Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, including in VoIP, Inc.'s (the "Company") Form 10-Q filed on May 15, 2007, on September 25, 2006, Cross Country Capital Partners, L.P. ("Cross Country") filed suit against the Company, asserting a claim for breach of contract in connection with a securities purchase agreement entered into with the Company. On May 25, 2007, the parties entered into a settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") which, among other things, requires the Company to issue to Cross Country 12.5 million unrestricted shares of its common stock, par value $0.001 (the "Settlement Shares") issued pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) of the Act, subject to court approval. With respect to 50% of the Settlement Shares, during any 90 day period Cross Country may only sell an amount of these shares in an aggregate amount up to 1% of the Company's outstanding common stock. The remaining Settlement Shares may be disposed of by Cross Country at such time or times thereafter, as it deems appropriate.

Also as previously disclosed in the Company's Form 10-Q filed on May 15, 2007, the Company previously issued to Cross Country warrants to purchase 2,225,000 of the Company's common shares at prices originally ranging from $1.37 to $1.60 per share, which were subsequently repriced to $0.18 per share. The Settlement Agreement affirmed the $0.18 exercise price.

In conjunction with the Settlement Agreement, the Company is expected to recognize a related gain of approximately $300,000 in the second quarter of 2007, representing the excess of the liability previously accrued on the Company's consolidated balance sheet over the value of the expected stock issuance above.
