Leading Proxy Advisory Firm ISS Recommends Dell Shareholders Vote FOR Proposed Sale Transaction at $13.65 per Share in Cash

Round Rock, TX July 8, 2013 The Special Committee of the Board of Directors of Dell Inc. (NASDAQ: DELL) today announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a leading independent proxy voting and corporate governance advisory firm, has recommended that Dell shareholders vote FOR the proposed sale transaction for $13.65 per share in cash.

The Special Committee issued the following statement:

We are pleased that ISS has recommended, as we have, that Dell shareholders approve the $13.65 per share cash sale transaction. With the assistance of outside advisors over the course of an exhaustive 10-month process, the Committee has thoroughly reviewed Dell's existing business plan as it seeks to transform its business model and various alternatives in support of that transformation. Given the Company's business challenges, intensifying competition and deteriorating industry trends, a sale at $13.65 per share in cash provides the highest value and greatest certainty of any available alternative. We also believe rejection of this transaction would expose Dell and its shareholders to serious risks and uncertainties that will harm the Company's business and erode shareholder value.

ISS summarized its recommendation as follows:

After evaluating the risk of accepting the offer's truncation of value if the business transformation is successful versus the risk of rejecting the offer's meaningful loss of value if the business transformation falters, ISS recommends clients vote FOR this transaction, which offers a 25.5% premium to the unaffected share price, provides certainty of value, and transfers the risk of the deteriorating PC business and the company's on-going business transformation to the buyout group.
