Item 2.06. Material Impairments.

As described more fully in Item 8.01 below, on January 23, 2008, Owens Corning and certain of its affiliates reached definitive agreement with respect to the sale of the Company's composite manufacturing facilities located in Battice, Belgium and Birkeland, Norway for an aggregate gross purchase price of $155 million (approximately $225 million). Owens Corning previously announced that it planned to sell the two composite manufacturing facilities to address regulatory concerns associated with Owens Corning's acquisition of Saint-Gobain's Reinforcements and Composite Fabrics businesses on October 31, 2007.

As a result of reaching the referenced definitive agreement on January 23, 2008, Owens Corning concluded that an impairment charge of approximately $50 million is required as a result of the proceeds to be realized upon consummation of the transaction. Such impairment charge will be recorded in the fourth quarter of 2007. The Company does not expect the impairment charge to result in material future cash expenditures.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On January 23, 2008, Owens Corning and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the Company) reached definitive agreement with Platinum Equity Capital Partners International II, L.P., and certain of its affiliates (collectively, Platinum Equity) with respect to the sale of the Company's composite manufacturing facilities located in Battice, Belgium and Birkeland, Norway to Platinum Equity (the Transaction) for an aggregate gross purchase price of $155 million (approximately $225 million based on exchange rates at December 31, 2007). Owens Corning previously announced that it planned to sell the two composite manufacturing facilities to address regulatory concerns associated with Owens Corning's acquisition of Saint-Gobain's Reinforcements and Composite Fabrics businesses on October 31, 2007.

In addition to the manufacturing facilities, the Transaction includes the transfer of other assets related to the ongoing operation of such facilities, including intellectual property rights and precious metals utilized in production tooling. After costs associated with the Transaction and to position the business as an ongoing concern, Owens Corning expects to realize net proceeds of approximately $185 million, consisting of cash proceeds of approximately $175 million plus the assumption of certain liabilities by the purchaser. Consummation of the Transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including regulatory approval. Owens Corning currently expects the Transaction to close in the first quarter of 2008.
