NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

In connection with its change in fiscal year from September 30 to December 31, InterContinental Hotels Group PLC ("IHG"), undertook to file an Annual and Transition Report on Form 20-F for the period ended December 31, 2003 ("20-F") by March 31, 2004, which would have been the deadline for filing the Annual Report on Form 20-F had IHG retained the September 30 year end. IHG has been unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to complete its 20-F by March 31, 2004, which is three months after the end of its financial year, because of the need to prepare its Annual Report, as a company listed on the London Stock Exchange, including its audited financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United Kingdom, as well as to prepare the 20-F to satisfy requirements thereof, including requirements applicable for the first time in respect of this report, to provide reconciliation of certain financial statement items in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, and to provide financial information in the audited financial statements relating to Six Continents PLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of IHG, which may in the future guarantee certain debt to be issued by IHG. IHG's UK Annual Report, which includes a reconciliation of certain financial statement items to U.S. GAAP for 2003 and 2002, was published on March 30, 2004. IHG plans to file its 20-F as soon as possible and, in any event, within fifteen days of March 31, 2004.

Annex A

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO PART IV (3)

IHG anticipates that IHG's 20-F will show operating profit on ordinary activities from continuing operations in accordance with UK GAAP for the 15 months ended December 31, 2003 of £295 million. For the 12 months ended December 31, 2003, profit on ordinary activities from continuing operations was £235 million, as compared to £230 million for the 12 months ended December 31, 2002 after impairment of tangible assets of £51 million in 2003 and £77 million in 2002. This reflects the downturn in conditions affecting the travel industry, generally offset by cost reductions in IHG's hotels segment and by a strong performance from the soft drinks segment, due in part to favorable summer trading conditions in the United Kingdom in 2003.

Operating profit from continuing operations for the hotels segment for the 15 months ended December 31, 2003 was £200 million. For the 12 months ended December 31, 2003, operating profit for the hotels segment from continuing operations was £149 million, down 8%, as compared to £162 million for the 12 months ended December 31, 2002.

IHG's Annual Report and Financial Statements filed in the United Kingdom for the 15 months ended December 31, 2003 can be found on IHG's website. www.ihgplc.com.
