Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

On November 2, 2010, Tesla Motors, Inc. (Tesla) entered into a Common Stock Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) pursuant to which Tesla issued and sold to a single institutional investor, an entity affiliated with Panasonic Corporation (Panasonic), in a private placement transaction an aggregate of 1,418,573 shares of Tesla s common stock at a price of $21.148 per share which price was equal to the average of the high and low sale prices for Tesla s common stock during the prior five trading day period ended October 29, 2010. Tesla received aggregate proceeds of $30 million from the sale. Neither Tesla nor Panasonic engaged any investment advisors with respect to the sale, and no finders fees were paid to any party in connection therewith.

The shares were issued in reliance upon the exemptions from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, provided by Regulation D and Section 4(2). The shares were issued directly by Tesla and did not involve a public offering or general solicitation. Panasonic is an accredited investor, as that term is defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D.

Concurrently with the sale and issuance of the shares to Panasonic, Tesla amended its investors rights agreement as of November 2, 2010 to grant Panasonic registration rights on a pari passu basis with certain of its other holders of registration rights with respect to the shares of common stock purchased in the private placement. A copy of the amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On November 3, 2010, Tesla issued a press release announcing the private placement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
