NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2010
(unaudited, dollars in thousands except share and per share data)

Note 1 – Basis of Presentation

German American Bancorp, Inc. operates primarily in the banking industry. The accounting and reporting policies of German American Bancorp, Inc. and its subsidiaries conform to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted. All adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the periods reported have been included in the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements, and all such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with current classifications. It is suggested that these consolidated financial statements and notes be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto in the German American Bancorp, Inc. December 31, 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Note 2 – Per Share Data

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2010
(unaudited, dollars in thousands except share and per share data)

Securities are written down to fair value when a decline in fair value is not considered temporary. In estimating other-than-temporary losses, management considers many factors, including: (1) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, (3) whether the market decline was affected by macroeconomic conditions, and (4) whether the Company has the intent to sell the debt security or more likely than not will be required to sell the debt security before its anticipated recovery. The Company doesn't intend to sell or expect to be required to sell these securities, and the decline in fair value is largely due to changes in market interest rates, therefore, the Company does not consider these securities to be other-than-temporarily impaired. As a result of valuations of the Company's equity securities portfolio during 2009, the Company recognized a $34 pre-tax charge for an other-than-temporary decline in fair value of this portfolio. All mortgage-backed securities in the Company's portfolio are guaranteed by government sponsored entities, are investment grade, and are performing as expected.

The Company's equity securities consist of non-controlling investments in other banking organizations. When a decline in fair value below cost is deemed to be other-than-temporary, the unrealized loss must be recognized as a charge to earnings. At September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, certain equity securities in the Company's portfolio with fair values below amortized cost were deemed to not be other-than-temporarily impaired due in large part to the overall financial condition of the issuers which included continued profitability throughout the first nine months of 2010 and during 2009 and that the fair value of the securities has declined due to difficult macroeconomic conditions for equity security valuations of banking organizations. In addition, the length of time that fair value has been less than cost was assessed and it is reasonable to expect that fair value can recover to a level greater than cost in a reasonable period of time. Finally, subsequent to September 30, 2010, the equity securities that have been in an unrealized loss position for more than twelve months have recovered above the Company's cost basis.

Note 6 – Segment Information

The Company’s operations include three primary segments: core banking, trust and investment advisory services, and insurance operations. The core banking segment involves attracting deposits from the general public and using such funds to originate consumer, commercial and agricultural, commercial and agricultural real estate, and residential mortgage loans, primarily in the Company’s local markets. The core banking segment also involves the sale of residential mortgage loans in the secondary market. The trust and investment advisory services segment involves providing trust, investment advisory, and brokerage services to customers. The insurance segment offers a full range of personal and corporate property and casualty insurance products, primarily in the Company's banking subsidiary's local markets.

The core banking segment is comprised by the Company's banking subsidiary, German American Bancorp, which operates through 30 retail banking offices. Net interest income from loans and investments funded by deposits and borrowings is the primary revenue for the core-banking segment. The trust and investment advisory services segment's revenues are comprised primarily of fees generated by German American Financial Advisors & Trust Company. These fees are derived by providing trust, investment advisory, and brokerage services to its customers. The insurance segment consists of German American Insurance, Inc., which provides a full line of personal and corporate insurance products from seven offices; and German American Reinsurance Company, Ltd., which reinsures credit insurance products sold by the Company's subsidiary bank. Commissions derived from the sale of insurance products are the primary source of revenue for the insurance segment.

The following segment financial information has been derived from the internal financial statements of German American Bancorp, Inc., which are used by management to monitor and manage the financial performance of the Company. The accounting policies of the three segments are the same as those of the Company. The evaluation process for segments does not include holding company income and expense. Holding company amounts are the primary differences between segment amounts and consolidated totals, and are reflected in the column labeled “Other” below, along with amounts to eliminate transactions between segments.

Note 7 – Stock Repurchase Plan

On April 26, 2001 the Company announced that its Board of Directors approved a stock repurchase program for up to 607,754 (as adjusted for subsequent stock dividends) of the outstanding Common Shares of the Company. Shares may be purchased from time to time in the open market and in large block privately negotiated transactions. The Company is not obligated to purchase any shares under the program, and the program may be discontinued at any time before the maximum number of shares specified by the program is purchased. As of September 30, 2010, the Company had purchased 334,965 (as adjusted for subsequent stock dividends) shares under the program. No shares were purchased under the plan during the nine months ended September 30, 2010.

Note 8 – Equity Plans and Equity Based Compensation

The Company maintains equity incentive plans under which stock options, restricted stock, and other equity incentive awards can be granted. At September 30, 2010, the Company has reserved 657,956 shares of Common Stock (as adjusted for subsequent stock dividends and subject to further customary anti-dilution adjustments) for the purpose of issuance pursuant to outstanding and future grants of options, restricted stock, and other equity awards to officers, directors and other employees of the Company.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company granted no options, and accordingly, recorded no stock option expense related to option grants during the three or nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009. In addition, there was no unrecognized option expense as all outstanding options were fully vested prior to September 30, 2010 and 2009.

During the quarter ended September 30, 2010, the Company granted no restricted stock awards. During the three months ended September 30, 2009, the Company granted awards of 965 shares of restricted stock. During the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company granted awards of 24,178 and 43,740 shares of restricted stock, respectively. The expense recorded for the restricted stock grants totaled $100 (or $60, net of an income tax benefit of $40) and $300 (or $181, net of an income tax benefit of $119) during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010. The expense recorded for the restricted stock grants totaled $121 (or $73, net of an income tax benefit of $48) and $356 (or $215, net of an income tax benefit of $141) during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009. Unrecognized expense associated with the restricted stock grants totaled $100 and $129 as of September 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively.

The Company maintains an Employee Stock Purchase Plan whereby eligible employees have the option to purchase the Company’s common stock at a discount. The plan year for the Employee Stock Purchase Plan runs from August 17 through August 16 of the subsequent year.

The purchase price of the shares under this Plan is 95% of the fair market value of the Company’s common stock as of the last day of the plan year. The plan provides for the purchase of up to 500,000 shares of common stock. The Company may obtain shares for sale under the plan by purchases on the open market or from private sources, or by issuing authorized but unissued common shares. Funding for the purchase of common stock is from employee and Company contributions. The Employee Stock Purchase Plan was not considered compensatory and no expense was recorded during the 2008/2009 and 2009/2010 plan years.

Note 9 – Employee Benefit Plans

The Company acquired through previous bank mergers a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan with benefits based on years of service and compensation prior to retirement. The benefits under the plan were suspended in 1998. The following tables represent the components of net periodic benefit cost for the periods presented:

The Company previously disclosed in its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009, that it expected to contribute $75 to the pension plan during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010. As of September 30, 2010, the Company has contributed $53 to the pension plan.

Note 10 – Fair Value

Fair value is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair values:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2: Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs that reflect a reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

The Company used the following methods and significant assumptions to estimate the fair value of each type of financial instrument:

Investment Securities: The fair values for investment securities are determined by quoted market prices, if available (Level 1). For securities where quoted prices are not available, fair values are calculated based on market prices of similar securities (Level 2). For securities where quoted prices or market prices of similar securities are not available, fair values are calculated using discounted cash flows or other market indicators (Level 3).

Impaired Loans: Values for collateral dependent loans are generally based on appraisals obtained from licensed real estate appraisers and in certain circumstances consideration of offers obtained to purchase properties prior to foreclosure. Appraisals for commercial real estate generally use three methods to derive value: cost, sales or market comparison and income approach. The cost method bases value in the cost to replace the current property. Value of market comparison approach evaluates the sales price of similar properties in the same market area. The income approach considers net operating income generated by the property and an investors required return. Adjustments are routinely made in the appraisal process to adjust for differences between the comparable sale and income data available. Such adjustments are typically significant and result in a Level 3 classification of the inputs for determining fair value.

Other Real Estate: Nonrecurring adjustments to certain commercial and residential real estate properties classified as other real estate (ORE) are measured at the lower of carrying amount or fair value, less costs to sell. Fair values are generally based on third party appraisals of the property utilizing similar techniques as discussed above for Impaired Loans, resulting in a Level 3 classification. In cases where the carrying amount exceeds the fair value, less costs to sell, impairment loss is recognized.

Loans Held-for-Sale: The fair values of loans held for sale are determined by using quoted prices for a similar asset, adjusted for specific attributes of that loan (Level 2).

Assets and Liabilities Measured on a Recurring Basis

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis are summarized below:

Assets:
Impaired Loans with Specific Allocations	$ 3,908	$ —	$ —	$ 3,908
Other Real Estate	507	—	—	507

Impaired loans, which are measured for impairment using the fair value of the collateral for collateral dependent loans, had a carrying amount of $6,425 with a valuation allowance of $1,905, resulting in an additional provision for loan losses of $561 and $1,317 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010, respectively. Impaired loans, which are measured for impairment using the fair value of the collateral for collateral dependent loans, had a carrying amount of $6,932 with a valuation allowance of $3,024, resulting in an additional provision for loan losses of $2,632 for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Other Real Estate which is measured at the lower of carrying or fair value less costs to sell, had a carrying amount of $400 at September 30, 2010. A charge to earnings through Other Operating Income of $0 and $100 was included in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010. Other Real Estate which is measured at the lower of carrying or fair value less costs to sell, had a carrying amount of $507 at December 31, 2009, resulting in a write-down of $228 for the year ending December 31, 2009.

The estimated fair values of the Company's financial instruments not previously presented are provided in the table below. Not all of the Company's assets and liabilities are considered financial instruments, and therefore are not included in the table. Because no active market exists for a significant portion of the Company's financial instruments, fair value estimates were based on subjective judgments, and therefore cannot be determined with precision.

Unrecognized Financial Instruments:
Commitments to Extend Credit	—	—	—	—
Standby Letters of Credit	—	—	—	—
Commitments to Sell Loans	—	—	—	—

The fair value for cash and short-term investments and accrued interest receivable is estimated to be equal to their carrying value. The fair values of securities held to maturity are based on quoted market prices or dealer quotes, if available, or by using quoted market prices for similar instruments. The fair value of loans are estimated by discounting future cash flows using the current rates at which similar loans would be made for the average remaining maturities. It was not practicable to determine the fair value of FHLB stock and other restricted stock due to restrictions placed on its transferability. The fair value of demand deposits, savings accounts, money market deposits, short-term borrowings and accrued interest payable is the amount payable on demand at the reporting date. The fair value of fixed-maturity time deposits and long-term borrowings are estimated using the rates currently offered on these instruments for similar remaining maturities. Commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit are generally short-term or variable rate with minimal fees charged. These instruments have no carrying value, and the fair value is not significant. The fair value of commitments to sell loans is the cost or benefit of settling the commitments with the counter-party at the reporting date. At September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, none of the Company's commitments to sell loans were mandatory, and there is no cost or benefit to settle these commitments.

Note 11 – Mergers and Acquisition Activity

German American Bancorp, the banking subsidiary of the Company, completed the acquisition of two branch offices from Farmers State Bank of Alto Pass, Ill. on May 7, 2010. One of the branches is located in Evansville (Vanderburgh County, Indiana) and the other in adjacent Newburgh (Warrick County, Indiana). Pursuant to the terms of the purchase agreement, Farmers State Bank of Alto Pass, Ill. paid the Company approximately $368. In accordance with ASC 805, the Company has expensed approximately $209 of direct acquisition costs and recorded goodwill of $181 and $903 of intangible assets. The intangible assets are related to core deposits and are being amortized on an accelerated basis over 10 years. For tax purposes, goodwill of $181 is deductible on a straight line basis over 15 years. On the date of acquisition, the Company assumed net deposit liabilities valued at approximately $50.2 million and other liabilities of $66, acquired a net portfolio of loans valued at $42.9 million, premises and equipment valued at $5.2 million and other assets of $640.

This acquisition was consistent with the Company's strategy to build a regional presence in Southern Indiana. The acquisition offers the Company the opportunity to increase profitability by introducing existing products and services to the acquired customer base as well as add new customers in the expanded region.

Note 12 – New Accounting Pronouncements

On June 12, 2009, the FASB issued new guidance impacting FASB ASC 860, Transfers and Servicing. The new guidance amends ASC 860, and will require more information about transfers of financial assets, including securitization transactions, and where entities have continuing exposure to the risks related to transferred financial assets. It eliminates the concept of a "qualifying special-purpose entity," changes the requirements for derecognizing financial assets, and requires additional disclosures. The new standard was effective January 1, 2010. The adoption of this standard did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated results of operations or financial position.

On June 12, 2009, the FASB issued new guidance impacting FASB ASC 810-10, Consolidation (Statement No. 167 amends FIN 46(R)). The new guidance replaces the quantitative-based risks and rewards calculation for determining which enterprise, if any, has a controlling financial interest in a variable interest entity with a qualitative approach focused on identifying which enterprise has the power to direct the activities of a variable interest entity (VIE) that most significantly impact the entity's economic performance and (1) the obligation to absorb losses of the entity or (2) the right to receive benefits from the entity. Unlike previous guidance, this Statement requires ongoing reconsideration of whether (1) an entity is a VIE and (2) an enterprise is the primary beneficiary of a VIE. It is expected that the amendments will result in more entities consolidating VIEs that previously were not consolidated This new guidance will also require additional disclosures about the Company's involvement in variable interest entities. This new guidance was effective January 1, 2010. The adoption of this standard did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated results of operations or financial position.

Note 13 – Subsequent Events

On October 4, 2010 the Company entered into a definitive agreement to acquire American Community Bancorp, Inc. ("American Community"), through the merger of American Community with and into the Company, and the merger of American Community's sole banking subsidiary, Bank of Evansville, into the Company's subsidiary bank, German American Bancorp. Bank of Evansville operates three banking offices in Evansville, Indiana. American Community's consolidated assets and equity (unaudited) as of September 30, 2010 totaled $326.0 million and $24.2 million, respectively, and its consolidated net income (unaudited) totaled $875 for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2010.

The Company owns approximately 9.2 percent of the outstanding common stock of American Community.

Under the terms of the proposed merger, the shareholders of American Community (other than the Company in respect of its American Community shares) would receive .725 shares of common stock of the Company and $2.00 of cash for each of their American Community shares. Based on American Community's number of common shares outstanding at the time of entering into the definitive agreement, the Company expects to issue approximately 1,435,000 shares of its common stock, and pay approximately $3.9 million in cash, for all of the issued and outstanding common shares of American Community that are not currently owned by the Company. In addition, the Company is obligated by the definitive agreement to make cash payments to the holders of compensatory options and the holders of certain warrants issued by American Community (if and to the extent that such options and warrants remain unexercised but are then “in the money” at the time of closing of the merger, based upon the value of the merger consideration to be paid on American Community shares in the merger), which cash payments are expected to total approximately $2.1 million on a pre-tax basis. These expectations are subject to change and are based upon proforma financial information provided in the Company’s Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed on October 21, 2010.

Completion of the proposed merger is subject to the approval by shareholders of American Community, approval of the appropriate bank regulatory agencies and other terms and conditions. The Company expects (subject to timely satisfaction or waiver of all terms and conditions to closing) that the merger will become effective early in the first quarter of 2011.

GERMAN AMERICAN BANCORP, INC.
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

German American Bancorp, Inc. is a financial services holding company based in Jasper, Indiana. The Company's Common Stock is traded on NASDAQ's Global Select Market, under the symbol GABC. The principal subsidiary of German American Bancorp, Inc. is its banking subsidiary, German American Bancorp, which operates through 30 retail banking offices in the twelve contiguous Southern Indiana counties. German American Bancorp owns a trust, brokerage, and financial planning subsidiary, which operates from its banking offices, and a full line property and casualty insurance agency with seven insurance agency offices throughout its market area.

Throughout this Management's Discussion and Analysis, as elsewhere in this report, when we use the term "Company", we will usually be referring to the business and affairs (financial and otherwise) of the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates as a whole. Occasionally, we will refer to the term "parent company" or "holding company" when we mean to refer to only German American Bancorp, Inc.

This section presents an analysis of the consolidated financial condition of the Company as of September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009 and the consolidated results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and other financial data presented elsewhere herein and with the financial statements and other financial data, as well as the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, included in the Company's December 31, 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

MANAGEMENT OVERVIEW

During the third quarter and first nine months of 2010, the Company achieved a record level of earnings. The Company's third quarter net income totaled $3,594,000, or $0.32 per share, representing the highest level of quarterly earnings in the Company's history. This record earnings performance during the third quarter of 2010 was an increase of approximately 13%, from the $3,191,000, or $0.29 per share, recorded during the same quarter last year. On a year-to-date basis, 2010 earnings were also a record, increasing to $10,253,000, or $0.92 per share, as compared to $8,897,000, or $0.80 per share for the first nine months of 2009. The improvement in year-to-date earnings represented an increase of approximately 15%.

In the second quarter of 2010, the Company completed the acquisition of two branches (including their related loan assets and deposit liabilities) of another bank in the Evansville, Indiana banking market, which was a new market for the Company. On October 4, 2010, the Company and American Community Bancorp, Inc. ("American Community") entered into a definitive agreement to merge American Community into the Company. Upon completion of the transaction, the Company anticipates merging American Community's subsidiary bank, Bank of Evansville, into German American's similarly-named subsidiary bank, German American Bancorp. Management believes that this transaction will provide an excellent opportunity for German American to enhance its presence in the Evansville, Indiana market. Upon completion of this transaction, anticipated for early 2011, the Company will have a total of five branch offices in the strategically important Evansville, Indiana banking market.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

The financial condition and results of operations for German American Bancorp, Inc. presented in the Consolidated Financial Statements, accompanying Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, and selected financial data appearing elsewhere within this Report, are, to a large degree, dependent upon the Company's accounting policies. The selection of and application of these policies involve estimates, judgments and uncertainties that are subject to change. The critical accounting policies and estimates that the Company has determined to be the most susceptible to change in the near term relate to the determination of the allowance for loan losses, the valuation of securities available for sale, and the valuation allowance on deferred tax assets.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The Company maintains an allowance for loan losses to cover probable incurred credit losses at the balance sheet date. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes the uncollectibility of a loan balance is confirmed. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance. Allocations of the allowance may be made for specific loans, but the entire allowance is available for any loan that, in management's judgment, should be charged-off. A provision for loan losses is charged to operations based on management's periodic evaluation of the necessary allowance balance. Evaluations are conducted at least quarterly and more often if deemed necessary. The ultimate recovery of all loans is susceptible to future market factors beyond the Company's control.

The Company has an established process to determine the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. The determination of the allowance is inherently subjective, as it requires significant estimates, including the amounts and timing of expected future cash flows on impaired loans, estimated losses on other classified loans and pools of homogeneous loans, and consideration of past loan loss experience, the nature and volume of the portfolio, information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors, all of which may be susceptible to significant change. The allowance consists of two components of allocations, specific and general. These two components represent the total allowance for loan losses deemed adequate to cover losses inherent in the loan portfolio.

Commercial and agricultural loans are subject to a standardized grading process administered by an internal loan review function. The need for specific reserves is considered for credits when graded substandard or special mention, or when: (a) the customer's cash flow or net worth appears insufficient to repay the loan; (b) the loan has been criticized in a regulatory examination; (c) the loan is on non-accrual; or, (d) other reasons where the ultimate collectibility of the loan is in question, or the loan characteristics require special monitoring. Specific allowances are established in cases where management has identified significant conditions or circumstances related to an individual credit that we believe indicates the loan is impaired. Specific allocations on impaired loans are determined by comparing the loan balance to the present value of expected cash flows or expected collateral proceeds. Allocations are also applied to categories of loans not considered individually impaired but for which the rate of loss is expected to be greater than historical averages, including those graded substandard or special mention and non-performing consumer or residential real estate loans. Such allocations are based on past loss experience and information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values.

General allocations are made for other pools of loans, including non-classified loans, homogeneous portfolios of consumer and residential real estate loans, and loans within certain industry categories believed to present unique risk of loss. General allocations of the allowance are primarily made based on a three-year historical average for loan losses for these portfolios, judgmentally adjusted for economic factors and portfolio trends.

Due to the imprecise nature of estimating the allowance for loan losses, the Company's allowance for loan losses includes a minor unallocated component. The unallocated component of the allowance for loan losses incorporates the Company's judgmental determination of inherent losses that may not be fully reflected in other allocations, including factors such as economic uncertainties, lending staff quality, industry trends impacting specific portfolio segments, and broad portfolio quality trends. Therefore, the ratio of allocated to unallocated components within the total allowance may fluctuate from period to period.

Securities Valuation

Securities available-for-sale are carried at fair value, with unrealized holding gains and losses reported separately in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss), net of tax. The Company obtains market values from a third party on a monthly basis in order to adjust the securities to fair value. Equity securities that do not have readily determinable fair values are carried at cost. Additionally, when securities are deemed to be other than temporarily impaired a charge will be recorded through earnings; therefore, future changes in the fair value of securities could have a significant impact on the Company's operating results. In determining whether a market value decline is other than temporary, management considers the reason for the decline, the extent of the decline, the duration of the decline and whether the Company intends to sell or believes it will be required to sell the securities prior to recovery. As of September 30, 2010, gross unrealized losses on the securities available-for-sale portfolio totaled approximately $344,000 and gross unrealized gains totaled approximately $12,726,000. As of September 30, 2010, held-to-maturity securities had a gross unrecognized gain of approximately $27,000.

Income Tax Expense

Income tax expense involves estimates related to the valuation allowance on deferred tax assets and loss contingencies related to exposure from tax examinations.

A valuation allowance reduces deferred tax assets to the amount management believes is more likely than not to be realized. In evaluating the realization of deferred tax assets, management considers the likelihood that sufficient taxable income of appropriate character will be generated within carryback and carryforward periods, including consideration of available tax planning strategies. Tax related loss contingencies, including assessments arising from tax examinations and tax strategies, are recorded as liabilities when the likelihood of loss is probable and an amount or range of loss can be reasonably estimated. In considering the likelihood of loss, management considers the nature of the contingency, the progress of any examination or related protest or appeal, the views of legal counsel and other advisors, experience of the Company or other enterprises in similar matters, if any, and management's intended response to any assessment.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Net Income:

Net income for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 totaled $3,594,000, an increase of $403,000 or 13% from the quarter ended September 30, 2009 net income of $3,191,000. Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 totaled $10,253,000, an increase of $1,356,000 or 15% from the nine months ended September 30, 2009 net income of $8,897,000.

Net Interest Income:

Net interest income is the Company's single largest source of earnings, and represents the difference between interest and fees realized on earning assets, less interest paid on deposits and borrowed funds. Several factors contribute to the determination of net interest income and net interest margin, including the volume and mix of earning assets, interest rates, and income taxes. Many factors affecting net interest income are subject to control by management policies and actions. Factors beyond the control of management include the general level of credit and deposit demand, Federal Reserve Board monetary policy, and changes in tax laws.

The following table summarizes net interest income (on a tax-equivalent basis). For tax-equivalent adjustments, an effective tax rate of 34% was used for all periods presented (1).

Net interest income increased $996,000 or 9% (an increase of $985,000 or 8% on a tax-equivalent basis) for the quarter ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same quarter of 2009. The net interest margin represents tax-equivalent net interest income expressed as a percentage of average earning assets. The tax equivalent net interest margin for the third quarter of 2010 was 4.00% compared to 4.02% for the third quarter of 2009. The yield on earning assets totaled 5.22% during the quarter ended September 30, 2010 compared to 5.63% in the same period of 2009 while the cost of funds (expressed as a percentage of average earning assets) totaled 1.22% during the quarter ended September 30, 2010 compared to 1.61% in the same period of 2009.

Average earning assets increased by approximately $105.1 million or 9% during the three months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. Average loans outstanding increased by $17.8 million or 2% during the three months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the third quarter of 2009. The average securities portfolio increased approximately $98.7 million or 46% in the three months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the third quarter of 2009. The key driver of the increased securities portfolio and overall increased average earnings assets was a higher level of average core deposits (core deposits defined as demand deposits - both interest and non-interest bearing, savings, money market and time deposits in denominations of less than $100,000). During the third quarter of 2010, average core deposits increased $100.6 million or 11%, compared to the third quarter of 2009.

The increase in average loans and average core deposits during the third quarter of 2010 compared with the third quarter 2009 was positively impacted by the acquisition of the two Evansville area (Indiana) branches on May 7, 2010. On a quarterly average basis, loans related to the acquired branches totaled approximately $44.4 million during the third quarter of 2010 while average core deposits related to the acquired branches totaled approximately $45.1 million.

The following table summarizes net interest income (on a tax-equivalent basis). For tax-equivalent adjustments, an effective tax rate of 34% was used for all periods presented (1).

Net interest income increased $2,802,000 or 8% (an increase of $2,815,000 or 8% on a tax-equivalent basis) for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. The tax equivalent net interest margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2010 was 4.01% compared to 3.99% for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. The yield on earning assets totaled 5.31% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to 5.73% in the same period of 2009 while the cost of funds (expressed as a percentage of average earning assets) totaled 1.30% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to 1.74% in the same period of 2009.

Average earning assets increased by approximately $87.2 million or 8% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. Average loans outstanding increased by $9.0 million or 1% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. The average securities portfolio increased approximately $73.9 million or 35% in the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Similar to the third quarter comparisons, the key driver of the increased securities portfolio and overall increased average earnings assets was a higher level of average core deposits. During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, average core deposits increased $77.6 million or 9%, compared to the same period of 2009.
The increase in average loans and average core deposits during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the nine months ended September 30, 2009 was positively impacted by the acquisition of the two Evansville area (Indiana) branches on May 7, 2010. On a year-to-date average basis, loans related to the acquired branches totaled approximately $23.8 million during the first nine months of 2010 while average core deposits related to the acquired branches totaled approximately $23.9 million.

The expansion of the Company's net interest income in both the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same periods of 2009 has been augmented by utilization of interest rate floors on adjustable rate commercial and agricultural loans. As of September 30, 2010, the Company's commercial and agricultural loan portfolio totaled $716.7 million of which approximately 73% were adjustable rate loans. Of these adjustable rate loans, approximately 83% contain interest rate floors which range predominantly from 4% to 7%. At September 30, 2010, approximately $283 million of these loans were at their contractual floor.

Also contributing to the expansion of the Company's net interest income in the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the first nine months of 2009 has been the relative liability sensitive nature of the Company's balance sheet. The Company has been able to effectively lower interest rates on its interest-bearing non-maturity deposits while continuing to expand its core deposit base. In addition, a significant level of time deposits matured during the past several quarters allowing the Company to lower its cost of funds of these deposits in a time of historically low interest rates.

Provision for Loan Losses:

The Company provides for loan losses through regular provisions to the allowance for loan losses. The provision is affected by net charge-offs on loans and changes in specific and general allocations of the allowance. The provision for loan loss totaled $1,375,000 during the quarter ended September 30, 2010, an increase of $125,000 or 10% compared to the provision of $1,250,000 during the quarter ended September 30, 2009. The provision for loan loss totaled $3,875,000 during the nine months ended September 30, 2010, an increase of $875,000 or 29% compared with the provision of $3,000,000 for the first nine months of 2009.

During the third quarter of 2010, the annualized provision for loan loss represented 0.60% of average loans outstanding compared with 0.55% on an annualized basis of average loans outstanding during the third quarter of 2009. Net charge-offs totaled $488,000 or 0.21% on an annualized basis of average loans outstanding during the three months ended September 30, 2010 compared with $757,000 or 0.33% on an annualized basis of average loans outstanding during the same period of 2009. During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, the annualized provision for loan loss represented 0.57% of average loans outstanding compared with 0.45% on an annualized basis of average loans outstanding during the first nine months of 2009. Net charge-offs totaled $3,191,000 or 0.47% on an annualized basis of average loans outstanding during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with $1,734,000 or 0.26% on an annualized basis of average loans outstanding during the same period of 2009. The elevated level of net charge-offs during the first nine months of 2010 was largely the result of the disposition of three commercial real estate loan relationships during the first half of 2010. The resulting net charge-offs of these three relationships totaled approximately $2.5 million, a significant portion of which had been allocated in prior periods.

The provision for loan losses made during the quarter ended and nine months ended September 30, 2010 was made at a level deemed necessary by management to absorb estimated, probable incurred losses in the loan portfolio. A detailed evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses is completed quarterly by management, the results of which are used to determine provision for loan losses. Management estimates the allowance balance required using past loan loss experience, the nature and volume of the portfolio, information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors.

Non-interest Income:

During the quarter ended September 30, 2010, non-interest income increased approximately 9% from the third quarter of 2009.

Trust and investment product fees declined by 25% during the third quarter of 2010 compared with the third quarter of 2009 due primarily to lower retail brokerage revenues. Deposit service charges and fees declined 7% during the third quarter of 2010 compared with the third quarter of 2009 due primarily to less customer utilization of the Company's overdraft protection program. The implementation of Regulation E during August of 2010 had minimal impact on deposit service charges and fees based on the Company's internal analysis. Other operating income increased $115,000 or 19% during the third quarter of 2010 compared with the same period of 2009 due primarily to a higher level of net interchange revenues.

The net gain on sales of loans increased $391,000 or 95% due to strong residential mortgage loan production that has been sold in the secondary market and improved pricing on those loans sold and those loans held for sale. Loans sales totaled $39.6 million during the third quarter of 2010 compared to $50.4 million during the third quarter of 2009.

During nine months ended September 30, 2010, non-interest income increased approximately 6% over the first nine months of 2009.

Trust and investment product fees declined by 14% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009 due primarily to lower retail brokerage revenues. Deposit service charges and fees declined 6% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the first nine months of 2009 due primarily to less customer utilization of the Company's overdraft protection program.

Other operating income increased $832,000 or 57% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. The increase was attributable to the gain on sale of a commercial other real estate owned property combined with net write-downs on other real estate owned properties during the nine months ended September 30, 2009. In addition, a higher level of net interchange revenues contributed to the increased level of other operating income during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009.

The net gain on sales of loans increased 13% due to strong residential mortgage loan production that has been sold in the secondary market and improved pricing on those loans sold and those loans held for sale for delivery into the secondary market. Loans sales totaled $75.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared to $121.4 million during the same period of 2009.

Non-interest Expense:

During the quarter ended September 30, 2010, non-interest expense increased approximately 5% compared with the quarter ended September 30, 2009. The increase from a total non-interest expense perspective was largely attributable to the operating costs associated with the branch offices acquired during the second quarter of 2010.

Salaries and benefits expense declined approximately 2% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. The decrease was primarily the result of lower costs associated with the Company's partially self-insured health insurance plan partially offset by the increased salary and benefit costs due to an increased number of full-time equivalent employees related to the branch acquisition completed during the second quarter of 2010.

The Company's FDIC deposit insurance assessments decreased $507,000, or 33%, during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009. The decrease was due to an industry wide special assessment in the second quarter of 2009 of approximately $550,000 which represented 5 basis points of the Company's subsidiary bank's total assets less Tier 1 Capital.

Professional fees increased 34% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009 primarily as a result of professional fees associated with the acquisition of the two branch offices during second quarter of 2010 and professional fees associated with the pending acquisition of American Community Bancorp, Inc. Advertising and promotion increased 18% in the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the same period of 2009 largely as a result of the Company's common identity initiative and the acquisition of the branch offices in a new market for the Company during the second quarter of 2010.

Other operating expenses increased by 13% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with the first nine months of 2009. The increase was largely attributable to costs related to the Company's common identity initiative and amortization expense related to a new markets tax credit project in which the Company invested in the fourth quarter of 2009.

Income Taxes:

The Company's effective income tax rate approximated 29.5% and 27.0% during the three months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009. The Company's effective income tax rate approximated 28.6% and 26.6% during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 and 2009. The effective tax rate in both 2010 and 2009 was lower than the blended statutory rate of 39.6% resulting primarily from the Company's tax-exempt investment income on securities, loans and company owned life insurance, income tax credits generated from investments in affordable housing projects and a new markets tax credit project, and income generated by subsidiaries domiciled in a state with no state or local income tax.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

Total assets at September 30, 2010 increased $113.0 million to $1.356 billion compared with $1.243 billion in total assets at December 31, 2009. Cash and cash equivalents increased $17.2 million to $45.3 million at September 30, 2010 compared with $28.1 million at year-end 2009. Securities available-for-sale increased $50.1 million to $301.0 million at September 30, 2010 compared with $250.9 million at year-end 2009. The increase in cash and cash equivalents and securities available-for-sale was primarily attributable to growth in the Company's deposit portfolio.

Premises, furniture and equipment (net), at September 30, 2010 increased $4.6 million to $26.8 million compared with $22.2 million of such assets at December 31, 2009. This increase was primarily attributable to the purchase of premises, furniture and equipment, with a fair value of approximately $5.2 million, as part of the acquisition of branches in the Evansville, Indiana banking market during May 2010.

End-of-period loans outstanding increased approximately 5% on an annualized basis during the first nine months of 2010 compared with the year-ended December 31, 2009. The overall increase in the level of loans was primarily the result of the acquisition of two branch offices previously discussed in this report. The fair value of the loans acquired as a part of the branch acquisition totaled approximately $42.9 million at the time of closing and were predominantly commercial and industrial loans and commercial real estate loans.

End of Period Loan Balances: ($ in thousands)	September 30, 2010	December 31, 2009	Current Period Change	Annualized Percent Change
Commercial and Industrial Loans	$ 222,437	$ 188,962	$ 33,475	24%
Commercial Real Estate Loans	342,716	334,255	8,461	3%
Agricultural Loans	151,517	156,845	(5,328)	-5%
Consumer Loans	117,686	114,736	2,950	3%

Residential Mortgage Loans	80,854	84,677	(3,823)	-6%
Total Loans	$ 915,210	$ 879,475	$ 35,735	5%

The Company's allowance for loan losses totaled $11.7 million at September 30, 2010. This level of allowance represents an increase of $684,000 or 6% from year-end 2009. The allowance for loan losses represented 1.28% of period end loans at September 30, 2010 compared with 1.25% at year-end 2009. The allowance for loan losses represented 100% of period end non-performing loans at September 30, 2010 and 125% of period end non-performing loans at December 31, 2009. The loans acquired as a part of the Company's branch acquisition completed during the second quarter of 2010 were recorded at fair value which included a credit risk component; therefore, at September 30, 2010 there was only minimal allowance for loan loss associated with these loans.

End-of-period deposits increased approximately 16% on an annualized basis during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 compared with year-end December 31, 2009. The increase in deposits during the first nine months of 2010 was the result of organic growth as well as deposits purchased as a part of the branch acquisition previously discussed. The fair value of deposits acquired totaled approximately $50.2 million at the time of closing, of which a majority were core deposits.

End of Period Deposit Balances: ($ in thousands)	September 30, 2010	December 31, 2009	Current Period Change	Annualized Percent Change
Non-interest-bearing Demand Deposits	$ 187,363	$ 155,268	$ 32,095	28%

Time Deposits of $100,000 or more & Brokered Deposits	85,414	73,275	12,139	22%
Total Deposits	$ 1,082,848	$ 969,643	$ 113,205	16%

Non-performing Assets:

The following is an analysis of the Company’s non-performing assets at September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009 (dollars in thousands):

	September 30, 2010	December 31, 2009
Non-accrual Loans	$ 10,721	$ 8,374
Past Due Loans (90 days or more)	587	113
Restructured Loans	404	306
Total Non-performing Loans	11,712	8,793
Other Real Estate	2,397	2,363
Total Non-performing Assets	$ 14,109	$ 11,156
Non-performing Loans to Total Loans	1.28%	1.00%
Allowance for Loan Loss to Non-performing Loans	99.90%	125.28%

Non-performing assets totaled $14.1 million at September 30, 2010 compared with $11.2 million at December 31, 2009. Non-performing loans totaled $11.7 million at September 30, 2010 and $8.8 million at December 31, 2009. Non-performing loans represented 1.28% of total outstanding loans at September 30, 2010 compared with 1.00% of total loans outstanding at year-end 2009.

The increase in non-performing loans and more specifically non-accrual loans during 2010 is largely attributable to two commercial real estate credit relationships. These two credit relationships totaled approximately 41% of the total non-accrual loans as of September 30, 2010. The first credit, which was placed on non-accrual status during the first quarter of 2010, is a commercial development land loan that totaled $2.4 million at September 30, 2010. The Company continues to work with the borrower in an attempt to liquidate the property. The second loan, which was placed on non-accrual during the third quarter 2010, is a commercial warehouse-space loan that totaled $2.1 million at September 30, 2010 and is currently partially occupied. Work-out plans for this credit are currently being developed by the Company.

Capital Resources:

Federal banking regulations provide guidelines for determining the capital adequacy of bank holding companies and banks. These guidelines provide for a more narrow definition of core capital and assign a measure of risk to the various categories of assets. The Company is required to maintain minimum levels of capital in proportion to total risk-weighted assets and off-balance sheet exposures such as loan commitments and standby letters of credit.

Tier 1, or core capital, consists of shareholders' equity less goodwill, core deposit intangibles, other identifiable intangibles and certain deferred tax assets defined by bank regulations. Tier 2 capital currently consists of the amount of the allowance for loan losses which does not exceed a defined maximum allowance limit of 1.25 percent of gross risk adjusted assets and subordinated debenture obligations. Total capital is the sum of Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital.

The minimum requirements under these standards are generally at least a 4.0 percent leverage ratio, which is Tier 1 capital divided by defined "total assets"; 4.0 percent Tier 1 capital to risk-adjusted assets; and, an 8.0 percent total capital to risk-adjusted assets ratios. Under these guidelines, the Company, on a consolidated basis, and its subsidiary bank, have capital ratios that exceed the regulatory minimums.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 (FDICIA) requires federal regulatory agencies to define capital tiers. These are: well-capitalized, adequately-capitalized, under-capitalized, significantly under-capitalized, and critically under-capitalized. Under these regulations, a "well-capitalized" entity must achieve a Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of at least 6.0 percent; a total capital ratio of at least 10.0 percent; and, a leverage ratio of at least 5.0 percent, and not be under a capital directive. The Company's subsidiary bank was categorized as well-capitalized as of September 30, 2010.

At September 30, 2010, management was not under such a capital directive, nor was it aware of any current recommendations by banking regulatory authorities which, if they were to be implemented, would have or are reasonably likely to have, a material effect on the Company's liquidity, capital resources or operations.

At September 30, 2010 consolidated and affiliate bank actual capital and minimum required levels are presented below:

	Actual		Minimum Required For Capital Adequacy Purposes:		Minimum Required To Be Well-Capitalized Under Prompt Corrective Action Regulations:
	Amount	Ratio	Amount	Ratio	Amount	Ratio

As of September 30, 2010, shareholders' equity increased by $9.4 million to $122.9 million compared with $113.5 million at year-end 2009. The increase in shareholders' equity was primarily attributable to an increase of $5.6 million in retained earnings and an increase of $3.4 million in accumulated other comprehensive income. Shareholders' equity represented 9.1% of total assets at September 30, 2010 and at December 31, 2009. Shareholders' equity included $12.6 million of goodwill and other intangible assets at September 30, 2010 compared to $12.3 million of goodwill and other intangible assets at December 31, 2009.

Liquidity:

The Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows details the elements of changes in the Company's consolidated cash and cash equivalents. Total cash and cash equivalents increased $17.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2010 ending at $45.3 million. During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, operating activities resulted in net cash inflows of $10.6 million. Investing activities resulted in net cash outflows of $40.8 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2010. The outflows from investing activities were primarily attributable to the purchase of available for sale securities during the first nine months of 2010. Financing activities resulted in net cash inflows for the nine month period ended September 30, 2010 of $47.5 million. The net inflows from financing activities were primarily the result of increased deposits and to a lesser degree an increased level of short-term borrowings in the form of repurchase agreements with deposit customers partially offset by the repayment of long-term borrowings in the form of Federal Home Loan Bank advances.

PARENT COMPANY FUNDING SOURCES AND OBLIGATIONS

As discussed in greater detail in Item 7 (under the subheading "PARENT COMPANY FUNDING SOURCES") of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for its year ended December 31, 2009, the Company's parent company at December 31, 2009, was party, as borrower, to certain credit facilities, including obligations with respect to borrowings that were outstanding at that date, with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (as the "Lender") in the form of a $10 million Subordinated Debenture, a $10 million Term Note and a $10 million Revolving Note. These credit facilities were established by the Second Amended and Restated Loan and Subordinated Debenture Purchase Agreement dated December 29, 2006, as previously amended by four prior amendments ("Loan Agreement") between the Lender and the Company.

The Revolving Note and related revolving line of credit expired on September 30, 2010. At the time of the expiration of the revolving line of credit, no borrowings were outstanding under the Revolving Note.

In the fourth quarter of 2010, the Company and the Lender anticipate executing and delivering to each other a fifth amendment to the Loan Agreement ("Amendment"). Pursuant to the Amendment, the Lender will agree to extend the availability of the expired line of credit in the amount of $5 million (reduced from the $10 million available under the expired line of credit) under the Loan Agreement through September 30, 2011. The Amendment also will fix new and increased rates of interest payable to the Lender with respect to amounts borrowed by the Company under the Term Loan and under the extended revolving line of credit from time to time, will add a new covenant requiring the Company to maintain during each twelve-month period (tested quarterly, commencing December 31, 2010) a minimum ratio of cash flow to fixed charges (as defined, parent company only) of 1-to-1, and will acknowledge the Lender's consent to the American Community merger transaction.

In connection with the closing of the pending merger of American Community into the Company (see Note 13, Subsequent Events, to the unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Company included in Part 1, Item 1 of this Report), the Company's parent company is contingently obligated to pay.

- cash consideration to the shareholders of American Community (if such cash consideration has not previously been paid by American Community to its shareholders in the form of a special pre-closing cash dividend that American Community intends to contingently declare and pay to its shareholders on December 30, 2010, subject to regulatory approvals and other contingencies); and
- cash payments in consideration of the cancellation of in-the-money options and warrants of American Community pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

The Company currently estimates that these cash payments will aggregate approximately $6.0 million (subject to change because the amount of the cancellation payments will vary in the same direction of any variance in the market value of the German American common stock prior to the date of the making of the cancellation payments, and will also vary with any change in the number of dilutive options and warrants that may then be outstanding). These expectations are subject to change and are based upon proforma financial information provided in the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed on October 21, 2010.

The Company anticipates that these cash payments will be funded directly or indirectly by cash dividends from the Company's existing bank subsidiary or from the bank subsidiary or American Community that will be acquired, subject to regulatory approval of the payments of such dividends by the bank(s) and by American Community. The Company does not anticipate that any banking agencies with regulatory authority over such dividends would disapprove of the payment of such dividends for such purposes, in light of the Company's "well-capitalized" status as computed in accordance with regulatory guidelines of the federal and state banking agencies (even after giving effect to the acquisition of American Community), assuming that such regulators have also approved the underlying merger transaction to which the cash dividends would relate.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS AND ASSOCIATED RISKS

The Company from time to time in its oral and written communications makes statements relating to its expectations regarding the future. These types of statements are considered “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company may include forward-looking statements in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), such as this Form 10-Q, in information furnished to (but not filed with) the SEC, in other written materials, and in oral statements made by senior management to analysts, investors, representatives of the media, and others. Such forward looking statements can include statements about the Company’s net interest income or net interest margin; its adequacy of allowance for loan losses, levels of provisions for loan losses, and the quality of the Company’s loans and other assets; simulations of changes in interest rates; expected results from mergers with or acquisitions of other businesses; litigation results; tax estimates and recognition; dividend policy; parent company cash resources and cash requirements, and parent company capital resources; estimated cost savings, plans and objectives for future operations; and expectations about the Company’s financial and business performance and other business matters as well as economic and market conditions and trends. They often can be identified by the use of words like “expect,” “may,” “will,” “would,” “could,” “should,” “intend,” “ “estimate,” “believe” or “anticipate,” or similar expressions.

Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which the forward-looking statement is made.

Readers are cautioned that, by their nature, all forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and are subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors. Actual results may differ materially and adversely from the expectations of the Company that are expressed or implied by any forward-looking statement. The discussions (a) in Part II, Item 1A, of this Report, and of the Company’s Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2010, (b) in Part I, Item 1A, of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, and (c) in this Item 2 list some of the factors that could cause the Company's actual results to vary materially from those expressed or implied by any forward-looking statements. Other risks, uncertainties, and factors that could cause the Company’s actual results to vary materially from those expressed or implied by any forward-looking statement include the unknown future direction of interest rates and the timing and magnitude of any changes in interest rates; the effects of changes in competitive conditions; the possibility that the Company may acquire other businesses or intangible customer relationships of other companies and the costs of integrations of such acquired businesses and intangible customer relationships, and the possible loss of the newly-acquired customer relationships or key employee relationships following any such acquisitions; the introduction, withdrawal, success, and timing of business initiatives and strategies, including asset/liability management strategies; changes in customer borrowing, repayment, investment, and deposit practices; changes in fiscal, monetary, and tax policies; changes in financial and capital markets; the possibility of a recession or other adverse change in general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, resulting in, among other things, credit quality deterioration; the impact, extent and timing of technological changes; possible future capital management activities that the Company may utilize, including possible future sales or repurchases or redemptions by the Company of debt or equity securities issued by it or that it may issue; monetary policy actions of the Federal Reserve Board; regulatory actions of governmental authorities under federal banking statutes, including the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (and specifically actions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in respect of possible future special assessments of deposit insurance premiums) and the newly-enacted Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, and other legislative and regulatory actions and reforms; changes in accounting principles and interpretations; the inherent uncertainties involved in litigation and regulatory proceedings which could result in the Company’s incurring loss or damage regardless of the merits of the Company’s claims or defenses; and the continued availability of earnings and excess capital sufficient for the lawful and prudent declaration and payment of cash dividends (both by the Company’s bank subsidiary to the Company and by the Company to its public shareholders).

Investors should consider these risks, uncertainties, and other factors, in addition to those mentioned by the Company in its public announcements and SEC Reports identified above and made in the future, from time to time, when considering any forward-looking statement.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company's exposure to market risk is reviewed on a regular basis by the Asset/Liability Committee and Boards of Directors of the parent company and its subsidiary bank. Primary market risks which impact the Company's operations are liquidity risk and interest rate risk.

The liquidity of the parent company is dependent upon the receipt of dividends from its subsidiary bank, which is subject to certain regulatory limitations. The Bank's source of funding is predominately core deposits, maturities of securities, repayments of loan principal and interest, federal funds purchased, securities sold under agreements to repurchase and borrowings from the Federal Home Loan Bank.

The Company monitors interest rate risk by the use of computer simulation modeling to estimate the potential impact on its net interest income under various interest rate scenarios, and by estimating its static interest rate sensitivity position. Another method by which the Company's interest rate risk position can be estimated is by computing estimated changes in its net portfolio value ("NPV"). This method estimates interest rate risk exposure from movements in interest rates by using interest rate sensitivity analysis to determine the change in the NPV of discounted cash flows from assets and liabilities.

NPV represents the market value of portfolio equity and is equal to the estimated market value of assets minus the estimated market value of liabilities. Computations are based on a number of assumptions, including the relative levels of market interest rates and prepayments in mortgage loans and certain types of investments. These computations do not contemplate any actions management may undertake in response to changes in interest rates, and should not be relied upon as indicative of actual results. In addition, certain shortcomings are inherent in the method of computing NPV. Should interest rates remain or decrease below current levels, the proportion of adjustable rate loans could decrease in future periods due to refinancing activity. In the event of an interest rate change, prepayment levels would likely be different from those assumed in the table. Lastly, the ability of many borrowers to repay their adjustable rate debt may decline during a rising interest rate environment.

The table below provides an assessment of the risk to NPV in the event of a sudden and sustained 2% increase and decrease in prevailing interest rates (dollars in thousands).

Interest Rate Sensitivity as of September 30, 2010

	Net Portfolio Value		Net Portfolio Value as a % of Present Value of Assets
Changes in rates	$ Amount	% Change	NPV Ratio	Change
+2 %	122,900	(10.99)%	9.41%	(77)b.p.
Base	138,081	—	10.18%	—
-2 %	107,887	(21.87)%	7.88%	(230)b.p.

This Item 3 includes forward-looking statements. See "Forward-looking Statements" included in Part I, Item 2 of this Report for a discussion of certain factors that could cause the Company's actual exposure to market risk to vary materially from that expressed or implied above. These factors include possible changes in economic conditions; interest rate fluctuations, competitive product and pricing pressures within the Company's markets; and equity and fixed income market fluctuations. Actual experience may also vary materially to the extent that the Company's assumptions described above prove to be inaccurate.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As of September 30, 2010, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of its disclosure controls and procedures. Based on this evaluation, the Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were as of that date effective in timely alerting them to material information required to be included in the Company's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. There are inherent limitations to the effectiveness of systems of disclosure controls and procedures, including the possibility of human error and the circumvention or overriding of the controls and procedures. Accordingly, even effective systems of disclosure controls and procedures can provide only reasonable assurances of achieving their control objectives.

There was no change in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the Company’s third fiscal quarter of 2010 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1A. Risk Factors

The Company filed on October 21, 2010 a Registration Statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under SEC File No. 333-70068, with respect to the Company's proposed acquisition of American Community Bancorp, Inc. ("American Community") pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated October 4, 2010 ("merger agreement"). Under the merger agreement, American Community and German American are obligated (subject to satisfaction of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement) to cause American Community to merge with and into German American (the "merger"). The merger agreement provides that American Community's wholly-owned banking subsidiary, Bank of Evansville, will be merged with and into German American's wholly-owned banking subsidiary, German American Bancorp, immediately following the merger.

As disclosed by the Registration Statement referred to above, and by subsequent information concerning management's forward-looking expectations relating to the merger transaction that German American has publicly announced or has furnished to (not filed with) the SEC, German American is subject to risks that relate specifically to the proposed merger with American Community, including, but not limited to, the risks that:

- German American might not succeed in obtaining the required regulatory approvals (or burdensome conditions might be imposed on German American by the regulatory agencies as a condition of such approvals), or American Community's shareholders might not approve the merger, or other conditions specified by the merger agreement might not approve the merger, or other conditions specified by the merger agreement might not be satisfied, any of which would result in the transaction not being completed;
- American Community's operations may not be integrated successfully into German American's operations or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected, including possible disruption of employee or customer relationships that could result in decreased revenues if such disruption results in loss of customers;
- cost savings that are expected by management of German American to result from the transaction may not be fully realized or realized within the expected timeframe;
- market factors could dictate that German American delay or alter planned deposit-pricing strategies for the acquired banking operations that might (if and when implemented) increase the net interest income derived from those operations following the merger;
- the relative proportions of the consideration actually paid by German American in the merger transaction (that is, the amount of cash paid as compared to the amount of German American stock issued) may vary from the relative proportions anticipated by management, due to the potential for exercises of dilutive options or warrants to purchase American Community shares prior to the completion of the merger and the potential for shareholders of American Community to exercise statutory dissenters rights, resulting in possible material changes (including possible material adverse changes) in German American's actual future results of operations compared to those presently anticipated by it; and
- the final valuations for accounting purposes under the acquisition methods of accounting (as discussed in the Registration Statement) may differ materially from the preliminary valuations assumed by management and reflected by the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements included in the Registration Statement, and such valuation differences may result in material changes (including possible material adverse changes) in German American's actual future results of operations compared to those anticipated by management, due to differences in valuations of items such as (but not limited to):

- the shares of German American to be issued in the merger (since the market value of German American's shares based on NASDAQ market data may vary at the time of completion of the merger from historical levels of market values of German American's shares), and/or

- American Community's loans, core deposit customer relationships, and other identifiable assets acquired by (or of American Community's liabilities assumed by) German American in the merger, all of which may vary on account of multiple factors at the time of closing compared to the preliminary valuation estimates of German American's management.

Although the Company believes that the expectations of management relating to the merger (as reflected by forward-looking statements that the Company may from time to time announce publicly) are reasonable, the Company can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. Except as required by law, the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any information relating to its expectations for the merger that it may from time to time publicly announce, whether as the result of new information, future events or developments or otherwise.

Other than the additional risk factors relating to the American Community merger discussed above, there are no material changes from the risk factors set forth under Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, as supplemented by a certain risk factor (relating to the enactment by the United States Congress of new financial reform legislation commonly known as the Dodd-Frank Act) that was discussed under Part II, Item 1A, "Risk Factors," in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2010.
