PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To Be Held on June 12, 2002

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the board of directors (the board or the board of directors) of Salem Communications Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Salem or the company), of proxies for use at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the company (the Annual Meeting) scheduled to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

INFORMATION REGARDING VOTING AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

General

At the Annual Meeting, the stockholders of the company are being asked to consider and to vote upon the election of the eight directors nominated by the company's board of directors to serve until the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in the year 2003. For information regarding the proposal regarding the election of directors, see the section of this Proxy Statement entitled ELECTION OF DIRECTORS. Shares represented by properly executed proxies received by the company will be voted at the Annual Meeting in the manner specified therein or, if no instructions are marked on the enclosed proxy card, FOR each of the director nominees identified on such proxy card for such directors as the holder of such shares is entitled to vote. Although management does not know of any matter other than the election of directors to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting, unless contrary instructions are given, shares represented by valid proxies will be voted by the persons named on the accompanying proxy card in accordance with their respective best judgment with respect to any other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Execution of a proxy will not in any way affect a stockholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person, and any person giving a proxy has the right to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by (i) filing with the Corporate Secretary of Salem, prior to the commencement of the Annual Meeting, either a duly executed written notice dated subsequent to such proxy revoking the same or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or (ii) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

The mailing address of the principal executive offices of the company is 4880 Santa Rosa Road, Suite 300, Camarillo, California 93012, and its telephone number is (805) 987-0400. The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card are first being sent to stockholders is May 1, 2002.

Record Date and Voting

Only stockholders of record on Friday, April 19, 2002 (the Record Date), will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. There were outstanding on the Record Date 17,910,567 shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Class A common stock), and 5,553,696 shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share (Class B common stock), of the company (the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock are collectively referred to as the common stock). Each share of outstanding Class A common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted on at the Annual Meeting and each share of outstanding Class B common stock is entitled to ten votes on each matter to be voted on at the Annual Meeting, except that, as provided in the company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of Class A common stock shall be entitled to vote as a class, exclusive of the holders of the Class B common stock, to elect two Independent Directors. The two Independent Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares of Class A common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the election of the Independent Directors; the remaining six directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares of Class A and Class B common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the election of such directors. For information regarding the election of the Independent Directors, see the section of this Proxy Statement entitled ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. In the event there are not sufficient votes for a quorum at the time of the Annual Meeting, the Annual Meeting may be adjourned in order to permit the further solicitation of proxies.

Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for the purpose of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld; votes that are withheld will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect. Abstentions are counted in tabulations of the votes cast on proposals presented to stockholders other than the election of directors, thus having the effect of a negative vote, whereas broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved. Any stockholder proposals that properly come before the Annual Meeting require, in general, the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Class A and Class B common stock present, in person or represented by proxy, at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter.

Solicitation

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card will be paid by the company. Following the mailing of this Proxy Statement, directors, officers and other employees of the company may solicit proxies by mail, telephone, facsimile or other electronic means or by personal interview. Such persons will receive no additional compensation for such services. Brokerage houses and other nominees, fiduciaries and custodians nominally holding shares of Class A common stock of record will be requested to forward proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners of such shares, and will be reimbursed by the company for their reasonable charges and expenses in connection therewith.

Householding

With regard to the delivery of Annual Reports and Proxy Statements, under certain circumstances the Securities and Exchange Commission permits a single set of such documents to be sent to any household at which two or more stockholders reside if they appear to be members of the same family. Each stockholder, however, still receives a separate proxy card. This procedure, known as householding, reduces the amount of duplicate information received at a household and reduces mailing and printing costs as well. A number of banks, brokers and other firms have instituted householding and have previously sent a notice to that effect to certain of the company's stockholders whose shares are registered in the name of the bank, broker or other firm. As a result, unless the stockholders receiving such notice gave contrary instructions, only one Annual Report and one Proxy Statement will be mailed to an address at which two or more stockholders reside. If any stockholder residing at such an address wishes to receive a separate Annual Report or Proxy Statement in the future, such stockholder should telephone toll-free 1-800-542-1061. In addition, if any stockholder who previously consented to householding desires to receive a separate copy of the Proxy Statement or Annual Report for each stockholder at his or her same address, such stockholder should contact his or her bank, broker or other firm in whose name the shares are registered or contact the company at the address or telephone number listed on page 20 of this Proxy Statement.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The company's board of directors has a standing Audit Committee and Compensation Committee. The company does not have a separate nominating committee because such functions are performed by the entire board of directors.

The Audit Committee met once each quarter in 2001. The Audit Committee currently consists of Messrs. Riddle (Chairman), Halvorson and Hodel. The Audit Committee's responsibilities are generally to assist the board in fulfilling its legal and fiduciary responsibilities relating to accounting, audit and reporting policies and practices of the company and its subsidiaries. The Audit Committee also, among other things, oversees the company's financial reporting process, recommends to the board of directors the engagement of the company's independent auditors, monitors and reviews the quality, activities and functions of its independent auditors, and monitors the adequacy of the company's operating and internal controls as reported by management and internal auditors. The board of directors has approved and adopted a revised written charter for the Audit Committee. This revised charter has been attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

All members of the Audit Committee are independent directors as defined under the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.'s listing standards, except Eric H. Halvorson. The company's board of directors determined that the addition of Mr. Halvorson to the Audit Committee as of November 15, 2001 was required in the best interests of the company and its stockholders because of his extensive industry and professional expertise. Mr. Halvorson formerly served with the company in several offices, culminating in his service as its Chief Operating Officer for five years, resigning from the position in 2000. He currently serves as a consultant to the company for which services he was paid approximately $50,000 during 2001 (for further information regarding his consulting agreement with the company, see RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS Agreement with Eric H. Halvorson). Mr. Halvorson was also a C.P.A. with a public accounting firm earlier in his career. The board of directors determined that the appointment of Mr. Halvorson to the Audit Committee complies with the requirements of NASD Rule 4350(d)(2)(B) regarding the appointment of one non-independent director to the Audit Committee in exceptional and limited circumstances.

The Compensation Committee held two meetings in 2001. In the future, the Compensation Committee expects to meet annually and additional times as are necessary or advisable to achieve the purposes of the committee. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Messrs. Hinz (Chairman), Davenport and Riddle. The Compensation Committee is authorized to review and approve compensation, including non-cash benefits, and severance arrangements for the company's senior officers and employees and to recommend to the board salaries, remuneration and other forms of additional compensation and benefits as it deems necessary. The Compensation Committee also administers the company's 1999 Stock Incentive Plan. In 2001, the Compensation Committee assumed the duties of Stock Option Committee to make grants of stock options under the company's 1999 Stock Incentive Plan to non-executive employees of the company.

All of the directors serving on the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee are directors who are not employees of the company.

Meetings of the Board of Directors

There were five meetings of the board of directors in 2001. During 2001, each of the company's incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the board of directors and committees of the board of directors on which he served during such period.

Directors of Salem are entitled to reimbursement of their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with their travel to and attendance at board and board committee meetings.

Stock Option Grants. Directors of Salem who are not also officers or employees of Salem, with the exception of Mr. Davenport and Judge Pressler, were granted 2,500 options each on October 17, 2001 to purchase shares of Salem's Class A common stock. Atsinger and Epperson to three months of severance plus accrued bonus through the date of termination.

Additionally, the employment agreements with Messrs. Atsinger and Epperson provide Salem with a right of first refusal on corporate opportunities, which includes acquisitions of radio stations in any market in which

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The company's compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors, which is comprised of three outside, non-employee directors. Following review and approval by the Compensation Committee, issues pertaining to compensation benefits and severance arrangements for the company's key executives are submitted to the full board of directors for approval.

The following is the Compensation Committee report addressing the compensation of the company's key executive officers for the fiscal year 2001.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The primary function of the Compensation Committee is to oversee Salem's policies relating to executive compensation. The Compensation Committee's primary objectives are to attract and retain qualified individuals by providing competitive compensation and to encourage key management employees to conduct the affairs of the company in a manner that will directly benefit the company and its stockholders.

The Compensation Committee's policy is to establish fair and competitive base salaries for the company's key executives. In fulfilling this role, the Compensation Committee compares the salaries of Salem's executives with those with similar responsibilities at companies that are considered to be comparable in terms of assets, market capitalization, revenue and operating cash flow. The Compensation Committee also analyzes the impact of a key executive's individual performance with respect to matters important to the interests of Salem and believes that outstanding performance merits increases in base salary, bonus consideration and stock-based incentives. The Compensation Committee believes that a direct relationship between an executive's compensation and that executive's contribution to the company's interests best serves the company's stockholders.

Accordingly, the following principles are inherent in all of the Compensation Committee's considerations regarding compensation for key executives:

1. In order to attract and retain highly qualified and experienced personnel necessary to fulfill the objectives of the company, Salem must offer competitive compensation, including a competitive base salary, cash bonus incentives and stock-based incentives;
2. Cash compensation in excess of the employee's base salary should be tied to the individual's performance, the performance of the business unit for which the employee is responsible and the overall performance of the company; and
3. The financial interest of the key executives of the company should be closely aligned with the financial interests of the company's stockholders.

In 2001, the three primary forms of compensation paid or awarded to Salem's key management personnel were salary, cash bonuses and stock options. The base salaries for the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer in 2001 were provided for in their respective employment agreements with Salem. The Chairman's base salary for 2001 was $513,750. The Chief Executive Officer's base salary in 2001 was $513,750. Salary for all other key executives is reviewed periodically and adjusted as warranted in accordance with the company's principles regarding executive compensation outlined above.

In 2001, the Compensation Committee renewed the employment agreements with the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer following the principles set above. Effective January 1, 2002, the annual compensation of the Chairman is $600,000 and the annual compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is $700,000. In addition, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer were paid signing bonuses of $200,000 and $300,000, respectively, upon the signing of their employment agreements. The signing bonuses are repayable to the company on a pro rata basis should the Chairman or Chief Executive Officer terminate their employment prior to July 2004.

All additional cash compensation paid to key management employees in 2001 was tied to the performance of the individual, the business unit for which they were responsible and the company. The employment agreements for the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer each provide for additional cash bonuses that may be paid to such executive officers at the sole discretion of the board of directors. Additionally, the Chief Executive Officer was guaranteed a bonus upon the company achieving after tax cash flow of $1.01 per share in 2001.

The Compensation Committee believes that ownership of the company's stock by key management more closely aligns the interest of key management to that of stockholders. In 2001, with the hiring of key employees of the company and to further incentivize key employees, stock options were granted.

The stock options granted to the executives and other key employees in 2001 generally vest over 4 years and have an exercise price at an amount equal to or exceeding the fair market price of Salem's stock at the time of the grant. This approach is designed to increase stockholder value over a long term, since the full benefit of the compensation package cannot be realized unless the stock price appreciation occurs over a number of years.

The Internal Revenue Code (Code) contains a provision that limits the tax deductibility of certain compensation paid to certain executive officers and disallows the deductibility of certain compensation in excess of $1,000,000 per year unless the compensation is considered performance-based pursuant to the rules established in the Code. Salem's policies and practices generally ensure the maximum deduction possible under the Code; however, the company reserves the right to forego any and all of the tax deduction if it is believed to be in the best overall interest of Salem and its stockholders.

- 1.1. This charter governs the operations of the audit committee (Committee).
- 1.2. The Committee shall be appointed by the board of directors and shall comprise at least three directors.
 - 1.2.1. Each member shall be independent of management and the Company and shall be financially literate.
 - 1.2.2. For purposes hereof, independent shall mean a director who meets the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD) definition of independence.
 - 1.2.3. Committee members shall be deemed to be financially literate if they meet the then current requirements for financial literacy approved or set forth in the NASD rules.
 - 1.2.4. At least one member shall have accounting or related financial management expertise, both as provided in the NASD rules.
- 1.3. Notwithstanding Sections 1.2.1. and 1.2.2. above, one director who is not independent as defined in the NASD rules, and who is not a current employee of the Company or an immediate family member of a current employee, may be appointed to the Committee, if the board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Committee by such director is required by the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.
- 1.4. The Committee shall review and reassess this charter at least annually, and once it has been approved by the board of directors, the Committee shall obtain the board s approval of any revisions.

2. Statement of Responsibilities and Authority

- 2.1. The primary responsibility of the Committee is to oversee the Company s financial reporting process on behalf of the board and report the results of their activities to the board.
- 2.2. The Committee shall provide assistance to the board of directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the stockholders, potential stockholders, the investment community, and others relating to the Company s financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the annual independent audit of the Company s financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs as established by management and the board.
- 2.3. The Committee shall maintain free and open communication between the Committee, the independent auditors and the management of the Company.

3. Principles and Processes

- 3.1. Management is responsible for preparing the Company s financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements.
- 3.2. The Committee is not responsible for the preparation of financial statements or for the performance of audits and its members are not auditors of the Company s financial statements.
- 3.3. The Committee will undertake actions appropriate to set the overall corporate tone for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior.

3.4. The following shall be the principal recurring principles and processes of the Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may expand, limit or revise them as appropriate, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances.

3.4.1. The Committee shall have a clear understanding with management and the independent auditors that the independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the board and the Committee, as representatives of the Company's stockholders.

3.4.2. The Committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to evaluate the independent auditors. Annually, the Committee shall review and recommend to the board the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

3.4.3. The Committee shall periodically review the written statement from the outside auditors of the Company concerning any relationships between the auditors and the Company or any other relationships that may adversely affect the independence of the outside auditors and, based upon such statement and any other information which has come to the attention of the Committee, assess the independence of the outside auditors as required under Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1.

3.4.4. The Committee shall establish policies and procedures for the engagement of the independent auditors to provide non-audit services, and consider whether the outside auditors' performance of such non-audit services is compatible with the auditors' independence.

3.4.5. The Committee shall review and discuss with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits including the adequacy of staffing and compensation.

3.4.6. The Committee shall discuss with management and the outside auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's accounting and financial controls, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk, and further including an assessment of the quality of the Company's financial statements and accounting principles.

3.4.7. The Committee shall meet with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their audits.

The chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for the purposes of this review.

The Committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (or the annual report to stockholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just the acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity and completeness of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.

3.4.10. The Committee shall review and discuss with management and the outside auditors:

- (a) any material financial or non-financial arrangements of the Company which do not appear on the financial statements of the Company; and
- (b) any transactions or courses of dealings with related parties, which transactions are significant in size or involve terms or other aspects that differ from those that would likely be negotiated with independent parties, and which arrangements or transactions are relevant to an understanding of the Company's financial statements.

3.4.11. The Committee shall review and discuss with management and the outside auditors the accounting policies which may be viewed as critical, and review and discuss any significant changes in the accounting policies of the Company and accounting and financial reporting proposals that may have a significant impact on the Company's financial reports.
