ITEM 4

CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Effective November 26, 2002, the Company's Board of Directors approved the dismissal of the Company's independent accountant and the engagement of a new independent accountant for the Company. The independent account who was dismissed as of November 26, 2002 and had been previously engaged as the principal accountant to audit the Company's financial statements was David S. Hall, P.C.. The audit reports of David S. Hall, P.C. on the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the years ended June 30, 2002, 2001 and 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, or were qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles except that the reports of David S. Hall, P.C. contained a going concern emphasis paragraph.

In connection with the audits of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2002, 2001 and 2000, and in connection with the subsequent interim period up to the date of dismissal, there were no disagreements with David S. Hall, P.C. on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedures which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of David S. Hall, P.C., would have caused David S. Hall, P.C. to make reference to the matter in their report. David S. Hall, P.C. has not reported on financial statements for any subsequent periods after June 30, 2002.

The Company has retained the accounting firm of Cordovano & Harvey to serve as the Company's independent accountant to audit the Company's financial statements. Prior to its engagement as the Company's independent accountant, Cordovano & Harvey had not been consulted by the Company either with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specific transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements or on any matter that was the subject of any prior disagreement between the Company and its previous certifying accountant. The engagement of Cordovano & Harvey was effective on November 26, 2002.

The Company has provided a copy of the foregoing disclosures to David S. Hall, P.C. and has requested that David S. Hall, P.C. furnish it with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the above statements.
