ALICE GUILD: Aloha, my name is Alice Guild. I'm a director of Central Pacific Bank. And like my fellow directors, I am keiki o ka aina a child of this land who cares deeply about our community. Central Pacific Bank has grown under the skillful management of its former CEOs and our current leader, Clint Arnoldus. Clint was selected for his proven banking background and open management style. He has accomplished a great deal. What a shame that he has become the lightning rod for discussions about the proposed bank merger. It is our intention to proceed in a manner that is sensitive to our Island values. We hope that Hawaii will be able to hear the merits of our proposal. Mahalo.

DENNIS HIROTA: Hi, my name is Dennis Hirota. I'm a director of Central Pacific Bank, and a third-generation Hawaii-born citizen. Along with my son, I have been in the engineering business for 40 years. I have spent my life building my community and what I wish for Hawaii is a bright future. My fellow directors and I firmly back the proposed City Bank and Central Pacific Bank merger. Both are institutions with local roots, founded for the same purpose and serving the same market. Combined, they would bring far-reaching benefits. There are difficult choices to be made. But if we really wish to see Hawaii prosper, we must make bold moves that ensure a brighter tomorrow. Our children deserve no less. Aloha.

PAUL KOSASA: Hi, my name is Paul Kosasa and I am a director of Central Pacific Bank. Throughout my years on the board, I have seen the bank achieve record profits, steadily grow shareholder value and last year, be recognized as one of the top performing mid-size banks in the nation. If Central Pacific Bank could accomplish so much alone, imagine how much more could be done by combining the talents of both City Bank and Central Pacific Bank? Thus, a merger was proposed. City Bank shareholders would receive a 50% premium...and almost three times the cash dividends. Customers would get more choices and more services. And Hawaii would have a stronger combined bank with deep local roots. For Hawaii's future generations, I'm excited to see what more can be accomplished. Aloha.

FORWARD LOOKING INFORMATION

This document contains forward-looking statements. Such statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of a merger between Central Pacific Financial Corp. ("CPF") and CB Bancshares, Inc. ("CBBI"), including future financial and operating results, costs savings and accretion to reported and cash earnings that may be realized from such merger; (ii) statements with respect to CPF's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans", "targets", "projects" and other similar expressions. These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of CPF's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the business of CPF and CBBI may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (2) expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; (3) revenues following the merger may be lower than expected; (4) deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers, may be greater than expected following the merger; (5) the regulatory approvals required for the merger may not be obtained on the proposed terms; (6) the failure of CPF's and CBBI's shareholders to approve the merger; (7) competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly and may have an effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues; (8) the strength of the United States economy in general and the strength of the Hawaii economy may be different than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit, including the resultant effect on the combined company's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses; (9) changes in the U.S. legal and regulatory framework; and (10) adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) and the impact of such conditions on the combined company's activities.

Additional factors that could cause CPF results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found in CPF's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and available at the SEC's Internet web site (www.sec.gov). With respect to financial projections for CBBI contained in this document, neither CBBI nor any analyst has published any information for 2003, 2004 or 2005. In addition, CPF has not been given the opportunity to do any due diligence on CBBI other than reviewing its publicly available information. Therefore, management of CPF has created its own financial model for CBBI based on CBBI's historical performance and CPF's assumptions regarding the reasonable future performance of CBBI on a stand-alone basis. These assumptions may or may not prove to be correct. The assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the control of CBBI. There is no assurance that these projections will be realized and actual results are likely to differ significantly from such projections.

CPF filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 on April 28, 2003, to register the shares of CPF common stock to be issued in a proposed exchange offer, and filed amendments thereto on May 5, 2003 and May 9, 2003, respectively.
