ITEM 5.07 SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

News Corporation (the Company) held a Special Meeting of Stockholders (the Special Meeting) on June 11, 2013. A brief description of the matters voted upon at the Special Meeting and the results of the voting on such matters is set forth below.

Proposal 1: A proposal to approve an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to clarify the Company's ability to structure separation transactions, including the contemplated separation of the Company's media and entertainment business and its publishing business, as described in the proxy statement (the Separation), such that the Company can make distributions to its stockholders in separate classes of stock of its subsidiaries comparable to the classes of stock currently held by them, passed and was voted upon as follows:

|                                     |               |
|-------------------------------------|---------------|
| Class A Common Stockholders: |               |
| For:                                | 1,213,962,583 |
| Against:                            | 6,094,214     |
| Abstain:                            | 5,165,707     |

|                                     |             |
|-------------------------------------|-------------|
| Class B Common Stockholders: |             |
| For:                                | 496,890,098 |
| Against:                            | 322,468     |
| Abstain:                            | 254,422     |

Proposal 2: A proposal to approve an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to allow the Company to make certain non-cash distributions on shares of its stock held by its wholly-owned subsidiaries ( Subsidiary-Owned Shares ) in separation transactions and to create additional Subsidiary-Owned Shares with similar distribution rights, each to enable the Company to consummate the Separation in the manner contemplated, passed and was voted on as follows:

|                                     |               |
|-------------------------------------|---------------|
| Class A Common Stockholders: |               |
| For:                                | 1,215,349,698 |

|                                     |             |
|-------------------------------------|-------------|
| Class B Common Stockholders: |             |
| For:                                | 496,927,665 |
| Against:                            | 283,721     |
| Abstain:                            | 255,602     |

Proposal 3: A proposal to approve an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation which will change the Company's name to Twenty-First Century Fox, Inc. on or about the date of consummation of the Separation passed and was voted upon as follows:

|                                     |             |
|-------------------------------------|-------------|
| Class B Common Stockholders: |             |
| For:                                | 497,091,434 |
