On September 6, 2012, Harman International Industries, Incorporated (Harman) entered into change-in-control severance agreements (collectively, the CIC Severance Agreements) with the following members of the Executive Committee: Michael Mauser and I.P. Park. The CIC Severance Agreements provide that if, during the six months prior to or within two years following a change in control of Harman, the executive is terminated without cause or under certain circumstances terminates his own employment, he is entitled to receive a severance payment equal to one and one-half times his highest annual base salary during any period prior to his termination. The executive is also entitled to receive up to $50,000 for outplacement services and, with respect to Mr. Park, 18 months COBRA reimbursement on an after-tax basis. Each of the CIC Severance Agreements expires on December 31, 2015. Thereafter, unless Harman or the executive has notified the other by the preceding September 30 that Harman or the executive, as appropriate, does not wish the agreement to be extended, the agreement will be automatically extended on the following January 1 for an additional year.
