BIOMET ANNOUNCES FOURTH QUARTER AND FISCAL 2009 FINANCIAL RESULTS

WARSAW, Ind., July 14, 2009 Biomet, Inc. announced today financial results for its fourth quarter and fiscal year ended May 31, 2009. The Company announced preliminary net sales results for the fiscal fourth quarter and twelve month period in its press release issued June 26, 2009, which is posted on Biomet's website at www.biomet.com in the Investors Section. There have been no changes to the net sales results following the release of the preliminary net sales results.

Fourth Quarter Financial Results

During the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2009, net sales increased 1% to $639.3 million, compared to net sales during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2008 of $635.6 million. Domestic sales increased 9% to $392.0 million, while sales outside the United States decreased 11% to $247.3 million during the fourth quarter.

The Company recorded $311.8 million of special items (pre-tax) during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2009, which consisted of the following items:

$103.6 million of amortization and depreciation expense related to the Merger;

$102.6 million charge resulting from finalizing the non-cash goodwill and intangible asset impairment related to the dental reconstructive business;

$64.4 million of settlements and reserves associated with the previously disclosed King litigation and other legal fees;

$20.5 million of inventory charges related to a product rationalization program in the Company's Spine and Trauma business; and

$20.7 million of other special items, including operational improvement and restructuring costs and non-cash stock compensation expense. On a reported basis, operating loss for the fourth quarter was $107.2 million, compared to operating income of $44.8 million for the fourth quarter of the prior fiscal year.

The Company recorded a net loss of $170.9 million for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2009, on a reported basis, in comparison to a net loss of $91.5 million for the same period in the prior fiscal year.

Net interest expense for the fourth quarter was $134.5 million compared to $144.6 million during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2008.

Full Year Financial Results (Combined<sup>1</sup>)

For the twelve months ended May 31, 2009, net sales increased 5% to $2.504 billion. Sales in the United States increased 10% during fiscal year 2009, while sales outside of the United States decreased 1%.

During the twelve-month period ended May 31, 2009, the Company incurred special charges (pre-tax) of $1,129.8 million, consisting of the following:

$392.8 million of amortization and depreciation expense related to the Merger;

$551.1 million non-cash goodwill and intangible asset impairment charge related to the dental reconstructive business;

Edgar Filing: BIOMET INC - Form 424B3

$87.8 million of settlements and reserves associated with the previously disclosed King litigation and other legal fees;

$20.5 million of inventory charges related to a product rationalization program in the Company's Spine and Trauma business; and $77.6 million of other special items, including $34.8 million of operational improvement and restructuring costs, as well as $33.9 million of non-cash stock compensation expense.

On a reported basis, operating loss for fiscal year 2009 was $348.3 million.

Net interest expense for fiscal year 2009 was $547.1 million.

The Company recorded a net loss for fiscal year 2009 of $749.2 million, compared to $1,018.8 million for fiscal year 2008.

Biomet's President and Chief Executive Officer Jeffrey R. Binder commented, "I'm extremely pleased with the Biomet team's overall performance during both the fourth quarter and our full fiscal year 2009. We continued to take additional market share in our orthopedic reconstructive business during fiscal 2009, with double-digit sales growth in hips, knees and extremities. Our sports medicine, craniomaxillofacial fixation and biologics divisions each recorded double-digit sales growth during fiscal 2009, as well, while our spine business continued to gain momentum each quarter throughout the year, reaching double-digit sales growth during the fourth quarter.

Mr. Binder continued, "In addition to our strong sales driven by new products and good sales execution, we made significant progress with our value creation program and maintained good discipline in operational expense management, providing additional opportunities to increase the bottom line. We are working hard toward delivering another strong year in fiscal 2010.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Those statements are often indicated by the use of words such as will, intend, anticipate, estimate, expect, plan and similar expressions. Forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward looking statements due to, among others, the following factors: the success of the Company's principal product lines; the results of ongoing investigations by the United States Department of Justice and the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; the ability to successfully implement new technologies; the Company's ability to sustain sales and earnings growth; the Company's success in achieving timely approval or clearance of its products with domestic and foreign regulatory entities; the impact to the business as a result of compliance with federal, state and foreign governmental regulations and with the Corporate Integrity Agreement; the impact to the business as a result of the economic downturn in both foreign and domestic markets; the possible enactment of federal or state health care reform, the impact of anticipated changes in the musculoskeletal industry and the ability of the Company to react to and capitalize on those changes; the ability of the Company to successfully implement its desired organizational changes and cost-saving initiatives; the impact to the business as a result of the Company's significant international operations, including, among others, with respect to foreign currency fluctuations and the success of the Company's transition of certain manufacturing operations to China; the impact of the Company's managerial changes; the ability of the Company's customers to receive adequate levels of reimbursement from third-party payors; the Company's ability to maintain its existing intellectual property rights and obtain future intellectual property rights; the impact to the business as a result of cost containment efforts of group purchasing organizations; the Company's ability to retain existing independent sales agents for its products; and other factors set forth in the Company's filings with the SEC, including the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K (as amended) and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. Although the Company believes that the assumptions on which the forward-looking statements contained herein are based are reasonable, any of those assumptions could prove to be inaccurate given the inherent uncertainties as to the occurrence or non-occurrence of future events. There can be no assurance as to the accuracy of forward-looking statements contained in this press release. The inclusion of a forward-looking statement herein should not be regarded as a representation by the Company that the Company's objectives will be achieved. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements which speak only as of the date on which they were made.
