Bob Edgar to head ANZ's Asian expansion

ANZ today announced that Dr Bob Edgar, Senior Managing Director will be responsible for ANZ in Asia-Pacific and the Asian regional expansion program, as part of his existing responsibilities for ANZ's strategic growth agenda.

Dr Edgar has extensive experience in Asia including responsibility for ANZ's former businesses in South Asia and for Institutional Banking globally. Dr Edgar also led the initial development of ANZ's relationship with PT Panin Bank in Indonesia.

This move follows Elmer Funke Kupper's decision to leave the Group to pursue a career outside banking.

The Asia Pacific senior executive team reporting to Dr Edgar is unchanged and includes:

Mr Mike Guerin, Managing Director Pacific, who is responsible for ANZ's network in 11 countries in the Pacific

Mr David Hornery, Managing Director Asia, who is responsible for ANZ's network in 12 countries in Asia. Mr Hornery also has responsibility for Institutional Banking in Asia reporting to Mr Steve Targett, Group Managing Director Institutional.

Mr Owen Wilson, Managing Director International Partnerships, who is responsible for developing partnerships with local banks across Asia.

Commenting on the changes, ANZ Chief Executive Officer Mr John McFarlane said: In recent years we have established real momentum in our businesses outside Australia.

We now have the leading position in New Zealand and the Pacific, and we have the largest Asian network of the Australian banks. Our business in Asia is growing strongly and we have recently established new partnerships in China, Cambodia, The Philippines and Vietnam in addition to Panin Bank in Indonesia.

Bob has both the experience and seniority necessary to accelerate our already significant momentum in Asia-Pacific.

Elmer has contributed to the Group in a number of senior roles, and I wish him well with the next stage of his career, Mr McFarlane said.

Dr Edgar's Asia Pacific responsibilities are effective immediately.
