The following is a letter to certain clients of Lebenthal & Co., a subsidiary of The MONY Group. The merger agreement for AXA Financial, Inc.'s acquisition of The MONY Group was filed by The MONY Group under cover of Form 8-K on September 18, 2003 and is incorporated by reference into this filing.

Lebenthal Client Letter

[Date]

Dear (Name of client):

I(we) have some exciting news to share with you.

Our parent company, The MONY Group, recently announced that it has entered into an agreement to become a wholly-owned subsidiary of AXA Financial, Inc. The transaction is subject to shareholder and regulatory approvals as well as other customary closing conditions and is expected to close by the end of the first quarter of 2004.

With approximately $415 billion in assets under management as of December 31, 2002, AXA Financial is one of the world's premier financial services organizations. And you may recognize some of AXA Financial's strong brands: The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U.S., Alliance Capital Management L.P., and Sanford C. Bernstein & Co.

AXA Financial is one of the most respected companies in our industry and shares much in common with Advest and The MONY Group. In terms of philosophy, AXA Financial places a strong belief in the value of customized financial advice and wealth management solutions—the model that forms the basis of all that we do here at Lebenthal.

What does this mean for you as a Lebenthal client?

It means that from an organizational standpoint, we will continue to operate as we currently do. Our offices will remain in their current locations and our brand will likewise remain unchanged.

Most importantly, however, our focus on providing you with the best advice possible will not change. You will now enjoy an enhanced range of product and service offerings through our affiliation with AXA Financial, beginning next year following the closing of this transaction.

I(we) will keep you apprised of further developments as they unfold over the coming months. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have. I(we) appreciate the trust you have placed in me(us) over the years and look forward to continuing to serve your financial needs for many more to come.

Sincerely,

Financial Advisor
