquiring the Warrants and the shares issuable upon exercise thereof for its own account and not with a view to the distribution thereof. (5) Neither the Warrants nor the shares issuable upon exercise thereof may be sold or transferred by LCC or Web in the absence of an effective registration statement under the Act covering such securities or an applicable exemption from such registration.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this Current Report on Form 8-K to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, hereunto duly authorized.
