Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(c) On February 24, 2014, Seagate Technology plc (the Company) issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Jamie Lerner, 43, as President, Cloud Systems and Solutions, effective March 10, 2014. Most recently, Mr. Lerner served as Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Cloud and Systems Management Technology Group at Cisco Systems, Inc. (Cisco) from November 2012 until February 2014, and in that role was responsible for enabling enterprises and service providers to manage Cisco equipment and associated services. Mr. Lerner also previously served as Vice President and General Manager of Cisco's Network Management Technology Group between October 2011 and November 2012 and as the Vice President and General Manager of the Service Provider Management Applications Business Unit at Cisco between November 2009 and October 2011. Prior to joining Cisco, Mr. Lerner served as the founder, President, and CEO of CITTIO Inc., an enterprise software company, from 2002 through 2009, and as the Chairman of the Board, co-CEO and Chief Technology Officer of XUMA Inc., a company he co-founded, from 1997 to 2001.

In connection with Mr. Lerner's appointment, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Compensation Committee) approved an annual base salary of $525,012, with a target bonus opportunity of 100% of base salary (EOPB Target Bonus) under the Company's Executive Officer Performance Bonus Plan (the EOPB), and an additional annual bonus opportunity of up to 25% of base salary (MBO Target Bonus). The actual bonuses paid will be based on the level of funding of the EOPB for the Company's 2014 fiscal year, and, in the case of the MBO Target Bonus, on the achievement of goals specific to Mr. Lerner's organization. Mr. Lerner will also be granted stock options to acquire 125,000 of the Company's ordinary shares and 150,000 threshold performance share units under the Company's 2012 Equity Incentive Plan, 100,000 of which units will be subject to additional severance-related provisions (such as 100,000 units, the Transition Award). Mr. Lerner will participate in the Fifth Amended and Restated Seagate Technology Executive Officer Severance and Change in Control (CIC) Plan (the Severance Plan). However, in the event that Mr. Lerner is terminated without Cause or resigns for Good Reason outside of a Change in Control Period (as each such term is defined in the Severance Plan) within two years of his date of hire, he will be eligible for the following severance benefits instead of the benefits he would receive under the Severance Plan: (a) 24 months of base salary, (b) the EOPB Target Bonus and the MBO Target Bonus for the year of termination, and (c) for the unvested portion of the Transition Award, pro-rata vesting based on the days Mr. Lerner worked from the last vesting date (if any) through his termination date (with Mr. Lerner being deemed to have worked an additional two years following his termination for purposes of such calculation). The bonus opportunities and the equity grants are subject to the Company's Compensation Recovery for Fraud or Misconduct Policy. The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the offer letter dated February 6, 2014, attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.

Mr. Lerner does not have any family relationships with any of the Company's directors or executive officers.
