Rambus Inc. (the Company) plans to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 (Form 10-Q) as soon as practicable, but does not expect that it will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As described in its current reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the S.E.C.) on May 31, 2006 and June 27, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors is conducting an internal investigation of past option grants and other potentially related issues. While the Audit Committee has reached a preliminary conclusion that the actual measurement dates for certain stock option grants issued in prior years differ from the recorded grants for such awards, the Audit Committee has not completed its review. Until the Audit Committee's review is complete, the Company will be unable to prepare and file its Form 10-Q. The Company intends to file its Form 10-Q as soon as practicable after the completion of the Audit Committee's review.

As described in its current report on Form 8-K filed with the S.E.C. on July 19, 2006, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, in consultation with management and after discussion with the Company's auditors on July 17, 2006, concluded that the Company's previously issued financial statements for the fiscal years 2003, 2004, 2005, which are included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with respect to each of these fiscal years and the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first quarter of fiscal year 2006, should no longer be relied upon and will be restated. In addition, the restatement will affect financial statements for prior fiscal years and the Company will reflect those adjustments as a part of the opening balances in the financial statements for the restatement period.
