Questions and Answers About the Amendment

Q.

Why did I receive this Information Statement?

A.

Applicable laws require us to provide you information regarding the Amendment even though your vote is neither required nor requested for the Amendment to become effective.

Q.

What will I receive when the Amendment is effective?

A.

The Amendment has already been approved, and you will not receive anything notifying you that the Amendment has become effective.

Q.

Why am I not being asked to vote?

A.

The holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock have already approved the Amendment pursuant to a written consent in lieu of a meeting. Such approval, together with the approval of the Company's Board of Directors, is sufficient under Delaware law, and no further approval by our stockholders is required.

A.

Nothing. This information statement is purely for your information and does not require or request you to do anything.

Q.

Whom can I contact with questions?

A.

If you have any questions about any of the actions to be taken by the Company, please contact the Company.

Actions by the Board of Directors and Consenting Shareholders

On January 27, 2007, the Board of Directors (the Board) unanimously approved, and recommended for shareholder approval, the amendment of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation in order to change the name of the Company to China RuiTai International Holdings Co., Ltd. The record date established by the Board for purposes of determining the number of outstanding shares of voting stock entitled to vote on the Amendment was January 27, 2007 (the Record Date). On the Record Date, stockholders owning greater than a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock approved the Amendment by action taken without a meeting in accordance with Delaware law.

Pursuant to Chapter 1, Subchapter VIII, §242 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, amendments to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation must be approved by a majority of the Company's stockholders. In order to obtain the required approval of our stockholders, we could either convene a special meeting of the shareholders for the specific purpose of voting on the proposed Amendment, or we could obtain written consent from the holders of a majority of our issued and outstanding voting securities. In order to eliminate the costs and management time involved in holding a special meeting, our Board of Directors voted to utilize the written consent of the holders of a majority interest of our Common Stock. The elimination of the need for a special meeting of stockholders to approve the Amendment is made possible by to Chapter 1, Subchapter VII, §228 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, which provides that any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such stockholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

The Company has two classes of stock authorized, Preferred Stock and Common Stock. As of the date of this Information Statement, the Company has 2,054,652 shares of its Common Stock issued and outstanding. There are no shares of Preferred Stock issued and outstanding. On January 27, 2007, our majority stockholder holding 1,752,500 shares of Common Stock, or approximately 85.29% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock, approved the Amendment. No further vote of our stockholders is required for the Company to effect the Amendment.

Pursuant to the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), an Information Statement must be sent to the holders of voting stock who do not sign the written consent at least 20 days prior to the effective date of any corporate action taken or authorized pursuant to the consent of the Company's stockholders.

Dissenter's Rights

Stockholders who do not consent to the proposals are not entitled to the dissenter's or appraisal rights provided by the General Corporation Law of Delaware.
