Item 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Not applicable.

Item 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

Not applicable.

Item 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Article 21 of the Registrant's Constitution provides:

21.1 Every person who is or has been an officer is entitled to be indemnified out of the property of the Registrant to the relevant extent against:

- (a) every liability incurred by the person in the capacity as an officer (except a liability for legal costs); and
- (b) all legal costs incurred in defending or resisting (or otherwise in connection with) proceedings, whether civil, criminal or of an administrative or investigatory nature, in which the officer becomes involved in that capacity, unless:
- (c) the Registrant is forbidden by statute to indemnify the person against the liability or legal costs; or
- (d) an indemnity by the Registrant of the person against the liability or legal costs would, if given, be made void by statute.

21.2 The Registrant may pay or agree to pay, whether directly or through an interposed entity, a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer against liability incurred by the person in the capacity as an officer, including a liability for legal costs, unless:

- (a) the Registrant is forbidden by statute to pay or agree to pay the premium; or
- (b) the contract would, if the Registrant paid the premium, be made void by statute.

21.3 The Registrant may enter into a contract with an officer or former officer to give:

- (a) effect to the rights of the officer or former officer conferred by this Article 21; and

Edgar Filing: NATIONAL AUSTRALIA BANK LTD - Form S-8

- (b) an officer or former officer access to papers, including those documents provided from or on behalf of the Registrant or a related body corporate of the Registrant to the officer during their appointment and those documents which were referred to in such documents or were made available to the officer for the purposes of carrying out their duties as an officer.

21.4 This Article 21 does not limit any right the officer otherwise has.

21.5 In this Article 21:

- (a) "officer" means a director, secretary or executive officer of the Registrant or of a related body corporate of the Registrant; and
- (b) "to the relevant extent" means to the extent and for the amount that the officer is not otherwise entitled to be indemnified and is not actually indemnified.

Article 21 reflects (where relevant) the provisions of sections 199A and 199B of the Australian Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). The relevant sections provide as follows:

- 199A
- (1) A company or a related body corporate must not exempt a person (whether directly or through an interposed entity) from a liability to the company incurred as an officer or auditor of the company.
- (2) A company or a related body corporate must not indemnify a person (whether by agreement or by making a payment and whether directly or through an interposed entity) against any of the following liabilities incurred as an officer or auditor of the company:
- (a) a liability owed to the company or a related body corporate
- (b) a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under section 1317G or a compensation order under section 1317H
- (c) a liability that is owed to someone other than the company or a related body corporate and did not arise out of conduct in good faith.

This subsection does not apply to a liability for legal costs.

- (3) A company or related body corporate must not indemnify a person (whether by agreement or by making a payment and whether directly or through an interposed entity)
- against legal costs incurred in defending an action for a liability incurred as an officer or auditor of the company if the costs are incurred:

- (a) in defending or resisting proceedings in which the person is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under subsection (2); or
- (b)

in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the person is found guilty; or

(c) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission ("ASIC") or a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to have been established; or

(d) in connection with proceedings for relief to the person under this Law in which the Court denies the relief. Paragraph (c) does not apply to costs incurred in responding to actions taken by ASIC or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for the court order.

Note 1: Paragraph (c) This includes proceedings by ASIC for an order under section 206C, 206D or 206E (disqualification), section 232 (oppression), section 1317E, 1317G or 1317H (civil penalties) or section 1324 (injunction).

Note 2: The company may be able to give the person a loan or advance in respect of the legal costs (see section 212).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) the outcome of proceedings is the outcome of the proceedings and any appeal in relation to the proceedings.

199B

A company or a related body corporate must not pay, or agree to pay, a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer or auditor of the company against a liability (other than one for legal costs) arising out of:

- (a) conduct involving a wilful breach of duty in relation to the company; or
- (b) a contravention of section 182 (use of position) or 183 (use of information).

This section applies to a premium whether it is paid directly or through an interposed entity.

All directors and employees of the Registrant have "directors' and officers' insurance", the premiums of which are paid by some directors and officers themselves, which may provide indemnification against liability in some cases, up to the limits of the insurance.

The Registrant has also entered into several deeds of access, indemnity and insurance with certain of the Registrant's directors. Pursuant to these deeds: (i) certain past and present directors of the Registrant are indemnified, to the extent permitted by law, for liabilities they may incur, or have incurred in connection with their activities as a director of the Registrant; (ii) such directors of the Registrant are provided with funding arrangements until legal proceedings are determined, if the ability to give an indemnity depends on the outcome of those legal proceedings; (iii) the Registrant is required to maintain a prudent level of company insurance; and (iv) such directors are entitled to access to board papers and other company documents for the purpose of defending themselves in legal proceedings.
