Converium Holding Ltd

Zug, Switzerland - October 3, 2003 - Converium today announces the promotion and appointment of four new members to its Global Executive Committee (GEC). These appointments are coupled with changes to Converium's organizational and financial reporting structures. With these changes, Converium achieves full alignment between structure and strategy.

Edgar Filing: CONVERIUM HOLDING AG - Form 6-K

New Members of Converium's Global Executive Committee appointed

Converium's Global Executive Committee (GEC) has been expanded. The Board of Directors of Converium Holding Ltd has appointed four new members - Dr Hans Peter Boller, Christian Felderer, Christoph Ludemann, and Gary Prestia - to the GEC.

The Board of Directors has also approved changes to the assigned responsibilities of the GEC. The newly structured GEC is composed of:

Dirk Lohmann - Chief Executive Officer,

and the following Executive Vice Presidents:

Frank Schaar - Standard Property & Casualty Reinsurance,
Benjamin Gentsch - Specialty Lines,
Christoph Ludemann - Life & Health Reinsurance,
Gary Prestia - Chief Technical Officer, Hans Peter Boller - Chief Risk Officer, Martin Kauer - Chief Financial Officer, and Christian Felderer - General Legal Counsel.

The CVs of all members of the GEC are attached to this press release.

Richard Smith, CEO of Converium North America and a member of the GEC, has stepped down as planned from his responsibilities. To ensure an orderly transition of responsibilities, he will continue to work with the management team until his normal retirement at the end of 2003.

Amendments to Converium's organizational and financial reporting structure

At the time of its IPO in December 2001, Converium adopted an organizational model based on geography. This structure was driven by the historical development of its then parent, Zurich Financial Services. Over its first 22 months as an independent reinsurer, Converium has become more globally integrated, and the issues of legal entity and geography have become less relevant criteria when determining business strategy, capital allocation and the adoption of best practice throughout the organization. It is now apparent that a structure based on global functional areas is required to ensure that Converium is fully aligned with its strategy, and to deploy company resources and capabilities most efficiently.

As a result, the Board of Directors has approved the following changes to the organizational and financial reporting structures:

- The new management structure centers on global functional areas and will replace the current organizational structure, which is primarily based on geography.
- There are now three new global business segments:
 - Standard Property & Casualty Reinsurance,
 - Specialty Lines, and
 - Life & Health Reinsurance.
- Starting with the 3rd quarter 2003, Converium's financial reporting will reflect the new segment structure. Additionally, Converium will separately report the administration expenses of its Corporate Center, such as the

Board of Directors, the GEC, and global functions.

With this structure, Converium has fully aligned its operating platform with its global strategy. At the same time, the new segment reporting structure allows a better assessment of the execution of Converium's strategy. For the sake of clarity, please note that there are no changes whatsoever to previously disclosed consolidated statements of income, balance sheets, cash flow statements, and management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations (MD&A).

The detailed split of lines of business by segment is as follows:

- Standard Property & Casualty Reinsurance:
 - General Third Party Liability,
 - Motor,
 - Personal Accident (assumed from non-life insurers), and
 - Property;
- Specialty Lines:
 - Agribusiness,
 - Aviation & Space,
 - Credit & Surety,
 - Engineering,
 - Marine & Energy,
 - Professional Liability and other Specialty Liability, and
 - Workers' Compensation;
- Life & Health Reinsurance:
 - Life and Disability, and
 - Accident and Health.

Converium will continue to deliver non-traditional/finite solutions to its clients across all lines of business.

Quotes from Management

Dirk Lohmann, CEO of Converium, said:

"The changes announced today are a logical step in Converium's evolution, allowing us to fully align our management and financial reporting structures with our strategy. We will be able to offer our clients even better levels of service, wherever they are in the world, while giving our stakeholders a clearer understanding of the strength of our business and its potential for further growth. These changes enable us to live up to our aspirations to be 'the next Re generation'."

Edgar Filing: CONVERIUM HOLDING AG - Form 6-K

"I am particularly pleased that we were able to staff the new GEC positions with internal candidates - a true sign of the depth of talent that Converium as an organization is able to attract, develop and retain."

"Finally, I would personally like to thank Richard Smith for his contribution to the successful launch of Converium as an independent company. It is a testament to his leadership that we were able to find so many well-qualified candidates for new global responsibilities."

Martin Kauer, CFO of Converium, said:

"Structure follows strategy - Converium's new organization consistently follows our strategy. We are confident that the new segment structure will enhance the understanding of Converium's strategy, and allow us to become even more comparable to our peers and more transparent in our financial reporting."
