Note 1. Basis of Presentation and Nature of Operations

Basis of Presentation: The interim Consolidated Financial Statements of Capsalus Corp. (Capsalus, the Company, we, us or our) are unaudited but, in the opinion of management, reflect all adjustments necessary for a fair statement of financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented. Except as otherwise disclosed herein, these adjustments consist of normal, recurring items. The results of operations for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of full year results. The Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes are presented in accordance with the requirements for Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and do not contain certain information included in our annual Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes.

The preparation of the interim Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the interim Consolidated Financial Statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses for the reporting periods. Despite our intention to establish accurate estimates and use reasonable assumptions, actual results may differ from our estimates.

The December 31, 2010 Consolidated Balance Sheet data was derived from the audited Consolidated Financial Statements but does not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. This Form 10-Q should be read in conjunction with our Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Nature of Operations: Capsalus is a global wellness solutions company with operations in Nutritional Products and Healthcare Services. The Nutritional Products division is a consumer-driven business unit focused on healthy food and beverages. Healthcare Services specializes in providing a scalable suite of in-home non-medical and medical staffing and services, including light housekeeping and transportation, nurse and doctor visits, occupational and physical therapy and other clinical services. Neither our Nutritional Products nor our Healthcare Services divisions have generated revenues as of the date of this report.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation: The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, as of the dates of their acquisitions. The wholly-owned subsidiaries include ongoing operations in White Hat Holdings, Inc. (White Hat) and Guava Senior Home & Healthcare Services, Inc. (Guava), and our discontinued operations in Ceres Organic Harvest, Inc. (Ceres), Pacific Rim Foods, Ltd. (Pacific Rim), and Modular Process Constructors, LLC (MPS). All inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated in the consolidation.

Property and Equipment: Property and equipment is reported at cost less accumulated depreciation. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. The cost of property and equipment is depreciated over the following estimated useful lives of the related assets:

Computer Equipment 3 years

Segment Reporting: The Company operates and manages the business under one reporting segment.

Long-Lived and Amortizable Intangible Assets: The Company periodically evaluates the carrying value of long-lived and amortizable intangible assets to be held and used, including but not limited to, property and equipment and intangible assets, when events and circumstances warrant such a review. The carrying value of a long-lived or amortizable intangible asset is considered impaired when the anticipated undiscounted cash flow from such asset is less than its carrying value. In that event, a loss is recognized based on the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of the long-lived asset. Fair value is determined primarily using the anticipated cash flows discounted at a rate commensurate with the risk involved. Losses on long-lived assets to be disposed of are determined in a similar manner, except that fair values are reduced for the cost to dispose. The Company has reviewed long-lived and amortizable intangible assets with estimable useful lives and determined that the remaining net carrying value is recoverable in future periods.

Intangible Assets: Identified intangible assets (excluding goodwill), consisting primarily of developed formulations, customer relationships, licensed assets and trademarks, are being amortized using a method that reflects the pattern in which the related assets are expected to be consumed.

Investments: Investments in businesses that are not controlled, and over which we do not have the ability to exercise significant influence, are accounted for under the cost method.

Goodwill: Goodwill is the excess of cost of an acquired entity over the amounts assigned to assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination. Goodwill is not amortized. We evaluate the carrying value of goodwill for our reporting units annually during the quarter ending December 31, and between such annual evaluations if events occur or circumstances change that would indicate a possible impairment. We use a discounted cash flow model based on management's judgment and assumptions to determine the estimated fair value of a reporting unit. An impairment loss generally would be recognized when the carrying amount of a reporting unit's net assets exceeds the estimated fair value of the reporting unit.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments: The respective carrying value of certain on-balance sheet financial instruments approximates their fair values. These financial instruments include cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and notes payable. Fair values were assumed to approximate cost or carrying values as most of the debt was incurred recently and the assets were acquired within one year. Management is of the opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, credit or currency risks arising from these financial instruments.

Income Taxes: The Company provides for income taxes using an asset and liability approach. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect when these differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance if, based on the weight of the available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. For all periods presented, the Company has recorded a full valuation allowance against its deferred tax assets.

The Company recognizes a financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority.

Reclassifications: Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2010 financial statement presentation to correspond to the current year's format. Total 2010 equity, cash flows and net loss were unchanged due to these reclassifications.

Recent Accounting Developments: In May 2011, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) ASU No. 2011-04, "Amendments to Achieve Common Fair Value Measurement and Disclosure Requirements in U.S. GAAP and IFRSs". The amendments in this ASU are to be applied prospectively and are effective during interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2011. This ASU is not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements upon adoption.

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-05, "Presentation of Comprehensive Income". Under the amendments in this ASU, an entity has two options for presenting its total comprehensive income: to present total comprehensive income and its components along with the components of net income in a single continuous statement, or in two separate but consecutive statements. The amendments in this ASU are required to be applied retrospectively and are effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2011, with early adoption permitted. The Company intends to conform to the new presentation required in this ASU beginning with its Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2012. This ASU is not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements upon adoption.

Management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting standards if currently adopted would have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Note 3. Going Concern Uncertainty

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the basis that the Company will continue as a going concern, which assumes the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has accumulated losses totaling $32,475,779 from inception through June 30, 2011, and a net working capital deficit of $4,481,304 as of June 30, 2011. The uncertainty related to these conditions raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The accompanying consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Over the next 18 months, in order to have the capability of achieving our business plan, we believe that we will require at least $5,000,000 in additional funding to pay down certain payables and accruals and to provide working capital. Should we be unable to obtain additional funding in the next 3 months, we would be required to further cut expenses until such funding is obtained. We are currently attempting to raise these funds by means of one or more public or private offerings of debt or equity securities or both. However, at this point, we have not specifically identified the type or sources of this funding. We also are exploring commercial and joint venture financing opportunities. If we are unsuccessful in raising funds, we may have to reduce expenses and/or cease operations altogether.

Note 5. Product License and Asset Purchase

On August 11, 2009, the Company entered into an exclusive license and distribution agreement to acquire the formulations and worldwide marketing rights to a suite of products that promote joint and bone health in horses, dogs and humans. These formulas and related rights are being acquired from Platte Valley State Bank (Platte Valley), who currently owns all rights pertaining to these products. The products were previously developed, manufactured and distributed by Clark Biotechnology, Inc. (CBI). CBI discontinued operations in 2008 due to the death of its founder.

The agreement calls for minimum royalties totaling $350,000 to be paid as follows:

$30,000	September 11, 2010 (1)
$80,000	September 11, 2011 (2)
$80,000	September 11, 2012
$80,000	September 11, 2013
$80,000	September 11, 2014

(1)

The Company made this payment by the due date referenced above The Company paid $10,000 of this amount during the quarter ended March 31, 2011

The Company has imputed interest on these installments at a rate of 12%, which is equivalent to the Company's estimated borrowing rate as of the date of the agreement. The discounted value of the licensed asset totals $243,700 and has been included in intangible assets on our consolidated balance sheet and a corresponding liability included in current portion of long-term debt and long-term debt (refer to Note 10. Long-term debt) as of June 30, 2011.

The Company is treating these minimum royalty payments as a purchase of the related formulations and marketing rights as once these minimum royalty payments are made, the Company will have sole title to the formulations and marketing rights.

In addition, the Company is required to pay additional royalties of 4% of net sales of the products that exceed $2,000,000 in each year of the agreement. These royalties will be recorded as incurred. There were no sales of this product during the period from August 11, 2009 to June 30, 2011.

Note 6. Acquisition

On January 26, 2011, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Guava Senior Home & Healthcare Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and Guava Franchising, Inc. a Delaware corporation specializing in providing a scalable suite of in-home non-medical and medical staffing services (collectively referred to herein as "Guava"), pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement by and between the Company and Mary S. Schreiber, PhD. ("Schreiber"), the sole owner of Guava (the "Purchase Agreement"). In accordance with the Purchase Agreement, the Company issued to Schreiber 7,000,000 shares of restricted common stock valued at $0.03 per share, the trading value of the Company's common stock on January 26, 2011.

In addition, the Company executed an Earn-Out Agreement with Schreiber, providing for Schreiber to earn, over a period ending December 31, 2013, an additional 5,000,000 shares of common stock for each $5,000,000 of gross revenue achieved by Guava, up to an aggregate of an additional 20,000,000 shares of its common stock over such period of time. Issuance of additional shares of common stock is contingent on Schreiber's continuous employment with the Company through December 31, 2013.

The Company also entered into a three-year employment agreement with Schreiber, whereby she will be paid $180,000 annually plus annual cash performance bonuses in return for her continued employment during the term of the arrangement and her agreement not to compete in a similar business of the Company during the term of the arrangement and for a period of one year, thereafter. In accordance with the terms of the employment agreement, the Company cannot terminate Schreiber's employment for anything other than for cause.

Due to the nature and timing of this transaction, as of June 30, 2011, the Company has made a good-faith estimate as to the value of the consideration paid for Guava and the fair value of acquired assets, including identifiable intangibles, and recorded a preliminary purchase price allocation. The Company intends to finalize these estimates and the purchase price allocation prior to the end of fiscal 2011.

The preliminary allocation of the purchase price is based on the best information available to management. This allocation is provisional, as the Company is required to recognize additional assets or liabilities if new information is obtained about facts and circumstances that existed as of January 26, 2011 that, if known, would have resulted in the recognition of those assets or liabilities as of that date. The Company may adjust the preliminary purchase price allocation after obtaining additional information regarding asset valuation, liabilities assumed and revisions of previous estimates. The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of the purchase price based on the estimated fair value of the acquired assets and assumed liabilities of Guava.

Issuance of 7,000,000 shares of common stock with an estimated fair value of $.03 per share (closingprice on January 26, 2011)$ 210,000

Total purchase consideration	$ 210,000
Identifiable intangible assets	$ 210,000
Total assets acquired	210,000
Total purchase consideration	$ 210,000

The acquired intangible assets have an estimated weighted average useful life of five years and will be amortized using a method that reflects the pattern in which the assets are expected to be consumed.

Note 7. Intangible Assets

Note 8. Investments

Investments at June 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010 consisted of the following:

	June 3	June 30, December
	2011		2010
PanTheryx, Inc.	$ 9	0,000 $	90,000
Wish Upon a Hero, LLC	50	0,000	500,000
Total investments	$ 59	0,000 $	590,000

PanTheryx

During fiscal 2009, the Company made an initial $25,000 investment in PanTheryx, Inc. PanTheryx is developing innovative US-originated products for introduction to the Indian healthcare market; ranging from new drug delivery systems, to immunotherapeutic agents, to field appropriate diagnostics. In 2010, the Company made an additional $65,000 investment in PanTheryx. Currently, the Company owns 5% of the outstanding common stock of PanTheryx.

Wish Upon A Hero

On October 20, 2010, the Company executed an irrevocable Subscription Agreement for the purchase of 200,000 Class B Preferred Units (the "Units") of Wish Upon A Hero, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("WISH"), for an aggregate consideration of $400,000. WISH is an online community that focuses on the distribution of goodwill and human kindness. WISH connects people in need (Wishers) with people who can help (Heroes). The Company currently owns 22% of WISH.

In connection with the purchase of the WISH Units, the Company granted Non-Qualified Stock Options to the President of WISH, to purchase up to 8,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $.05 per share. Options to acquire 2,000,000 shares vested immediately with an additional 3,000,000 options vesting if WISH accumulates gross revenues of $5,000,000 on or before October 20, 2012 and an additional 3,000,000 options vesting if WISH accumulates $10,000,000 in gross revenues on or before October 20, 2012. All vested options will expire on October 20, 2020.

The Company determined the fair value of the initial 2,000,000 options to be $100,000 using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The Company used the following assumptions in calculating the option's fair value; risk-free interest rate of 0.3%, expected dividend yield of 0%, expected volatility of 142% and expected term of 5 years. The fair value of these vested options increased the Company's investment in WISH with a corresponding increase to additional paid in capital. Should WISH reach the revenue targets for the remaining 6,000,000 options, the respective additional vested options will be recorded to the Company's investment in WISH and additional paid in capital at the options then calculated fair value using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Investments are accounted for under the cost method as the Company does not have the ability to exercise significant control or influence.

Zero Coupon Notes

In December 2008, the Company issued Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated notes payable with a maturity date of December 12, 2013 for proceeds of $3,035,000. No payments are required on the notes until maturity at which time the principal amount of $3,808,298 was due. Original interest discount (OID) accrues at a rate of 5% per year on the accreted value of the note. The holder may at any time during the term of the note convert the accreted value of the notes into shares of common stock of the Company. If either an event of default occurs under the note, as defined in the note agreement, or a change of control occurs with respect to the Company, the holder of the note may put the note to the Company at its accreted value.

The original conversion price of the Zero Coupon Convertible Subordinated notes ($0.125 per share) was established at, or above, the then current market price of the Company's common stock and therefore, no beneficial conversion feature discount has been recorded. The conversion price is subject to weighted-average anti-dilution adjustments in the event we issue common stock at a price below the then-applicable conversion price other than common stock issuances or option grants to the Company's employees, directors or officers.

The Company does not consider these anti-dilution features to be an embedded derivative and therefore subject to variable accounting due to the embedded instrument not meeting the net settlement characteristic as noted in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 815-10-15-83(c) and ASC 815-10-15-99. More specifically, to meet the net settlement characteristics, an embedded instrument must be able to be either (1) net settled under contract terms, (2) net settled through a market mechanism or (3) net settled by delivery of derivative instrument or asset readily convertible to cash. The Company believes the embedded instrument cannot be net settled via contract terms or a market mechanism and although settlement of the embedded instrument could be made with the delivery of the Company's common stock (i.e. an asset), due to the Company's stock being lightly traded as per ASC 815-10-15-130 and as illustrated at ASC 815-10-55-87, 88 and 89 (Cases B through D), to be considered "readily convertible to cash", the number of shares of stock to be exchanged must be small relative to the stock's daily transaction volume. Currently, the Company's daily transaction volume of their common stock is very low. However, moving forward, as required in ASC 815-10-15-139, the Company will continually evaluate whether or not the common stock is considered to be readily convertible to cash. In the event the Company's daily trading volume of their common stock were to increase significantly to the point where the shares to be exchanged in connection with the convertible notes would be relatively small in relation to the daily trading volume, the contract would then satisfy the net settlement characteristic and likely may need to be accounted for as a derivative.

Under current accounting guidance, if the terms of a contingent conversion option does not permit an issuer to compute the number of shares that the holder would receive if the contingent event occurs and the conversion price is adjusted, an issuer shall wait until the contingent event occurs and then compute the resulting number of shares that would be received pursuant to the new conversion price. The number of shares that would be received upon conversion based on the adjusted conversion price would then be compared with the number that would have been received before the occurrence of the contingent event. The excess number of shares multiplied by the commitment date stock price equals the incremental intrinsic value that results from the resolution of the contingency and the corresponding adjustment to the conversion price. That incremental amount shall be recognized when the triggering event occurs.

On April 14, 2010, the acquisition of WhiteHat Holdings, LLC qualified as a triggering event for the weighted-average anti-dilution adjustments. The Company evaluated the event based upon the note agreement and determined that the conversion price of the notes should be adjusted down to $0.076 per share. Since this new conversion price is lower than the original conversion price, the Company recognized and recorded a beneficial conversion feature discount, in the form of a debt discount, in the amount of $1,812,180. The discount recorded is being amortized to interest expense over the remaining life of the notes using the effective interest method. Amortization of $90,239 and $176,691 was recorded for three and six month periods ended June 30, 2011, respectively.

On July 8, 2010, approximately $1.1 million of the Company's zero-coupon convertible notes payable were converted to 17,550,610 million shares of the Company's common stock at $0.06 per share. The notes converted had a revised conversion rate of $0.076 per share. Since the actual conversion rate was lower, the Company recognized and recorded an additional beneficial conversion feature charge in its consolidated statement of operations of approximately $280,000 during the quarter ending September 30, 2010. In addition, the conversion resulted in the recognition of the previously recorded debt discount that related to the converted notes. This resulted in a charge to interest expense of $571,105 for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Convertible Notes Payable

During the quarter ended June 30, 2010, the Company entered into a financing agreement with an individual lender. Proceeds from the notes were $100,000 on April 1, 2010 and $300,000 on June 2, 2010. The notes are unsecured and are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at $0.02 per share at any time during the term of the notes. As the conversion price of the notes was below the then current market price of the Company's common stock, a beneficial conversion feature discount was recorded, in the form of a debt discount, in the amount of $100,000 and $300,000, respectively. The discount recorded is being amortized to interest expense over the life of the notes. Amortization of $50,000 and $100,000 was recorded for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2011, respectively.

Future minimum payments on long-term debt at June 30, 2011 are as follows:

Years ending

Remaining 2011 $	70,000
2012	480,000

Note 11. Basic and Diluted Earnings (Loss) Per Share

The Company computes earnings (loss) per share under two different methods, basic and diluted, and presents per share data for all periods in which statements of operations are presented. Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding. The table below shows the calculation of basic and diluted loss per share for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively:

As of June 30, 2011, the Company had (i) 200,000 shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding warrants, (ii) 109,882,161 shares of common stock issuable under convertible financing arrangements, (iii) 31,928,787 shares of common stock issuable as contingent consideration and (iv) 2,000,000 shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding options. As of June 30, 2010, the Company had (i) 1,240,000 shares of common stock issuable under convertible preferred stock arrangements, (ii) 200,000 shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding warrants and (iii) 55,792,905 shares of common stock issuable under convertible financing arrangements. These 144,010,948 and 57,232,905 shares as of June 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, which would be reduced by applying the treasury stock method, were excluded from diluted weighted average outstanding shares amount for computing the net loss per common share, because the net effect would be antidilutive for each of the periods presented.

As a result, the Company was committed to issue 33,691,592 additional shares of its common stock (Additional Shares) to former WhiteHat shareholders. #### Litigation Matters

The Company periodically is subject to claims and lawsuits that arise in the ordinary course of business. It is the opinion of management that the disposition or ultimate resolution of such claims and lawsuits will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Company.

Note 14. Income Taxes

Realization of our net operating loss carryforwards and other deferred tax temporary differences are contingent upon future taxable earnings. Our net deferred tax assets have been reduced fully by a valuation allowance, as realization is not considered to be more likely than not based on an assessment of the history of losses and the likelihood of sufficient future taxable income.

We are subject to income taxes in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state jurisdictions. As of June 30, 2011, we are no longer subject to U.S. federal tax examinations for tax years before 2007. We are subject to state tax audits until the applicable statutes of limitations expire.

We recognize interest and penalties accrued on any unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. As of June 30, 2011, there were no such items accrued and we had no unrecognized tax benefits. We do not expect any material changes in our unrecognized tax positions over the next 12 months.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES:

The preparation of the financial information contained in this 10-Q requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. We evaluate these estimates on an ongoing basis, including those related to allowances for doubtful accounts and returns, inventory valuation, the carrying value and any impairment of goodwill and intangible assets, and income taxes. #### RECENT ACCOUNTING DEVELOPMENTS

See Note 2 to the accompanying interim consolidated financial statements for a summary of recent accounting developments.

Plan of Operation

Overview

WhiteHat Holdings, LLC (WhiteHat) was acquired on April 14, 2010. In combining with WhiteHat, the Company is creating a new, consumer-driven business unit, the Nutritional Products Division, focused on healthy food and beverages. WhiteHat is committed to promoting the health and wellness of children by providing healthy and nutritious products and related services to support healthy eating habits and regular physical activity, especially during the pre-teen years. WhiteHat produces a variety of great-tasting, fortified juice beverages for kids under the brand Dog On It! TM that are made with all-natural ingredients and loaded with calcium and vitamins A, B, C, D & E – without adding excess sugar or high fructose corn syrup. WhiteHat is headquartered in Atlanta, GA.

Acquired in January 2011, Guava Senior Home & Healthcare Services, Inc. (Guava) is a wholly-owned division that specializes in providing a scalable suite of in-home non-medical and medical staffing and services, including light housekeeping and transportation, nurse and doctor visits, occupational and physical therapy and other clinical services. Care is not limited to seniors; it is available to clients ranging from pediatric to geriatric including new mothers, persons with disabilities and patients following same-day surgery.

Guava is unique in various ways. We provide the broadest range of in-home non-medical and medical staffing services to individual clients, corporations and medical institutions. No previous medical or care giving experience is necessary to buy a healthcare franchise, and the Guava opportunity gives you the ready-made framework within which to build a successful business.

Today Capsalus and its two Operating Groups—Nutritional Products and Healthcare Services—offer a broad range of solutions to global health problems. Currently, neither Nutritional Products nor Healthcare Services has generated any revenues or has acquired significant assets. As such, the Company operates and manages the business under one reporting segment.

WhiteHat is focused on the functional powdered beverages market. Until now, powdered beverages have accounted for only a very small percentage of overall beverage consumption in the US. However, demand in this segment of the market is rising, driven by packaging innovation, which has seen powdered beverage mixes, historically sold in tubs or canisters, being made available in single-shot sleeves or sticks, to take advantage of the growth in popularity of bottled water.

WhiteHat has identified significant opportunity in two largely untapped segments of the powdered beverage market. White Hat has developed a low-cost, innovative alternative in the pre-natal vitamins market, which is currently only being serviced in pill format. White Hat believes its lower cost and more desirable product format will remove major obstacles to the development of this niche market. White Hat plans to soft launch its new line of pre-natal powdered beverage mixes as a branded product when adequate funding is in place, initially via online channeling and through large retailers.

WhiteHat plans to tap the private label market for its more mainstream electrolyte powdered beverage mixes, offering a lower cost approach to penetrate the market than a branded product. White Hat is exploring private label opportunities for its product line with several large retail companies. The Company is also targeting to license its formulated powdered mixes among specialty sports-related enterprises.

We believe that we will require at least $1.5 million in funding in order for WhiteHat to affect this plan.

Guava is finalizing the development of a differentiated franchise model, built around a unique "back of the house" support for its franchisees, which takes care of all the administrative aspects. This will allow Guava the benefit of maintaining financial control and transparency across its entire franchise network. Guava will initially focus on three state markets, Delaware, Pennsylvania and Georgia, and ultimately intends to market franchises in all fifty States, as well as in the European Union.

We believe that we will require at least $2.0 million in funding in order for Guava to finalize its franchise model, and execute its initial franchise agreement.

We have not generated any operating revenues from our current ongoing businesses, and as of June 30, 2011 we had incurred a cumulative consolidated net loss from inception of $32,475,779.

For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2011, our consolidated net losses were $845,164 and $1,811,645, respectively. For the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2010 our consolidated net losses were $1,724,744 and $2,636,152, respectively. Our current liabilities as of June 30, 2011 exceeded current assets by $4,481,304.

Over the next 18 months, in order to have the capability of achieving our business plan, we believe that we will require at least $5,000,000 in additional funding to pay down certain payables and accruals and to provide working capital. Should we be unable to obtain additional funding in the next 3 months, we would be required to further cut expenses until such funding is obtained. We are currently attempting to raise these funds by means of one or more public or private offerings of debt or equity securities or both. However, at this point, we have not specifically identified the type or sources of this funding. We also are exploring commercial and joint venture financing opportunities. If we are unsuccessful in raising funds, we may have to reduce expenses and/or cease operations altogether.

Results of Operations

Three months ended June 30, 2011 compared to three months ended June 30, 2010

Operating expenses increased to $610,192 in the quarter ended June 30, 2011 from $350,249 in the same quarter in 2010. Operating expenses increased due to operating expenses, which included expenses to further develop Guava's franchise model, expenses to build the back office technology for use by future franchisees and salaries for staff, at Guava of $389,758, which was partially offset by decreased operating expenses of approximately $130,000 at WhiteHat due to a lack of funding available during the quarter.

Interest expense decreased to $230,830 in the quarter ended June 30, 2011 from $277,021 in the same quarter in 2010. Interest expense decreased due to the fact that approximately $1.1 million of the Company's long-term zero-coupon notes payable were converted to shares of the Company's common stock during the quarter ended September 30, 2010. This resulted in a lower principal balance for future quarters, thus resulting in lower interest expense. This decrease was partially offset by interest on additional notes payable and increased accretion of debt discounts on debt that remains recorded on the Company's balance sheet.

Six months ended June 30, 2011 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2010

Operating expenses increased to $1,348,087 in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from $860,396 in the same period in 2010. Operating expenses increased due operating expenses, which included expenses to further develop Guava's franchise model, expenses to build the back office technology for use by future franchisees and salaries for staff, at Guava of $538,640 in the six months ended June 30, 2011.

Interest expense increased to $460,043 in the six months ended June 30, 2011 from $355,495 in the same period in 2010 due to additional notes payable and increased accretion of debt discounts.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We had a cash balance of $28,274 as of June 30, 2011 and a cash balance of $36,662 as of December 31, 2010.

Intangible assets increased to $1,953,700 as of June 30, 2011 compared to $1,743,700 at December 31, 2010. The increase was due to the recording of intangible assets related to the acquisition of Guava during the six month period ended June 30, 2011.

Total assets at June 30, 2011 are $4,637,924 compared to $4,528,746 at December 31, 2010. This increase can be primarily attributed to assets recorded related to the acquisition of Guava during the six month period ended June 30, 2011.

As of June 30, 2011, we have current liabilities totaling $4,542,849 compared to $3,363,479 at December 31, 2010. Changes are due to normal operations, to accrual increases for both interest payable and payroll payable, certain long-term debt obligations becoming due with one year and to new borrowings under short-term notes payable.

Long term debt as of June 30, 2011 is $1,518,838 compared to $1,452,690 at December 31, 2010. The increase can be attributed to the amortization of a beneficial conversion feature originally recorded during the quarter ended June 30, 2010 partially offset by certain long-term debt obligations becoming due with one year and thus being reported as a current liability.

Operating Activities

Net cash used in operations increased to $634,559 during the six months ended June 30, 2011 from $397,682 during the six months ended June 30, 2010. The increase in cash used in operations is due mainly to the use of cash for operations of Guava, which was acquired in 2011.

Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities increased to $200,000 during the six months ended June 30, 2011 from $95,357 during the six months June 30, 2010. In 2011, we invested $200,000 in WISH. In 2010, the use of cash was mainly attributable to the use of $103,500 for the acquisition of WHB, which was offset slightly by procees from the sale of marketable securities of $3,444 and from the sale of fixed assets of 4,699.

Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2011 was $817,170, compared to $596,032 during the six months June 30, 2010. The primary reason for the increase in cash provided by financing activities was additional borrowings under short-term notes payable and reduced payments on short term debt. More specifically, during the six months ended June 30, 2011, cash provided by the issuance of debt and stock was approximately $885,000 compared to $821,012 for the same period in 2010. Payments on short and long term debt were $67,830 during the six months ended June 30, 2011, compared to $224,980 during the same period in 2010. Proceeds from the sale of treasury stock were $14,530 during the six months ended June 30, 2011.

Going Forward

Our longer-term working capital and capital requirements will depend upon numerous factors, including revenue and profit generation, the cost of filing, prosecuting, defending, and enforcing patent claims and other intellectual property rights, competing technological and market developments, collaborative arrangements. Additional capital will be required in order to attain our goals. We cannot assure you that funds from our future operations or funds provided by our current financing activities will meet the requirements of our operations, and in that event, we will continue to seek additional sources of financing to maintain liquidity. We are actively pursuing all potential financing options as we look to secure additional funds both to stabilize and to grow our business operations. Our management will review any financing options at their disposal, and will judge each potential source of funds on its individual merits. We cannot assure you that we will be able to secure additional funds from debt or equity financing, as and when we need to, or if we can, that the terms of this financing will be favorable to us or our stockholders.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met.

As of June 30, 2011, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (The "Exchange Act"). Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of June 30, 2011 in ensuring that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in applicable rules and forms and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, in a manner that allows timely decisions regarding required disclosure because of those material weaknesses relating to internal controls that are described in Item 9A(T). of the Company's Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2010, filed May 17, 2011.

Notwithstanding the material weaknesses that existed as of June 30, 2011, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that the financial statements included in this report present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Changes in Internal Controls

During the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2011, there were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. Management has concluded that the material weaknesses in internal control, as described in Item 9A(T). of our Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2010, have not been fully remediated. We are committed to finalizing our remediation action plan and implementing the necessary enhancements to our policies and procedures to fully remediate the material weaknesses discussed above. Due to our lack of sufficient capital, we expect these material weaknesses to continue until our capital needs are met.
