* Under Rule 13d-3, a beneficial owner of a security includes any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship, or otherwise has or shares: (i) voting power, which includes the power to vote, or to direct the voting of shares; and (ii) investment power, which includes the power to dispose or direct the disposition of shares. Certain shares may be deemed to be beneficially owned by more than one person (if, for example, persons share the power to vote or the power to dispose of the shares). In addition, shares are deemed to be beneficially owned by a person if the person has the right to acquire the shares (for example, upon exercise of an option) within 60 days of the date as of which the information is provided. In computing the percentage ownership of any person, the amount of shares outstanding is deemed to include the amount of shares beneficially owned by such person (and only such person) by reason of these acquisition rights. As a result, the percentage of outstanding shares of any person as shown in this table does not necessarily reflect the person's actual ownership or voting power with respect to the number of shares of common stock actually outstanding on the date of this Schedule 13D Statement. - (2) The above information does not include 30,000 shares of the Issuer's common stock beneficially owned by Mr. Graber's wife, to which Mr. Graber may be deemed to hold indirectly. The filing of this statement shall not be construed as an admission that the Reporting Person is, for the purposes of sections 13(d) or 13(g) of the Act, the beneficial owner of any securities held by the Reporting Person's spouse.

(b) Power to Vote and Dispose of the Issuer Shares:

Mr. Graber has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the securities of the Issuer held in his name and with respect to the securities of the Issuer beneficially owned by X-L Investments and Four Star Investments.
