ELDORADO GOLD CORPORATION AND AFCAN MINING CORPORATION COMPLETE COMPROMISE

Eldorado Gold Corporation ( Eldorado ) and Afcan Mining Corporation ( Afcan ) are pleased to announce that they have completed today their court approved compromise plan (the Compromise ), which was approved by shareholders of Afcan on September 8, 2005.

The transaction combines Eldorado's strength and experience in successful gold production with Afcan's promising Tanjianshan gold development project in China. Under the terms of the Compromise, Eldorado has acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares and warrants of Afcan. Every six and one half (6.5) shares of Afcan have been exchanged for one Eldorado common share, resulting in the issuance of a total of 23,045,151 Eldorado common shares. In addition, every six and one half (6.5) Afcan warrants have been exchanged for one Eldorado warrant, with each Eldorado warrant having an exercise price of 6.5 times the exercise price of the Afcan warrant for which it was exchanged. The term to expiry for each Eldorado warrant remains the same as the original Afcan warrant. It is anticipated that the Afcan shares will be de-listed from the TSX in due course.

Upon completion of the Compromise, Paul N. Wright commented "The successful development of the Tanjianshan Gold Project will provide a solid foundation from which Eldorado intends to build its gold mining business in China. With mine construction underway, the Company anticipates commercial production commencing in the second half of 2006. An ongoing exploration program is now expected to increase resources and reserves by year end, further enhancing the Tanjianshan Project."

Afcan shareholders who have not yet delivered letters of transmittal and their Afcan common share certificates and/or Afcan warrant certificates to Natcan Trust Company, which is acting as depositary in connection with the Compromise, should contact Natcan Trust Company by telephone at 1-800-341-1419 or by email at cliente@tbn.bnc.ca to obtain a letter of transmittal which will contain instructions on how to surrender their Afcan share certificates and/or Afcan warrant certificates.
