2. Who is McLeodUSA?

McLeodUSA provides flexible and reliable integrated voice and data services to small and medium-sized business throughout the Midwest, Rocky Mountain, Southwest and Northwest regions. Their IP-based communications services are delivered over a high-speed broadband connection and consist of a suite of voice and data services, including local and long distance voice, internet access, email, virtual private networking, network security, conference calling, and high capacity private line services. McLeodUSA also provides wholesale communications services to other communications services providers through their extensive network facilities.

3. How will customers benefit from this transaction?

Both PAETEC and McLeodUSA believe that success is built by providing excellent service to every customer. Both companies have a total service and customer satisfaction commitment. The combined company will be a stronger communications provider, well positioned to serve medium and large enterprises and institutions. In addition to increased scale and scope, we will have a wider array of products, such as PAETEC's Equipment for Services, software applications, and resale products and McLeodUSA's products engineered for small and medium businesses.

4. When will the transaction close?

The companies expect that the transaction will close in the first quarter of 2008.

5. After the closing of the transaction, what will the combined company be called, where will it be headquartered, and who will lead it?

Following the close of the transaction, the company will be called PAETEC, which will continue to be listed on the NASDAQ Stock Market as PAET. The company will be headquartered in Fairport, N.Y. and will maintain PAETEC's and McLeodUSA's operations in major locations across the country. The combined company will be led by Chairman & CEO, Arunas Chesonis, current PAETEC Chairman & CEO.

6. What can customers expect in the interim? Who is going to be my day-to-day contact?

Until the transaction closes, both companies will continue business as usual. There will be no change in how each company conducts business with you. Your day to day contacts remain the same. Each company will make every effort to keep you informed about important developments throughout the approval and integration process. If you have any questions or wish to discuss this further, please feel free to contact your company representative.

7. Will there be any changes to my existing contract

No. The terms of your contract will not be impacted by this transaction.

8. When can I add locations within the expanded footprint?

PAETEC and McLeod will work to integrate our networks following the transaction's close. We will communicate to you during this process and set expectations as to when service will become available across the nation either entirely or in stages.

9. How will I learn more about the transaction?

Updates will be made available through each company's website www.paetec.com and www.mcleodusa.com and/or through direct communication from your PAETEC/McLeodUSA representative. If you have any questions, please contact your representative.
