Item 5.02. Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 1, 2006, Wachovia Corporation (Wachovia) entered into an Employment Agreement (the Agreement) with Thomas J. Wurtz, Wachovia s Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. A copy of the Agreement is filed as Exhibit (10) to this Report and incorporated into the Item 5.02 by reference.

The Agreement provides for an employment period of three years. The employment period is automatically extended on an annual basis unless either party determines otherwise prior to the annual extension date. The Agreement provides that if Wachovia terminates Mr. Wurtz s employment for reasons other than cause , death, disability or retirement or Mr. Wurtz terminates employment for good reason , then Mr. Wurtz will be entitled to (i) a pro rata annual bonus for the period prior to the termination date, based on the highest bonus paid during either the three-year period prior to termination or Mr. Wurtz s then applicable target incentive bonus, (ii) an amount equal to two times Mr. Wurtz s annual base salary and the highest bonus determined under (i) above, (iii) medical and life insurance benefits for Mr. Wurtz and family members for two years after the termination date (or for life if the termination date occurs after a change in control of Wachovia), and (iv) continued vesting of outstanding and unvested stock options and shares of restricted stock during the two-year period following the termination date in accordance with the applicable terms of such stock options or restricted stock grants as if employment had not been terminated. The Agreement provides for a gross-up payment equal to the amount of excise taxes (plus the applicable federal and state income, FICA and excise taxes due on such gross-up payment) payable by Mr. Wurtz if employment is terminated in conjunction with a change in control of Wachovia and such taxes become payable, as a result of payments under the Agreement or otherwise, and are deemed to be excess parachute payments for federal tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Agreement places a limitation on the maximum amount of payments Mr. Wurtz may receive under the Agreement at 2.99 times Mr. Wurtz s annual base salary and highest annual bonus paid in the three-year period prior to termination of employment. The Agreement contains obligations on Mr. Wurtz regarding non-competition following employment termination in certain circumstances, non-solicitation of employees following employment termination and confidentiality of information obtained while employed with Wachovia. The Agreement provides that any payments which may become due to Mr. Wurtz in connection with his termination of employment and which may be subject to Internal Revenue Code Section 409A and implementing regulations (the 409A Rules), shall be delayed for a six-month period as necessary to enable such payments to be made without incurring excise taxes and/or penalties under the 409A Rules.

The Agreement was adopted by Wachovia s board of directors in accordance with the Wachovia Corporation Policy Regarding Shareholder Approval of Future Severance Agreements, which may be found at Wachovia s website, www.wachovia.com.
