On September 28, 2016, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order Confirming Debtors First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Midstates Petroleum Company, Inc. and its Debtor Affiliate (the Confirmation Order), which approved and confirmed the First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Midstates Petroleum Company, Inc. and its Debtor Affiliate as filed on the same date (the Plan).

The description of the Plan in this Report is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan, which is incorporated herein as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this Report).

On October 21, 2016 (the Effective Date), the Company satisfied the conditions to effectiveness set forth in the Confirmation Order and in the Plan, the Plan became effective in accordance with its terms and the Debtors emerged from the Chapter 11 Cases. All capitalized terms used herein but not otherwise defined in this Report on Form 8-K have the meanings set forth in the Plan.

Exit Facility

On the Effective Date, the Company entered into that certain Senior Secured Credit Agreement among the Company, as parent, Midstates Petroleum Company LLC, as borrower (the Borrower), SunTrust Bank, as administrative agent, and certain lenders party thereto (the Exit Facility).

The initial borrowing base under the Exit Facility is $170 million. Provided certain conditions are met, there are no scheduled borrowing base redeterminations until April 2018 (the Borrowing Base Holiday), followed by scheduled semiannual borrowing base redeterminations each year on April 1 and October 1 thereafter. The Exit Facility matures on the earlier of September 30, 2020, or 4 years from the Effective Date.

The outstanding borrowings under the Exit Facility bear interest at a rate equal to, at the option of the Borrower either (a) a base rate plus an applicable rate of 3.50% per annum or (b) LIBOR plus 4.50% per annum, subject to a 1.00% LIBOR floor. Interest on base rate borrowings is payable quarterly in arrears and interest on LIBOR borrowings is payable every one, two, three or six months, at the election of the Borrower. The Borrower has the right to prepay loans under the Exit Facility at any time without a prepayment penalty, other than customary breakage costs with respect to LIBOR loans.

The Exit Facility is guaranteed by the Company. On the Effective Date, the Company entered into a Security Agreement (the Security Agreement) in favor of SunTrust Bank, as administrative agent, for the benefit of the secured parties, pursuant to which the obligations under the Exit Facility were secured by liens on substantially all of the assets of the Company and the Borrower.

Furthermore, the Exit Facility is secured by (i) first-priority mortgages on at least 95% of the Borrower's oil and gas properties, (ii) all other presently owned or after-acquired property of the Company and the Borrower (including but not limited to as-extracted collateral, accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, general intangibles, investment property, intellectual property, real property and the proceeds of the foregoing) and (iii) a perfected pledge on all equity interests of the Company and the Borrower.

The Exit Facility requires the Borrower to, commencing December 31, 2016, maintain (1) a minimum ratio of EBITDA to interest expense of 3.00 to 1.00 and (2) a ratio of total net indebtedness to EBITDA for the trailing four fiscal quarters not to exceed (i) 2.50 to 1.00 during the Borrowing Base Holiday and (ii) 3.00 to 1.00 thereafter. Additionally, capital expenditures are capped (i) for the six months ending December 31, 2016, at $50 million; (ii) for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017, at $81 million; (iii) for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2018, at $85 million and (iv) for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2019, at $78 million (subject to a cumulative $10 million carve-out for mitigating the effects of any Regulatory Curtailment (as defined in the Exit Facility) issued by the Oklahoma Corporation Commission). To the extent actual Capital Expenditures (as defined in the Exit Facility) for the six-month period ended December 31, 2016 or for any fiscal year thereafter are less than the applicable caps described above, up to $10 million of such shortfall may be rolled forward to the following fiscal year. Lastly, during the Borrowing Base Holiday (as defined in the Exit Facility), the Available Commitment (as defined in the Exit Facility) under the Exit Facility shall be reduced by $40 million, and after the Borrowing Base Holiday, the Company, the Borrower and their subsidiaries must maintain liquidity equal to at least 20% of the then effective borrowing base.

The Exit Facility contains customary affirmative and negative covenants, including as to compliance with laws (including environmental laws, ERISA and anti-corruption laws), maintenance of required insurance, delivery of quarterly and annual financial statements, oil and gas engineering reports, maintenance and operation of property (including oil and gas properties), restrictions on the incurrence of liens, indebtedness, asset dispositions, fundamental changes, restricted payments and other customary covenants.

This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Exit Facility, which is incorporated herein as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein.

Registration Rights Agreement

On the Effective Date, the Company entered into a registration rights agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement) with certain of the pre-emergence creditors that received shares of common stock of the Company (the Common Stock) on the Effective Date (the Holders), as provided in the Plan. The Registration Rights Agreement provides resale registration rights for the Holders' Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement).

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company is required to file a Shelf Registration Statement (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) with respect to the Registrable Securities within 90 days of emergence. The Company is required to maintain the effectiveness of any such registration statement until the Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement are no longer Registrable Securities.

Additionally, holders have customary demand, underwritten offering and piggyback registration rights, subject to the limitations set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement. Under their demand registration rights, Qualified Holders (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) may request the Company to register all or a portion of their Registrable Securities, including on a delayed or continuous basis under Rule 415 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the Securities Act), provided that such offering is expected to yield aggregate gross proceeds of at least $25 million and the Company is not otherwise in violation of its obligation to file a Shelf Registration Statement. Under their underwritten offering registration rights, Holders also have certain rights to demand that the Company effectuate the distribution of any or all of their Registrable Securities by means of an underwritten offering pursuant to an effective registration statement. The Company shall not be obligated to effect more than four underwritten offerings in any twelve-month period and the aggregate proceeds expected to be received from the sale of the Registrable Securities requested to be sold in such underwritten offering, in the good faith judgment of the managing underwriters, must be at least $25 million. The Company is not obligated to file a registration statement pursuant to a demand notice or conduct an underwritten offering pursuant to a demand notice within 90 days of either a demand registration or an underwritten offering. The Registration Rights Agreement also provides customary piggyback registration rights.

These registration rights are subject to certain conditions and limitations, including the right of the underwriters to limit the number of shares to be included in a registration statement and the Company's right to delay or withdraw a registration statement under certain circumstances. The Company will generally pay all registration expenses in connection with its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement, regardless of whether a registration statement is filed or becomes effective. The registration rights granted in the Registration Rights Agreement are subject to customary indemnification and contribution provisions, as well as customary restrictions such as blackout periods and, if an underwritten offering is contemplated, limitations on the number of shares to be included in the underwritten offering that may be imposed by the managing underwriter.

The obligations to register shares under the Registration Rights Agreement will terminate with respect to the Company and each Holder on the first date upon which the Holder no longer owns any Registrable Securities.

This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Registration Rights Agreement, which is incorporated herein as Exhibit 10.2 herein.

Management Executive Employment Agreements

On and effective as of October 21, 2016, the Company entered into executive employment agreements with Frederic F. Brace, Nelson M. Haight and Mitchell G. Elkins.

Mr. Brace's Executive Employment Agreement. On and effective as of October 21, 2016, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Mr. Brace, which replaced his existing executive employment agreement (the Brace Agreement). The initial term of the Brace Agreement ends on the first anniversary of the effective date (the Brace Initial Term), subject to earlier termination upon the occurrence of certain circumstances, provided that the Brace Agreement will be extended for successive one-year terms unless either party gives the other party notice of non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the then-current term.

The Brace Agreement provides Mr. Brace with an initial base salary of $700,000 (subject to increase in the Board's sole discretion), an annual bonus of no less than 100% of his base salary (with such amount subject to increase upon his achievement of reasonably achievable performance goals established by the Board), eligibility for participation in the welfare benefit plans, practices, policies and programs applicable generally to the Company's other similarly situated employees, perquisites and fringe benefits appertaining to his position, and reimbursement for business expenses (including his reasonable expenses incurred in maintaining an apartment or similar lodging in Tulsa, Oklahoma) in accordance with Company policies and procedures.

Upon a termination of his employment by the Company with or without Cause or by Mr. Brace with or without Good Reason (as each term is defined below), in each case, during the Brace Initial Term, Mr. Brace will be entitled to: (i) any accrued but unpaid base salary; (ii) payment of any accrued but unpaid expense reimbursements; (iii) payment for any accrued but unused vacation; (iv) any employee benefits pursuant to the terms of the applicable employee benefit plan; (v) his target bonus, payable in a lump sum; (vi) continuation of his base salary until the end of the Brace Initial Term (terminable earlier upon his commencement of full-time employment with another entity); and (vii) a monthly cash payment equal to the cost of continued medical, dental and vision coverage for him and his spouse and any eligible dependents for the 24-month period following his termination date (terminable earlier upon his commencement of full-time employment with another entity that provides comparable health and welfare benefits). Additionally, if the termination of employment is by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Brace for Good Reason, all unvested awards granted to him under the 2016 Incentive Plan (as defined below) will vest.

The Brace Agreement defines Cause as any of Mr. Brace's: (1) breach of his obligations under the Brace Agreement, which constitutes nonperformance of his obligations and duties under the Brace Agreement, as determined by the Board, and is not cured within 15 days of his receipt of the Board's written notice; (2) commission of an act of fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty against the Company; (3) material breach of any restrictive covenants contained within the Brace Agreement that is not cured within 15 days of his receipt of the Board's written notice; (4) conviction, plea of no contest or nolo contendere, deferred adjudication or unadjudicated probation for any felony or any crime involving fraud, dishonesty, or moral turpitude or causing material harm, financial or otherwise, to the Company; (5) willful refusal or intentional failure to carry out, or comply with, in any material respect, any lawful and material written directive of the Board (of which the Board will give written notice and a reasonable opportunity to remedy); (6) unlawful use (including being under the influence) or possession of illegal drugs; or (7) willful and material violation of any federal, state, or local law or regulation applicable to the Company or its business which adversely affects the Company that is not cured after the Board's written notice. For purposes of the Cause definition, Mr. Brace's act or failure to act shall not be deemed willful unless done, or omitted to be done, by him not in good faith and without reasonable belief that his action or omission was in the Company's best interest.

The Brace Agreement defines Good Reason as the occurrence of any of the following without his consent: (1) a material diminution in his base salary or target bonus opportunity; (2) a material diminution in his titles, positions, authority, duties, or responsibilities; (3) the relocation of his principal office to an area more than 50 miles from its location immediately prior to such relocation; or (4) the failure of the Company to comply with any material provision of his employment agreement or equity agreement. In order to terminate his employment for Good Reason, Mr. Brace must give the Company written notice within the 30 days following the initial existence of the condition that he believes constitutes Good Reason and an opportunity to cure the condition within a 30-day period. If the Company fails to cure the condition, Mr. Brace must resign on or before the 60th day after the end of the 30-day cure period.

The Brace Agreement provides for an Internal Revenue Code (the Code) Section 280G best-net cutback, which would cause an automatic reduction in Mr. Brace's payments and benefits received in connection with a change in control of the Company in the event such reduction would result in Mr. Brace receiving greater payments and benefits on an after-tax basis. The Brace Agreement contains perpetual confidentiality and mutual non-disparagement covenants.

The foregoing description of the Brace Agreement is incomplete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Haight's Executive Employment Agreement. On and effective as of October 21, 2016, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Mr. Haight (the Haight Agreement). The initial term of the Haight Agreement ends on the third anniversary of the effective date, subject to earlier termination upon the occurrence of certain circumstances, provided that the Haight Agreement will be extended for successive one-year terms, unless either party gives the other party notice of non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the then-current term.

The Haight Agreement provides Mr. Haight with an initial base salary of $375,000 (subject to increase in the Board's sole discretion), a target bonus opportunity equal to 80% of his base salary, eligibility for participation in the welfare benefit plans, practices, policies and programs applicable generally to the Company's other similarly situated employees, perquisites and fringe benefits appertaining to his position, and reimbursement for business expenses in accordance with Company policies and procedures.

Upon any termination of his employment, Mr. Haight will be entitled to: (i) any accrued but unpaid base salary; (ii) payment of any accrued but unpaid expense reimbursements; (iii) payment for any accrued but unused vacation; (iv) any employee benefits pursuant to the terms of the applicable employee benefit plan; (v) any earned but unpaid annual bonus (prorated through the end of the month of termination); and (vi) any accrued or vested amount arising from his participation in, or benefits under, any other incentive plans (the Haight Accrued Obligations).

Upon a termination of his employment due to his death or disability, in addition to the Haight Accrued Obligations, subject to his (or his estate's) execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims within 60 days following the termination date (the Haight Release Requirement) and continued compliance with restrictive covenants (in the event of a termination due to disability), Mr. Haight will be entitled to: (i) a monthly cash payment equal to the cost of continued medical, dental and vision coverage for him and his spouse and any eligible dependents for the 18-month period following his termination date (the Haight COBRA Payment); and (ii) full vesting of all unvested awards granted to him under the 2016 Incentive Plan (the Haight Equity Acceleration).

Upon a termination of his employment by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Haight for Good Reason (as each term is defined below), in each case, that does not occur within the 12-month period following a change in control of the Company, or a termination of his employment as a result of the Company's non-renewal of the employment term, in addition to the Haight Accrued Obligations, subject to the Haight Release Requirement and his continued compliance with restrictive covenants, Mr. Haight will be entitled to: (i) a lump sum cash severance payment equal to 1.5 times the sum of his (x) base salary and (y) target bonus; (ii) the Haight COBRA Payment; and (iii) the Haight Equity Acceleration. If the termination of his employment by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Haight for Good Reason occurs within the 12-month period following a change in control of the Company, the lump sum cash severance payment is increased to 2.0 times the sum of his (x) highest base salary during the three-year period immediately preceding the change in control of the Company and (y) target bonus.

The Haight Agreement defines Cause as any of Mr. Haight's: (1) breach of his obligations under the Haight Agreement, which constitutes nonperformance of his obligations and duties under the Haight Agreement, as determined by the Board, and is not cured within 15 days of his receipt of the Board's written notice; (2) commission of an act of fraud, embezzlement, misappropriation, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty against the Company; (3) material breach of any restrictive covenants contained within the Haight Agreement that is not cured within 15 days after his receipt of the Board's written notice; (4) conviction, plea of no contest or nolo contendere, deferred adjudication or unadjudicated probation for any felony or any crime involving fraud, dishonesty, or moral turpitude or causing material harm, financial or otherwise, to the Company; (5) willful refusal or intentional failure to carry out, or comply with, in any material respect, any lawful and material written directive of the Board (of which the Board will give written notice and a reasonable opportunity to remedy); (6) unlawful use (including being under the influence) or possession of illegal drugs; or (7) willful and material violation of any federal, state, or local law or regulation applicable to the Company or its business which adversely affects the Company that is not cured after the Board's written notice. For purposes of the Cause definition, Mr. Haight's act or failure to act shall not be deemed willful unless done, or omitted to be done, by him not in good faith and without reasonable belief that his action or omission was in the Company's best interest.

The Haight Agreement defines Good Reason as the occurrence of any of the following, without Mr. Haight's consent: (1) a material diminution in his base salary or target bonus opportunity; (2) a material diminution in his titles, positions, authority, duties, or responsibilities; (3) the relocation of his principal office to an area more than 50 miles from its location immediately prior to such relocation; or (4) the failure of the Company to comply with any material provision of his employment agreement or equity agreement. In order to terminate his employment for Good Reason, Mr. Haight must give the Company written notice within the 30 days following the initial existence of the condition that he believes constitutes Good Reason and an opportunity to cure the condition within such 30-day period. If the Company fails to cure the condition, Mr. Haight must resign on or before the 60th day after the end of the 30-day cure period.

The Haight Agreement provides for a Code Section 280G best-net cutback, which would cause an automatic reduction in Mr. Haight's payments and benefits received in connection with a change in control of the Company in the event such reduction would result in Mr. Haight receiving greater payments and benefits on an after-tax basis. The Haight Agreement contains perpetual confidentiality and mutual non-disparagement covenants and subjects Mr. Haight to non-competition and non-solicitation restrictive covenants during his employment and for the 12-month period thereafter.

The foregoing description of the Haight Agreement is incomplete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.4 and incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Elkins's Executive Employment Agreement. On and effective as of October 21, 2016, the Company entered into an executive employment agreement with Mr. Elkins (the Elkins Agreement). The initial term of the Elkins Agreement ends on the third anniversary of the effective date, subject to earlier termination upon the occurrence of certain circumstances, provided that the Elkins Agreement will be extended for successive one-year terms, unless either party gives the other party notice of non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the then-current term.

The Elkins Agreement provides Mr. Elkins with an initial base salary of $400,000 (subject to increase in the Board's sole discretion), a target bonus opportunity equal to 80% of his base salary, eligibility for participation in the welfare benefit plans, practices, policies and programs applicable generally to the Company's other similarly situated employees, perquisites and fringe benefits appertaining to his position, and reimbursement for business expenses in accordance with Company policies and procedures.

Upon any termination of his employment, Mr. Elkins will be entitled to: (i) any accrued but unpaid base salary; (ii) payment of any accrued but unpaid expense reimbursements; (iii) payment for any accrued but unused vacation; (iv) any employee benefits pursuant to the terms of the applicable employee benefit plan; (v) any earned but unpaid annual bonus (prorated through the end of the month of termination); and (vi) any accrued or vested amount arising from his participation in, or benefits under, any other incentive plans (the Elkins Accrued Obligations).

Edgar Filing: Midstates Petroleum Company, Inc. - Form 8-K

Upon a termination of his employment due to his death or disability, in addition to the Elkins Accrued Obligations, subject to his (or his estate's) execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims within 60 days following the termination date (the Elkins Release Requirement) and continued compliance with restrictive covenants (in the event of a termination due to disability), Mr. Elkins will be entitled to: (i) a monthly cash payment equal to the cost of continued medical, dental and vision coverage for him and his spouse and any eligible dependents for the 12-month period following his termination date (the Elkins COBRA Payment); and (ii) full vesting of all unvested awards granted to him under the 2016 Incentive Plan (the Elkins Equity Acceleration).

Upon a termination of his employment by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Elkins for Good Reason (as each term is defined below), in each case, that does not occur within the 12-month period following a change in control of the Company, or a termination of his employment as a result of the Company's non-renewal of the employment term, in addition to the Elkins Accrued Obligations, subject to the Elkins Release Requirement and his continued compliance with restrictive covenants, Mr. Elkins will be entitled to: (i) a lump sum cash severance payment equal to 1.0 times the sum of his (x) base salary and (y) target bonus; (ii) the Elkins COBRA Payment; and (iii) the Elkins Equity Acceleration. If the termination of his employment by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Elkins for Good Reason occurs within the 12-month period following a change in control of the Company, the lump sum cash severance payment is increased to 2.0 times the sum of his (x) highest base salary during the three-year period immediately preceding the change in control of the Company and (y) target bonus.

The Elkins Agreement defines Cause and Good Reason the same as the Haight Agreement.

The Elkins Agreement provides for a Code Section 280G best-net cutback, which would cause an automatic reduction in Mr. Elkins's payments and benefits received in connection with a change in control of the Company in the event such reduction would result in Mr. Elkins receiving greater payments and benefits on an after-tax basis. The Elkins Agreement contains perpetual confidentiality and mutual non-disparagement covenants and subjects Mr. Elkins to non-competition and non-solicitation restrictive covenants during his employment and for the 12-month period thereafter.

The foregoing description of the Elkins Agreement is incomplete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete document, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.5 and incorporated herein by reference.
