JOINT PROXY STATEMENT

The board of directors (the Board) of each of DNP Select Income Fund Inc. (DNP) and Duff & Phelps Utility and Corporate Bond Trust Inc. (DUC) and collectively with DNP, the Funds) is soliciting proxies from the shareholders of each Fund for use at the joint annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Thursday, May 10, 2012 and at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting. A proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted, either by voting in person at the meeting or by written notice to the applicable Fund or delivery of a later-dated proxy.

The meeting is scheduled as a joint meeting of the respective shareholders of the Funds because the shareholders of each Fund are expected to consider and vote on similar matters. The Board has determined that the use of a joint proxy statement for the meeting is in the best interest of the shareholders of each Fund. In the event that any shareholder of a Fund present at the meeting objects to the holding of a joint meeting and moves for an adjournment of such Fund's meeting to a time immediately after the meeting, so that such Fund's meeting may be held separately, the persons named as proxies will vote in favor of such adjournment. Shareholders of each Fund will vote separately on each of the proposals relating to their respective Fund, and an unfavorable vote on a proposal by the shareholders of one Fund will not affect the implementation by the other Fund of such proposal if the shareholders of such other Fund approve the proposal.

During DUC's fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, the DUC Board met six times, the DUC audit committee met twice, the DUC nominating and governance committee met three times and the DUC contracts committee met twice. Each director attended at least 75% in the aggregate of the meetings of the Board and of the committees on which he or she served.

Board Leadership Structure

The Board believes that the most appropriate leadership structure for the Funds is for the Chairman of the Board to be an independent director, in order to provide strong, independent oversight of each Fund's management and affairs, including each Fund's risk management function. Accordingly, while the Chief Executive Officer of the Funds will generally be a member of the Board, he or she will not normally be eligible to serve as Chairman of the Board. The independent Chairman of the Board presides at meetings of the shareholders, meetings of the Board and meetings of independent directors. In addition, the independent Chairman of the Board takes part in the meetings and deliberations of all committees of the Board, facilitates communication among directors and communication between the Board and the Funds' management and is available for consultation with the Funds' management between Board meetings.

Risk Oversight. The audit committee charter provides that the audit committee is responsible for discussing with management the guidelines and policies that govern the process by which management assesses and manages each Fund's major financial risk exposures. The contracts committee charter provides that in assessing whether each Fund's investment advisory agreement and administration agreement should be continued, the contracts committee is to give careful consideration to the risk oversight policies of the Adviser and the Administrator, respectively. In addition, the audit committee and the full Board receive periodic reports on enterprise risk management from the chief risk officer of the Adviser.

Nomination of Directors. The nominating and governance committee is composed of three directors and acts under a written charter that was most recently amended on May 11, 2011. A copy of the charter is available on each Fund's website at www.dnpselectincome.com and www.ducfund.com and in print to any shareholder who requests it. None of the members of the nominating and governance committee are interested persons of the Funds as defined in section 2(a)(19) of the 1940 Act. In identifying potential director nominees, the nominating and governance committee considers candidates recommended by one or more of the following sources: the Funds' current directors, the Funds' officers, the Funds' shareholders and any other source the committee deems appropriate. The committee may, but is not required to, retain a third-party search firm at the Funds' expense to identify potential candidates. Shareholders wishing to recommend candidates to the nominating and governance committee should submit such recommendations to the Secretary of the Funds, who will forward the recommendations to the committee for consideration.

Diversity Policy. The goal of the Funds is to have a board of directors comprising individuals with a diversity of business, educational and life experiences (including, without limitation, with respect to accounting and finance, business and strategic judgment, investment management and financial markets, and knowledge of the industries in which the Funds invest) that will enable them to constructively review, advise and guide management of the Funds. The annual Board self-evaluation process includes consideration of whether the Board's composition represents an appropriate balance of skills and diversity for the Funds' needs. In evaluating potential director nominees, including nominees recommended by shareholders, the nominating and governance committee considers such qualifications and skills as it deems relevant but does not have any specific minimum qualifications that must be met by a nominee. The committee considers, among other things:

the extent to which the candidate's business, educational and life experiences will add to the diversity of the Board;

whether the candidate will qualify as a director who is not an interested person of the Funds;

the absence of any real or apparent conflict of interest that would interfere with the candidate's ability to act in the best interests of the Funds and their shareholders;

the contribution that the candidate can make to the Board by virtue of his or her education, business experience and financial expertise;

the interplay of the candidate's skills and experience with the skills and experience of other Board members;

whether the candidate is willing to commit the time necessary to attend meetings and fulfill the responsibilities of a director; and the candidate's personality traits, including integrity, independence, leadership, sound business judgment and the ability to work effectively with the other members of the Board.

With respect to the renomination of incumbent directors, past service to the Board is also considered.

Officers of the Funds

The officers of the Funds are elected at the annual meeting of the Board held in connection with the annual meeting of shareholders. The officers receive no compensation from the Funds, but are also officers of the Funds' investment adviser or the Funds' administrator and receive compensation in such capacities. Information about Nathan I. Partain, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Funds, is provided above under the caption "Continuing Directors Interested Director." The address for all officers listed below is c/o Duff & Phelps Investment Management Co., 200 South Wacker Drive, Suite 500, Chicago, Illinois 60606, except as noted.

2. PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENTS FOR DNP AND DUC

Description of the Proposed Amendments

Each series of preferred stock issued by DNP and DUC has been assigned a rating of Aaa by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. (Moody's) and AAA by Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC (S&P). Those are the highest ratings issued by Moody's and S&P for preferred stock of closed-end registered investment companies, and we refer to them as AAA ratings. Each of the rating agencies has established certain guidelines that the Funds are expected to follow as a condition of maintaining the AAA ratings of the preferred stock. Currently, certain provisions in each Fund's charter that govern the terms of the Fund's preferred stock require the Fund to comply with each rating agency's guidelines, unless the Fund receives written confirmation from the relevant rating agency that a proposed noncompliance will not adversely affect its then-current rating of the preferred stock. We refer to those charter provisions collectively as the No Adverse Effect Rule.

The No Adverse Effect Rule was originally designed to serve the interests of both the preferred shareholders and the common shareholders of the Funds. It was designed to serve the interests of the preferred shareholders by preserving the AAA ratings of the preferred stock in which they had invested. It was also designed to serve the interests of the common shareholders by helping to minimize the cost of the preferred stock to the Funds; the higher the rating of the preferred stock, the lower the dividend rate that the Funds would generally have to pay on the preferred stock.

As is discussed in more detail below, due to ongoing failures in the auction and remarketing mechanisms for preferred stock of closed-end funds, the Board and the Adviser believe that the No Adverse Effect Rule is no longer serving the interests of the Funds' preferred shareholders or common shareholders. Accordingly, the Board of each Fund has determined, on the recommendation of the Adviser, that it is advisable to amend the No Adverse Effect Rule that currently exists in each Fund's charter to permit each Fund to deviate from a rating agency's guidelines on the following two conditions:

1. The Fund must have received written advice from the applicable rating agency as to the effect such noncompliance would have on its then-current rating of the preferred stock, and
2. The Board must have determined, by a 75% vote, that, taking into account the pertinent facts and circumstances, such noncompliance is in the best interests of the Fund.

Reasons for the Proposed Amendments

Use of Leverage by the Funds

One of the distinct features of a closed-end registered investment company is its ability to use leverage. Each of the Funds has utilized various forms of leverage during its history, including both preferred stock and borrowings. The use of leverage has enabled the Funds, in effect, to borrow at short-term rates and invest at longer-term rates. During any period when the net income from the investments that the Fund purchases using the proceeds of leverage exceeds the costs of the leverage (i.e., dividends payable on preferred stock and interest payable on borrowings, plus associated expenses in each case), that excess enables the Funds to pay higher dividends on their common stock than if the Funds were not so leveraged. Historically, the tendency of the U.S. yield curve to exhibit a positive slope (i.e., long-term rates higher than short-term rates) has fostered an environment in which leverage can make a positive contribution to the earnings of the Funds, although there is no assurance that this will continue to be the case in the future. For example, a prolonged period of low longer-term interest rates and the resultant modest reinvestment opportunities for the Funds' fixed-income portfolios could adversely affect the income provided from leverage.

The table below indicates the contribution that the use of leverage has made to the net income of each of the Funds during the most recent five years.

		2011	2010	2009	2008	2007
DNP	Net income per share	$ 0.45	$ 0.54	$ 0.50	$ 0.45	$ 0.48
	Portion attributable to leverage	$ 0.15	$ 0.19	$ 0.18	$ 0.18	$ 0.17
	Percentage attributable to leverage	33%	36%	37%	39%	35%
DUC	Net income per share	$ 0.53	$ 0.66	$ 0.77	$ 0.84	$ 0.93
	Portion attributable to leverage	$ 0.20	$ 0.24	$ 0.29	$ 0.34	$ 0.35
	Percentage attributable to leverage	37%	37%	38%	40%	38%

The Board and the Adviser regularly review the amount and type of leverage used by each Fund based on the Fund's expected earnings relative to the anticipated costs (including fees and expenses) associated with the leverage. In addition, the long-term expected benefits of leverage to each Fund are weighed against the potential that the leverage has to increase the volatility of both the Fund's net asset value and the market value of its common stock. If the use of leverage were to cease being beneficial to a Fund for an extended period, the Board would consider modifying the amount and type of leverage or even discontinuing the use of leverage entirely.

Preferred Stock Issued by the Funds

On January 1, 2007, the Funds' leverage was comprised entirely of preferred stock (although both Funds had made use of debt leverage earlier in their history), consisting of the following series:

	Preferred stock designation	Year issued	Number of shares	Liquidation preference per share	Aggregate liquidation preference
DNP	Remarketed preferred stock (RP) Series A, B, C, D and E	1988	5,000	$ 100,000	$ 500,000,000
	Auction preferred stock (APS) Series M, T, W, TH and F	2006	20,000	$ 25,000	$ 500,000,000
DUC	Auction market preferred shares (AMPS) Series T7 and TH7	2006	7,600	$ 25,000	$ 190,000,000

Liquidity and Pricing Mechanism for the Preferred Stock

The Funds' preferred stock is not listed on an exchange or automated quotation system, but a system of periodic auctions (for the APS and the AMPS) and periodic remarketings (for the RP) was established to provide a liquid trading market for those shares. The dividend rate payable on each series of preferred stock for each dividend period was designed to be set through that periodic auction or remarketing process. The charter provisions governing the preferred stock also contemplated the possibility that an auction could fail (if there were insufficient clearing bids to purchase all of the shares that current holders wished to sell in an auction), and that a remarketing could fail (if the remarketing agent were unable to set a dividend rate that would clear the market of all of the shares that current holders wished to sell in a remarketing). When an auction or remarketing fails, the current holders must retain their shares until the next periodic auction or remarketing (or longer) and the dividend rate for the next dividend period is automatically set to the maximum dividend rate permitted by the applicable Fund's charter.

The charter of each Fund defines the maximum dividend rate differently for each type of preferred stock, as shown in the tables below. In each case the calculation is based on a combination of two factors: (1) a specified reference interest rate and (2) the lower of the credit ratings assigned to the shares by Moody's and S&P.

DNP RP

Maximum Dividend Rate = the Applicable Percentage of the Reference Rate

Reference Rate = the composite rate for 60-day commercial paper

CREDIT RATINGS		APPLICABLE PERCENTAGE OF THE REFERENCE RATE
MOODY'S	S&P
Aa3 or higher	AA or higher	150%
A3 to A1	A to A+	175%
Baa3 to Baa1	BBB to BBB+	200%

DNP APS AND DUC AMPS

Maximum Dividend Rate = the higher of the Applicable Percentage of the Reference Rate or the Applicable Spread over the Reference Rate

CREDIT RATINGS		Reference Rate = 7-day LIBOR	APPLICABLE PERCENTAGE OF THE REFERENCE RATE	APPLICABLE SPREAD
MOODY S	S&P
Aaa	AAA		125%	125 bps
Aa3 to Aa1	AA- to AA+		150%	150 bps
A3 to A1	A- to A+		200%	200 bps
Baa3 to Baa1	BBB-to BBB+		250%	250 bps
Ba1 and lower	BB+ and lower		300%	300 bps

Disruption of the Liquidity and Pricing Mechanism

Early in 2008, disruptions in the short-term fixed income markets resulted in failures in the periodic auctions and remarketings of the preferred shares of all closed-end funds, including the Funds' preferred stock. The lack of liquidity resulting from the persistence of such auction and remarketing failures has caused a significant hardship for many holders of the Funds' preferred stock. Moreover, the Adviser and the Board have concluded that the preferred stock auction and remarketing processes may not provide liquidity for an extended period of time, if ever, with the result that the Funds may be required to pay the maximum dividend rates applicable to their preferred stock for an extended period of time. That will make the costs of the Funds' preferred stock leverage higher than they would have been if those costs had been determined through a successful auction or remarketing process. As a result, the income that holders of common stock receive will be lower than the income they would have received in the absence of the auction and remarketing failures.

Efforts to Provide Liquidity to Preferred Shareholders

In light of the auction and remarketing failures, the Board of the Funds charged the Adviser with developing and evaluating potential solutions that would maintain the benefits from leverage and be in the best interests of all the shareholders of each Fund. On the Adviser's recommendation, in 2009 each Fund entered into a committed loan facility with a commercial bank (each, a Credit Facility) and borrowed funds under that Credit Facility to retire a portion of its preferred stock in effect, replacing a portion of its preferred stock leverage with debt leverage. The following are the actions taken by each Fund during 2009 to provide partial liquidity to holders of preferred stock, and the effects of such actions on each Fund's leverage:

DNP

DNP established a $1 billion Credit Facility.

DNP borrowed $600 million under its Credit Facility.

DNP redeemed Series A, B and C of RP and Series M, T and W of APS, having an aggregate liquidation preference of $600 million.

DNP now has total leverage of $1 billion, consisting of four series of preferred stock (Series D and E of RP and Series TH and F of APS), having an aggregate liquidation preference of $400 million, plus borrowings of $600 million under the Credit Facility.

DUC

DUC established a $190 million Credit Facility.

DUC borrowed $95 million under its Credit Facility.

DUC redeemed Series T7 of AMPS, having an aggregate liquidation preference of $95 million.

DUC now has total leverage of $190 million, consisting of one series of preferred stock (Series TH7 of AMPS) with an aggregate liquidation preference of $95 million, plus borrowings of $95 million under the Credit Facility.

Current Limitations on the Funds' Ability to Refinance Preferred Stock with Debt Leverage

The ability of the Funds to refinance additional shares of preferred stock using alternative forms of leverage (such as borrowings or reverse repurchase agreements) is limited by the asset coverage requirements of the 1940 Act and related SEC rules. But the Funds are further constrained by rating agency guidelines that restrict the Funds' ability to borrow money or enter into reverse repurchase agreements. Moreover, the No Adverse Effect Rule in each Fund's charter currently prohibits any deviations from rating agency guidelines unless the Fund receives written confirmation from the relevant rating agency that a proposed noncompliance will not adversely affect its then-current rating of the preferred stock.

This has created an anomalous situation in which many holders of the Funds' preferred stock who are no longer able to obtain liquidity through the auction and remarketing processes have expressed a strong desire for the Funds to redeem or repurchase their shares of preferred stock, but the Funds are constrained from doing so because the rating agency guidelines do not allow them to refinance additional shares of preferred stock with borrowings or reverse repurchase agreements unless each rating agency confirms that any resulting noncompliance with the guidelines will not adversely affect its then-current rating of the preferred stock. The Board and the Adviser believe that most preferred shareholders would rather obtain liquidity for additional portions of their preferred stock, even if it meant that the rating of the preferred stock that remained outstanding would be lowered. However, the Funds do not currently have that option, since the No Adverse Effect Rule does not allow them to deviate from the rating agency guidelines in exchange for accepting a lower rating.

The Funds could also provide additional liquidity to preferred shareholders by simply redeeming or repurchasing shares of preferred stock without replacing them with an alternative form of leverage; in other words, by deleveraging. But the Board and the Adviser believe that deleveraging would have significant drawbacks. It would require the Funds to sell a portion of their portfolio investments at a time when it might be disadvantageous for them to do so. In addition, it would deprive the Funds of the income-generating benefits of leverage that have historically enabled the Funds to pay higher dividends to common shareholders. While the Funds' goal is to provide additional liquidity to preferred shareholders, the Board and the Adviser have been consistent in stating that any action taken to provide such liquidity (1) should not materially disadvantage common shareholders and their ability to benefit from leverage, (2) should be long-term in nature and (3) should not encumber the investment process or reduce the pool of available investment alternatives for the Funds.

In addition, the Board and the Adviser believe that the No Adverse Effect Rule is no longer serving the interests of the Funds' common shareholders. While maintaining the AAA ratings of the preferred stock helps to minimize the cost of the preferred stock to the Funds, the No Adverse Effect Rule is also restricting the Funds from replacing preferred stock leverage with alternative forms of leverage that could be more advantageous for the Funds as market conditions change. In recent years, the dividend rates payable on the Funds' preferred stock have been low, both because of the AAA ratings and because the reference interest rates used to calculate the dividend rates have remained at very low levels. However, both of those conditions could change in the near future. If the rating agencies lower their ratings of the preferred stock and/or if reference interest rates rise, the cost of the preferred stock to the Funds will increase. Moreover, both S&P and Moody's have recently proposed changes to their criteria and methodologies for rating the preferred stock issued by closed-end funds. If those proposed changes are adopted, the Funds' preferred stock would likely lose their AAA ratings. Depending on the extent of the downgrade, the dividend rates on the Funds' preferred stock (particularly the APS and the AMPS) could increase, perhaps substantially, thereby reducing the Funds' net income available for distribution to common shareholders.

The Board and the Adviser believe that the Funds need the flexibility to replace all or a portion of their outstanding preferred stock leverage with alternative forms of leverage (such as borrowings or reverse repurchase agreements) if the overall expected cost of the replacement leverage, combined with the cost of any preferred stock that remains outstanding, would be comparable to or lower than the cost of maintaining the preferred stock. However, the Funds do not currently have that flexibility because the rating agency guidelines restrict the Funds' ability to borrow money or enter into reverse repurchase agreements, and because the No Adverse Effect Rule prohibits any deviations from rating agency guidelines unless the Fund receives written confirmation from the relevant rating agency that a proposed noncompliance will not adversely affect its then-current rating of the preferred stock. The Board and the Adviser believe that such restrictions on the Funds' ability to reconfigure their leverage into a form that could be more beneficial to the Funds is not in the best interests of the Funds' common shareholders.

Board Approval of the Proposed Charter Amendments

For the reasons discussed above, the Board and the Adviser have concluded that the No Adverse Effect Rule is no longer serving the interests of the Funds' preferred shareholders or common shareholders. Accordingly, the Board of each Fund has determined, on the recommendation of the Adviser, that it is advisable to amend the No Adverse Effect Rule that currently exists in each Fund's charter to permit each Fund to deviate from the rating agencies' guidelines on the following two conditions:

1. The Fund must have received written advice from the applicable rating agency as to the effect such noncompliance would have on its then-current rating of the preferred stock, and
2. The Board must have determined, by a 75% vote, that, taking into account the pertinent facts and circumstances, such noncompliance is in the best interests of the Fund.

On February 21, 2012, the Adviser presented the text of the proposed amendments to each Fund's charter to the Board. The Board requested and discussed such information as it deemed necessary to determine whether the amendments were in the best interests of the Funds and both classes of their shareholders. Based on its review and evaluation of the materials it received and consideration of all factors it deemed relevant, the Board unanimously adopted resolutions setting forth the proposed amendments to the Funds' charters, declaring the amendments to be advisable, directing that the amendments be submitted for consideration at the annual meeting of each Fund's shareholders and recommending that all shareholders vote for the approval of the amendments. The complete text of the proposed amendments to the charter of DNP and the charter of DUC is set forth in Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, to this proxy statement.

Potential Benefits of the Proposed Charter Amendments

For the reasons discussed above and summarized below, the Board believes that the proposed amendments to the charter of each Fund are in the best interests of both the common shareholders and the preferred shareholders of each Fund.

The proposed amendments would give the Funds greater flexibility to replace additional shares of preferred stock with alternative forms of leverage. Currently, the rating agencies have an absolute veto over the ability of the Funds to borrow money or enter into reverse repurchase agreements, which are the two methods that the Funds would utilize to replace preferred stock leverage. If the proposed amendments are approved, then the Fund would have the ability to depart from the rating agencies' guidelines but only after receiving written advice from the applicable rating agency as to the effect such noncompliance would have on its then-current rating of the preferred stock, and only if the Board determined, by a 75% vote, that, taking into account the pertinent facts and circumstances, such noncompliance was in the best interests of the Fund. As a practical matter, this would enable the Funds to negotiate with the rating agencies and accept a lower rating on their preferred stock in exchange for utilizing a higher percentage of debt or reverse repurchase agreement leverage—an option that does not currently exist because of the No Adverse Effect Rule.

In making any decision to replace additional shares of preferred stock with borrowings or reverse repurchase agreements, the Adviser and the Board would consider whether the overall expected cost of the replacement leverage, combined with the cost of any preferred stock that remains outstanding (taking into account any expected increase in dividend rates), would be comparable to or lower than the cost of maintaining the preferred stock. If the Board determined that such a course of action was in the best interests of a Fund, then the Fund could retire an additional portion of its preferred stock, providing liquidity to preferred shareholders who have been unable to sell their shares since the auction and remarketing processes ceased to function in 2008.

The Board and the Adviser believe that common shareholders will also benefit from eliminating the restriction that the No Adverse Effect Rule imposes on the Funds' ability to replace preferred stock with alternative forms of leverage since the Funds will then have greater flexibility to reduce or eliminate their reliance on preferred stock leverage in the event that the cost of such leverage increases due to rising reference interest rates and/or downgrades of the Funds' preferred stock (such as the downgrades that could result if the rating agencies adopt the changes they have proposed to their rating criteria and methodologies).

Potential Risks of the Proposed Charter Amendments

The adoption of the proposed charter amendments would also entail certain risks.

In making any decision to replace additional shares of preferred stock with borrowings or reverse repurchase agreements, the Adviser and the Board would consider whether the overall expected cost of the replacement leverage, combined with the cost of any preferred stock that remains outstanding (taking into account any expected increase in dividend rates), would be comparable to or lower than the cost of maintaining the preferred stock. However, future movements in interest rates are unpredictable, and there is thus no guarantee that the actual costs of the replacement leverage, or the cost of any preferred stock that remains outstanding, will be in line with expectations. Changes in interest rates or changes in the ratings of the preferred stock, or both, could result in higher leverage costs than expected and thereby reduce the Funds' net income available for distribution to common shareholders.

Moreover, the use of debt and reverse repurchase agreement leverage entails certain risks. By expanding the use of borrowings or entering into reverse repurchase agreements to replace their preferred stock leverage, the Funds may incur additional expenses which may decrease their earnings or they may become subject to covenants and other contractual provisions that restrict their operations. In addition, the rights of lenders in borrowing transactions and counterparties in reverse repurchase transactions will be senior to the rights of the Funds' common and preferred shareholders.

In addition, debt leverage does not have the same long-term character as the Funds' preferred stock. The APS and the AMPS are perpetual, and not subject to mandatory redemption by the Funds (so long as the required 1940 Act asset coverage is maintained). The Series D RP and Series E RP are mandatorily redeemable by DNP, but not until December 22, 2021 and December 11, 2024, respectively. By contrast, each Fund's Credit Facility can be terminated by the lending bank upon 180 days' notice. There can be no assurance that the Funds would be able to replace their Credit Facilities with another form of leverage if the bank were to give a 180-day notice of termination. If the Funds were unable to replace the Credit Facility after receiving a 180-day notice of termination from the bank, they could be required to deleverage and sell a portion of their investments at a time when it might be disadvantageous to do so.

Finally, the Funds are required to maintain an asset coverage of 300% on any outstanding borrowings, instead of the asset coverage of 200% that they are required to maintain on their preferred stock. If the Funds were unable to maintain the required asset coverage on their outstanding indebtedness, they could be required to deleverage and sell a portion of their investments at a time when it might be disadvantageous to do so.

The Board took both the potential benefits and the potential risk factors into account when making its determination that the proposed charter amendments are in the best interests of the Funds and both classes of their shareholders.

Vote Required to Approve the Amendments to DNP's Charter (Proposal 2a.)

The proposed amendments to DNP's charter will require the approval of (i) the holders of a majority of DNP's outstanding shares of common stock and preferred stock, voting as a single class, and (ii) the holders of two-thirds of DNP's outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting separately as a class. The 1940 Act defines a majority of the outstanding voting securities of a company as the lesser of (A) 67% or more of the voting securities present at a meeting where the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities are present or represented by proxy; or (B) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of such company. Abstentions and broker-non-votes are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting, and will also have the effect of a vote against the proposed amendments to DNP's charter.

Vote Required to Approve the Amendments to DUC's Charter (Proposal 2b.)

The proposed amendment to DUC's charter will require the approval of (i) the holders of a majority of DUC's outstanding shares of common stock and preferred stock, voting as a single class, and (ii) the holders of two-thirds of DUC's outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting separately as a class. The 1940 Act defines a majority of the outstanding voting securities of a company as the lesser of (A) 67% or more of the voting securities present at a meeting where the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities are present or represented by proxy; or (B) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of such company. Abstentions and broker-non-votes are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting, and will also have the effect of a vote against the proposed amendment to DUC's charter.

When the Charter Amendments Would Become Effective

The proposed charter amendments for each Fund will become effective, if approved by the shareholders of that Fund in the manner described above, as of the date when Articles of Amendment setting forth the text of the amendments are filed with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland or as of such other date as set forth in such Articles of Amendment, not to exceed 30 days after such Articles of Amendment are filed with the Department. It is expected that, if the proposed charter amendments are approved by a Fund's shareholders, then Articles of Amendment would be filed by that Fund as soon as practicable following the date of the annual meeting. The exact timing of the filing, however, would be determined by each Fund, and each Fund reserves the right to delay the filing for up to six months following shareholder approval. In addition, each Fund reserves the right, notwithstanding shareholder approval and without further action by the shareholders, to elect not to proceed with the charter amendments if, at any time prior to the effective time, the Board of such Fund, in its sole discretion, determines that the amendments are no longer in the best interests of the Fund or its shareholders.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of each Fund, including all of the independent directors, unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposal to amend each Fund's charter as set forth in the Articles of Amendment attached as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, to this proxy statement.

3. PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO DNP'S FUNDAMENTAL INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS

Description of the Proposed Amendments

The 1940 Act requires registered investment companies to have fundamental investment restrictions governing certain of their investment practices. Fundamental investment restrictions can be changed only by a shareholder vote.

The Board of DNP and the Adviser are recommending amendments to the following paragraphs of DNP's fundamental investment restrictions:

Paragraph 5, dealing with pledges of assets;

Paragraph 11, dealing with margin purchases and short sales; and

Paragraph 12, dealing with the purchase and sale of commodities and commodities contracts.

The text of the proposed amendments is set forth below. Additions are in bold, underlined type, and deletions are struck through. (Paragraph 4 is not proposed to be amended, but it is included to provide context because it is referenced in paragraph 5.)

4. The Fund may not borrow money, except as permitted by the 1940 Act and the rules promulgated thereunder, as in effect from time to time, or interpretations or modifications thereof by the SEC, the staff of the SEC and other authority with appropriate jurisdiction.

5. The Fund may not pledge, mortgage or hypothecate its assets, except to secure indebtedness permitted by restriction 4 above. (The deposit in escrow of securities in connection with the writing of put and call options, collateralized loans of securities and collateral arrangements with respect to margin requirements for futures transactions, cleared swap and cleared security-based swap transactions and with respect to segregation of securities in connection with forward contracts are not deemed to be pledges or hypothecations for this purpose.)

11. The Fund may not purchase securities on margin, or make short sales of securities, except the use of short-term credit necessary for the clearance of purchases and sales of portfolio securities, but it may make margin deposits in connection with transactions in options, futures, cleared swaps and cleared security-based swaps and options on futures.

12. The Fund may not purchase or sell commodities or commodity contracts, except that it may enter into (i) stock index futures transactions, interest rate futures transactions and options on such future transactions, (ii) cleared swap transactions and cleared security-based swap transactions and ~~(ii)~~ (iii) forward contracts on foreign currencies to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Reasons for the Proposed Amendments

The Board and the Adviser believe that the foregoing amendments to DNP's fundamental investment restrictions are necessary, in light of recent legislative and market developments, in order to preserve DNP's ability to engage in swaps and other derivatives transactions in accordance with its existing investment policies.

Many derivatives transactions, such as interest rate swaps that DNP may use to hedge its borrowing costs and foreign currency swaps that DNP may use to hedge its exposure to changes in foreign exchange rates, have historically been and currently are traded in an over-the-counter, or bilateral, market. However, the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and implementing regulations of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the SEC will subject certain derivatives transactions to a mandatory clearing requirement. That means that, for those derivatives transactions subject to the requirement, a clearing organization will be substituted for the original trading counterparty and act as a central counterparty to each side of the transaction. Access to clearing organizations will be provided through futures commission merchants, brokers and certain other intermediaries. Swaps and other derivatives not subject to mandatory clearing may become available for clearing on a voluntary basis. In many respects, the arrangements for cleared derivatives are expected to be similar to existing arrangements for futures contracts.

The proposed amendments are intended to clarify that DNP's fundamental investment restrictions will not preclude DNP from entering into cleared swap and cleared security-based swap transactions.

Because clearing arrangements generally will involve the use of collateral, the amendment to paragraph 5 of the fundamental investment restrictions will ensure that the posting of collateral in connection with cleared swap and cleared security-based swap transactions will not violate the restriction on pledges of assets.

Because clearing arrangements generally will involve margin deposits, the amendment to paragraph 11 of the fundamental investment restrictions will ensure that depositing margin in connection with cleared swap and cleared security-based swap transactions will not violate the restriction on margin purchases and short sales.

Because access to clearing organizations will be provided through, among other intermediaries, futures commission merchants, and cleared derivatives may be regulated similarly to commodity contracts, the amendment to paragraph 12 of the fundamental investment restrictions will ensure that entering into cleared swaps and cleared security-based swaps will not violate the restriction on purchase and sale of commodities and commodities contracts.

The proposed amendments will not expand DNP's use of derivative instruments, but are intended solely to preserve DNP's ability to engage in swaps and other derivatives transactions in accordance with its investment policies. The following are DNP's investment policies regarding the use of derivatives:

Options and Futures Transactions. The Fund may seek to increase its current return by writing covered options. In addition, through the writing and purchase of options and the purchase and sale of futures contracts and related options, the Fund may at times seek to hedge against a decline in the value of securities owned by it or an increase in the price of securities which it plans to purchase. However, for so long as shares of the Fund's preferred stock are rated either by Moody's or S&P, the rating agency guidelines provide that the Fund may not purchase or sell futures contracts or related options or engage in other hedging transactions unless Moody's or S&P, as the case may be, advises the Fund that such action or actions will not adversely affect its then-current rating of the Fund's preferred stock.

Swap and Swaption Transactions. The Fund may utilize interest rate and credit swaps and swaptions, subject to the following restrictions: (i) swaps and swaptions must be U.S. dollar denominated and used for hedging purposes only (except that the Fund may utilize credit derivatives subject to the limitations set out in the Fund's investment policy relating to Credit Derivatives); (ii) no more than 5% of the Fund's total assets, at the time of purchase, may be invested in time premiums paid for swaptions; (iii) the terms of all swaps and swaptions must conform to the standards of the ISDA Master Agreement published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc.; and (iv) the counterparty must be a bank, broker-dealer, futures commission merchant, swap dealer, security-based swap dealer, derivatives clearing organization or clearing agency, in each case regulated under the laws of the United States, that (A) is on a list approved by the board of directors, (B) has capital of at least $100 million and (C) has debt obligations rated investment grade by both S&P and Moody's or is otherwise determined by the board of directors to be of comparable credit quality.

Credit Derivatives. The market value of the Fund's investments in credit derivatives and/or premiums paid therefor as a buyer of credit protection will not exceed 10% of the Fund's total assets and the notional value of the credit exposure to which the Fund is subject when it sells credit derivatives will not exceed 33 1/3 % of the Fund's total assets.

In addition, to the extent swaps and security-based swaps are treated as borrowings, paragraph 4 of DNP's fundamental investment restrictions will require them to be carried out in a manner consistent with the 1940 Act, the SEC rules promulgated thereunder and interpretations or modifications thereof by the SEC, the SEC staff and other authority with appropriate jurisdiction. In cases where both cleared and uncleared alternatives are available for DNP's use, the Adviser will make an assessment of which alternative to use based on the circumstances of the transaction.

Board Approval of the Proposed Amendments

On March 16, 2012, the Board of DNP, based on its review and evaluation of the materials it received from the Adviser and from independent legal counsel, unanimously adopted resolutions setting forth the foregoing amendments to DNP's fundamental investment restrictions, declaring the amendments to be advisable, directing that the amendments be submitted for consideration at the annual meeting of DNP's shareholders and recommending that all shareholders vote for the approval of the amendments.

Potential Benefits of the Proposed Amendments

In the normal course of its operations, DNP is exposed to interest rate risk (i.e., the risk of changes in interest rates that affect the cost of DNP's leverage) and currency risk (i.e., the risk of changes in exchange rates that affect the value of DNP's investments in securities of foreign companies). Through the use of swaps and swaptions, DNP seeks to limit its exposure to those risks. For example, by entering into floating-to-fixed interest rate swaps or swaptions, DNP can hedge against the risk of rising interest rates. And by entering into foreign-currency-to-dollar swaps or swaptions, the Fund can hedge its exposure to changes in foreign exchange rates. The proposed amendments to DNP's fundamental investment restrictions will preserve DNP's ability to benefit from the use of swaps and swaptions in accordance with its investment policies.

Potential Risks of the Proposed Amendments

By allowing DNP to continue to utilize swaps and swaptions, the adoption of the proposed amendments would also entail certain risks.

There are economic costs of the use of swaps and swaptions, and those costs can be significant, particularly in the case of interest rate swaps or swaptions when long-term interest rates are substantially above short-term interest rates. There may be an imperfect correlation between changes in the value of DNP's portfolio holdings and its hedging positions, which may prevent DNP from achieving the intended benefits of the hedges or expose DNP to risk of loss. In addition, DNP's success in using hedge instruments is subject to the Adviser's ability to correctly predict changes in the relationships of such hedge instruments to DNP's portfolio holdings, and there is no assurance that the Adviser's judgment in this respect will be accurate. Consequently, the use of hedging transactions might result in a poorer overall performance for DNP, whether or not adjusted for risk, than if DNP had not hedged its portfolio holdings.

To the extent that DNP enters into swaps and swaptions, it will be subject to the credit risk of the counterparties to those transactions. If a counterparty becomes bankrupt or otherwise fails to perform its obligations under a swap or swaption contract due to financial difficulties, then DNP may experience significant delays in obtaining any recovery under the contract in a bankruptcy or other reorganization proceeding. In such circumstances, DNP might obtain only a limited recovery, or even no recovery. As a general matter, dividends received on hedged stock positions are characterized as ordinary income and are not eligible for favorable tax treatment. In addition, the use of swaps and swaptions may give rise to short-term capital gains and other income that would not be treated as qualified dividends when distributed by DNP to its shareholders.

The Board took both the potential benefits and the potential risk factors into account when making its determination that preserving DNP's ability to utilize swaps and swaptions by adopting the proposed amendments is in the best interests of DNP and its shareholders.

Vote Required to Approve the Amendments to DNP's Fundamental Investment Restrictions (Proposal 3)

The proposed amendments to DNP's fundamental investment restrictions will require the approval of (i) the holders of a majority (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the outstanding shares of DNP's common stock and preferred stock, voting as a single class, and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of DNP's preferred stock, voting separately as a class. The 1940 Act defines a majority of the outstanding voting securities of a company as the lesser of (A) 67% or more of the voting securities present at a meeting where the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities are present or represented by proxy; or (B) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of such company. DNP's charter defines the required majority of the outstanding preferred stock similarly with respect to the shares of that class. Abstentions and broker-non-votes are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting, and will also have the effect of a vote against the proposed amendments to DNP's fundamental investment restrictions.

When the Amendments to DNP's Fundamental Investment Restrictions Would Become Effective

If approved by the shareholders of DNP in the manner described above, the proposed amendments to DNP's fundamental investment restrictions will become effective immediately upon such approval.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of DNP, including all of the independent directors, unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposal to amend DNP's fundamental investment restrictions as set forth above.

OTHER BUSINESS

Management is not aware of any other matters that will come before the meeting. If any other business should come before the meeting, however, your proxy, if signed and returned, will give discretionary authority to the persons designated in it to vote according to their best judgment.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance. Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act requires the Funds' officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of any Fund's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange. Officers, directors and greater than 10% shareholders are required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulations to furnish the applicable Fund with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of Section 16(a) forms furnished to the Funds, or written representations that no Forms 5 were required, each Fund believes that during 2011 all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with, except that (i) Bank of America Corporation, a greater than 10% beneficial owner of DNP's preferred stock, filed fourteen late Form 4 reports with respect to an aggregate of 68 transactions in DNP's common stock; and (ii) Christian H. Poindexter, a director, filed one late Form 4 report with respect to one purchase of DNP's common stock.

Report of the Audit Committee. The audit committee of each Fund is composed of the same three directors and acts under a written charter which sets forth the audit committee's responsibilities. A copy of the audit committee charter is available on each Fund's website at www.dnpselectincome.com and www.ducfund.com and in print to any shareholder who requests it. Each of the members of the audit committee is independent as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. In connection with the audit of each Fund's 2011 audited financial statements, the audit committee: (1) reviewed and discussed the Fund's 2011 audited financial statements with management, (2) discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended (AICPA, Professional Standards, Vol. 1, AU section 380), as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in Rule 3200T, (3) received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from the independent accountant required by applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant's communications with the audit committee concerning independence, and (4) discussed with the independent accountant its independence from the Fund and its management. Based on the foregoing reviews and discussions, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that each Fund's audited financial statements be included in the Fund's Annual Report to Shareholders for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm. The 1940 Act requires that each Fund's independent registered public accounting firm be selected by the vote, cast in person, of a majority of the members of the Board who are not interested persons of the Fund. In addition, the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange vest the audit committee, in its capacity as a committee of the Board, with responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of each Fund's independent registered public accounting firm. In accordance with the foregoing provisions, the firm of Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) has been selected as independent registered public accounting firm of each Fund to perform the audit of the financial books and records of each of Fund for the year ending December 31, 2012. A representative of Ernst & Young is expected to be present at the joint annual meeting of shareholders and will be available to respond to appropriate questions and have an opportunity to make a statement if the representative so desires.

Audit and Non-Audit Fees. The following table sets forth the aggregate audit and non-audit fees billed to each Fund for each of the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by the Fund's principal accountant.

Audit-Related Fees ⁽²⁾⁽⁶⁾	7,200	7,100	3,600	3,500
Tax Fees ⁽³⁾⁽⁶⁾	16,700	16,300	5,700	5,400
Aggregate Non-Audit Fees ⁽⁵⁾⁽⁶⁾	23,900	23,400	9,300	8,900

(1) Audit Fees are fees billed for professional services rendered by each Fund's principal accountant for the audit of the Fund's annual financial statements and for services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.

(2) Audit-Related Fees are fees billed for assurance and related services by each Fund's principal accountant that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit of the Fund's financial statements and are not reported under the caption Audit Fees. In both years shown on the table, such services related to the performance of periodic agreed-upon procedures relating to the Fund's leverage.

(3) Tax Fees are fees billed for professional services rendered by each Fund's principal accountant for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. In both years shown in the table, such services consisted of preparation of the registrant's annual federal and state income tax returns and excise tax returns.

(4) All Other Fees are fees billed for products and services provided by each Fund's principal accountant, other than the services reported under the captions Audit Fees, Audit-Related Fees and Tax Fees.

(5) Aggregate Non-Audit Fees are fees billed by each Fund's accountant for services rendered to the Fund, the Adviser and any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Adviser that provides ongoing services to the Fund. During both years shown in the table, no portion of such fees related to services rendered by each Fund's accountant to the Adviser or to any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Adviser that provides ongoing services to the Fund.

(6) No portion of these fees was approved by the audit committee after the beginning of the engagement pursuant to the waiver of the pre-approval requirement for certain de minimis non-audit services described in Section 10A of the 1934 Act and applicable regulations.

Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services. Each engagement of each Fund's independent registered public accounting firm to render audit or non-audit services to the Fund is either (i) pre-approved by the Fund's audit committee or the chairman of the audit committee, to whom the committee has delegated the authority to grant such pre-approvals between scheduled meetings of the committee, or (ii) entered into pursuant to pre-approval policies and procedures established by the audit committee. A copy of the audit committee's pre-approval policies and procedures is attached as Exhibit C to this proxy statement. Each Fund's audit committee is also required to pre-approve its accountant's engagements for non-audit services rendered to the Adviser and any entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Adviser that provides ongoing services to the Fund, if the engagement relates directly to the operations and financial reporting of the Fund. In deciding whether to grant pre-approval for such non-audit services, the audit committee or the chairman of the audit committee, as the case may be, considers whether the provision of such non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independence of the Fund's accountants.

Communications with the Board by Shareholders and Other Interested Persons. The Board has adopted the following procedures for shareholders and other interested persons to send communications to the Board. Shareholders and other interested persons may mail written communications to the full Board, to committees of the Board or to specified individual directors in care of the Secretary of the Funds, 200 S. Wacker Drive, Suite 500, Chicago, Illinois 60606. All such communications received by the Secretary will be forwarded promptly to the full Board, the relevant Board committee or the specified individual directors, as applicable, except that the Secretary may, in good faith, determine that a communication should not be so forwarded if it does not reasonably relate to the Funds or their operations, management, activities, policies, service providers, Board, officers, shareholders or other matters relating to an investment in the Funds or is purely ministerial in nature. Each of the Funds' directors is encouraged to attend the annual meeting of shareholders. All of the Funds' directors attended the May 12, 2011 joint annual meeting of DNP and DUC shareholders.

Shareholder Proposals. Any shareholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in any Fund's proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2013 annual meeting of shareholders should be received by the Secretary of the Fund no later than December 5, 2012. Under the circumstances described in, and upon compliance with, Rule 14a-4(c) under the 1934 Act, a Fund may solicit proxies in connection with the 2013 annual meeting which confer discretionary authority to vote on any shareholder proposals of which the Secretary of the Fund does not receive notice by February 18, 2013.

Solicitation of Proxies. Proxies will be solicited by mail. Proxies may be solicited by Fund personnel personally or by telephone, telegraph or mail, but such persons will not be specially compensated for such services. The Funds will inquire of any record holder known to be a broker, dealer, bank or other nominee as to whether other persons are the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons. If so, the Funds will supply additional copies of solicitation materials for forwarding to beneficial owners, and will make reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket costs. In addition, the Funds may hire a proxy solicitor to assist the Funds in the solicitation of proxies at a fee of approximately $4,500 for DNP and approximately $3,500 for DUC, in each case plus out-of-pocket expenses.

Annual Report. Each Fund will provide without charge to any shareholder who so requests, a copy of the Fund's annual report for the Fund's fiscal year ended December 31, 2011. The annual report is available by calling the Administrator toll-free at (888) 878-7845 and is also available on each Fund's web site at www.dnpselectincome.com and www.ducfund.com.

General. A list of shareholders of each Fund entitled to be present and vote at the annual meeting will be available at the offices of the Funds, 200 S. Wacker Drive, Suite 500, Chicago, Illinois 60606, for inspection by any shareholder during regular business hours for ten days prior to the date of the meeting.

Failure of a quorum of shareholders of any of the Funds to be present at the annual meeting will necessitate adjournment of the meeting with respect to those Funds and will give rise to additional expense.

ALL SHAREHOLDERS ARE REQUESTED TO SIGN, DATE AND MAIL PROXIES PROMPTLY IN THE RETURN ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

AUDIT COMMITTEE
AUDIT AND NON-AUDIT SERVICES PRE-APPROVAL POLICY
(as adopted on February 20, 2012)

I. Statement of Principles

Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act"), the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of each of DNP Select Income Fund Inc., Duff & Phelps Global Utility Income Fund Inc., Duff & Phelps Utility and Corporate Bond Trust Inc. and DTF Tax-Free Income Inc. (each a "Fund" and, collectively, the "Funds") is responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor. As part of this responsibility, the Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent auditor in order to assure that they do not impair the auditor's independence from the Fund. To implement these provisions of the Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") has issued rules specifying the types of services that an independent auditor may not provide to its audit client, as well as the Audit Committee's administration of the engagement of the independent auditor. Accordingly, the Audit Committee has adopted this Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy (this "Policy"), which sets forth the procedures and the conditions pursuant to which services proposed to be performed by the independent auditor may be pre-approved.

The SEC's rules establish two different approaches to pre-approving services, which the SEC considers to be equally valid. Proposed services either: may be pre-approved without consideration of specific case-by-case services by the Audit Committee ("general pre-approval"); or require the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee ("specific pre-approval"). The Audit Committee believes that the combination of these two approaches in this Policy will result in an effective and efficient procedure to pre-approve services performed by the independent auditor. As set forth in this Policy, unless a type of service has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee if it is to be provided by the independent auditor. Any proposed services exceeding pre-approved cost levels or budgeted amounts will also require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

For both types of pre-approval, the Audit Committee will consider whether such services are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. The Audit Committee will also consider whether the independent auditor is best positioned to provide the most effective and efficient service, for reasons such as its familiarity with the Fund's business, people, culture, accounting systems, risk profile and other factors, and whether the service might enhance the Fund's ability to manage or control risk or improve audit quality. All such factors will be considered as a whole, and no one factor should necessarily be determinative.

⁽¹⁾ This Joint Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy has been adopted by the Audit Committee of each Fund. Solely for the sake of clarity and simplicity, this Joint Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy has been drafted as if there is a single Fund, a single Audit Committee and a single Board. The terms "Audit Committee" and "Board" mean the Audit Committee and Board of each Fund, respectively, unless the context otherwise requires. The Audit Committee and the Board of each Fund, however, shall act separately and in the best interests of its respective Fund.

Under the SEC's rules, the Audit Committee must pre-approve non-audit services provided not only to the Fund but also to the Fund's investment adviser and other affiliated entities that provide ongoing services to the Fund if the independent accountant's services to those affiliated entities have a direct impact on the Fund's operations or financial reporting.

The Audit Committee is also mindful of the relationship between fees for audit and non-audit services in deciding whether to pre-approve any such services and may determine, for each fiscal year, the appropriate ratio between the total amount of fees for audit, audit-related and tax services (including any audit-related or tax service fees for affiliates that are subject to pre-approval) and the total amount of fees for certain permissible non-audit services classified as "all other" services (including any such services for affiliates that are subject to pre-approval).

The appendices to this Policy describe the audit, audit-related, tax and "all other" services that have the general pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The term of any general pre-approval is 12 months from the date of pre-approval, unless the Audit Committee considers a different period and states otherwise. The Audit Committee will annually review and pre-approve the services that may be provided by the independent auditor without obtaining specific pre-approval from the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will add to or subtract from the list of general pre-approved services from time to time, based on subsequent determinations.

The purpose of this Policy is to set forth the procedures by which the Audit Committee intends to fulfill its responsibilities. It does not delegate the Audit Committee's responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent auditor to management.

The independent auditor has reviewed this Policy and believes that implementation of this Policy will not adversely affect the auditor's independence.

II. Delegation

As provided in the Act and the SEC's rules, the Audit Committee may delegate either type of pre-approval authority to one or more of its members who are independent directors. Any member to whom such authority is delegated must report, for informational purposes only, any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. In accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Audit Committee has delegated pre-approval authority to its chairman, since under the Audit Committee's charter each member of the Audit Committee, including the chairman, is required to be an independent director.

III. Audit Services

The annual audit services engagement terms and fees will be subject to the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee. Audit services include the annual financial statement audit and other procedures required to be performed by the independent auditor to be able to form an opinion on the Fund's financial statements. These other procedures include information systems and procedural reviews and testing performed in order to understand and place reliance on the systems of internal control, and consultations relating to the audit. The Audit Committee will monitor the audit services engagement as necessary, but no less than on a semiannual basis, and will also approve, if necessary, any changes in terms, conditions and fees resulting from changes in audit scope, Fund structure or other items.

In addition to the annual audit services engagement approved by the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee may grant general pre-approval to other audit services, which are those services that only the independent auditor reasonably can provide. Other audit services may include statutory audits and services associated with SEC registration statements (on Forms N-1A, N-2, N-3, N-4, etc.), periodic reports and other documents filed with the SEC or other documents issued in connection with securities offerings.

The Audit Committee has pre-approved the audit services in Appendix A. All other audit services not listed in Appendix A must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

IV. Audit-Related Services

Audit-related services are assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Fund's financial statements or that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor. Because the Audit Committee believes that the provision of audit-related services does not impair the independence of the auditor and is consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence, the Audit Committee may grant general pre-approval to audit-related services. Audit-related services include, among others, accounting consultations related to accounting, financial reporting or disclosure matters not classified as audit services; assistance with understanding and implementing new accounting and financial reporting guidance from rulemaking authorities; agreed-upon or expanded audit procedures related to accounting and/or billing records required to respond to or comply with financial, accounting or regulatory reporting matters; and assistance with internal control reporting requirements under form N-SAR.

The Audit Committee has pre-approved the audit-related services in Appendix B. All other audit-related services not listed in Appendix B must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

V. Tax Services

The Audit Committee believes that the independent auditor can provide tax services to the Fund such as tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice without impairing the auditor's independence, and the SEC has stated that the independent auditor may provide such services. Hence, the Audit Committee believes it may grant general pre-approval to those tax services that have historically been provided by the auditor, that the Audit Committee has reviewed and believes would not impair the independence of the auditor, and that are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. The Audit Committee will not permit the retention of the independent auditor in connection with a transaction initially recommended by the independent auditor, the sole business purpose of which may be tax avoidance and the tax treatment of which may not be supported in the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations. The Audit Committee will consult with the Fund's Administrator or outside counsel to determine that the tax planning and reporting positions are consistent with this Policy.

Pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Audit Committee has pre-approved the tax services in Appendix C. All tax services involving large and complex transactions not listed in Appendix C must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee, including: tax services proposed to be provided by the independent auditor to any executive officer or director of the Fund, in his or her individual capacity, where such services are paid for by the Fund.

VI. All Other Services

The Audit Committee believes, based on the SEC's rules prohibiting the independent auditor from providing specific non-audit services, that other types of non-audit services are permitted. Accordingly, the Audit Committee believes it may grant general pre-approval to those permissible non-audit services classified as all other services that it believes are routine and recurring services, would not impair the independence of the auditor and are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence.

The Audit Committee has pre-approved the all other services in Appendix D. Permissible all other services not listed in Appendix D must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

A list of the SEC's prohibited non-audit services is attached to this Policy as Appendix E. The SEC's rules and relevant guidance should be consulted to determine the precise definitions of these services and the applicability of exceptions to certain of the prohibitions.

VII. Pre-Approval Fee Levels or Budgeted Amounts

Pre-approval fee levels or budgeted amounts for all services to be provided by the independent auditor will be established annually by the Audit Committee. (Note that separate amounts may be specified for services to the Fund and for services to other affiliated entities that are subject to pre-approval.) Any proposed services exceeding these levels or amounts will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is mindful of the overall relationship of fees for audit and non-audit services in determining whether to pre-approve any such services. For each fiscal year, the Audit Committee may determine the appropriate ratio between the total amount of fees for audit, audit-related and tax services for the Fund (including any audit-related or tax services fees for affiliates that are subject to pre-approval), and the total amount of fees for services classified as all other services (including any such services for affiliates that are subject to pre-approval).

VIII. Procedures

All requests or applications for services to be provided by the independent auditor that do not require specific approval by the Audit Committee will be submitted to the Fund's Administrator and must include a detailed description of the services to be rendered. The Administrator will determine whether such services are included within the list of services that have received the general pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will be informed on a timely basis of any such services rendered by the independent auditor.

Requests or applications to provide services that require specific approval by the Audit Committee will be submitted to the Audit Committee by both the independent auditor and the Fund's Administrator, and must include a joint statement as to whether, in their view, the request or application is consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence.

The Audit Committee has designated the Fund's Administrator to monitor the performance of all services provided by the independent auditor and to determine whether such services are in compliance with this Policy. The Administrator will report to the Audit Committee on a periodic basis on the results of its monitoring. Both the Administrator and any member of management will immediately report to the Chairman of the Audit Committee any breach of this Policy that comes to their attention.

IX. Additional Requirements

The Audit Committee has determined to take additional measures on an annual basis to meet its responsibility to oversee the work of the independent auditor and to assure the auditor's independence from the Fund, such as reviewing a formal written statement from the independent auditor delineating all relationships between the independent auditor and the Fund, consistent with applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent accountant's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence, and discussing with the independent auditor its methods and procedures for ensuring independence.
