First Financial Bancorp.

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 19, 2013, First Financial Bancorp., an Ohio corporation (the “Company”), First Financial Bank, National Association, a national banking association and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (“First Financial”), and Insight Bank, an Ohio state-chartered commercial bank (“Insight”) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Insight will merge with and into First Financial (the “Merger”). Insight’s shareholders will be entitled to receive merger consideration equal to $20.50 for each share of Insight common stock, of which 80%, or $16.40, will be paid in the Company’s common stock and 20%, or $4.10, will be paid in cash, subject to certain adjustment depending upon changes in the price of the Company’s common stock. For purpose of calculating the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration, the Company’s common stock is valued at its average closing price (the “Average Closing Price”) on Nasdaq for the twenty trading days ending on the third business day prior to the effective time of the Merger, subject to a collar, i.e., no higher than 115%, or lower than 85%, of such average closing price calculated by reference to the time of signing the Merger Agreement, which is $16.31 (the “Signing Date Price”).

All outstanding stock options of Insight will be cashed out at the closing of the Merger. Including payment to be made for cancelling the stock options, the expanded total merger consideration is valued at approximately $36.6 million. The parties intend to redeem Insight’s approximately $4.3 million of preferred stock issued to the U.S. Department of the Treasury through the Small Business Lending Fund in connection with the consummation of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, and covenants of each party. Subject to certain terms and conditions, the Merger Agreement provides that the board of directors of Insight will recommend the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement by the shareholders of Insight. Insight has also agreed not to solicit acquisition proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions. In addition, Insight has agreed not to participate in discussions or negotiations or provide information in connection with any acquisition proposals for alternative business combination transactions unless certain conditions are satisfied.

Closing of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, approval of the Merger Agreement by Insight’s shareholders, receipt of required regulatory approvals and effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by the Company, and approval for listing on the Nasdaq, with respect to its common stock to be issued in the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for each party and further provides that, in the event the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances in connection with a competing acquisition transaction, Insight will be required to pay First Financial a termination fee equal to 5% of the expanded total merger consideration. In addition, if the Average Closing Price has declined by more than 25% from the Signing Date Price, and the Company's common stock underperforms the KBW Regional Banking Index by more than 25% during such period, Insight may terminate the Merger Agreement unless the Company removes the collar restriction in calculating the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement in this Item 1.01 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties thereto, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk among the parties instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. In addition, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties thereto, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses.

Important Information About the Merger

In connection with the proposed transaction, the Company intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") a registration statement on Form S-4 to register the shares of the Company's common stock to be issued to the shareholders of Insight. The registration statement will include a proxy statement/prospectus which will be sent to the shareholders of Insight in advance of a special meeting of shareholders that will be held to consider the proposed merger. INVESTORS AND SECURITY HOLDERS OF INSIGHT ARE URGED TO READ THE PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS TO BE FILED WITH THE SEC IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION BECAUSE THEY CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT FIRST FINANCIAL, INSIGHT AND THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION.
