Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 19, 2013, Autoliv, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that the European Investment Bank (EIB) and Autoliv AB, a Swedish subsidiary of the Company, have signed a financing commitment agreement dated July 16, 2013, giving Autoliv AB access to a loan of 200 million (approximately U.S. $260 million). The funds, if utilized, should help finance research and development projects over the next three years at Autoliv's R&D facilities in Germany, France and Sweden. The projects to receive EIB funding generally relate to a wide range of innovative passive and active safety technologies for motor vehicles aiming at the enhancement of vehicle occupants' and pedestrians' safety.

Under the financing commitment, Autoliv AB may, during the next 18-month period, draw loans with a maturity of up to 7 years. The loans may be drawn in up to four separate tranches, with a minimum borrowing amount for each tranche of 50 million or, if less than 50 million remains under the commitment, the remaining balance of the financing commitment. The loans may be drawn in either fixed rate or floating rate tranches at the election of Autoliv AB. Fixed rate tranches will be repaid to the EIB at an interest rate of 26 basis points (0.26%). Floating rate tranches will be repaid to the EIB at a floating rate equal to the relevant interbank rate (which under the commitment may be any of EURIBOR, LIBOR or STIBOR) plus a spread to be determined at the time of the draw under the commitment. Autoliv AB has the option to revise or convert the interest basis of a tranche to either fixed or floating depending on the circumstances upon request. In addition to the interest payable on each tranche, Autoliv AB is required to pay a non-utilization fee of 0.13% on the undrawn, uncanceled balance of the credit.

The financial obligations of the financing commitment agreement, including repayment of any funds, are guaranteed by the Company pursuant to a Guarantee Agreement between the EIB and the Company. As with all of the existing principal debt arrangements of the Company, the new financial commitment does not have any financial covenants, i.e. performance-related restrictions.

The portion of the press release under the heading "Other Significant Events" relating to the EIB financing commitment included as Exhibit 99.1 to this report is incorporated herein by reference.
