Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On December 13, 2007, Barry Cinnamon, President and Chief Executive Officer of Akeena Solar, Inc. (“Akeena” or the “Company”) adopted a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan to sell a portion of his shares of Akeena’s common stock in the open market at prevailing market prices during 2008. Mr. Cinnamon has informed Akeena that his plan has been put in place at this time in order to satisfy financial obligations incurred by Mr. Cinnamon as part of his 2006 Divorce Settlement. This Rule 10b5-1 Plan was established to comply with Rule 10b5-1(c) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and the Company’s policies regarding stock transactions by its executive officers.

Rule 10b5-1(c) allows corporate officers and directors to adopt written, pre-arranged stock trading plans when they do not have material, non-public information. Using these plans, insiders can gradually diversify their investment portfolios, can spread stock trades out over an extended period of time to reduce any market impact and can avoid concerns about whether they had material, non-public information when they sold their stock.

Under his Rule 10b5-1 Plan, Mr. Cinnamon contemplates selling up to 700,000 shares of common stock over the course of the next year. The contemplated sales would constitute approximately 8% of Mr. Cinnamons' current holdings of common stock and options. If Mr. Cinnamon completes all the planned sales of shares under his Rule 10b5-1 Plan, he will beneficially own over 7.6 million shares and stock options in Akeena Solar.

The transactions under this Rule 10b5-1 Plan will commence no earlier than January 2008, and the actual sales will be disclosed publicly through Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Form 4 filings will also be posted on Akeena's investor relations Web site.
