In this document, you and your mean holders of Enbridge common shares.

We, us, our, company and Enbridge mean Enbridge Inc.

All dollar amounts are in Canadian dollars ($ or CA$) unless stated otherwise. US$ means United States of America (US) dollars.

1. About the meeting

WHAT THE MEETING WILL COVER

There will be seven items of business:

Financial statements (www.enbridge.com/InvestorRelations)

You will receive our 2010 consolidated financial statements and the auditors' report. You can download a copy of our 2010 annual report from our website (www.enbridge.com) if you did not receive a copy with this package.

Directors (see page 7)

You will elect directors to our Board of Directors for a term of one year. You can read about the nominated directors, including their backgrounds, experience and the committees of the Board (Board Committees or any one, a committee) they sit on, starting on page 8.

Auditors (see page 17)

You will vote on reappointing the auditors. Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) will be at the meeting to answer any questions. You can read about the services they provided in 2010 and the fees we paid them starting on page 17.

Stock split (special vote) (see page 18)

You will vote on amending Enbridge's articles to allow us to divide the common shares on a two for one basis (stock split).

Stock option plans (see page 19)

You will vote on increasing the number of common shares reserved for issuance under the Incentive Stock Option Plan and the Performance Stock Option Plan (together, the stock option plans) by 9,500,000 common shares in total.

Shareholder rights plan (see page 20)

You will vote on amending, continuing and approving our shareholder rights plan. There are no material amendments to the plan. It comes up for renewal every three years and will be up for renewal again in 2014.

Having a "say on pay" (advisory vote) (see page 20)

You may also vote on our approach to executive compensation. This is a non-binding advisory vote.

As of the date of this circular, the Board and management are not aware of any other items of business to be brought before the meeting.

We need a quorum

We need a quorum to hold the meeting and transact business. This means the people attending the meeting must hold or represent by proxy at least 25% of the total number of issued and outstanding common shares of Enbridge.

Live audio webcast

We are broadcasting a live audio webcast of our 2011 meeting if you're unable to attend in person.

Be sure to check our website closer to the meeting date for details.

We will also post a recording of the meeting on our website after we hold it.

WHO CAN VOTE

Our authorized share capital consists of an unlimited number of Enbridge common shares and an unlimited number of non-voting preferred shares, issued in series. Only holders of common shares have full voting rights.

If you held common shares at the close of business on March 17, 2011 you are entitled to attend the meeting or any adjournment, and vote your common shares. Each Enbridge common share you hold represents one vote.

Principal owners of common shares

As of March 2, 2011, there are 386,816,567 common shares and 5,000,000 preferred shares of Enbridge issued and outstanding.

4 ENBRIDGE INC.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

The Board and management are not aware of any shareholder who directly or indirectly owns or exercises or directs control over more than 10% of our common shares.

In total, Noverco Inc. (Noverco) and its affiliates own 34,700,000 Enbridge shares, or approximately 9% of our total issued and outstanding Enbridge shares. We have a share and warrant subscription agreement with Noverco and Gaz Métro inc., in which we agreed to let Noverco participate in any future offerings of our common shares to help it maintain its ownership interest in Enbridge at approximately 10%. The agreement went into effect on August 27, 1997.

HOW TO VOTE

You can attend the meeting and vote your common shares in person or you can vote by proxy.

Voting by proxy

Voting by proxy is the easiest way to vote. It means you are giving someone else the authority to attend the meeting and vote on your behalf (called your proxyholder).

Patrick D. Daniel (President & Chief Executive Officer) and David A. Arledge (Chair of the Board or Chair), have agreed to act as the Enbridge proxyholders. If you appoint the Enbridge proxyholders but do not indicate on the enclosed form how you want to vote your common shares, they will vote:

for electing the nominated directors;

for re-appointing the auditors;

for the stock split;

for the stock option plans;

for the shareholder rights plan; and for the advisory vote on our approach to executive compensation.

You can appoint someone else to be your proxyholder. This person does not need to be a shareholder. To do so, do not check the names of the Enbridge proxyholders on your proxy form. Instead, check the second box and print the name of the person you want to act on your behalf. Make sure the person you're appointing knows that you have appointed them as your proxyholder and that he or she needs to attend the meeting. Your proxyholder will need to register with our transfer agent when they arrive at the meeting.

Proxyholders must vote your common shares according to your instructions. If there are changes to the items of business or new items properly come before the meeting, a proxyholder can vote as he or she sees fit.

About the registrar and transfer agent

The registrar and transfer agent for our shares is CIBC Mellon Trust Company (CIBC Mellon). To protect shareholder confidentiality, CIBC Mellon collects the votes and counts them for us. Canadian Stock Transfer Company Inc. acts as the administrative agent for CIBC Mellon.

Registered shareholders

You are a registered shareholder if you hold your common shares in your name (in such case, you have a share certificate).

Registered shareholders can vote by mail, phone, fax or online. Choose the method you prefer and then carefully follow the voting instructions on the enclosed form.

If you are voting by mail or fax, complete your proxy form, sign and date it, and then send it to CIBC Mellon:

CIBC Mellon Trust Company

P.O. Box 721

Agincourt, Ontario MIS 0A1

Fax: 1.866.781.3111 (toll-free in North America; outside of North America: 1.416.368.2502)

CIBC Mellon must receive your instructions by 6 p.m. MDT on May 9, 2011 regardless of the voting method you choose. If the meeting is postponed or adjourned, your instructions must be received by 6 p.m. MDT two business days before the meeting is reconvened.

2011 Management information circular 5

Proxy voting on the internet

You can also appoint a proxyholder on the internet, but you will have to vote separately on each item of business (follow the onscreen instructions). Your proxyholder will need to register with our transfer agent at the meeting.

Non-registered shareholders

You are a non-registered (or beneficial) shareholder if your bank, trust company, securities broker, trustee or other financial institution (your nominee) holds your common shares for you in a nominee account. This means you do not have a physical share certificate but your common shares are recorded on the nominee's electronic system.

Each nominee has its own voting instructions, but you can generally vote by mail, phone, fax or online. Carefully follow the instructions on the voting information form in the package sent to you by your nominee. Your nominee needs enough time to receive your instructions and then send them to our transfer agent, so it's important to complete the form right away.

Voting in person

Voting in person gives you the opportunity to meet face to face with management and interact with our Board.

If you are a registered shareholder and want to attend the meeting and vote in person, do not complete or return the enclosed proxy form. When you arrive at the meeting, please see a representative from CIBC Mellon to register.

If you are a beneficial shareholder and you want to attend the meeting and vote in person, your nominee needs to appoint you as proxyholder. We do not have a record of the number of common shares you own or how many votes they represent because your common shares are held in a nominee account and are not registered in your name. Print your name on the voting instruction form you received from your nominee and carefully follow the instructions provided. Do not indicate your voting instructions. Be sure to register with a representative of Broadridge Investor Communications Solutions when you arrive at the meeting.

Hold common shares as both a registered and non- registered shareholder?

If some of your common shares are registered in your name and some are held by your nominee, you will need to follow two sets of voting instructions.

Please follow the instructions carefully. The voting process is different for registered and non- registered shareholders.

Changing your vote

If you vote by proxy, you can revoke or change your voting instructions, but we must receive your instructions to change or revoke your vote in time, or you can vote in person instead, as noted below.

Non-registered shareholders

Contact your nominee to find out how to change or revoke your vote and the timing requirements.

Registered shareholders

If you voted online or by phone, submit new voting instructions. Your new instructions will revoke your earlier instructions.

If you voted online, you can also use a proxy form to submit new voting instructions, as long as they are received at least 48 hours before the start of the meeting. Your new instructions will revoke your earlier instructions.

If you voted by fax or mail, you can use a proxy form to submit new voting instructions, as long as they are received at least 24 hours before the start of the meeting.

You can also:

send us notice in writing (from you or a person authorized to sign on your behalf). We must receive it by 6 p.m. MDT on May 10, 2011, or by 6 p.m. MDT on the business day before the meeting is reconvened if it was postponed or adjourned. Send your notice to the Corporate Secretary, Enbridge Inc., 3000, 425-1st Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3L8 Fax: 1.403.231.5929; give your notice to the chair of the meeting before the start of the meeting. If you give him the notice after the meeting has started, your new instructions will only apply to the items of business that haven't already been voted on; or change your vote in any other manner permitted by law.

6 ENBRIDGE INC.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

If your common shares are owned by a corporation, your notice must be under a corporate seal or issued by an authorized officer of the company or its attorney.

You can send us your new instructions in any other manner permitted by law.

Voting results

We need a simple majority (at least 50% plus one vote) of all votes cast to elect the nominated directors, appoint the auditors, approve the changes to our stock option plans and shareholder rights plan and approve our approach to executive compensation.

For the proposed stock split, we need at least two-thirds (66 2/3%) of all votes cast to approve the resolution.

CIBC Mellon counts the votes and will only show us a proxy form if:

it is required by law;

there is a proxy contest; or a shareholder has written comments on the proxy form that are clearly intended for Enbridge management.

ELECTING OUR DIRECTORS

All 12 current directors are standing for re-election to the Board. You can vote for all of them, vote for some and withhold your vote for others or withhold your votes for all of them. Unless you instruct otherwise, the Enbridge proxyholders will vote for electing each of the nominated directors.

All of the directors are independent, except for Patrick D. Daniel, our President & Chief Executive Officer. There is no family relationship between any of the nominated directors.

Shareholders elect directors to the Board for a term of one year, until the end of the next annual meeting.

Our policy on majority voting

If a director receives more withheld votes than for votes, he or she will offer to resign. The Governance Committee will make a recommendation to the Board to:

accept the resignation;

ask the director to continue serving but address the issue; or reject the resignation.

The director will not participate in any Board or Board Committee deliberations on the matter. If the Board accepts the director's resignation, it can appoint a new director to fill the vacancy. The Board must promptly disclose its final decision in a press release.

Board size

Our articles allow us to have up to 15 directors. The Board decided on February 18, 2011 that it would maintain its current size of 12 directors, based on the skills and experience we need to make decisions effectively and the needs of the standing Board Committees.

The composition of the Board is also affected by our agreement with Noverco and Gaz Métro inc. As long as Noverco or its subsidiaries own at least 8% of our total outstanding common shares, Noverco may nominate one or more directors to the Board, in direct proportion to its share ownership relative to the total Enbridge shares outstanding.

Noverco did not nominate any of the directors currently standing for election to our Board.

Director Profiles

The profiles that follow provide information about the nominated directors, including their background, areas of expertise, current directorships, securities held and the Board Committees they sit on.

Bennett filed the documents on May 30, 2006 and the management cease trade order was revoked on June 19, 2006. Governor Blanchard was a director of Bennett until August 7, 2006.

Director tenure

The graph below shows our director tenure as of March 2, 2011. The average tenure is 7.2 years.

APPOINTING THE AUDITORS

You will vote on appointing Enbridge's auditors. The Board, on the recommendation of the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee, proposes that PwC be reappointed as auditors.

If PwC is reappointed, they will serve as our auditors until the end of the next annual meeting of shareholders. PwC and its predecessor firm, Price Waterhouse, have been our auditors since 1992 and auditors for Enbridge Pipelines Inc., our wholly-owned subsidiary, since 1949.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

PwC is a participating audit firm with the Canadian Public Accountability Board as required under the Canadian Securities Administrators' National Instrument 52-108 Auditor Oversight.

Auditor independence

Auditor independence is essential to the integrity of our financial statements and PwC has confirmed its status as independent within the meaning of the Canadian and US securities rules.

We are subject to Canadian securities regulations (National Instrument 52-110- Audit Committees and National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines), the US Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (Sarbanes-Oxley) and the accounting and corporate governance rules adopted by the US Securities and Exchange Commission under Sarbanes-Oxley, which specify certain services that external auditors cannot provide.

We comply with these Canadian and US rules. We believe however, that some non-audit services like tax compliance, can be delivered more efficiently and economically by our external auditors. To maintain auditor independence, our Audit, Finance & Risk Committee must pre-approve all audit and non-audit services. It is also responsible for overseeing the audit work performed by PwC.

2011 Management information circular 17

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

The Audit, Finance & Risk Committee reviews our external auditors' qualifications and independence once a year. Their review includes formal written statements that describe any relationships between the auditors, their affiliates and Enbridge that could affect the auditors' independence and objectivity.

Auditors' fees

The table below shows the services PwC provided to Enbridge in 2010. It also shows the fees PwC billed for these services in 2009 and 2010.

	2010	2009
Audit fees	$ 4,202,285	$ 4,085,718	Total fees for audit services
Audit-related fees	151,501	822,734	Total fees for assurance and related services that generally relate to reviewing and auditing our financial statements but that are not included under Audit fees , including: due diligence related to prospectus offerings and other items; and work on the Customer Information System for Enbridge Gas Distribution Inc in 2009.
Tax fees	712,742	388,091	Total fees for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.
All other fees	1,435,327	1,004,061	Total fees for all other products and services relating to: IFRS; Canadian Public Accountability Board; French translation; and process reviews.
Total fees	$ 6,501,855	$ 6,300,604

You can find information about the roles and responsibilities of the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee starting on page 28 and details about the committee's pre-approval policies and procedures in our 2011 annual information form (available online at www.enbridge.com and www.sedar.com).

STOCK SPLIT

You will vote on applying to amend Enbridge's articles to allow the common shares to be divided on a two for one basis.

On February 18, 2011, the Board approved a resolution to seek shareholder approval for an application to amend Enbridge's articles and divide each common share into two common shares. The purpose of the proposed stock split is to make more shares available for purchase by the public and enhance the liquidity of the common shares.

The Board has determined that this amendment is in the best interests of the shareholders and recommends that shareholders vote for the stock split resolution. This resolution must be approved by at least two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders at our annual meeting.

If the stock split resolution is approved, we propose that the stock split will take effect as of the close of business on May 25, 2011. Shareholders of record as of that date will receive share certificates representing one additional Enbridge share for each Enbridge share they hold. We expect that trading in the divided common shares will begin on May 20, 2011 on the TSX and June 1, 2011 on the NYSE. Shareholders should keep their existing Enbridge share certificates, which will continue to represent the same number of common shares.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote for the resolution:

Be it resolved that:

Enbridge is hereby authorized and directed to apply to amend its articles to provide for the division of each common share of Enbridge into two common shares;

any one of our officers is authorized to execute any documents or instruments or to take any other action necessary for this resolution to take effect; and the directors of Enbridge are authorized to revoke this special resolution (in whole or in part), without further shareholder approval, any time before it is acted upon, if the directors believe that doing so is in the best interests of Enbridge.

18 ENBRIDGE INC.

STOCK OPTION PLANS

You will vote on approving changes to our stock option plans.

In 2007, shareholders approved our stock option plans (the Incentive Stock Option Plan (2007) and the Performance Stock Option Plan (2007)) with 16,500,000 common shares in total reserved for issuance under the stock option plans. A total of 3,776,736 stock options (stock options or options) remain available for grant as at March 2, 2011. There are currently 12,369,009 options outstanding under the stock option plans.

You will be asked to approve increasing the number of common shares reserved for issuance under the stock option plans by 9,500,000 common shares in total. The current reserve under the stock option plans of 16,500,000 represents approximately 4.27% of our total issued and outstanding common shares as at March 2, 2011. If you approve the 9,500,000 increase, taking into account the number of options that have been exercised under the stock option plans, the total number of common shares reserved for issuance under the stock option plans would be 25,682,746, representing approximately 6.64% of our total issued and outstanding common shares at March 2, 2011. The 9,500,000 share reserve increase will result in potential dilution. If shareholders approve this increase, taking into account our issued and outstanding common shares and our common shares reserved for outstanding and future stock options, dilution (on a fully diluted basis) would be approximately 7.36% as of March 2, 2011. This compares with dilution (on a fully diluted basis) of approximately 7.11% as of March 2, 2007, the date of our 2007 management information circular, when the stock option plans were proposed for approval by our shareholders.

The stock option plans motivate our executives to deliver strong performance and reward them for longer term share price appreciation. We grant options under the stock option plans to attract and retain senior managers and officers and to align their interests with those of our shareholders (see pages 48 and 65 for a full description of the stock option plans and how we use Enbridge shares for equity-based compensation). We need to increase the stock option plans' share reserve to make sure there are enough common shares available to continue granting options.

The stock option plans were approved by shareholders in 2007. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee amended the Performance Stock Option Plan in 2007 to allow pro-rating of granted stock options if a participant retires, dies or is involuntarily terminated without cause (see Termination provisions on page 66). In 2008, the Board approved a share settled option feature for the stock option plans.

In February 2011, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee approved the amendment and restatement of the stock option plans to:

- increase the share reserve by 9,500,000 common shares in total;
- require shareholder approval for changes to the amendment provisions of the stock option plans; and
- clarify some wording that does not need shareholder approval.

The share reserve increase has been conditionally approved by the TSX, but it must also be approved by a majority of the votes cast by shareholders at our 2011 annual meeting. Stock options issued under the additional share reserve can't be exercised until the reserve increase is approved by shareholders. None of the other amendments require shareholder approval.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote for the resolution:

Be it resolved that:

the amendments contained in the Incentive Stock Option Plan (2007), as amended and restated (2011), and the Performance Stock Option Plan (2007), as amended and restated (2011), to increase the maximum number of common shares reserved for issuance under the stock option plans by an aggregate 9,500,000 common shares are hereby ratified, confirmed and approved; and

SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

You will be asked to approve the continuation of our shareholder rights plan (with no material amendments) under the terms of an agreement between Enbridge and CIBC Mellon (our rights agent). The plan encourages the fair treatment of shareholders if there is a takeover bid for control of Enbridge.

We introduced the shareholder rights plan in 1995. It has been amended and restated and has been reconfirmed by shareholders every three years, most recently, in 2008.

The Board believes the shareholder rights plan is in the best interests of Enbridge and our shareholders because:

it gives the Board sufficient time to explore and develop alternatives to a takeover bid, to maximize shareholder value; and it gives every shareholder an equal opportunity to participate in a takeover bid.

The Board recommends that shareholders vote for the resolution:

Be it resolved that:

the shareholder rights plan agreement between Enbridge and CIBC Mellon (as rights agent), dated November 9, 1995 and amended and restated as of May 11, 2011 is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved;

any revisions made to the 2011 rights plan agreement on or before May 11, 2011 that are required by the relevant stock exchange to conform our plan with most other shareholder rights plans for reporting issuers in Canada, as may be approved by any two officers of Enbridge, are hereby approved; the 2011 rights plan agreement, as amended in accordance with the immediately preceding bullet point, is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved; and any one of our officers is authorized to execute any documents or instruments or to take other action necessary for this resolution to take effect.

Shareholders must approve the resolution for the plan to continue, otherwise it will terminate.

HAVING A "SAY ON PAY"

Maintaining high standards of corporate governance involves responding to emerging best practices.

We announced in February 2010 that we would have an advisory vote on executive compensation starting at our 2011 annual meeting. The Board decided to hold an advisory vote after lengthy discussions on the matter. In addition, several Board members met with the Canadian Coalition for Good Governance (CCGG) about governance practices and shareholder engagement.

While this vote is non-binding, it gives shareholders an opportunity to provide important input to our Board.

"Say on pay" has garnered growing attention in recent years. Enbridge joins a group of more than 30 major Canadian companies that have voluntarily adopted the policy.

As a shareholder, you will be asked to vote for or against our approach to executive compensation through the following resolution:

Be it resolved, on an advisory basis and not to diminish the role and responsibilities of the Board of Directors, that the shareholders accept the approach to executive compensation disclosed in our management information circular dated March 2, 2011, delivered in advance for the 2011 annual and special meeting of shareholders on May 11, 2011.

The Board will take the results of this vote into account when it considers future compensation policies and issues. We will also examine the level of shareholder interest and the comments we receive and consider the best approach and timing for soliciting feedback from shareholders on our approach to executive compensation in the future.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

We received one shareholder proposal for consideration at the meeting. Vancity Investment Management (Vancity) submitted the proposal on behalf of shareholders IA Clarington Inhance Canadian Equity SRI Fund and IA Clarington Inhance Monthly Income SRI Fund.

Vancity requested that shareholders receive disclosure on the impact that a failure to complete the Northern Gateway Pipeline project would have on revenue, equity and earnings, using a reasonable range of estimates and appropriate discount rates.

Management met with Vancity to discuss the matter and we agreed to provide additional information in the MD&A. Vancity decided to withdraw its proposal. The Board thanks Vancity for its constructive dialogue on this issue.

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act, which governs Enbridge, we must receive shareholder proposals by December 2, 2011 to consider them for inclusion in the management information circular and proxy for the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders, which is expected to be held on May 9, 2012.

We will post the results of this year's votes and the other items of business on our website (www.enbridge.com) following the shareholders' meeting.

2. Governance

OUR GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

Sound governance means sound business. At Enbridge, we believe good governance is important for our shareholders, our employees and our company.

We have a comprehensive system of stewardship and accountability that follows best practices (including a number of those recommended by the CCGG) and meets the requirements of all rules, regulations and policies that apply.

This section discusses our governance philosophy, policies and practices. It also describes the role and functioning of our Board and the four Board Committees.

You can find more information about governance in our 2011 annual information form. Our articles and by-laws also set out policies and practices that govern our business activities. These are all available on our website (www.enbridge.com).

Regulations, rules and standards

Enbridge is listed on the TSX and the NYSE and we are subject to a range of governance regulations, rules and standards:

Canada

National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices (NI 58-101);

National Policy 58-201 Corporate Governance Guidelines (NP 58-201);

National Instrument 52-110 Audit Committees (NI 52-110); and Canada Business Corporation Act.

US

As a "foreign private issuer" under US securities laws, we are generally permitted to comply with Canadian corporate governance guidelines and rules, rather than those that apply to US listed corporations.

The NYSE rules, however, require us to disclose how we comply with US corporate governance standards and where our practices are different. You can find this document on our website (<http://www.enbridge.com/InvestorRelations/CorporateGovernance/USCompliance.aspx>). We must also comply with the audit committee requirements under Rule 10A-3 of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934. See Audit, Finance & Risk Committee in our 2011 annual information form for a summary of these requirements.

As of the date of this circular, the Board believes we are in full compliance with all Canadian and US corporate governance regulations, rules and standards that apply to us.

A CULTURE OF ETHICAL CONDUCT

A strong culture of ethical conduct is central to governance at Enbridge.

Our statement on business conduct (available on our website at www.enbridge.com) is our formal statement of expectations on ethics. It applies to everyone at Enbridge and our subsidiaries, including our directors, officers and employees, as well as consultants and contractors who work with us.

It discusses what we expect in areas like:

- complying with the law and undertakings;
- interacting with landowners, customers, shareholders, employees and others;
- protecting health, safety and the environment;
- acquiring, using and maintaining assets;
- using computers and communication devices;
- conflicts of interest; and
- proprietary, confidential and insider information.

The Board reviews the statement on business conduct at least once a year and updates it as necessary (it did not make any changes in 2010).

All new employees at Enbridge and each of our subsidiaries must, as a condition of employment, sign a certificate of compliance indicating that they have read the statement on business conduct, understand it and agree to comply with it. Every year, all employees have to confirm in writing that they have complied with it.

Directors must also certify that they agree with the statement and will comply with it, both when they join our Board and every year they serve on it.

As of the date of this circular, based on the individuals' certifications received, we have been in substantial compliance with the statement on business conduct.

Handling conflicts of interest

If a director or officer has a material interest in a transaction or agreement involving Enbridge, he or she must:

- disclose the conflict or potential conflict;
- choose not to participate in any discussions on the matter; and
- abstain from voting on the matter at any Board meeting where it is being discussed or considered.

This approach is consistent with the requirements of the Canada Business Corporations Act.

Insider trading

Our insider trading and reporting guidelines put restrictions on insiders and those in a special relationship with Enbridge when they trade Enbridge shares. The guidelines, which fulfill our obligations to stock exchanges, regulators and investors, include the following measures:

having quarterly and annual trading blackout periods when financial results are being prepared and have not yet been publicly disclosed. These begin on the fifth day following the end of a quarter or fiscal year and end at the close of trading on the second trading day after we issue the news release or disclose our financial results;

publishing and communicating the dates for regular blackout periods; and encouraging all insiders to pre-clear transactions.

Building awareness

We use online training to help raise awareness and reinforce our commitment to ethical conduct.

To date, we have developed employee sessions on fraud awareness and the statement on business conduct.

Material transactions

No informed person or nominated director (or any associate or affiliate) has or had a direct or indirect material interest in any Enbridge transaction in 2010 or in any proposed transaction that had or will have a material effect on Enbridge or any of our subsidiaries in the foreseeable future.

Whistleblower procedures

Our whistleblower procedures help uphold our strong values and preserve our culture of ethical business conduct.

We introduced whistleblower procedures to protect the integrity of our accounting and auditing and financial processes. We expanded the system in 2008 to include a broad range of matters relating to ethics and conduct.

Employees can report concerns about financial or accounting irregularities or unethical conduct confidentially to the chair of the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee. All submissions can be made anonymously and any complaints submitted in a sealed envelope marked "private and strictly confidential" will be delivered to the committee chair unopened. Complaints can also be made anonymously using a toll-free number and a reporting system administered by an independent third party provider.

At least once each quarter, the chair informs the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee about any complaints received (sooner if there is an urgent matter), discusses them with the Chief Compliance Officer and recommends how each complaint should be handled. The committee can hire independent advisors (outside legal counsel, independent auditors or others) to help investigate a matter. We pay for these costs.

THE ROLE OF THE BOARD

The Board is ultimately responsible for governance at Enbridge and for stewardship of the company. It has full power to oversee the management of our business and affairs.

It carries out many of its responsibilities through its four standing Board Committees:

Audit, Finance & Risk;

Corporate Social Responsibility;

Governance; and Human Resources & Compensation.

The Board:

reviews and approves the strategic plan and provides guidance and monitors our progress;

monitors our risk management programs and helps us identify principal risks; makes sure we have appropriate internal control and management systems in place to manage money, compliance and risk and that they are functioning appropriately; and approves major projects, plans and initiatives that could materially affect the company.

The Board delegates day-to-day management of Enbridge to the Chief Executive Officer and senior management, although major capital expenditures, debt and equity financing arrangements and significant acquisitions and divestitures require Board approval.

Duties

The Board is responsible for overseeing our business affairs and management, particularly in key areas like governance, strategic planning, risk management, succession planning and corporate disclosure. These duties are described in our terms of reference for the Board and the Board Committees. They are drafted by management under the guidance of the Governance Committee and approved by the Board, which reviews them once a year and updates them as needed.

The Board is responsible for developing position descriptions for the Chair of the Board and each committee chair. These descriptions are part of their terms of reference and are reviewed annually. The Board has also developed terms of reference for the President & Chief Executive Officer. The Governance Committee defines the division of duties between the Board and our Chief Executive Officer.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

You can find more information about the responsibilities of our Board in the Canada Business Corporations Act and in the articles and by-laws and terms of reference on our website (www.enbridge.com).

2011 Management information circular 23

Strategic planning

The Board is responsible for reviewing our strategic planning process and for reviewing and approving our strategic plan. It oversees the implementation of the plan, monitors our progress and approves any transactions it believes will have a significant impact on the plan or our strategic direction.

The Board devotes two meetings a year to the strategic plan, including one meeting that is held over two days.

Risk management

The Board is responsible for overseeing risk and the risk assessment process, including:

making sure we identify principal risks once a year;

monitoring our risk management programs; and seeking assurance that our internal control systems and management information systems are in place and operating effectively.

We have a comprehensive risk assessment system that incorporates information from each of our major businesses. This process involves analyzing both existing and emerging risks in defined categories and any factors that might mitigate them.

The Board and the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee review our principal business risks every year, monitor our risk management program and work with our internal and external auditors to oversee the risk review process.

The Board has delegated specific risk management responsibilities to each Board Committee. The Board Committees can authorize the implementation of systems that address risks within the scope of their responsibility and monitor them to ensure they remain effective. For example, the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee authorized our guidelines on the global reporting initiative (GRI) and our environmental risk management system.

Internal controls

The Board seeks assurance at least annually that our internal control systems and management information systems are operating effectively.

The Board has delegated responsibility for reviewing our quarterly and annual financial statements to the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee, which recommends them to the Board for approval. The committee is also responsible for overseeing our internal audit function and senior management reporting on internal controls.

Corporate communications

The Board approves all major corporate communications policies, including our corporate disclosure guidelines which it reviews and approves annually. It also reviews and approves all corporate disclosure documents, including our:

annual and quarterly reports to shareholders;

MD&A;

annual information form; and management information circular.

The Board works to ensure we communicate effectively with shareholders, the public and other stakeholders to avoid selective disclosure.

Succession planning

The Board is responsible for:

- appointing the Chief Executive Officer and other members of senior management;
- monitoring senior management's performance; and
- reviewing the succession strategy for all senior management positions every year.

It delegates responsibility for reviewing our policies and procedures relating to employment, succession planning and compensation (including executive compensation) to the Human Resources & Compensation Committee.

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee is also responsible for:

- making sure we have appropriate programs for dealing with succession planning and employee retention;
- monitoring the performance of senior management;
- overseeing human capital risk to make sure our management programs (including those for our officers) effectively address succession planning and employee retention; and
- reporting to the Board on organizational structure and succession planning matters.

OUR EXPECTATIONS OF DIRECTORS

Our directors are expected to act in the best interests of Enbridge. They have a duty of care to exercise in both decision making and oversight.

Independence

First and foremost, we believe in the importance of an independent board. The Governance Committee is responsible for making sure the Board functions independently of management.

The majority of our directors must be independent, as defined by Canadian securities regulators in NI 52-110, NYSE rules and the rules and regulations of the US Securities and Exchange Commission.

We define a director as independent if he or she does not have a direct or indirect material relationship with Enbridge. The Board believes that a relationship is material if it could reasonably interfere with a director's ability to make independent decisions, regardless of any other association he or she may have. The Board uses a detailed questionnaire to determine if a director is independent.

Eleven of our 12 nominated directors, including the Chair of the Board, are independent. Mr. Daniel is not independent because he is our President & Chief Executive Officer and a member of management.

Before he retired on May 1, 2006, Mr. Tutcher was Group Vice President, Transportation South and President of Enbridge Energy Company, Inc. and Enbridge Energy Management, L.L.C. (two Enbridge subsidiaries). The Board considers Mr. Tutcher independent because he has been retired from Enbridge for five years and does not have an ongoing relationship with the company, other than his shareholdings and his directorship.

The Governance Committee has developed guidelines to give directors a clear picture of the Board's expectations. Key expectations include meeting attendance, financial literacy and ethical conduct.

Meeting in-camera

Our terms of reference stipulate that the Board must hold in-camera meetings regularly, without officers or management present. Both the Board and Board Committees meet in-camera and independently of management at every regularly scheduled meeting. The Chair of the Board provides the President & Chief Executive Officer with a summary of the matters discussed at these in-camera meetings, including any issues that the Board expects management to pursue.

Other directorships

Our directors may serve on the boards of other public companies and together on the boards and committees of other public entities, as long as their common memberships do not affect their ability to exercise independent judgment while serving on our Board. See Interlocking relationships on page 17 for information about some of our directors who serve together on other boards.

Directors who serve on our Audit, Finance & Risk Committee cannot sit on the audit committees of more than two other public entities unless they receive approval from our Board. In 2009, the Board approved Mr. Leslie serving on the audit committees of four publicly traded companies, including Enbridge. Since Mr. Leslie is no longer employed full-time, the Board believes he has the time to meet these commitments and the work is very valuable to him and the Board in his role as chair of our Audit, Finance & Risk Committee. Mr. Leslie continues to serve on the audit committees of the three other publicly traded companies.

External consultants and other third parties

To make sure the Board functions independently of management, Board Committees have the flexibility to meet with external consultants and Enbridge employees without management whenever they see fit. The terms of reference also allow individual directors, the Board and Board Committees to hire independent advisors, as needed.

Attendance

We expect directors to attend all Board and Board Committee meetings of which they are a member and the annual meeting of shareholders. The Governance Committee reviews each director's attendance record every year. If a director has a poor attendance record, the committee chair and Chair of the Board will discuss and recommend how to handle the matter. A director whose attendance record continues to be poor can be asked to leave the Board.

Financial literacy

The Board defines an individual as financially literate if he or she can read and understand financial statements that are generally comparable to ours in breadth and complexity of issues. The Board has determined that all of the members of the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee are financially literate according to the meaning of NI 52-110 and the rules of the NYSE. It has also determined that Mr. England, Mr. Leslie and Ms. Williams each qualify as "audit committee financial experts" as defined by the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Board bases this determination on its analysis of each director's education, skills and experience.

Orientation and continuing education

The Board recognizes that proper orientation and continuing education are important for directors to fulfill their duties effectively. It has delegated these responsibilities to the Governance Committee, which has developed a comprehensive program for new directors and for directors who join a committee for the first time.

Orientation

Every new director meets with the Chair of the Board, the President & Chief Executive Officer and senior management to learn about our business and operations and participates in tours of our sites and facilities.

New directors are also given a copy of the Board manual, which contains:

- personal information about each of the directors and senior officers;
- a list of the members of the Board, the members of the Board Committees and all meeting dates;
- organizational charts (corporate and management);
- our financial risk management policies;
- statutory liabilities;
- information about the directors' and officers' liability programs;
- insider trading and indemnity agreements;
- information about our dividend reinvestment and share purchase plan;
- our statement on business conduct; and
- public disclosure documents for our subsidiaries.

Directors are notified by email whenever there are updates to these documents. The manual and any updates are also posted on the Board portal (software that allows directors to securely access board documents online).

Continuing education

We offer education sessions for directors on key topics and encourage them to participate in associations and organizations that can broaden their awareness and knowledge of developments related to our business. Throughout their tenure, directors have discussions with the Chair of the Board, receive quarterly presentations from senior management on strategic issues and participate in tours of our operations. Quarterly briefings include reviews of the competitive environment, our performance relative to our peers and any other developments that could materially affect our business. Directors can also request presentations on a particular topic. See the list of the internal seminars we offered in 2010 and director participation on page 16.

We also pay for continuing education opportunities through third parties and we encourage directors to pursue director education seminars and courses offered externally.

A number of our directors are members of Canada's Institute of Corporate Directors, including Mr. Leslie (chair of the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee) and Mr. Shultz (member of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee). Mr. Leslie is also an active member of the Canadian Audit Committee Network.

BOARD EVALUATION

The Governance Committee is responsible for assessing the performance of the Board and its Chair, the Board Committees and individual directors on an ongoing basis.

26 ENBRIDGE INC.

Assessing the Board and Chair of the Board

All of the directors complete a confidential questionnaire every year so they can evaluate the effectiveness of the Board and suggest ideas for improving performance. The questionnaire is designed to provide constructive input to improve overall Board performance and includes questions on:

- Board composition;
- effectiveness of the Board, Board meetings and Chair of the Board;
- duties and responsibilities;
- Board orientation and development; and
- the evaluation process for senior management.

Directors submit their completed questionnaires to the chair of the Governance Committee, who summarizes the feedback anonymously and presents it to the Chair of the Board. The chair of the Governance Committee then presents the summary to the Board. The Board discusses the results and develops recommendations as appropriate.

Board Committee assessments

Directors also complete a confidential questionnaire for each Board Committee they are members of. The questionnaire is designed to facilitate candid conversation among the members of each Board Committee about the Board Committee's overall performance, function, areas of accomplishment and areas for improvement. This session takes place in-camera at the first Board Committee meeting after the directors complete their questionnaires.

The questionnaire helps the Board ensure each Board Committee is functioning effectively and efficiently and fulfilling its duties and responsibilities as described in its terms of reference. It includes questions about:

- the composition of the Board Committee;
- the effectiveness of the Board Committee and Board Committee meetings;
- committee members, including the chair; and
- the orientation and development processes for the Board Committee.

Completed questionnaires are submitted to the chair of the Governance Committee who summarizes them and provides a copy to each Board Committee chair and the Chair of the Board.

Director assessments

We also survey our individual directors approximately every three years. Directors complete a confidential questionnaire that helps them evaluate their own effectiveness. They compare their personal assessment with those of their peers, identify areas for improvement and have a candid conversation with the Chair of the Board about individual and Board performance.

The questionnaire also helps directors with their own personal development, recognizing that this development helps enhance the overall effectiveness of the Board. It includes questions about:

- their skills and experience;
- preparing for Board and Board Committee meetings;
- meeting attendance and engagement;

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

communication and interaction; and their business, company and industry knowledge.

As part of the assessment, directors are encouraged to comment broadly, positively and negatively, on any issue concerning the Board, Board Committees and director performance.

Directors submit their completed questionnaires to an independent third party, who summarizes the feedback and prepares a confidential report on each director. It includes:

how the director scored him or herself;

his or her average peer score;

the overall average peer score; and peer comments about the director's performance.

The Chair of the Board then meets with each director to have a confidential discussion about the director's contribution to the Board and his or her views on the Board. The Chair of the Board also meets informally with each director in years when the individual and peer assessment is not done, to discuss his or her performance and other issues relating to the performance of the Board, Board Committees and individual directors.

Identifying new candidates

In 2011, the Board agreed to revise its policy on director retirement. Directors will now generally retire from our Board at the age of 73. A director may be asked to remain on the Board for an additional two years if the Board unanimously approves the extension. If a director receives an extension, he or she is not eligible to serve as Chair of the Board or chair of any of the Board's four standing Board Committees.

The Governance Committee serves as the nominating committee and is responsible for identifying new candidates for nomination to the Board. The Governance Committee also invites and welcomes suggestions from other directors on our Board and from management. The committee reviews a Board composition plan annually. The plan consists of a skills matrix that includes the name of each director, his or her occupation, residence, gender, age, years on the Board, retirement date, business experience, other board commitments, equity ownership, independence and other relevant information. The committee summarizes the plan to identify the ideal skills and experience of a new candidate. These include management, board and industry experience, areas of expertise, global representation, gender and age, among others. The committee ranks each of these skills and areas of experience as a high, medium or low priority.

The Governance Committee then develops a list of potential candidates with the desired skills and experience and reviews and updates the list at least once a year. When a position becomes available, the Board reviews the list of potential candidates, revises it to reflect the skills and experience most needed at the time, adds other recently identified candidates and prepares a short list. The committee also considers the candidate's background and diversity of experience in making their choices.

The chair of the Governance Committee, the Chair of the Board, the President & Chief Executive Officer and sometimes other directors, meet with potential candidates to determine their interest, availability, experience and suitability. The Governance Committee makes a recommendation to the Board. The Board discusses the recommendation and decides which candidates will be put forward for election at the annual meeting of shareholders.

About diversity

We are committed to increasing the diversity of our Board over time by actively seeking qualified candidates who meet diversity criteria. Enbridge is one of over 40 founding members of the Canadian Board Diversity Council.

BOARD COMMITTEES

Our Board has four standing Board Committees to help it carry out its duties and responsibilities:

Audit, Finance & Risk;

Corporate Social Responsibility;

Governance; and

Human Resources & Compensation.

The Board has delegated certain responsibilities to each Board Committee, including overseeing risk management systems that are within the scope of the responsibilities of each Board Committee. Each Board Committee is made up entirely of independent directors. Mr. Daniel, our President & Chief Executive Officer, is not a member of any Board Committee.

Board Committee meetings generally take place before each regularly scheduled Board meeting. Each Board Committee also meets in-camera, independent of management, following the regular Board Committee meeting. They also meet with external consultants and/or Enbridge staff, without management present, whenever they see fit.

Each Board Committee reports regularly to the Board and makes recommendations on certain matters as appropriate. The Governance Committee is responsible for recommending the role of each Board Committee to the Board.

Governance

In November 2010, the Audit, Finance & Risk Committee reviewed its terms of reference. The committee reviewed the qualifications of its members and recommended to the Board, those members who can be properly considered audit committee financial experts. The committee also reviewed its performance in 2010 and determined that it had fulfilled all of its responsibilities under its terms of reference.

The Audit, Finance & Risk Committee met six times in 2010, held in-camera meetings without management present at each meeting with the Director, Internal Audit and the external auditors and then it met on its own. From time to time the committee also met in-camera with the Chief Financial Officer. Before each meeting, the chair of the committee met with the Chief Financial Officer to discuss the agenda items for the meeting and any significant issues. The chair also met with the senior partner of the external auditors assigned to Enbridge's audit before each meeting. You can find more information about the committee as required under NI 52-110 under Audit, Finance & Risk Committee in our 2011 annual information form. Human Resources & Compensation Committee

Chair: Catherine L. Williams

Members: David A. Arledge, J. Lorne Braithwaite, Charles W. Fischer, V. Maureen Kempston Darkes, Charles E. Shultz

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee assists the Board by providing oversight and direction on human resources strategy, policies and programs for the named executives, senior management and our broader employee base. This includes compensation, pension and benefits as well as talent management, succession planning, workforce recruitment and retention.

Succession planning

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee reviews the succession plan for the Chief Executive Officer and other key senior officers and long-range planning for executive development and succession to ensure leadership sustainability and continuity.

Every year the Human Resources & Compensation Committee conducts a thorough review of the current succession plan and the status of development plans for candidates who have been identified for senior positions, including the position of Chief Executive Officer. Effective October 1, a number of vice presidents were moved to new roles or had their existing portfolios expanded, to provide developmental opportunities and deepen the leadership bench-strength of the company.

The Board met several times with the Chief Executive Officer in 2010, without other members of management, to discuss his views on the executive leadership team in general and his potential successors. The Board also met without the Chief Executive Officer to discuss the candidates he identified as possible successors. The Chief Executive Officer succession plan was an increased area of focus for the Human Resources & Compensation Committee and Board in 2010.

2010 highlights

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee:

reviewed 2009 company and business unit performance, based on the approved short-term incentive performance metrics and corporate financial performance compared to our peers and the TSX60 and TSX Composite, over several time periods, and used these assessments to determine the short-term incentive and longer-term incentive awards for our executives and employees for 2009;

based on a review of longer-term incentives for our peers, increased the target longer-term incentive opportunity (including performance stock options (performance stock options), incentive stock options (incentive stock options) and performance stock units (performance stock units)) for the Chief Executive Officer's to 330% of base salary (from 250%) and increased the executive vice presidents' incentive opportunity to 200% of base salary (from 150%), starting in 2010;

evaluated the Chief Executive Officer's performance and approved all aspects of his compensation for 2010, including his short-term incentive award, his base salary and longer-term incentive awards;

reviewed a competitive analysis and the Chief Executive Officer's performance assessments and compensation recommendations for the other executive officers, including recommendations for their short-term incentive awards, base salaries and longer-term incentive awards; approved the 2010 short-term incentive plan performance metric and target and the 2010 earnings per share target for granting performance stock units;

approved a new policy to improve the way we set governance objectives for the oversight, management and administration of Enbridge's pension plans;

approved an amendment to the Canadian pension plans to change the target weighting of corporate and government bonds in the Canadian nominal bond mandate;

amended the policy for our Canadian pension plans to address negative inflation; approved an amendment to the Human Resources & Compensation Committee's terms of reference to clarify the need for committee approval of special pension arrangements for senior management and executive officers;

approved an increase in the longer-term incentive targets for our senior vice presidents and vice presidents (effective January 1, 2011) based on a market competitiveness study;

approved a new corporate performance metric for the short-term incentive plan, adjusted earnings per share, effective January 1, 2011 (see page 42); and approved new short-term incentive plan weightings for the Chief Executive Officer and the executive vice presidents to reflect a greater emphasis on business unit accountability, effective January 1, 2011 (see page 42).

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee also reviewed the strategies and programs designed to attract, develop and retain employees, recognizing our plans for significant growth.

This next section discusses director and executive compensation at Enbridge, including our decision-making process, pay for performance, share ownership requirements and 2010 pay decisions.

DIRECTORS

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Philosophy and approach

The Board is responsible for developing and implementing the directors' compensation plan and has delegated the day-to-day responsibility for director compensation to the Governance Committee.

Our directors' compensation plan is designed with four key objectives in mind:

- to attract and retain the most qualified individuals to serve as directors;
- to compensate our directors to reflect the risks and responsibilities they assume when serving on our Board and Board Committees;
- to offer directors compensation that is competitive with other public companies that are comparable to Enbridge; and
- to align the interests of directors with those of our shareholders.

While our executive compensation program is designed around pay for performance, director compensation is based on annual retainers. This is to meet the compensation objectives and to help ensure our directors are unbiased when making decisions and carrying out their duties while serving on our Board.

The Governance Committee uses a peer group of companies to set the annual retainers for our Board, and targets director compensation at about the 75th percentile. It uses the same peer group, as much as possible, to determine executive compensation. See page 43 more information about our peer group and how we benchmark executive compensation.

The Governance Committee reviews the compensation plan every year and works with external consultants as needed. As part of this review, the committee considers the time commitment and experience required of members of our Board and the director compensation paid by a group of comparable public companies when it sets the compensation. The committee also reviews the compensation plan to make sure the overall program is still appropriate, and reports its findings to the Board.

Share ownership

We expect directors to own Enbridge shares so they have an ongoing stake in the company and are aligned with the interests of shareholders. They must hold at least two times their annual Board retainer, or $420,000, in DSUs or Enbridge shares and meet that requirement within five years of becoming a director on our Board. The minimum was increased from $360,000 to $420,000 in 2010 because we increased our directors' compensation. DSUs are paid out when a director retires from the Board. They are redeemed for cash, based on the weighted average of the closing price of common shares on the TSX for the last five trading days before the redemption date, multiplied by the number of DSUs the director holds.

If a decrease in the market value of our common shares results in a director no longer meeting the share ownership requirements, we expect him or her to buy additional common shares in order to satisfy the minimum threshold.

About DSUs

A deferred share unit (DSU) is a notional share that has the same value as one Enbridge common share. Its value fluctuates with variations in the market price of Enbridge shares.

DSUs do not having voting rights but they accrue dividends as additional DSUs at the same rate as dividends paid on our common shares.

Components

Our Directors' compensation plan has four components:

an annual retainer;

an annual fee if he or she serves as the non-executive Chair of the Board or chair of a Board Committee;

a travel fee for attending Board and Board Committee meetings; and reimbursement for reasonable travel and other out-of-pocket expenses relating to their duties as director.

We do not have meeting attendance fees.

This plan has been in effect since 2004 and was revised in January 2010 when the Board approved an increase in fees. The table below shows the fee schedule for directors in 2010. Directors are paid quarterly. If their principal residence is in the US, they receive the same face amounts in US dollars. Mr. Daniel does not receive any director compensation because he is our President & Chief Executive Officer and is compensated in this role.

Directors who also serve as a director or trustee of one of our subsidiaries or affiliates also receive an annual retainer and meeting and travel fees for attending those meetings.

Directors can receive their retainer in a combination of cash, Enbridge shares and DSUs, but they must receive a minimum amount in DSUs, as shown in the table below. Travel fees are always paid in cash.

Compensation component	Annual amount ($)	before minimum share ownership			after minimum share ownership
		Cash	Enbridge shares	DSUs	Cash	Enbridge shares	DSUs
Board retainer	210,000
Additional retainers
Chair of the Board retainer	240,000
Board Committee chair retainer		Up to 50%	Up to 50%	50% to 100%	Up to 75%	Up to 75%	25% to 100%
Audit, Finance & Risk	25,000
Corporate Social Responsibility	10,000
Governance	10,000
Human Resources & Compensation	15,000
Travel fee	1,500	100%			100%

Once they reach the minimum share ownership level, directors can choose to receive their entire retainer in either DSUs or only 25% in DSUs and the balance in cash, Enbridge shares or a combination of both, according to a percentage mix they choose. They must take at least 25% of the retainer in DSUs. Directors are allocated the Enbridge shares based on the weighted average of the closing price of the Enbridge shares on the TSX for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of payment.

EXECUTIVESCOMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS*Executive summary

Our executive compensation programs are designed to motivate management to deliver strong corporate performance and invest our capital in ways that minimize risk and maximize return, while supporting our core business goal of delivering exceptional value to shareholders. The nature of Enbridge's business impacts the design of our compensation programs and how we deliver compensation over time.

Enbridge's vision is to be the leading energy delivery company in North America. While we may be viewed as having achieved elements of this vision, enhancing and sustaining this position remains a continuing long-term pursuit. Our objective is to generate superior economic value for shareholders through investing capital in a low-risk and disciplined manner. Consistently applied, such stewardship should continue to generate attractive, risk adjusted returns and, in turn, provide for consistent and growing dividend distributions and related capital appreciation. Our business is capital intensive and longer-term in nature. Therefore, the impact of decisions made today may not be realized until several years in the future. Management has the commitment to shareholders to deliver steady, visible and predictable results in the short-term and to operate our assets in a responsible manner.

The compensation programs at Enbridge reflect a blend of short and longer-term incentive awards to support our pay for performance philosophy. Relevant corporate and business unit performance measures are established for the short-term compensation plan that focus on the critical financial, operational, safety and environmental aspects of the business. The performance measures for the longer term plans focus on overall corporate performance aligned with shareholder expectations for earnings growth and share price appreciation.

When assessing performance, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee (HRC Committee) takes into consideration both the objective pre-defined performance metrics as well as qualitative factors not captured in the formal metrics. For example, a decision to complete a certain acquisition may have longer-term strategic benefits to the company which may not be reflected in the short-term performance metrics. Also playing a role are a number of market-based and earnings-based key performance indicators that compare Enbridge's results to a peer group and to the broader market over a one to 10 year time horizon. Therefore, the assessment of overall performance is based on a combination of the pre-defined performance metrics, the key performance indicators, as well as the qualitative aspects of management's responsibilities.

2010 performance

2010 was a year of strong performance and unprecedented challenges. The incident in Marshall put our incident and crisis response capabilities to the test unlike anything we had ever experienced before; however, we achieved strong growth in earnings and cash flow in 2010. Adjusted earnings of $984 million (or $2.66 per share) represent a 13% increase over 2009. We also brought $6.5 billion in projects into service this year ($12 billion in total over the past three years), including the Alberta Clipper, Southern Lights and Sarnia Solar projects.

We continued to secure a strong presence in the oil sands with seven new growth and expansion projects of $2.6 billion in total that will go into service between 2011 and 2014, including Athabasca Pipeline Expansion, Waupisoo Pipeline Expansion and the Norealis and Wood Buffalo pipelines.

Our Green Energy business expanded substantially in 2010. The Greenwich Wind Energy Project in Ontario and the Cedar Point Wind Energy Project in Colorado were secured and construction has commenced. At the end of 2010 the Talbot Wind Energy Project was complete.

All of these developments had an impact on our share performance in 2010. Our common shares reached a 52-week trading high of $58.25 on the TSX on December 2, before closing the year at $56.27 per common share. Over the last 50-plus years, we have delivered an average annual total shareholder return of 13.6%, outperforming the TSX Composite Index by approximately 4% a year.

In December 2010, the Board declared a quarterly dividend of $0.49 per common share to begin in the first quarter of 2011, a 15% increase over the quarterly dividend we paid in 2010.

Our sustained earnings, increasing cash flow and growing dividend, combined with a reliable business model, have generated substantial value for our shareholders, and it is a trend we expect to continue. Our 2011 earnings guidance is about 10% higher than our guidance for 2010. We expect to maintain this rate of growth through the middle of the decade.

2010 pay decisions

The HRC Committee reviewed the performance, business environment and peer group comparisons and recommended the 2010 compensation for our President & Chief Executive Officer. The HRC Committee also reviewed and approved the recommendations of the President & Chief Executive Officer for the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer & Corporate Development and our four other most highly compensated officers (our named executives):

Patrick D. Daniel, President & Chief Executive Officer;

J. Richard Bird, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer & Corporate Development;

Stephen J. Wuori, President, Liquids Pipelines;

Stephen J.J. Letwin, Executive Vice President, Gas Transportation and International (retired on November 1, 2010);

Al Monaco, President, Gas Pipelines, Green Energy & International; and

David T. Robottom, Executive Vice President & Chief Legal Officer.

Early in 2010, the HRC Committee determined base salary increases and longer-term incentive awards. Four of the six named executives received base salary increases of approximately 3%, effective April 1, 2010, to maintain a competitive position between the 50th and 75th percentile of the market. Larger increases were awarded to Mr. Robottom (7.7%), to reflect his expanded responsibilities, and Mr. Monaco (11.1%), to improve the competitiveness of his compensation relative to the market.

In February 2010, we granted 323,500 incentive stock options to the named executives. This grant reflected the target delivery for this compensation program and the Black-Scholes value of the stock option at the time of grant. Effective January 1, 2010, we granted 179,300 performance stock units which resulted in total direct compensation (base salary, short-term incentive and longer-term incentives) being positioned in the top quartile of the competitive market. The HRC Committee awarded additional performance stock units to recognize the outstanding company performance achieved in 2009 and over a sustained period of time. The additional performance stock units were granted before the incident in Marshall occurred.

In February 2011, the HRC Committee determined awards for the named executives under the short-term incentive plan of $2,874,736, including $1,290,000 to the President & Chief Executive Officer. These awards were determined based on a combination of corporate, business unit and individual performance relative to objectives established at the start of 2010. Corporate performance, measured by adjusted return on equity (ROE) relative to a target set at the beginning of the year, carried the greatest weight in determining the short-term incentive award for the named executives. Actual results on this measure were above target. The Marshall incident was factored into the 2010 short-term incentive awards for all of the named executives.

Business unit performance was measured by a variety of financial, operational, customer and employee metrics and targets. The Liquids Pipelines business unit experienced the impact of the Marshall incident on its system integrity, environment and customer metrics. This reduced the business unit score and accordingly reduced the short-term incentive awards for all Liquids Pipelines employees.

Changes in 2011

The HRC Committee reviews our compensation philosophy and practices every year with assistance from Mercer (Canada) Limited (Mercer), an independent compensation consultant, to ensure they are appropriate, competitive and continuing to meet our intended goals. Their review in 2010 focused on total direct compensation and whether the individual components are still competitive, complementary and aligned with performance. After completing the review, the HRC Committee recommended two changes to our short-term incentive plan, which have been approved by the Board for implementation in 2011.

Performance measures

We are moving from adjusted ROE to adjusted earnings per share (EPS) to measure corporate performance. We believe adjusted EPS better reflects our overall corporate performance on an annual basis. This metric is also easily understood by employees because it features prominently in our quarterly results discussions with external stakeholders and it is a metric that is broadly accepted by investment analysts and shareholders.

Going forward, adjusted EPS will be the only metric we use for measuring annual corporate performance. We will measure our adjusted EPS performance each year against the guidance range we provide to our shareholders. We will continue to assess our performance against our peers to determine the longer-term incentives.

Safety and environmental performance are measured in our business unit scorecards, where there is a strong line of sight on performance from administrative levels to the president of the business unit. We will increase our overall emphasis on safety and environmental performance relative to financial and other measures starting in 2011.

The HRC Committee will continue to use discretion in determining awards where the calculated mathematical result from applying our formulas does not fairly or accurately reflect outcomes or extraordinary events that weren't contemplated in the original measures or targets.

Weightings

Corporate performance is currently emphasized in the short term incentive plan for the President & Chief Executive Officer and the other executives. Starting in 2011, there will be more emphasis on business unit performance in the overall mix, reflecting changes in our organization designed to increase accountability at the business unit level.

There is no change to the target setting and approval process. The HRC Committee sets the corporate performance metric and target annually. Business unit leaders define the measures that their respective operations will be measured against, subject to the approval of the President & Chief Executive Officer.

Philosophy and approach

Our approach to executive compensation is set by the HRC Committee and approved by the Board. Our programs are designed to accomplish three things:

attract and retain a highly effective executive team; align their actions with our business strategy and the interests of our shareholders; and reward them for both short and long-term performance.

Benchmarking to peers

To make sure we're rewarding our executives at a competitive level, we benchmark our executive compensation programs against a group of similar companies in Canada and the US.

The Canadian companies are large pipeline, energy, utility and industrial companies that are similar to us in size. Together they reflect the Canadian business environment that we operate in.

The US companies are mainly oil and gas pipelines and utilities because the US energy sector is much larger and has more depth than Canada's.

Setting compensation targets

We target base pay at between the median and the 75th percentile, considering the skill, competency and experience of each executive. We link targets for short and longer-term incentives to base salary levels.

For each of the executives, except the Executive Vice President & Chief Legal Officer, we target total direct compensation at the median of comparator companies in North America, emphasizing the Canadian or US peer groups based on the executive's role and responsibilities. Actual total direct compensation depends on performance.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

For the Executive Vice President & Chief Legal Officer, we compare to Canadian companies comparable in size to Enbridge that have a similar role in their organization.

2 Mr. Letwin was our US-focused executive.

At risk compensation

The graphs below show the compensation mix for our President & Chief Executive Officer and our other named executives. The short and longer-term incentives are considered to be at risk because their value is based on performance and is not guaranteed. In 2010, 80% of the target total direct compensation for the President & Chief Executive Officer and 71% for the other named executives was at risk, directly aligning corporate, business and individual performance with the interests of shareholders.

Share ownership

It's important for all of our officers, including executives, to have a meaningful equity stake in the company. Owning Enbridge shares is a tangible way to align the interests of our officers with those of our shareholders.

Target ownership is a multiple of base salary, depending on position level, and officers are required to meet the target within four years of being appointed to the position. Officers can acquire Enbridge shares by participating in the employee savings plan, exercising stock options or by making personal investments in Enbridge shares. Personal holdings, or Enbridge shares held in the name of a spouse, dependent child or trust, all count toward meeting the guidelines. Stock options do not.

Pay for performance

Performance is the cornerstone of our executive compensation programs. The programs are designed to motivate management to achieve the low risk, high return business model that shareholders expect, with a focus on the longer term. The HRC Committee reviews our short, medium and longer-term business plans and links the compensation programs to these timeframes. This ensures that management is focused on delivering value to shareholders not only in the short-term, but also continued performance over the longer term. The performance of our peer group is also considered.

Annual decision-making process

The HRC Committee reviews and approves the compensation plans and pay levels for all the named executives. The HRC Committee reviews and recommends the compensation plans and pay level for the President & Chief Executive Officer to the Board. The table below shows how we make compensation decisions.

Independent advice

Mercer, an independent compensation consultant, advises the HRC Committee on compensation issues, including:

the competitiveness and appropriateness of our executive compensation programs;

annual total direct compensation for the President & Chief Executive Officer; governance of executive compensation; and the HRC Committee's mandate and related Board Committee processes.

The HRC Committee chair reviews and approves our terms of engagement with Mercer every year. The terms specify the work to be done in the year, Mercer's responsibilities and its fees. Any other projects must be approved by the HRC Committee chair.

While the HRC Committee takes the information and recommendations Mercer provides into consideration, it has full responsibility for its own decisions, which may reflect other factors and considerations.

Management can also retain Mercer on compensation matters from time to time. The chair of the HRC Committee must approve all services over $10,000.

Management and the HRC Committee engaged Mercer in 2010 to provide analysis and advice on compensation matters. The following table provides a breakdown of services provided and fees paid in 2010:

Components

Total compensation is made up of five components.

Base salary	Short-term incentive	Longer-term incentives	Retirement benefits	Other benefits
	annual cash bonus	performance stock units performance stock options incentive stock options restricted stock units	pension plans other retirement benefits	savings plan perquisites medical, dental and insurance

Base salary

Our base salaries offer fixed compensation for performing day-to-day responsibilities, while balancing the individual's role and competency, market conditions and attraction and retention issues.

Short-term incentive

The short-term incentive plan is an annual bonus plan, paid out in cash. It's designed to motivate management to achieve corporate, business and individual objectives tied to executing our business strategy and to reward them according to their achievement for the year.

Each executive's target award and payout range reflect the level of responsibility associated with the role, as well as competitive practice, and are calculated as a percentage of base salary.

The award is paid out based on performance against a combination of corporate, business unit and individual goals. Corporate goals are given the most weight.

	Target award (as a % of base salary)	Payout range		Performance measures
				Corporate	Business unit	Individual
Patrick D. Daniel	90%	0	180%	80%		20%
J. Richard Bird	50%	0	100%	70%	15%	15%
Stephen J. Wuori	50%	0	100%	70%	15%	15%
Stephen J.J. Letwin	50%	0	100%	70%	15%	15%
Al Monaco ¹	50%	0	100%	70%	15%	15%
David T. Robottom	50%	0	100%	70%	15%	15%

The weighting for Mr. Monaco's performance from January 1, 2010 to September 30, 2010 was 40/50/10 (corporate/business unit/ individual). The table above shows the weighting for the remainder of the year.

We calculate the actual awards using a performance multiplier that ranges from 0 to 2, depending on whether the combination of goals has been met.

Using discretion

The President & Chief Executive Officer can adjust the calculated short-term incentive award for his direct reports up or down when he feels it is appropriate, to reflect extraordinary events and other things not contemplated in the original measures or targets. The HRC Committee must approve the Chief Executive Officer's decisions.

The HRC Committee can adjust the calculated short-term incentive award for the President & Chief Executive Officer up or down at its discretion. It can also change or waive the eligibility criteria, performance measures and the target and maximum award levels when it believes it is reasonable to do so, considering things like key performance indicators and the business environment in which the performance was achieved.

Longer-term incentives

Our longer-term incentives include three plans: performance stock unit plan, performance stock option plan and incentive stock option plan. These plans motivate executives to deliver strong performance and reward them for achieving earnings targets, maintaining top quartile price-to-earnings (P/E) performance compared to our peers and appreciation in our share price over the longer term.

We also have a restricted stock unit plan that has no performance conditions and is designed as a retention tool for middle management. We have never granted these restricted stock units to executives.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

The three plans all have different terms, vesting conditions and performance criteria. This mitigates the risks associated with our compensation plans by ensuring our executives are not incented to produce only short-term results for individual profit. This approach benefits shareholders and maximizes the value of the longer-term incentives granted to executives.

Performance Conditions	Two performance conditions, weighted 50% each: EPS relative to a target set at the start of the term; and P/E performance relative to peers.	Share price targets that must be met within a defined time period.	n/a

The table below shows the target amount that we grant in longer-term incentives and the amount that each plan contributes to that total, in each case as a percentage of base salary.

	Target longer-term incentive grant (as % of base salary)	Amount each plan contributes to total target grant (as % of base salary)
		Performance stock units	Performance stock options	Incentive stock options
President & Chief Executive Officer	330%	115%	100%	115%
Other named executives	200%	70%	60%	70%

Longer term incentive grants are determined as follows:

Performance stock units

Performance stock units give our executives the opportunity to earn up to two times the value of their units when they mature by achieving certain performance conditions. We typically grant performance stock units annually, at the beginning of the year.

We currently use two performance measures, each weighted at 50%:

Earnings per share: We use this measure to motivate our executives to achieve earnings that meet or exceed the average industry growth rate forecasted over a comparable time period.

Price-to-earnings ratio: We use this measure because it is a strong reflection of how shareholders view our stock and our growth potential relative to our peers. We compare ourselves against the following group of companies, chosen because they are all capital market competitors, have a similar risk profile and operate in a comparable sector.

P/E ratio comparator

Ameren Corp.	OGE Energy Corp.

Centerpoint Energy Inc.	PG&E Corp.
Emera Inc.	Sempra Energy
Fortis Inc.	Spectra Energy Corp.
National Fuels Gas Corp.	TransAlta Corp.
Nisource Inc.	TransCanada Corporation

We calculate the payout at the end of the three year term using a performance multiplier that ranges from 0 to 2, depending on whether the performance conditions are met. The final share price at the end of the term is the weighted average trading price of an Enbridge share on the TSX or NYSE for the last 20 days before the end of the term.

Performance stock options

Performance stock options give executives the opportunity to buy Enbridge shares at the exercise price specified at the time of the grant, as long as share price targets are met by a certain date. We set the targets before we grant the performance stock options, basing them on our strategic plan and historical P/E ratio information for the industry.

In 2007, we granted performance stock options to the executive officers at the time. Later in 2008, performance stock options were granted to Mr. Monaco when he was appointed to the executive team.

Grant date	Number of stock options granted	Exercise price	Share price targets	Must be exercised by
August 15, 2007	2,345,000	$36.57 per share	$50 and $55 by February 2014	August 15, 2015
February 19,	250,000	$40.42 per share	$50 and $55 by	August 15, 2015

2008

February 2014

As of December 31, 2010, both share price targets have been met, therefore 60% of the 2007 grant is exercisable and 40% of the 2008 grant is exercisable.

Incentive stock options

An incentive stock option gives a participant the option to buy one Enbridge share at some point in the future at the exercise price defined at the time of grant.

We typically grant incentive stock options in February of each year to both Canadian and US members of senior management who are eligible to participate in the incentive stock option plan. Options granted to US employees can either be qualified or non-qualified, as defined by the US Internal Revenue Code.

Stock options vest in equal installments over a four-year period. The maximum term of a stock option is 10 years, but the term can be reduced if the executive leaves the company. See page 66 for details.

48 ENBRIDGE INC.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

The exercise price of a stock option is the weighted average trading price of an Enbridge share on the TSX or NYSE for the last five trading days before the grant date. If the grant date is during a trading blackout period, we will adjust the grant date to no earlier than the sixth trading day after the trading blackout period ends. We do not backdate stock options.

We may grant incentive stock options to executives when they join the company, and would normally grant them on the executive's date of hire. If the hire date falls within a blackout period, the grant is delayed until after the end of the blackout period.

Stock options granted and outstanding

As of March 2, 2011

Stock options outstanding
stock option plans	12,369,009
legacy incentive stock option plan (2002)	5,071,302
all stock option plans	4.51% of total issued and outstanding shares

Transferring and assigning stock options

The holder of an option cannot transfer or assign it other than by will, or as allowed by the laws of descent and distribution.

Receiving cash instead of Enbridge shares

When a participant prefers to receive cash instead of Enbridge shares, he or she exercises their options and chooses to receive Enbridge shares with a fair market value equal to the "in-the-money" value of the option at the time it is exercised. The Enbridge shares are then sold to provide the cash to the participant and we reduce the total number of Enbridge shares issued under the stock option plans (not the number of underlying Enbridge shares reserved for issue).

Making changes to the stock option plans

The Board can make changes to the stock option plans, in whole or in part, as long as the regulators approve the changes; however shareholders must also approve the following changes:

- changing the number of Enbridge shares that can be issued under the stock option plans;
- reducing the grant price of an option;
- cancelling or reissuing an option at a lower grant price;
- extending the term of an option longer than 10 years;
- allowing someone who isn't a full time employee to participate in the stock option plans;
- changing the rules related to transferring or assigning options; and
- changing the amendment provisions of the stock option plans.

Adjustments

The Board or the HRC Committee may make the following adjustments to the options or to the Enbridge shares that can be issued under the stock option plans upon the occurrence of certain events, including the payment of a stock dividend or a restructuring of our share capital:

increase or decrease the number or change the kind of shares reserved under the stock option plans or that can be issued when outstanding options are exercised;

increase or decrease the option price per share; and make changes to how installments of options vest and can be exercised.

The Board can also adjust the number of shares available under the stock option plans, the option price per share and the option period, to allow our shareholder rights plan to continue to operate.

Please see page 65 for further information regarding our stock option plans, such as stock option plan restrictions and termination provisions.

Retirement benefits

As of January 1, 2000, or the time of hire if after that date, the named executives joined the senior management pension plan, which is a non-contributory defined benefit plan that pays out an enhanced retirement income to all senior management employees. Before becoming members of this plan, certain of the named executives participated in a non-contributory defined benefit or defined contribution pension plan.

Defined benefit plan

The graphic below shows how we calculate the retirement benefit payable under the defined benefit pension plan applicable to the named executives:

Some key terms of the defined benefit plan

Retirement age: Executives can retire with an unreduced pension at age 60, or as early as age 55 if they have 30 years of service. If they have less than 30 years of service, they can still retire as early as age 55, but their retirement benefit is reduced by 3% per year before age 60;

Adjustment for inflation: Retirement benefits are indexed at 50% of the annual increase in the consumer price index;

Survivor benefits: The pension is payable for the life of the member, with 60% continuing to the spouse if the member dies; and Flexibility: To attract and retain executives we can negotiate additional years of credited service or higher pension accruals, subject to approval by the HRC Committee.

Defined contribution plan

The defined contribution pension plan is a non-contributory pension plan. The level of contribution varies, depending on age and years of service.

Other retirement benefits

We prorate our executives' short-term incentive awards for the period of active employment in their last year;

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

We prorate their unvested performance stock units for the period of active employment during the term of the grant. The units continue to mature according to the terms of the plan;

We prorate their performance stock options for the period of active employment. They can exercise options up to three years after retirement (or up to the date the option expires, whichever is earlier) as long as the performance criteria are met; and

Their unvested stock options continue to vest according to the terms of our stock option plans. They can exercise options up to three years after retirement, or up to the date the option expires (whichever is earlier).

Other benefits

Our savings plan, perquisites and benefits plans are key elements of our total compensation package for our named executives.

Our savings plan encourages share ownership by matching employee contributions of up to 2.5% of base salary (5% in the US) toward the purchase of Enbridge shares. The named executives participate in this plan along with all other employees.

Perquisites

The named executives receive an annual perquisite allowance to offset expenses related to their position. This includes the cost of owning and operating a vehicle, parking and recreational clubs. These allowance levels are reviewed regularly for competitiveness. The named executives are also reimbursed for a portion of costs for personal financial planning.

Medical, dental and insurance benefits

Medical, dental and insurance benefits are available to meet the specific needs of individuals and their families. The named executives participate in the same plan as all other employees. The plans are structured to provide minimum basic coverage with the option of enhanced coverage at a level that is competitive and affordable.

The HRC Committee reviews our retirement and other benefits regularly. These benefits are a key element of a total compensation package and are designed to be competitive and reasonably meet the needs of executives in their current roles and when they retire from Enbridge.

2010 pay decisionsBase salary

On April 1, 2010, Messrs Daniel, Bird, Wuori and Letwin received modest base salary increases to maintain competitiveness. Mr. Monaco received an 11.1% increase to align his base salary level to a competitive position following his appointment to the executive team three years ago. Similarly, Mr. Robottom received an increase of 7.7% to reflect the increased scope of his responsibilities at the executive vice president level following the retirement of another executive team member at the end of 2009.

Short-term incentive

Our short-term incentive is awarded based on performance against a combination of corporate, business unit and individual objectives. Corporate objectives are given the most weight for the named executives.

Corporate performance

Our 2010 corporate performance was measured by ROE. This metric reflects our overall success in bringing new investments into service and managing existing assets to generate earnings. Strong earnings make it possible to achieve steady growth and deliver value to shareholders. The ROE metric represents a significant component of our named executives' short-term incentive award.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

Our 2010 ROE target was 12.65%, as approved by the Board at the start of the year. Actual performance was 12.82% based on adjusted earnings. Adjustments are made to ensure the result is a fair reflection of performance. Approximately $19.5 million of net gains/earnings were adjusted out of the calculation, including mark-to-market gains, gains and losses from asset dispositions and the impact of the Marshall and Romeoville incidents (because these events are considered unusual).

In addition to strong financial results, 2010 performance was extremely positive on a number of fronts. We:

brought $6.5 billion in projects into service, including on-schedule delivery of Alberta Clipper and Southern Lights;

secured new projects, including the Wood Buffalo Pipeline, Norealis and significant Green Energy initiatives; acquired the US$682 million Elk City gathering and processing system; issued $3.2 billion of debt for Enbridge on very favourable terms and secured a new equity issuance for Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P.; and continued to deliver strong performance in our Gas Distribution business under challenging economic conditions, adding 32,000 customers to our base of approximately two million customers.

The HRC Committee also considered our performance compared to other companies in our performance stock unit peer group and companies in the TSX and TSX Composite indices, as measured by dividend per share growth, total shareholder return and reward to risk over the past one, three, five and 10 year periods. Enbridge's 2010 performance on all of the key performance indicators was very strong, featuring:

13% EPS growth;

15% dividend per share growth (the highest in our peer group); a reward to risk ratio at the 80th percentile of the industry; and competitive total shareholder return in all periods (one year: 51st percentile; three year: 93rd percentile; five year: 75th percentile; and 10 year: 89th percentile).

The HRC Committee concluded that Enbridge achieved very good performance, reflected in a corporate performance multiplier of 1.5 out of 2.0. This multiplier was applied to employees across Enbridge, except the named executives and employees in the Liquids Pipelines business unit. For these employees, a corporate performance multiplier of 1.13 was used to reflect the significant impact the Marshall incident had on the communities affected.

Business unit performance

Business unit performance is assessed relative to a scorecard of metrics and targets established by each business leader and their senior management teams at the start of the year. The following is an overview of the type of metrics and overall performance multiplier used for each named executive this year:

Business Unit	Metrics	Performance Multiplier (0-2)

Individual performance

The HRC Committee established the President & Chief Executive Officer's individual 2010 objectives at the start of the year, taking into consideration our financial and strategic priorities. The President & Chief Executive Officer established individual objectives for the other executives for 2010 at the start of the year, basing them on strategic and operational priorities related to their portfolios, development of succession candidates, employee engagement, leadership and community involvement.

You'll find a discussion of each named executive's individual and business unit performances starting on page 55.

Overall performance

The table below shows how we calculated each named executive's overall performance multiplier in 2010.

	A Corporate performance		B Business unit performance			C Individual performance			Overall performance multiplier ¹

² Mr. Monaco's 2010 award is pro-rated based on different weights and performance for nine months as Executive Vice President, Major Projects and three months as President, Gas Pipelines, Green Energy & International.

We used the overall performance multiplier to calculate each named executive's short-term incentive as follows:

	Base salary ($)	× Target	× Overall performance multiplier	=	Calculated short-term incentive award ($)	Actual short-term incentive award (rounded) ($)
Patrick D. Daniel	1,242,000	90%		1.15	1,285,470	1,290,000

1 Mr. Letwin's final award was pro-rated to reflect his retirement on November 1, 2010.

2 Mr. Letwin's actual payout was US$252,000 and was converted from US$ to $CA using an average exchange rate of US$1 = CA$1.0307.

Longer-term incentives

Our longer term incentives are granted early in the year. They are usually targeted to the 50th percentile of our peer group, with the opportunity to realize this value to a greater or lesser degree based on how Enbridge performs in the future.

When the Board was considering longer term compensation in early 2010, the company had achieved 25% EPS growth, was continuing to successfully execute on the largest capital program in the company's history and had set the foundation for double-digit growth for the next decade in an industry that typically delivers single-digit growth. Based on these achievements, the Board decided to increase the performance stock unit awards above the standard formula and deliver total top quartile direct compensation to the named executives.

The Board chose to incent our executives using performance stock units because they include performance criteria and a three year performance period.

The table below shows the performance stock units granted to the named executives in early 2010.

Base salary

On April 1, 2010, Mr. Daniel's base salary was increased by 3.5%, consistent with overall market increases for executives.

Short-term incentive

Mr. Daniel's short term incentive award is based mostly on company performance (80%), measured in 2010 by ROE. Corporate ROE performance this year was 1.13 out of 2.0 (see page 51).

Individual performance accounts for the remaining 20% of Mr. Daniel's short-term incentive award calculation.

Under his leadership:

adjusted earnings were $984 million (or $2.66 per share), representing a 15% increase over 2009;

EPS growth was 13% and total shareholder return was 20%. On December 31, 2010, our share price closed at $56.27; and several projects were successfully completed in 2010 (including Alberta Clipper and Southern Lights, both ahead of schedule) and several new projects were secured in the Liquids Pipelines and Gas Pipelines businesses, demonstrating our strong project execution capability and robust roster of new projects that will continue to provide a solid foundation for future earnings and growth.

From an operations perspective, many achievements across the businesses were overshadowed by the incident in Marshall. However, in responding to this incident, Mr. Daniel demonstrated strong leadership to our employees, our shareholders and the affected communities. Mr. Daniel also continues to champion our commitment to corporate social responsibility through the expanding role of our Green Energy business, the energy4everyone foundation and our target of achieving a neutral footprint by 2015.

In late 2010, Mr. Daniel also implemented a re-organization which provided development opportunities for several named executives and senior leaders. This will contribute to our executive succession plans and enhance our overall senior management capability.

Edgar Filing: ENBRIDGE INC - Form 6-K

The Board acknowledged Mr. Daniel's strong individual performance in 2010, but his individual performance multiplier was reduced to 1.25 out of 2.0 to acknowledge the impact of the Marshall incident. Mr. Daniel's combined 2010 short-term incentive award was $1,290,000.

Longer-term incentives

Mr. Daniel was awarded 142,000 incentive stock options and 66,000 performance stock units in early 2010. The performance stock unit grant included a discretionary top-up of performance stock units so that his total direct compensation was positioned in the top quartile of the market. The top-up was intended to reward outstanding company performance in recent years, as demonstrated by sustained top quartile EPS growth and total shareholder return on the TSX60 and the TSX Composite indices. The additional performance stock units were granted before the Marshall incident.

Base salary

On April 1, 2010, Mr. Bird's base salary was increased by 3.7% to maintain competitiveness with our peers.

Short-term incentive

Mr. Bird's short term incentive is based mostly on company performance (70%), measured in 2010 by ROE. Corporate performance on this measure was determined to be 1.13 out of 2.0 (see page 51).

In 2010, we introduced two business unit performance metrics for corporate employees: cost containment and combined non-financial business unit performance. These measures are weighted equally and are intended to reinforce accountability for managing controllable costs and for aligning corporate employees with the performance and operations of the business units. Business unit performance in 2010 was 1.64 out of 2.0, accounting for 15% of Mr. Bird's 2010 short term incentive award.

The remaining 15% is based on an individual performance multiplier of 1.7 out of 2.0.

In 2010, Mr. Bird:

successfully issued $3.2 billion of enterprise-wide term debt and $350 million of equity for Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. These transactions and others helped Enbridge manage its liquidity, equity and debt under very attractive terms;

restructured interests in Gaz Métro inc., Enbridge Gas New Brunswick and the Enbridge Income Fund to optimize the effectiveness of these vehicles for future growth and expansion; secured the Greenwich wind project and Neal Hot Springs geothermal project; and provided financial oversight on numerous transactions and projects including the Atlas Elk City acquisition, the Husky Sunrise agreement negotiation and the Suncor Wood Buffalo pipeline project.

Mr. Bird's combined 2010 short-term incentive award was $362,000.

Longer-term incentives

Mr. Bird was awarded 40,000 incentive stock options and 24,500 performance stock units in early 2010. The performance stock unit grant included a discretionary top-up of performance stock units so that his total direct compensation was positioned at the top quartile of the market. Base salary

On April 1, 2010, Mr. Wuori's base salary was increased by 3.2% to maintain competitiveness with our peers.

Short-term incentive

Mr. Wuori's short term incentive is based mostly on company performance (70%), measured in 2010 by adjusted ROE. Corporate performance on this measure was determined to be 1.13 out of 2.0 (see page 51).

The performance of the Liquids Pipelines business unit accounts for 15% of Mr. Wuori's short-term incentive award calculation. Financial performance, measured by earnings relative to the approved 2010 budget, was above target for this business unit, as was employee satisfaction and development (measured by turnover and development indicators). The oil spill in Marshall, Michigan affected the environment, system integrity and customer performance measures for this business unit.

The overall business unit multiplier for Liquids Pipelines was 1.3 out of 2.0

The remaining 15% of Mr. Wuori's short term incentive award is based on an individual performance multiplier of 1.25 out of 2.0.

In 2010, Mr. Wuori:

negotiated the incentive tolling agreement on attractive terms and advanced the goal of achieving a 10 year competitive toll settlement;

successfully negotiated long-term commercial pipeline and facility agreements for key expansion projects, including the Wood Buffalo (Suncor), Norealis (Sunrise), Waupisoo and Athabasca Pipeline expansions. The regulatory application for Northern Gateway was also filed in 2010;

achieved zero fatalities and zero major injuries and continued to reinforce a strong safety culture in the Liquids Pipelines business unit; and provided leadership in the response to the political, legal, public relations, community, operational and customer impacts of the Marshall and Romeoville incidents.

The President & Chief Executive Officer acknowledged Mr. Wuori's strong individual performance in 2010, but his individual performance multiplier was reduced to 1.25 out of 2.0 to acknowledge the impact of the Marshall incident. Mr. Wuori's combined 2010 short-term incentive award was $343,000.

In 2010 (until his retirement on November 1st), Mr. Letwin was responsible for the Gas Transportation (now called Gas Pipelines), Gas Distribution and International business units, along with selected investments. Overall business unit performance, which accounted for 15% of Mr. Letwin's short-term incentive award, was based on earnings relative to the approved 2010 budget. Actual earnings performance was on target, resulting in a business unit multiplier of 1.0 out of 2.0 for Mr. Letwin.

Base salary

Mr. Monaco was appointed to the executive team on January 8, 2008. Since that time, Mr. Monaco has received higher than average base salary increases to align his pay to the median of the market for his role. On April 1, 2010, Mr. Monaco's base salary was increased 11.1% to $500,000.

Short-term incentive

Until September 30, 2010, Mr. Monaco led the Major Projects business unit. The relative weighting of Mr. Monaco's corporate, business unit and individual performance was unique, with a higher business unit weighting because of the importance of successful execution of our capital program to the company's future. On October 1, 2010, Mr. Monaco was appointed to his current role. His 2010 short term incentive award takes into consideration performance in both roles on a pro-rata basis.

A portion of Mr. Monaco's short term incentive award in both roles is based on company performance, measured in 2010 by adjusted ROE. Corporate performance on this measure was determined to be 1.13 out of 2.0 (see page 51).

Key 2010 accomplishments include:

Major Projects

very favourable cost and schedule performance, particularly evidenced by the Alberta Clipper and Southern Lights projects;

very favourable safety performance (there were no material environmental non-compliances);

a number of successful business development initiatives supported by Major Projects;

the implementation of quality management plans to establish key checkpoints and performance expectations at stage gates throughout the construction process for each major project;

Gas Pipelines

strong financial and compliance indicators, offset by lower than targeted safety performance and an employee death at the Bryans Mill plant;

Green Energy

securing two new large wind projects ($800 million), along with two smaller solar projects, the Sarnia Solar expansion and the completion of the Talbot wind projects; and the assessment of several international opportunities in 2010.

The combined business unit performance multiplier for Mr. Monaco was 1.52 out of 2.0 and his individual performance multiplier was 1.75 out of 2.0. Mr. Monaco's combined 2010 short-term incentive was $344,000.

Longer-term incentives

Mr. Monaco was awarded 40,000 incentive stock options and 24,500 performance stock units in early 2010. The performance stock unit grant included a discretionary top-up of performance stock units so that his total direct compensation was positioned at the top quartile of the market. The top-up was intended to reward outstanding company performance in recent years, as demonstrated by sustained top quartile EPS growth and total shareholder return on the TSX60 and the TSX Composite indices. The additional performance stock units were granted before the Marshall incident.
