Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 21, 2013, Seagate Technology International (STI), an indirect subsidiary of Seagate Technology plc (Seagate), Phoenix Acquisition Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of STI (Merger Sub), and Xyratex Ltd (Xyratex), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into Xyratex. As a result of the merger, Merger Sub will cease to exist, and Xyratex will survive as an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Seagate.

Upon the consummation of the merger, subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement which has been approved by Xyratex 's board of directors, each common share of Xyratex issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (the Effective Time) (other than shares to which appraisal rights are properly sought which will be cancelled in accordance with Section 2.3 of the Merger Agreement), will be converted into the right to receive $13.25 (the Per Share Merger Consideration), payable to the holder in cash, without interest, subject to any withholding taxes required by applicable law.

Subject to the consummation of the merger, Xyratex restricted stock units will become fully vested and will be settled for common shares of Xyratex immediately prior to the Effective Time, with such shares issued in settlement of the restricted stock units treated the same as all other common shares of Xyratex issued and outstanding at the Effective Time, as described in the previous paragraph. In addition, each Xyratex stock option will become fully vested and generally will be cancelled at the Effective Time in exchange for the right to receive, for each share subject to the option, the excess, if any, of the Per Share Merger Consideration over the exercise price of the option, except that a limited number of Xyratex stock options may be exercised within 6 months following the Effective Time and common shares of Xyratex received upon exercise of such options will be immediately transferred to STI in exchange for the Per Share Merger Consideration, and if not exercised within such 6-month period, such options will be cancelled for no consideration.

The completion of the merger is subject to customary conditions, including without limitation, (i) the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement by Xyratex 's shareholders; (ii) expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended; and (iii) the absence of any law, injunction, judgment, ruling or pending governmental action that prohibits, restrains or makes illegal the consummation of the merger or that has the effect of prohibiting or otherwise preventing the consummation of the merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Xyratex and STI. Xyratex has agreed, among other things, not to solicit alternative transactions. Xyratex has also agreed, subject to certain exceptions, not to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, any alternative transaction. In addition, STI and Xyratex have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the merger, to be consummated. The Merger Agreement also requires Xyratex to call and hold a shareholders ' meeting as promptly as practicable after the execution of the Merger Agreement and, subject to certain exceptions, for Xyratex 's board of directors to recommend that Xyratex shareholders approve and adopt the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Xyratex and STI, and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including, but not limited to, if STI terminates the Merger Agreement after Xyratex 's board of directors changes its recommendation that Xyratex shareholders approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, Xyratex may be required to pay STI a termination fee of $13,100,000.

Edgar Filing: Seagate Technology plc - Form 8-K

The above description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement. Certain representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for the purposes of the Merger Agreement as of specific dates and may have been qualified or modified by certain disclosures between the parties, among other limitations. Some of the representations and warranties were made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement, and none of the representations and warranties should be relied upon as a disclosure of factual information relating to STI or Xyratex. The Merger Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Concurrently with entering into the Merger Agreement, certain directors and executive officers of Xyratex, and Baker Street Capital L.P., which collectively beneficially own approximately 22.9% of the outstanding common shares of Xyratex, entered into Voting Agreements with STI (collectively, the Voting Agreements) pursuant to which they agreed, among other things, to vote all voting securities of Xyratex beneficially owned by them in favor of the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement. The foregoing description of the Voting Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Voting Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
