Salem Communications Announces 5% Growth In 2005 Same Station National Block Programming Renewals

CAMARILLO, Calif., Feb. 25 -- Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq: SALM), the leading radio broadcaster focused on Christian and family themes programming, today announced the results of its 2005 national block programming rate negotiations, which are carried out annually at the start of each year. For 2005, Salem expects same station national block programming revenues to increase approximately 5% over 2004. In addition, consistent with historic patterns, in excess of 90% of Salem's national block programming business was successfully renewed.

Edward G. Atsinger, III, Salem's Chief Executive Officer, commented, "The combination of our national platform of Christian Teaching and Talk stations and our focused programming strategy provide our block programming partners with national reach and a desirable audience. We believe our ability to renew over 90% of our contracts underscores the value we provide our block programming partners. Overall, our block programming business represents a reliable stream of revenues and cash flow, which grow steadily and consistently."
