MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of BancorpSouth, Inc. (BancorpSouth) and Central Community Corporation (Central Community) have approved an agreement and plan of reorganization (the Merger Agreement) to merge our two companies. If Central Community stockholders vote to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and the merger is completed, Central Community will merge with and into BancorpSouth, Central Community's subsidiary bank, First State Bank Central Texas (the Bank), will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank (BancorpSouth Bank), a subsidiary of BancorpSouth, and Central Community stockholders (other than Central Community stockholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger) will have the right to receive an aggregate of (i) 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) $28,500,000 in cash, subject to downward adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

The number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that Central Community stockholders may receive in the merger is fixed. The dollar value of this common stock will change depending on fluctuations in the market price and will not be known at the time Central Community stockholders vote on the merger. Based on 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock that are expected to be exchanged in the merger, holders of Central Community common stock would receive approximately 206.8061 shares of BancorpSouth common stock (plus cash in lieu of any fractional shares) and approximately $812.96 in cash, subject to an expected downward adjustment as described in the Merger Agreement and further described herein, for each share of Central Community common stock they own. BancorpSouth's common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS and the closing price of BancorpSouth's common stock on March 19, 2014 was $25.47 per share.

Additionally, the amount of per share merger consideration to be received is dependent upon the number of shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and whether the expected downward adjustment to the merger consideration provided in the Merger Agreement occurs. Consequently, the exact per share merger consideration to be received as a result of the merger will not be known at the time Central Community stockholders vote on the merger.

The holding company for

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON APRIL 24, 2014

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF CENTRAL COMMUNITY CORPORATION:

This serves as notice to you that a special meeting of stockholders of Central Community Corporation (Central Community) will be held on April 24, 2014 at 4:00 p.m., Central Time, at 2027 South 61st Street, Temple, Texas 76504, for the purpose of considering and voting upon the approval of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the Merger Agreement), dated as of January 22, 2014, between Central Community and BancorpSouth, Inc. (BancorpSouth), which provides for the merger of Central Community with and into BancorpSouth as more fully described in the accompanying Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and, if necessary, to adjourn the special meeting to a later date.

Only holders of record of Central Community common stock at the close of business on March 18, 2014 (the record date) are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. Each share of Central Community is entitled to one vote. Approval of the Merger Agreement requires approval by an affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Central Community s common stock entitled to vote on the proposal.

All directors and certain executive officers of Central Community have entered into a voting agreement with BancorpSouth whereby they have agreed to vote their shares of Central Community common stock in favor of the merger. On the record date, these stockholders represented 11,948 (34.08%) of the shares of Central Community common stock entitled to vote at the Central Community special meeting.

The board of directors of Central Community has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and recommends that Central Community stockholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger Agreement is approved and the merger is completed, all outstanding shares of Central Community common stock will be converted into the right to receive an aggregate of (i) 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) $28,500,000 in cash, subject to an expected downward adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

The amount of per share merger consideration to be received is dependent upon the number of shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and whether the expected downward adjustment to the merger consideration provided in the Merger Agreement occurs. Consequently, you will not know the exact per share merger consideration you will receive as a result of the merger when you vote on the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. There were 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding as of March 18, 2014, the date of the Merger Agreement. Assuming the same number of shares of Central Community common stock are issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger, and subject to the expected downward adjustment to the cash component of the merger consideration, you would receive (i) 206.8061 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) cash equal to approximately $812.96, for each share of Central Community stock that you own with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest.

The actual value received by Central Community's stockholders in the aggregate and on a per share basis will fluctuate based on the price of BancorpSouth's common stock, the number of shares of Central Community common stock outstanding and the extent of any downward adjustment to the merger consideration.

A copy of Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law containing the procedural requirements to exercise dissenters' rights is attached as Annex B to the accompanying Proxy Statement/Prospectus. In addition, please see the section entitled THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights in the accompanying Proxy Statement/Prospectus for a discussion of the procedures to be followed in asserting these dissenters' rights.

All Central Community stockholders are invited to attend the special meeting. To ensure your representation at the special meeting, please complete and promptly mail the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope. This will not prevent you from voting in person, but will help to secure a quorum and avoid added solicitation costs. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: What is the proposed transaction and what am I being asked to vote upon?

A: You are being asked to vote on a proposal to approve a merger in which Central Community will merge with and into BancorpSouth, with BancorpSouth surviving. It is contemplated that immediately thereafter, the Bank will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, with BancorpSouth Bank surviving. After the merger, you will no longer own shares of Central Community common stock and will receive the per share merger consideration.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you carefully read this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, please vote your proxy promptly by indicating on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote, and by signing and mailing the proxy card in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting of stockholders.

Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we encourage you to vote your proxy promptly. This will help to ensure that a quorum is present at the special meeting and will help reduce the costs associated with the solicitation of proxies.

The board of directors of Central Community unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Pursuant to the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Merger Agreement must be approved by an affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Central Community's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Accordingly, if you abstain, it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the Merger Agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy card?

A: You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your meeting. You can do this in any of the following three ways:

by sending a written notice to the corporate secretary of the board of Central Community in time to be received before the special meeting stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;

by completing, signing and dating another proxy card and returning it by mail in time to be received before the special meeting, in which case your later-submitted proxy will be recorded and your earlier proxy revoked; or if you are a holder of record, by attending the special meeting and voting in person, although attendance by itself will not revoke a previously granted proxy.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker, you should contact your broker to change your vote.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides. Your broker will generally not have the discretion to vote your shares without your instructions.

Q: Will I be able to trade the shares of BancorpSouth common stock I receive in the merger?

A: Yes. The BancorpSouth common stock issued pursuant to the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and will be listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS. All shares of BancorpSouth common stock that you receive in the merger will be freely transferable and will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act, except for shares issued to any Central Community stockholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of BancorpSouth after completion of the merger. An affiliate of a corporation, as defined by the rules promulgated under the Securities Act, is a person who directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, that corporation. Affiliates generally include directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of 10% or more of a company's capital stock. Former Central Community stockholders who are not affiliates of BancorpSouth after the completion of the merger may sell their shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger at any time. Former Central Community stockholders who become affiliates of BancorpSouth after completion of the merger will be subject to the volume and sale limitations of Rule 144 under the Securities Act until they are no longer affiliates of BancorpSouth. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not cover resales of BancorpSouth common stock received by any person upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of or rely on this Proxy Statement/Prospectus in connection with or to effect any resale of BancorpSouth shares.

Table of Contents

Q: What is the aggregate amount of consideration to be paid by BancorpSouth in the merger?

A: Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger Agreement is approved and the merger is completed, all outstanding shares of Central Community common stock will be converted into the right to receive an aggregate of (i) 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) $28,500,000 in cash, subject to downward adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Q: What will I receive in connection with the merger?

A: The amount of per share merger consideration to be received is dependent on the number of shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and whether any downward adjustment to the merger consideration as set forth in the Merger Agreement occurs. Consequently, you will not know the exact per share merger consideration you will receive as a result of the merger when you vote on the Merger Agreement. There were 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding as of March 18, 2014. Assuming no additional shares of Central Community common stock are issued before the closing of the merger and further assuming no downward adjustment to the cash component of the merger consideration, you would receive (i) 206.8061 shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and (ii) cash consideration of approximately $812.96, for each share of Central Community common stock that you own with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest.

Q: Who will be on the board of directors of BancorpSouth after the merger?

A: Following the merger, the board of directors of BancorpSouth will consist of 19 members. Eighteen of these directors will be the current members of the board of directors of BancorpSouth. For more information on these individuals, see BancorpSouth's filings incorporated by reference as described under WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Donald R. Grobowsky, the current chairman, president, and chief executive officer of Central Community, will be joining the BancorpSouth board of directors as the nineteenth member. If, prior to the closing date, Mr. Grobowsky becomes unavailable for any reason to serve as a member of the board of directors of BancorpSouth following the merger, the board of directors of BancorpSouth will continue with its current 18 members. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT - Management and Operations Following the Merger for biographical information with respect to Mr. Grobowsky.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the stockholders?

A: The merger has been structured to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). As a result of the merger's qualification as a reorganization, it is anticipated that Central Community stockholders will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the exchange of shares of Central Community common stock for shares of BancorpSouth common stock, except with respect to cash received in connection with the merger and cash delivered in lieu of fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock and except for Central Community stockholders who exercise their dissenters' rights with respect to the merger.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Central Community stockholders. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to you.

Central Community may distribute the shares of certain subsidiaries or property to its stockholders prior to the effective time of the merger. The nature of any future distribution is not yet known and therefore the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Central Community stockholders arising from any such distribution cannot be described herein with any accuracy. Any pre-merger distribution of property will be treated separately from the merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The discussion contained herein under the caption "THE MERGER - Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of any pre-merger distribution to the holders of Central Community's common stock. Central Community will provide additional information to its stockholders regarding any pre-merger distribution in a separate mailing. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of any tax consequences related to any pre-merger distribution that is applicable or may be applicable to you.

Q: What is the purpose of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus?

A: This document serves as Central Community's proxy statement and as BancorpSouth's prospectus. As a proxy statement, this document is being provided to Central Community's stockholders because Central Community's board of directors is soliciting proxies to vote to approve the Merger Agreement. As a prospectus, this document is being provided to Central Community's stockholders by BancorpSouth because BancorpSouth is offering them shares of BancorpSouth common stock in exchange for their shares of Central Community's common stock if the merger is completed.

Central Community is incorporated in Delaware, based in Temple, Texas, and conducts its operations through the Bank. As of December 31, 2013, Central Community had total assets of approximately $1.3 billion, total loans of approximately $555.5 million, total deposits of approximately $1.1 billion and stockholders' equity of approximately $128.2 million.

BancorpSouth and Central Community entered into the Merger Agreement whereby Central Community will merge with and into BancorpSouth, with BancorpSouth surviving, and the Merger Agreement provides that the Bank will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank pursuant to a separate agreement, subject to stockholder and regulatory approval and other conditions. The Merger Agreement is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex A. You should read it carefully. Subject to stockholder and regulatory approval, BancorpSouth and Central Community hope to complete the merger during the second quarter of 2014.

What Central Community Stockholders Will Receive in the Merger (Page 44)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are approved and the merger is completed, all outstanding shares of Central Community common stock will be converted into the right to receive an aggregate of (i) 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) $28,500,000 in cash, subject to an expected downward adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement as further described herein.

The amount of per share merger consideration to be received is dependent on the number of shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and whether the expected downward adjustment to the cash component of the merger consideration pursuant to the Merger Agreement occurs. Consequently, you will not know the exact per share merger consideration you will receive as a result of the merger when you vote on the Merger Agreement. There were 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding as of March 18, 2014. Assuming no additional shares of Central Community common stock are issued before the closing of the merger and further subject to an expected downward adjustment to the cash component of the merger consideration, you would receive (i) 206.8061 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) cash consideration of approximately $812.96, for each share of Central Community common stock that you own with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest.

The actual value received by Central Community's stockholders in the aggregate and on a per share basis will fluctuate based on the price of BancorpSouth's common stock, the number of shares of Central Community common stock outstanding and the extent of the expected downward adjustment to the merger consideration, if such downward adjustment occurs.

At the effective time of the merger and assuming the transaction between BancorpSouth and Ouachita Bancshares closes prior to the closing of the merger, persons who are BancorpSouth shareholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 93% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company and persons who are Central Community stockholders immediately prior to the merger would own approximately 7% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the combined company.

Central Community stockholders may dissent from the merger and receive the fair value of their shares of Central Community common stock in cash. A copy of the Delaware statute describing these dissenters' rights and the procedures for exercising them is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

BancorpSouth's Stock Price Will Fluctuate (Page 44, 56)

BancorpSouth expects the market price of its common stock to fluctuate as a result of market factors beyond its control before and after the merger. Because the market price of BancorpSouth common stock may fluctuate, the value of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock that Central Community stockholders may receive in the merger might increase or decrease prior to completion of the merger. BancorpSouth cannot assure Central Community stockholders that the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will not decrease before or after completion of the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of BancorpSouth common stock from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker. BancorpSouth common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol BXS.

A special meeting of the stockholders of Central Community will be held at the following time and place:

April 24, 2014

4:00 p.m. (Central Time)

Central Community Corporation

2027 South 61st Street

Temple, Texas 76504

At the special meeting, stockholders of Central Community will be asked to approve the Merger Agreement between Central Community and BancorpSouth and the transactions contemplated thereby and any adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary.

The Board of Directors of Central Community Recommends that its Stockholders Approve the Merger Agreement (Page 25)

The board of directors of Central Community unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, believes that the merger between Central Community and BancorpSouth is in the best interests of Central Community stockholders and recommends that Central Community stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. This belief is based on a number of factors described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Vote Required to Complete the Merger (Page 22)

The Merger Agreement must be approved by an affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Central Community's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Central Community expects that its executive officers and directors will vote all of their shares of Central Community common stock in favor of the Merger Agreement. Additionally, pursuant to the terms of a voting agreement required by the Merger Agreement, each member of the board of directors of Central Community and certain officers of Central Community and the Bank are required to vote in favor of the Merger Agreement.

Record Date; Voting Power (Page 22)

You can vote at the special meeting of Central Community stockholders if you owned Central Community common stock as of the close of business on March 18, 2014, the record date set by the Central Community board of directors. Each share of Central Community common stock is entitled to one vote. On the record date, there were 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the Merger Agreement.

Background of the Merger (Page 24)

In November 2013, Central Community engaged Commerce Street Capital, LLC (Commerce Street Capital) to act as its exclusive agent to provide investment banking and financial advisory services in relation to the evaluation, structure and possible negotiation of a potential business combination. After reviewing the information delivered by Commerce Street Capital and considering its own strategic plans, on September 26, 2013, BancorpSouth's management submitted a proposal for a merger with Central Community. After considering the proposal, the management of Central Community, in consultation with Commerce Street Capital, elected to accept BancorpSouth's proposal and enter into exclusive negotiations with BancorpSouth. Following their entry into exclusive negotiations, the parties and their representatives began negotiation of a Merger Agreement and continued to negotiate the terms of the Merger Agreement until it was signed on January 22, 2014.

On January 21, 2014, following presentations from its legal and financial advisors, Central Community's board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. On January 22, 2014, BancorpSouth's board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement was executed by the parties as of January 22, 2014.

Why BancorpSouth and Central Community are Seeking to Merge (Page 25)

The merger will combine the strengths of BancorpSouth and Central Community and their subsidiary banks. BancorpSouth has an established presence in east Texas with plans to expand its current east Texas footprint into the central Texas market. Joining with BancorpSouth will provide Central Community's customers opportunities offered by a large, resourceful, community-minded bank. BancorpSouth has been actively seeking banking locations in the central Texas area to expand its presence in Texas, particularly in the Interstate 35 corridor in Texas. The proposed merger with Central Community accelerates BancorpSouth's opportunity to grow in Texas and brings to BancorpSouth's team a number of outstanding bankers. BancorpSouth currently operates 292 commercial banking, mortgage, and insurance locations in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Tennessee and Texas, including an insurance location in Illinois, with total assets of $13.0 billion. BancorpSouth's management views the Interstate 35 corridor in Texas as a logical growth area for its community style of banking.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Central Community (Page 27)

Commerce Street Capital has delivered to the board of directors of Central Community its written opinion, dated January 17, 2014, that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its opinion, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Central Community is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Commerce Street Capital's advice and opinion, no instructions were given and no limitations were imposed by Central Community upon Commerce Street Capital with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

The full text of the opinion of Commerce Street Capital dated January 17, 2014, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Central Community stockholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Management Following the Merger (Page 54)

The officers and directors of each of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue to be the officers and directors of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank, respectively, following the merger. Mr. Donald R. Grobowsky, the current chairman, president, and chief executive officer of Central Community, will be joining the boards of directors of BancorpSouth and BancorpSouth Bank. Certain other executive officers of Central Community will be retained by BancorpSouth and may serve as officers of BancorpSouth Bank but will not serve as executive officers of BancorpSouth.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 35)

The transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement is intended to be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Accordingly, upon the exchange of your shares of Central Community common stock for the per share merger consideration, you should recognize a gain, but not any loss, on the exchange to the extent of the lesser of cash received or gain realized in the exchange.

This tax treatment may not apply to all stockholders of Central Community. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to you can be complicated. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to you.

BancorpSouth and Central Community will not be obligated to complete the merger unless they each receive an opinion from their respective legal counsel, dated the closing date, that the merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that BancorpSouth and Central Community will each be a party to that reorganization. If such opinions are rendered, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger should be as described above. The opinions of the parties' respective counsel, however, do not bind the Internal Revenue Service and do not preclude the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position.

Central Community may distribute the shares of certain subsidiaries or property to its stockholders prior to the effective time of the merger. The nature of any future distribution is not yet known and therefore the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Central Community stockholders arising from any such distribution cannot be described herein with any accuracy. Any pre-merger distribution of property will be treated separately from the merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The discussion contained herein under the caption "Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of any pre-merger distribution to the holders of Central Community's common stock. Central Community will provide additional information to its stockholders regarding any pre-merger distribution in a separate mailing. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of any tax consequences related to any pre-merger distribution that is applicable or may be applicable to you.

Accounting Treatment (Page 35)

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition by BancorpSouth using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with FASB ASC topic 805, "Business Combinations."

Interests of Central Community Management and Directors in the Merger (Page 41)

Executive officers and directors of Central Community will be issued shares of BancorpSouth common stock and paid cash in the merger on the same basis as other stockholders of Central Community. The following chart shows the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be issued to executive officers, directors and principal stockholders of Central Community in the merger:

|--|-----------|
| Shares of common stock of Central Community beneficially owned by its executive officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of Central Community common stock on February 12, 2014 | 11,948 |
| Shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be received in the merger by executive officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of Central Community common stock based upon their beneficial ownership | 2,471,130 |

Some of the directors and officers of Central Community have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as stockholders of Central Community. These interests include the following:

In connection with the merger, 34 of the officers of Central Community or its subsidiaries, as applicable, have entered into employment agreements with BancorpSouth, that will be effective, if at all, at the effective time of the merger. The terms of the employment agreements generally provide for annual compensation, a restricted stock award and a retention bonus payable to the individual if they are employed by BancorpSouth six months following the closing of the merger. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Keith McKeever may be entitled to a one-time bonus payable upon closing of the merger. No other individuals are entitled to similar payments at closing.

The directors and officers of Central Community and the Bank currently covered under comparable policies held by Central Community and the Bank will receive past acts insurance coverage under its current bankers professional liability, mortgage errors and omissions and fiduciary liability insurance for a period of four years after completion of the merger.

Central Community Stockholders May Dissent from the Merger (Page 38)

Delaware law permits Central Community stockholders to dissent from the merger and to receive the fair value of their shares of Central Community common stock in cash. To dissent, a Central Community stockholder must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with Central Community and voting his or her shares against the Merger Agreement. The shares of Central Community common stock held by a dissenter will not be exchanged for stock consideration or cash consideration in the merger and a dissenter's only right will be to receive the fair value of his or her shares of Central Community common stock in cash. A copy of the Delaware statute describing these dissenters' rights and the procedures for exercising them is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Central Community stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and receive cash in exchange for their shares of Central Community common stock may recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

We Must Obtain Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page 34)

The merger must be reviewed and approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve). BancorpSouth filed an application under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis on February 26, 2014.

Completion of the bank merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt of approvals by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC), the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance and the Texas Department of Banking. Following approval by the FDIC, the United States Department of Justice has up to 30 calendar days to submit any adverse comments relating to competitive factors resulting from the merger. While Central Community and BancorpSouth do not know of any reason that the Department of Justice would challenge regulatory approval by the FDIC and believe that the likelihood of such action is remote, there can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not initiate such a proceeding, or if such a proceeding is initiated, as to the result of any such challenge.

On February 7, 2014 the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance preliminarily approved the pending merger of Central Community's bank subsidiary into BancorpSouth Bank. Final approval by the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance is expected to be received prior to approval of the Merger Agreement by Central Community stockholders. Also, in connection with the proposed bank merger, Central Community and BancorpSouth filed with the Texas Department of Banking on February 5, 2014 a notice of the pending merger, provided a copy of all applications filed with any federal agency in connection with the merger and paid a fee as prescribed by regulation of the Texas Department of Banking. Approval of the bank merger by the Texas Department of Banking is expected to be received following FDIC and Federal Reserve Board approvals.

We also intend to make all required filings with the SEC under the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 relating to the merger.

While we believe that we will obtain the remaining regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain if or when we will obtain them.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 51)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being met, including the following:

stockholders of Central Community approving the merger;

the New York Stock Exchange authorizing for listing the shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be issued to Central Community stockholders; receiving all required regulatory approvals, including that of the FDIC, and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;

BancorpSouth's registration statement on Form S-4 becoming effective under the Securities Act;

Table of Contents

the holders of less than 5% of the total outstanding shares of Central Community common stock having exercised dissenters' rights with respect to the merger;

receiving opinions of legal counsel to each company that the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the merger will generally be as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus;

Central Community's allowance for loan losses shall be equaling at least the minimum allowance amount (as defined in the Merger Agreement);

The executed employment agreements, director support agreements, director/officer releases, and the voting agreement shall remain in full force and effect;

Central Community amending or terminating any employee benefit plans as requested by BancorpSouth;

Central Community transferring all of its interest in certain rock quarries to one of its subsidiaries and disposing of that subsidiary in a manner acceptable to BancorpSouth; and Central Community divesting all of its ownership and financial interest in all of its subsidiaries other than the Bank, FSBT Properties, Inc., Central Community Capital Trust I and First Central Union Capital Trust I. In cases where the law permits, a party to the Merger Agreement could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger although the party is entitled not to complete the merger. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied (or waived, where permissible) or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 52)

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after approval of the merger by Central Community stockholders, as set forth in the Merger Agreement, including by mutual consent of BancorpSouth and Central Community. In addition, the Merger Agreement may generally be terminated by either party if:

a court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or other governmental entity issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action is final and non-appealable or any of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are disapproved by any governmental entity or other person whose approval is required;

the merger is not completed on or before July 21, 2014, unless one or more regulatory approvals have not been received, in which case the Merger Agreement may be terminated if the merger is not completed on or before August 20, 2014;

Central Community stockholders fail to approve the Merger Agreement; or any of the representations or warranties provided by the other party set forth in the Merger Agreement become untrue or incorrect or the other party materially breaches its covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement, and the representation or material breach is not cured within the prescribed time limit.

Central Community may terminate the Merger Agreement, without the consent of BancorpSouth, if the board of directors of Central Community receives an unsolicited, bona fide alternative acquisition proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and, under certain terms and conditions, determines that it is a superior proposal to that of the Merger Agreement and that the failure to accept such proposal would cause the board of directors to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law; but Central Community must notify BancorpSouth of the superior proposal at least five business days before terminating the Merger Agreement, during which time BancorpSouth has the right to adjust the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement so that the superior proposal no longer constitutes a superior proposal.

In addition, BancorpSouth may terminate the Merger Agreement, without the consent of Central Community, if any required regulatory approval is obtained subject to restrictions or conditions on the operations of Central Community, the Bank, BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank that are reasonably unacceptable to BancorpSouth.

BancorpSouth also has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement on or prior to April 22, 2014, if the results of any environmental inspections or surveys of Central Community properties identify certain potential or current violations of environmental laws or environmental law requires certain remedial or clean up action that could have a material adverse effect on Central Community.

BancorpSouth may also terminate the Merger Agreement if Central Community has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations contained in the Merger Agreement in a manner adverse to BancorpSouth, the board of Central Community resolves to accept a competing acquisition proposal or the board of Central Community changes its recommendation regarding the merger.

Termination Fee (Page 53)

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by:

BancorpSouth because Central Community materially breaches the non-solicitation obligations set forth in the Merger Agreement in a manner adverse to BancorpSouth;

BancorpSouth because Central Community's board of directors resolves to accept another acquisition proposal;

BancorpSouth because Central Community's board of directors withdraws, amends or modifies, in any manner adverse to BancorpSouth, its recommendation or approval of the Merger Agreement or the merger; or

Central Community because Central Community's board of directors receives an unsolicited, bona fide alternative acquisition proposal and, under certain terms and conditions, determines that it is a superior proposal to that of the Merger Agreement taking into account any adjustments made by BancorpSouth to the merger consideration, then, unless BancorpSouth is in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the Merger Agreement, Central Community will be required to pay BancorpSouth a termination fee of $8,000,000 plus up to $750,000 for BancorpSouth's expenses related to the merger.

If either BancorpSouth or Central Community terminates the Merger Agreement:

after July 21, 2014 (or August 20, 2014, if regulatory approval has not been obtained by July 21, 2014), and if at the time of termination, the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part has been declared effective for at least 25 business days prior to such termination and Central Community has failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Central Community special meeting by such date, or without regard to timing, if Central Community's stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and an acquisition proposal exists at the time of termination, then, unless BancorpSouth is in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the Merger Agreement, Central Community will be required to pay BancorpSouth up to $750,000 for its expenses related to the merger.

If either BancorpSouth or Central Community terminates the Merger Agreement, and within 12 months of termination of the Merger Agreement Central Community enters into an acquisition agreement with a third party:

after July 21, 2014 (or August 20, 2014, if regulatory approval has not been obtained by July 21, 2014), and if at the time of termination, Central Community's stockholders have not approved the Merger Agreement, or without regard to timing, if Central Community's stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and an acquisition proposal exists at the time of termination, then, unless BancorpSouth is in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the Merger Agreement, Central Community will be required to pay BancorpSouth a termination fee of $8,000,000 plus up to $750,000 for BancorpSouth's expenses related to the merger.

Comparison of Rights of Stockholders (Page 62)

At the effective time of the merger, Central Community stockholders who receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock will automatically become BancorpSouth shareholders. Central Community is a Delaware corporation governed by provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law, and Central Community's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. See COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS.

Prior Execution of Agreement and Plan of Reorganization by and between Ouachita Bancshares and BancorpSouth (Page 57)

On January 8, 2014, BancorpSouth announced that it entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Ouachita Bancshares and its subsidiary bank, Ouachita Independent Bank, a Louisiana state bank with total assets of approximately $652.2 million, total loans of approximately $477.8 million, total deposits of approximately $549.7 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $53.1 million as of December 31, 2013. Ouachita Independent Bank is a full service commercial bank with 13 locations in Louisiana and one location in Mississippi.

Under the terms of the definitive agreement, Ouachita Bancshares shareholders will receive an aggregate of $22,875,000 in cash and 3,675,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock for all outstanding shares of Ouachita Bancshares common stock, subject to certain conditions and potential adjustments. The merger has been approved by the boards of directors of both BancorpSouth and Ouachita Bancshares and is expected to close during the second quarter of 2014. The transaction is subject to certain conditions, including the approval by shareholders of Ouachita Bancshares and customary regulatory approvals.

RISK FACTORS

*The merger involves a number of risks. In addition to the risks described below, the combined companies will continue to be subject to the risks described in the documents that BancorpSouth has filed with the SEC that are incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including without limitation BancorpSouth's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013. If any of the risks described below or in the documents incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus actually occur, the business, financial condition, results of operations or cash flows of the combined companies could be materially adversely affected. The risks below should be considered along with the other information included or incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. You should keep these risk factors in mind when you read forward-looking statements in this document and in the documents incorporated by reference into this document. Please refer to the section of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus titled Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Information.*

Because the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of the stock consideration you may receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Central Community common stock will be converted into the right to receive the per share merger consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement. The implied value of the consideration that you receive will be based on the number of shares of Central Community common stock you own and the market price of BancorpSouth common stock. The market price of BancorpSouth common stock may increase or decrease before or after completion of the merger and, therefore, the implied value of the stock consideration may vary from the implied value of the stock consideration on the date we announced the merger, the date that this Proxy Statement/Prospectus was mailed to Central Community stockholders and the date of the special meeting of the Central Community stockholders. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control. Accordingly, at the time of the Central Community special meeting, you will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the exact value of the per share merger consideration you would receive upon completion of the merger.

We may fail to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

BancorpSouth and Central Community have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

BancorpSouth may fail to realize the cost savings estimated for the merger.

Although BancorpSouth estimates that it will realize cost savings from the merger when fully phased in, it is possible that the estimates of the potential cost savings could turn out to be incorrect. For example, the combined purchasing power may not be as strong as expected, and therefore the cost savings could be reduced. In addition, unanticipated growth in BancorpSouth's business may require BancorpSouth to continue to operate or maintain some facilities or support functions that are currently expected to be combined or reduced. The cost savings estimates also depend on our ability to combine the businesses of BancorpSouth and Central Community in a manner that permits those costs savings to be realized. If the estimates turn out to be incorrect or BancorpSouth is not able to combine the two companies successfully, the anticipated cost savings may not be fully realized or realized at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

The market price of shares of BancorpSouth common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting shares of Central Community or BancorpSouth currently.

The businesses of BancorpSouth and Central Community differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of BancorpSouth and Central Community. For a discussion of the businesses of BancorpSouth and Central Community and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see INFORMATION ABOUT BANCORPSOUTH and INFORMATION ABOUT CENTRAL COMMUNITY beginning on pages 57 and 58, respectively.

The executive officers and directors of Central Community have interests different from typical Central Community stockholders.

The executive officers and directors of Central Community have certain interests in the merger and participate in certain arrangements that are different from, or are in addition to, those of Central Community stockholders generally, and are further bound to vote in favor of the merger pursuant to the voting agreement. See THE MERGER Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger. As a result, these executive officers and directors could be more likely to approve the Merger Agreement than if they did not hold these interests and were not bound by the provisions of the voting agreement.

Former stockholders of Central Community will be limited in their ability to influence BancorpSouth's actions and decisions following the merger.

Following the merger, former stockholders of Central Community will hold approximately seven percent of the outstanding shares of BancorpSouth common stock. As a result, former Central Community stockholders will have only limited ability to influence BancorpSouth's business. Former Central Community stockholders will not have separate approval rights with respect to any actions or decisions of BancorpSouth or have separate representation on BancorpSouth's board of directors.

The merger may result in a loss of current Central Community employees.

Despite BancorpSouth's efforts to retain quality employees, BancorpSouth might lose some of Central Community's current employees following the merger. Current Central Community employees may not want to work for a larger, publicly-traded company instead of a smaller, privately-held company or may not want to assume different duties, positions and compensation that BancorpSouth offers to the Central Community employees. Competitors may recruit employees prior to the merger and during the integration process after the merger. As a result, current employees of Central Community could leave with little or no prior notice. BancorpSouth cannot assure you that the combined companies will be able to attract, retain and integrate employees following the merger.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or cannot be met.

Before the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement may be completed, various approvals must be obtained from the bank regulatory and other governmental authorities. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the granting of such approvals. Such conditions and the process of obtaining regulatory approvals could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or of imposing additional costs or limitations on BancorpSouth following the merger. The regulatory approvals may not be received at any time, may not be received in a timely fashion, and may contain conditions on the completion of the merger that are not anticipated or cannot be met. Although BancorpSouth and Central Community do not currently expect that any such material conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the merger.

The Merger Agreement limits Central Community's ability to pursue an alternative transaction and requires Central Community to pay a termination fee plus expenses incurred by BancorpSouth under certain circumstances relating to alternative acquisition proposals.

The Merger Agreement prohibits Central Community from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or knowingly facilitating certain alternative acquisition proposals with any third party, subject to exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement also provides for the payment by Central Community to BancorpSouth of a termination fee of $8,000,000 plus BancorpSouth's expenses up to a maximum of $750,000 in the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances, involving, among others, certain changes in the recommendation of Central Community's board of directors. These provisions may discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring Central Community from considering or proposing such an acquisition. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee on page 52 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

The fairness opinion obtained by Central Community from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Commerce Street Capital, Central Community's financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger, has delivered to the board of directors of Central Community its opinion dated as of January 17, 2014. The opinion of Commerce Street Capital stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration was fair to the Central Community stockholders from a financial point of view. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of BancorpSouth or Central Community, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative values of BancorpSouth and Central Community.

Table of Contents

The combination and integration of both Central Community and Ouachita Bancshares may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and some or all of the expected benefits of these acquisitions may not be realized.

On January 8, 2014, BancorpSouth announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Ouachita Bancshares and its subsidiary bank, Ouachita Independent Bank. Ouachita Independent Bank is a full service commercial bank with 13 locations in Louisiana and one location in Mississippi. The transaction with Ouachita Bancshares, like the transaction with Central Community, is subject to certain conditions, including the approval by shareholders of Ouachita Bancshares and customary regulatory approvals.

BancorpSouth cannot provide assurance that Ouachita Bancshares will obtain shareholder approval for its merger into BancorpSouth, or that BancorpSouth will be successful in obtaining all required regulatory approvals for this proposed transaction. If BancorpSouth is not successful in obtaining required regulatory approvals, the acquisition of Ouachita Bancshares will not be completed. If such regulatory approvals are received, there can be no assurance as to the timing of those approvals or whether any conditions will be imposed that would result in certain closing conditions of the parties not being satisfied. In addition, if a condition of either party is not satisfied, that party may be able to terminate the agreement and, in such case, the merger would not be completed.

It is possible that the process of integrating the operations of both the Bank and Ouachita Independent Bank into BancorpSouth Bank's operations could result in the disruption of one or both of the acquired banks' operations and the loss of the acquired banks' customers and employees, and make it more difficult to achieve the intended benefits of these two mergers. Further, as with any merger of financial institutions, business disruptions may occur that cause customers to withdraw their deposits from the Bank or Ouachita Independent Bank prior to the closing of the merger and from BancorpSouth Bank thereafter. The realization of the anticipated benefits of BancorpSouth's acquisition of each of these banks depends in large part on BancorpSouth's ability to integrate the operations of both the Bank and Ouachita Independent Bank into BancorpSouth Bank's operations, and to address any significant differences in business models and cultures. Moreover, the process of integrating the acquisitions of the Bank and Ouachita Independent Bank, where both acquisitions are expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2014, may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than projected and divert resources away from other BancorpSouth operations. If BancorpSouth is not able to integrate the operations of the Bank and Ouachita Independent Bank into BancorpSouth Bank's operations successfully, some or all of the expected benefits of these acquisitions may not be realized.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table shows (1) the market values of BancorpSouth common stock on January 21, 2014, the business day prior to the announcement of the proposed merger, and on March 19, 2014, the most recent date practicable preceding the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and (2) the equivalent pro forma value of a share of Central Community common stock at such dates based on the value of the consideration to be received in the merger with respect to each share. Historical market value information regarding Central Community common stock is not provided because there is no active market for Central Community common stock. Based on 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock that are expected to be exchanged in the merger, holders of Central Community common stock will receive approximately 206.8061 shares of BancorpSouth common stock (plus cash in lieu of a fractional share) and approximately $812.96 in cash, subject to an expected downward adjustment as provided in the Merger Agreement, for each share of Central Community common stock they own. As described in more detail herein, management of Central Community expects that the cash portion of the merger consideration will be reduced. The market price of BancorpSouth common stock will fluctuate prior to the completion of the merger and the market value of the merger consideration ultimately received by holders of Central Community common stock will depend on the average closing price of BancorpSouth common stock for the ten consecutive trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day preceding the closing date, as well as the expected downward adjustment to the cash portion of the merger consideration as a result of Central Community's equity capital at closing. Therefore, Central Community stockholders will not know the exact market value of the merger consideration they will receive when they vote on the Merger Agreement.

delivering to Central Community a written notice revoking the proxy prior to the taking of the vote at the Central Community special meeting; delivering a duly executed proxy relating to the same shares bearing a later date; or attending the meeting and voting in person (attendance at the Central Community special meeting without voting at the meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy).

Revocation of proxy by written notice or execution of a new proxy bearing a later date should be submitted to:

Central Community Corporation

P.O. Box 6136

Temple, Texas 76503

Attention: Corporate Secretary

For a notice of revocation or later proxy to be valid, however, Central Community must receive it prior to the vote of Central Community stockholders at the Central Community special meeting. Central Community will vote all shares of Central Community common stock represented by valid proxies received through this solicitation and not revoked before they are exercised in the manner described above.

Central Community is currently unaware of any other matters that may be presented for action at the Central Community special meeting. If other matters do properly come before the Central Community special meeting, then shares of Central Community common stock represented by proxies will be voted (or not voted) by the persons named in the proxies in their discretion.

Please do not forward your Central Community stock certificates with your proxy card. Stock certificates should be returned to the exchange agent in accordance with the instructions.

Solicitation of Proxies

Central Community will bear the costs of printing and mailing this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and BancorpSouth will bear the costs of filing BancorpSouth's registration statement on Form S-4 with the SEC.

If necessary, Central Community may use several of its employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from Central Community stockholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile or mail.

Record Date and Voting Rights

Central Community's board of directors has fixed March 18, 2014 as the record date for the determination of Central Community stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at Central Community's special meeting of stockholders. Accordingly, only Central Community stockholders of record at the close of business on March 18, 2014 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Central Community special meeting. At the close of business on Central Community's record date, there were 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock entitled to vote at the Central Community special meeting held by approximately 101 holders of record, and the executive officers and directors of Central Community beneficially owned 34.08% of the outstanding shares of Central Community common stock.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the stockholder of Central Community common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Each share of Central Community common stock outstanding on Central Community's record date entitles its holder to one vote as to the approval of the Merger Agreement or any other proposal that may properly come before Central Community's special meeting.

For purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, Central Community will count shares of Central Community common stock present in person at the special meeting but not voting as present at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will also be counted as present at the Central Community special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists.

Under Delaware law, the Merger Agreement must be approved by an affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Central Community's common stock entitled to vote on the proposal. Because approval of the Merger Agreement requires approval based on all the votes entitled to be cast, an abstention or a broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, Central Community's board of directors urges Central Community stockholders to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage paid business reply envelope.

Recommendation of Board of Directors

Central Community's board of directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. Central Community's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Central Community and Central Community stockholders and recommends that Central Community stockholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement. The determination of Central Community's board of directors with respect to the merger is based on a number of factors, as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. See THE MERGER Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors.

Dissenters' Rights

Stockholders of Central Community who do not wish to accept BancorpSouth common stock in the merger will be entitled under the Delaware General Corporation Law to receive the fair value of their shares. This right to dissent is subject to a number of restrictions and technical requirements.

Any Central Community stockholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights, or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so, should carefully review Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and the section entitled "THE MERGER - Dissenters' Rights."

Certain Matters Relating to Proxy Materials

The rules regarding delivery of proxy statements may be satisfied by delivering a single proxy statement to an address shared by two or more stockholders. This method of delivery is referred to as "householding" and can result in meaningful cost savings. In order to take advantage of this opportunity, we may deliver only one proxy statement to certain multiple stockholders who share an address, unless we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the stockholders. We undertake to deliver promptly upon request a separate copy of the proxy statement, as requested, to a stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of these documents was delivered. If you hold Central Community common stock as a registered stockholder and prefer to receive separate copies of a proxy statement, please call (254) 771-5550 or send a written request to:

THE MERGER

The discussion in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus of the merger of Central Community into BancorpSouth does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement and the other annexes attached to, and incorporated by reference into, this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Description of the Merger

At the effective time, Central Community will merge with and into BancorpSouth, with BancorpSouth being the surviving corporation following the merger. It is contemplated that immediately following the merger of Central Community and BancorpSouth, the Bank will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, with BancorpSouth Bank being the surviving bank. Central Community stockholders, other than Central Community stockholders who properly exercise their rights to dissent from the merger, will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration in exchange for each share of Central Community common stock they own.

BancorpSouth will not issue any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock. Instead, a Central Community stockholder who receives any shares of BancorpSouth common stock as consideration in the merger will receive cash equal to the average closing price (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of BancorpSouth common stock times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the stockholder otherwise would be entitled.

Delaware law permits Central Community stockholders to dissent from the merger and to receive the fair value of their shares of Central Community common stock in cash. To dissent, a Central Community stockholder must follow certain procedures, including filing certain notices with Central Community and voting his or her shares against the Merger Agreement. The shares of Central Community common stock held by a dissenter will not be exchanged for the per share merger consideration in the merger and a dissenter's only right will be to receive the appraised fair value of his or her shares of Central Community common stock in cash. For a discussion of the procedures that dissenting stockholders must follow to properly exercise their rights, please see THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights.

Background of the Merger

Central Community began considering its strategic alternatives in late 2012 when a desire for shareholder liquidity and a perceived improvement in market pricing for sizeable bank franchises in Texas prompted enhanced discussions with investment bank Commerce Street Capital about the banking market and potential merger partners for Central Community.

In the course of these discussions, Commerce Street Capital identified nine potential merger partners, including BancorpSouth, and thereafter began limited market outreach on behalf of Central Community. After approaching several potential partners on a no-name basis, five elected to sign non-disclosure agreements and learn more about Central Community. Throughout the first half of 2013, Commerce Street Capital provided information to the various parties regarding Central Community, including financial information, information regarding Central Community's corporate structure and subsidiaries, the markets in which Central Community does business, and Central Community's management team. Commerce Street Capital also facilitated in-person visits between Central Community's chairman and representatives of four of the banks that had signed non-disclosure agreements, including BancorpSouth.

The first visit between the chief executive officer of BancorpSouth and the chairman of Central Community took place on April 18, 2013 in Temple, Texas. This meeting was followed by a visit by Central Community's chairman to Tupelo, Mississippi on July 26, 2013 and a meeting between representatives of Central Community and BancorpSouth at Commerce Street Capital's offices in Dallas, Texas on September 5, 2013. At each of these meetings, the parties discussed the opportunities presented by a merger between them, the overall banking marketplace in central Texas, the communities in which Central Community does business, the structure and nature of the various Central Community subsidiaries, and various potential transaction structures.

Following the September 5, 2013 meeting, the discussions between the parties and Commerce Street Capital turned toward structuring a formal offer from BancorpSouth to Central Community regarding a proposed merger transaction. The offer was submitted to Central Community in the form of a Letter of Intent dated September 26, 2013. In the Letter of Intent, BancorpSouth offered to purchase Central Community for an aggregate purchase price of $185,000,000, to be paid in stock and cash, based on the market value of BancorpSouth's capital stock at that time.

After Central Community reviewed the Letter of Intent and consulted with Commerce Street Capital the parties refined the transaction structure, including the identification of certain assets of Central Community that would be divested prior to closing. The parties decided that the Bank, certain Bank properties, and the business trusts holding Central Community's trust preferred securities would be retained by Central Community and thereby acquired by BancorpSouth in the transaction. The parties also decided that certain OREO properties held by the Bank, as well as certain other real property and non-bank financial companies owned by Central Community, including Central Community's ownership interests in an insurance agency and two title insurance companies, would be divested to a yet-to-be formed entity that would be owned by shareholders of Central Community prior to closing.

Following these discussions, Commerce Street Capital invited a revised Letter of Intent from BancorpSouth memorializing the revised terms, which was received by Central Community on October 17, 2013. The revised Letter of Intent offered to purchase Central Community, based on the revised terms, for an aggregate purchase price of $172,500,000, consisting of 7,250,000 shares of common stock and $26,000,000 of cash, based on the market value of BancorpSouth's capital stock at that time.

The chairman of Central Community and the chief executive officer of BancorpSouth met again on October 24, 2013 and discussed various alternatives to improve the consideration that would be received by Central Community shareholders in the proposed transaction. This meeting was followed by discussions between the parties regarding another revised offer. A further revised Letter of Intent was received by Central Community on November 15, 2013. The revised Letter of Intent offered to purchase Central Community for an aggregate purchase price of $193,292,500, based on the market value of BancorpSouth's capital stock at that time, consisting of $28,500,000 in cash and 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock. The revised Letter of Intent also provided that to the extent Central Community's aggregate consolidated equity, excluding the assets to be divested prior to closing, was less than $109,250,000 at closing, the aggregate purchase price would be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount of such deficit. Central Community signed the revised Letter of Intent on November 19, 2013 and thereafter engaged Commerce Street Capital as its exclusive financial adviser.

The parties proceeded to perform due diligence investigations on one another on an exclusive basis. On December 13, 2013, BancorpSouth provided Central Community and its advisors with an initial draft of a definitive merger agreement. The parties discussed various legal and business points related to this agreement through mid-January 2014. During the due diligence period, BancorpSouth conducted a thorough due diligence investigation of Central Community. This due diligence investigation included on-site review of documents, files and other pertinent materials, as well as in-person meetings and discussions with key Central Community personnel. Commerce Street Capital on behalf of Central Community, conducted a thorough reverse due diligence investigation of BancorpSouth. This due diligence investigation included a review of current and historical public filings of BancorpSouth, on-site review of key documents and interviews with BancorpSouth's management. Throughout the due diligence investigation period and negotiation of the Merger Agreement, the deal terms did not materially deviate from the terms set forth in the executed Letter of Intent. The cash and share consideration provided in the executed Letter of Intent remained the same, but the total deal value improved based on appreciation of BancorpSouth's share price.

Also during this period, for tax purposes, Central Community performed an analysis of the fair market value of the assets to be divested prior to closing. As a result of such valuation, Central Community determined that, based on appraisals as of December 31, 2014, such assets had a fair market value as of approximately $33,600,000.

On January 21, 2014, Central Community's board of directors held a meeting to discuss the transaction and the then-current draft of the Merger Agreement. At that meeting, the Central Community board of directors was briefed on the Merger Agreement and the ancillary legal documents and had the opportunity to ask questions to Central Community's legal and financial advisors regarding terms and conditions of the transaction included in the Merger Agreement. Commerce Street Capital also presented an analysis of the financial terms set forth in the Merger Agreement. At that time, the total deal value of the transaction, based on BancorpSouth's share price, was projected to be $202,574,863 which equated to a total value for Central Community of $236,174,863 based on the projected deal value combined with the fair market value of the assets to be divested prior to closing. Commerce Street Capital provided Central Community's board of directors with its opinion that consummation of the proposed transaction on those terms was fair to the shareholders of Central Community from a financial point of view.

On January 21, 2014, Central Community's board of directors approved, and on January 22, 2014 Central Community executed, the definitive agreement. Commerce Street Capital also provided its written fairness opinion, a copy of which is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, on January 22, 2014.

Also on January 22, 2014, BancorpSouth's board of directors met to consider the proposed merger between Central Community and BancorpSouth and the terms of the proposed Merger Agreement. The BancorpSouth board of directors discussed the merger with its legal counsel and management. After further discussion among the directors, the Merger Agreement was approved by BancorpSouth's board of directors. BancorpSouth publicly announced the proposed merger that day, following the close of the U.S. financial markets.

Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The merger will combine the strengths of BancorpSouth and Central Community and their subsidiary banks. BancorpSouth has an established presence in east Texas with plans to expand its current east Texas footprint into the central Texas market.

Joining with BancorpSouth will provide Central Community's customers opportunities offered by a large, resourceful, community-minded bank. BancorpSouth has been actively seeking banking locations in the central Texas area to expand its presence in Texas, particularly in the Interstate 35 corridor in Texas. The proposed merger with Central Community accelerates BancorpSouth's opportunity to grow in Texas and brings to BancorpSouth's team a number of outstanding bankers. BancorpSouth currently operates 292 commercial banking, mortgage, and insurance locations in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Tennessee and Texas, including an insurance location in Illinois, with total assets of approximately $13.0 billion. BancorpSouth's management views the Interstate 35 corridor in Texas as a logical growth area for its community style of banking.

Central Community's board of directors deliberated and unanimously approved the Merger Agreement at a board meeting held on January 21, 2014. In reaching its determination to approve the Merger Agreement, Central Community's board of directors consulted with Central Community's management and legal advisors and considered a number of factors, including a fairness opinion presented by Commerce Street Capital. The following is a discussion of information and factors considered by Central Community's board of directors in reaching this determination. This discussion is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by Central Community's board of directors. In the course of its deliberations with respect to the merger, Central Community's board of directors discussed the anticipated impact of the merger on Central Community, Central Community's stockholders and the communities that Central Community serves.

Central Community's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interest of Central Community and its stockholders. Accordingly, Central Community's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger and the Merger Agreement and unanimously recommends that Central Community's stockholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

In approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Central Community's board of directors consulted with Commerce Street Capital with respect to the financial aspects and fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of Central Community common stock and with its outside legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the Merger Agreement. The board believes that combining with BancorpSouth will create a stronger and more diversified organization that will provide significant benefits to Central Community's stockholders and customers alike.

The terms of the Merger Agreement, including the consideration to be paid to Central Community's stockholders, were the result of arm's length negotiations between representatives of Central Community and representatives of BancorpSouth. In arriving at its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, Central Community's board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

Central Community's board of directors' familiarity with and review of information concerning the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Central Community;

the current and prospective environment in which Central Community operates, including national, regional and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for banks, thrifts and other financial institutions generally and the increased regulatory burdens on financial institutions generally and the trend toward consolidation in the banking industry and in the financial services industry;

the financial presentation of Commerce Street Capital and the fairness opinion of Commerce Street Capital dated as of January 17, 2014, that, as of January 17, 2014, and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications set forth in the fairness opinion, the total aggregate merger consideration to be received from BancorpSouth, which consists of 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and $28,500,000 in cash consideration, is fair, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Central Community (see Opinion of Commerce Street Capital, a copy of which is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus); that stockholders of Central Community will receive part of the merger consideration in shares of BancorpSouth common stock, which are publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange, contrasted with the absence of a public market for Central Community's common stock;

the treatment of the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code with respect to the Central Community common stock exchanged for BancorpSouth common stock;

the results that Central Community could expect to obtain if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to stockholders of that course of action, as compared with the value of the merger consideration offered by BancorpSouth;

the ability of BancorpSouth to pay the aggregate merger consideration without a financing contingency and without the need to obtain financing to close the transaction;

the ability of BancorpSouth to receive the requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner;

the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including the parties' respective representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements, the conditions to closing, including a provision that permits Central Community's board of directors, in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, under certain conditions, to furnish information to a third party in the event that it receives an unsolicited proposal to acquire Central Community in the future;

a merger with a larger bank holding company would provide the opportunity to realize economies of scale, increase efficiencies of operations and enhance the development of new products and services; that some of Central Community's directors and executive officers have other financial interests in the merger in addition to their interests as Central Community stockholders, including financial interests that are the result of compensation arrangements with Central Community, the manner in which such interests would be affected by the merger, as well as the new employment agreements that certain of these persons entered into with BancorpSouth in connection with the merger;

the requirement that Central Community conduct its business in the ordinary course and the other restrictions on the conduct of the Central Community's business before completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent Central Community from undertaking business opportunities that may arise before completion of the merger; and that under the agreement Central Community could not solicit competing proposals for the acquisition of Central Community.

The reasons set out above for the merger are not intended to be exhaustive but include the material factors considered by the board of directors of Central Community in approving the merger and the Merger Agreement. In reaching its determination, the board of directors of Central Community did not assign any relative or specific weight to different factors and individual directors may have given weight to different factors. Based on the reasons stated above, the board of directors of Central Community believes that the merger is in the best interest of Central Community and its stockholders and therefore the board of directors of Central Community unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the merger. Each member of Central Community's board of directors has agreed to vote the stock of Central Community over which he or she has voting authority in favor of the Merger Agreement and the merger.

CENTRAL COMMUNITY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER.

Based on a thorough evaluation of these factors, Central Community's board of directors believes the merger is in the best interests of Central Community and Central Community stockholders. Central Community's board of directors recommends that Central Community stockholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Central Community

Commerce Street Capital is regularly engaged to provide investment banking services to financial institutions and to perform fairness analyses of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, competitive biddings, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. Specifically, based on Commerce Street Capital's reputation and qualifications in evaluating financial institutions, in November 2013 the board of directors of Central Community engaged Commerce Street Capital to provide financial advisory services in connection with the transaction. In December 2013, under a separate engagement letter, Central Community engaged Commerce Street Capital to provide an opinion with regard to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the financial terms of the proposed transaction. A copy of Commerce Street Capital's fairness opinion, dated January 17, 2014, which sets forth certain assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by Commerce Street Capital, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Central Community stockholders are urged to read Commerce Street Capital's fairness opinion in its entirety.

No limitations were imposed by Central Community's board of directors upon Commerce Street Capital with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed in rendering its opinion. Neither Commerce Street Capital nor the individuals involved in providing Commerce Street Capital's fairness opinion to Central Community has any present or contemplated future ownership interest in Central Community. Commerce Street Capital is acting as financial advisor to Central Community in connection with the proposed merger and will receive a fee for its services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the merger. Pursuant to the terms of the engagement letter with Central Community dated December 14, 2013, Commerce Street Capital received a $20,000 fee for providing the fairness opinion. Pursuant to the terms of the engagement letter with Central Community dated November 14, 2013, Commerce Street Capital will receive a success fee from Central Community in an amount equal to 1% of the total value of the consideration received in the merger by the Central Community stockholders. In addition, Central Community has agreed to indemnify Commerce Street Capital against certain liabilities and expenses arising out of or incurred in connection with its engagement, including liabilities and expenses which may arise under the federal securities laws. Commerce Street Capital has no responsibility or obligation to update its Fairness Opinion for events or circumstances occurring subsequent to the date of its Fairness Opinion.

Summary of Proposal. Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, BancorpSouth will merge with Central Community in an acquisition including First State Bank Central Texas, FSBT Properties Inc., Central Community Capital Trust 1 and First Central Union Capital Trust 1 as subsidiaries of Central Community but excluding a $15,000,000 OREO in the form of a quarry. Certain business lines and assets of Central Community will be excluded from the transaction and will be spun out as one or more newly-formed entities. Central Community will merge with and into BancorpSouth with BancorpSouth continuing as the surviving entity, pursuant to which holders of the Central Community Stock will be entitled to receive cash and shares of common stock of BancorpSouth.

Commerce Street Capital reviewed the financial terms of the proposed transaction. Under the terms of the Agreement, all of Central Community's 35,054 shares will be exchanged for $28,500,000 in cash and 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock for an aggregate consideration of $205,690,000 less the estimated $3,115,137 equity threshold shortfall for a concluded total consideration of $202,574,863, or $5,778.94 per share of Central Community common stock.

The chart below outlines the implied valuation multiples of Central Community based on the proposed aggregate per share consideration. The multiples shown are based on Central Community's December 31, 2013 financial results and assume that the aggregate proposed consideration is equivalent to $5,778.94 per share of Central Community common stock.

Table of Contents

In conducting its fairness analysis and rendering its opinion, Commerce Street Capital relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information provided to it or that was publicly available, and did not attempt to independently verify the same. Commerce Street Capital did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the Central Community's properties, nor did it examine any individual loan credit files.

As more fully discussed below, Commerce Street Capital considered such financial and other factors as it deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including among others the following:

the historical and current financial positions and results of operations of BancorpSouth and Central Community, including interest income, interest expense, net interest income, net interest margin, provision for loan losses, non-interest income, non-interest expense, earnings, dividends, internal capital generation, book value, intangible assets, return on assets, return on shareholders' equity, capitalization, the amount and type of non-performing assets, loan losses and the reserve for loan losses, all as set forth in available financial statements;

the assets and liabilities of BancorpSouth and Central Community, including the loan and investment portfolios, deposits, other liabilities, historical and current liability sources and costs and liquidity; and the nature and terms of certain transactions involving banks deemed comparable by Commerce Street Capital.

Commerce Street Capital also took into account its assessment of current general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities analysis and its knowledge of the banking industry generally. Commerce Street Capital's fairness opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on the date of its report and the information made available to it through that date.

In connection with conducting its fairness opinion of the proposed transaction between BancorpSouth and Central Community, Commerce Street Capital performed certain financial analyses, which are summarized below. Commerce Street Capital believes that its analysis must be considered as a whole, and that selecting portions of such analysis and the factors considered therein without considering all factors and analyses could create an incomplete view of the analysis and the processes underlying the fairness opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In its analyses, Commerce Street Capital made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond Commerce Street Capital's control. Any estimates contained in Commerce Street Capital's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals of such companies or necessarily reflect the prices at which such companies or their securities may actually be sold.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Commerce Street Capital relied primarily on two broad methods of fairness analysis: (i) market value, which represents (a) an analysis of the price a willing buyer and a willing seller would agree upon in connection with a sale of a control block of stock in comparison with the market price at which control of similar banking organizations is sold, as well as (b) an analysis of a universe of publicly-traded bank holding company stock values and related financial traits within an appropriate geography and the development of pricing statistics for the appraised company from the pricing characteristics of the publicly-traded banking organizations, and

(ii) investment values, which represent evaluations of Central Community, based on the discounted value of projected cash flows of Central Community on a stand-alone basis.

Market Value Method. Market value is defined as the price at which property would change hands between a willing seller and a willing buyer when both parties have the same information and neither party is acting under compulsion. This definition of market value produces a result that could be achieved if the property were to be sold in an arm's-length transaction. The Market Value Method is frequently used to determine the price of a smaller block of stock when both the quantity and the quality of the comparable data are deemed sufficient. However, the relative limited trading volume of the specific market for the common stocks being appraised may result in the need to review alternative markets for comparative pricing purposes. The hypothetical fair value for the minority shares of a banking company with limited trading volume for its stock is normally determined by creating a universe of publicly-traded banking company stock values and related financial traits within an appropriate geography, then developing pricing statistics for the appraised banking company from the pricing characteristics of the publicly-traded banking organizations. In addition, market value can be derived from the observation of what other similar banking organizations have recently sold for in merger and acquisition transactions over a certain time period. Pricing statistics for the subject bank or bank holding company can then be derived from the pricing characteristics of the recently acquired institutions deemed comparable. These pricing characteristics form the statistical basis for developing indications of value based on applying the statistics derived from the sample universe to the relevant financial values of the subject company being valued. The statistical values used in this fairness analysis study were:

price to book value,

Table of Contents

price to tangible book value,

price to earnings,

price to assets

price to deposits, and tangible premium to core deposits

Analysis of Selected Bank Merger Transactions. Commerce Street Capital compared Central Community to those banking organizations acquired in merger and acquisition transactions in the United States between January 1, 2013 and December 31, 2013 with target assets between $1 billion and $3 billion, nonperforming assets (NPAs) to total assets between 1.00% and 3.00%, and publicly available pricing information. The table below lists the selected bank merger transactions reviewed by Commerce Street Capital in conducting its analysis:

| Buyer | State | Seller | State |
|---------------------------------|--------------|----------------------------|--------------|
| Cascade Bancorp | OR | Home Federal Bancorp, Inc. | ID |
| East West Bancorp, Inc. | CA | MetroCorp Bancshares, Inc. | TX |
| Heritage Financial Corporation | WA | Washington Banking Company | WA |
| Mercantile Bank Corporation | MI | Firstbank Corporation | MI |
| ViewPoint Financial Group, Inc. | TX | LegacyTexas Group, Inc. | TX |

Commerce Street Capital reviewed the multiples of transaction value to stated book value, transaction value to tangible book, transaction value to earnings, transaction value to assets, transaction value to deposits and tangible premium to core deposits and calculated high, low, average and median multiples for the comparable transactions. The median multiples were then applied to Central Community's financial information as of December 31, 2013 to derive an imputed range of values of Central Community's common stock. The following table sets forth the median multiples as well as the imputed per share values on a fully diluted basis based upon those median multiples:

| | Comparable Transaction Median Multiple | Implied Value Per Share |
|---|---|------------------------------------|
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Stated Book Value | 1.54x | $ 4,431.86 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Tangible Book Value | 1.60x | $ 4,123.51 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 LTM Earnings | 16.32x | $ 6,528.00 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Assets | 17.6% | $ 6,587.45 |

Transaction Value to December 31, 2013

Transaction Value to December 31, 2013

Core Deposits 12.4% $ 5,888.95

The assumed transaction value of $5,778.94 per share on a fully diluted basis (based upon 35,054 shares of Central Community's common stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2013) falls within the range of implied values computed in using the comparable transactions, which supports the fairness of the merger consideration to be paid to Central Community's stockholders, from a financial point of view.

In addition to the comparable transactions described above, Commerce Street Capital analyzed a second group of comparable transactions. Commerce Street Capital compared Central Community to those banking organizations acquired in merger and acquisition transactions in the southwestern region of the United States between January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2013 with target assets between $1 billion and $3 billion, NPAs to total assets between 0.00% and 3.00%, and publicly available pricing information. Below represents the selected bank merger transactions:

Commerce Street Capital reviewed the multiples of transaction value to stated book value, transaction value to tangible book, transaction value to earnings, transaction value to assets, transaction value to deposits and tangible premium to core deposits and calculated high, low, average and median multiples for the comparable transactions. The median multiples were then applied to Central Community's financial information as of June 30, 2013 to derive an imputed range of values of Central Community's common stock. The following table sets forth the median multiples as well as the imputed per share values on a fully diluted basis based upon those median multiples:

|---|---|------------------------------------|
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Stated Book Value | 1.85x | $ 5,348.41 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Tangible Book Value | 2.39x | $ 6,167.69 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 LTM Earnings | 16.77x | $ 6,710.06 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Assets | 15.8% | $ 5,911.82 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Deposits | 17.7% | $ 5,376.21 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Core Deposits | 12.1% | $ 5,810.11 |

The assumed transaction value of $5,778.94 per share on a fully diluted basis (based upon 35,054 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2013) falls within the range of implied values computed in using the comparable transactions, which supports the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to BancorpSouth, Central Community or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. An analysis of the results of the foregoing involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of Central Community and the companies included in the comparable transactions.

Analysis of Publicly Traded Banking Companies. In addition, Commerce Street Capital conducted an analysis of publicly-traded banking companies in the southwestern region of the United States. The comparison group for Central Community had total assets between $1 billion and $3 billion and NPAs to total assets between 1.00% and 3.00%. The table below represents the selected comparable companies:

| Company | Ticker |
|---------------------------------|---------------|
| CoBiz Financial Inc. | COBZ |
| First Guaranty Bancshares, Inc. | FGBI |
| Guaranty Bancorp | GBNK |
| Independent Bank Group, Inc. | IBTX |

Commerce Street Capital reviewed the publicly traded banking companies which yielded pricing multiples including price to stated book value, price to tangible book value, price to earnings, price to assets and tangible premium to core deposits and calculated high, low, average and median multiples for the comparable companies. The median multiples were then applied to Central Community's financial information as of December 31, 2013 to derive an imputed range of values of Central Community's common stock. The following table sets forth the median multiples as well as the imputed values on a fully diluted basis based upon those median multiples:

| | Comparable Transaction Median Multiple | Implied Value Per Share |
|---|---|------------------------------------|
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Stated Book Value | 1.49x | $ 4,310.29 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Tangible Book Value | 1.55x | $ 4,015.34 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 LTM Earnings | 22.30x | $ 8,922.38 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Assets | 17.2% | $ 6,467.36 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Deposits | 20.8% | $ 6,316.98 |
| Transaction Value to December 31, 2013 Core Deposits | 9.5% | $ 5,125.33 |

The assumed transaction value of $5,778.94 per share on a fully diluted basis (based upon 35,054 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding on December 31, 2013) is within the range of implied values computed in using the comparable companies, which supports the fairness of the merger consideration to be paid to Central Community's stockholders, from a financial point of view.

BancorpSouth's common stock is publicly traded with sufficient trading volume to support a conclusion that the sales prices reported on the New York Stock Exchange are consistent with fair market value. Accordingly, in preparing its fairness opinion Commerce Street Capital assumed that the per-share portion of the stock consideration that would be received by Central Community stockholders equated to a nominal dollar value of $5,054.77 per share based on the closing sales price of BancorpSouth common stock reported on the New York Stock Exchange as of the fairness opinion date.

Commerce Street Capital's market value analysis, however, reflects the fact that:

no company or transaction used in the comparison is identical to Central Community, the stocks of publicly-held banking organizations in the United States may be more liquid than Central Community's common stock, certain nonfinancial characteristics for the publicly-traded United States banking organizations vary substantially from BancorpSouth's and Central Community's comparable nonfinancial characteristics, and the average financial performance of publicly-held United States banking organizations varies, sometimes significantly, from BancorpSouth's and Central Community's performance.

Investment Value Method. Banks and their holding companies are generally analyzed and purchased on a normalized earnings basis. In other words, careful consideration was given to BancorpSouth's and Central Community's respective abilities to sustain their earnings going forward based on the stability of their net interest income plus non-interest income, excluding securities gains or losses and extraordinary items, and less non-interest expense and federal income tax expense, the resulting net amount being referred to as economic earnings. The weighted average of historical economic earnings is most appropriately used for calculating future economic earnings when there appears to be a general pattern that may be extrapolated into the future, giving the highest weighting to the most recent year, and the lowest weighting to the most distant year. An un-weighted (or simple) average is more appropriate when there is no discernible pattern in economic earnings. After considering past economic earnings, Central Community's current year economic earnings, future growth expectations and certain risks involved with the sustainability of these economic earnings, Commerce Street Capital used the un-weighted average method based on Central Community's last five years' historical economic earnings. Commerce Street Capital chose the un-weighted average method given the indiscernible trend of Central Community's economic earnings over the past five years. Using this methodology produced a sustainable projected net income of $243.29 per share on a fully diluted basis based upon 35,054 shares of Central Community issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2013. However, Commerce Street Capital chose not to rely on the normalized analysis described above given that the projected earnings figure is not representative of the earnings forecasted by the Bank over the next five years.

Commerce Street Capital also performed a discounted cash flow analysis using the dividend discount model as part of its income approach analysis. Under the dividend discount model, the sum of the present value of dividends and the present value of the terminal value equal the fair value of Central Community's common equity. Commerce Street Capital employed a 3-stage earnings growth model to transition the earnings to a sustainable earnings growth rate of 3%. These projections resulted in ROAAs of between 0.76% and 1.12%. Based on this analysis, Commerce Street Capital calculated a net present value based on projected dividends of $26.26 million using a discount rate of 12.71% (established by the Capital Asset Pricing Model (CAPM), as described below). In addition, Commerce Street Capital calculated a terminal value for Central Community by converting the forecasted net income of Central Community in year 2020 into perpetuity. Commerce Street Capital then discounted this terminal value using a 12.71% discount rate and calculated a present value of the terminal value of $58.08 million. The aggregate present value was $84.34 million, which equates to $2,406.09 per share on a fully diluted basis based upon 35,054 shares of Central Community issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2013.

Table of Contents

CAPM is an equilibrium asset pricing theory that shows that equilibrium rates of expected return on all risky assets are a function of their co-variance with the market portfolio. The calculation of expected return (and, consequently, the discount and capitalization rates) using CAPM is based on the following formula:

$ER = rf + B (ER_m - RF) + a$, where:

ER = expected return (discount rate)

rf = expected return of a riskless asset

B = Beta measure of volatility of the subject security with the overall market

$ER_m - RF$ = expected risk premium (ERP)

a = specific company risk

Commerce Street Capital could have used and relied on other available fairness analysis methods, such as the Net Asset Value Method, however, as discussed below, Commerce Street Capital considered this not relevant or unreliable for purposes of its fairness opinion.

Net Asset Value Method. Net asset value is the value of the net equity of a banking company, including every kind of property and value. This approach normally assumes liquidation on the date of appraisal with recognition of securities gains or losses, real estate appreciation or depreciation and any adjustments to the loan loss reserve, discounts to the loan portfolio or changes in the net value of other assets. As such, it is not the best approach to use when valuing a going concern, because it is based on historical costs and varying accounting methods. Even if the assets and liabilities are adjusted to reflect prevailing prices and yields (which are often of limited accuracy because readily available data is often lacking), it still results in a liquidation value for the concern. Furthermore, since this method does not take into account the values attributable to the company as a going concern such as the interrelationship among assets, liabilities, customer relations, market presence, image and reputation and staff expertise and depth, little or no weight is given to the Net Asset Value Method of fairness analysis.

Conclusion. In determining the value of the proposed transaction in terms of the fairness of the merger consideration to be paid to Central Community's stockholders, from a financial point of view, to Central Community's stockholders Commerce Street Capital gave greater consideration to comparable transactions under the Market Value Method. Commerce Street Capital applied the median pricing multiples for price to assets, price to book, and price to tangible book from the comparable transactions in the United States and the southwestern region of the United States and the comparable public companies analysis as described above to Central Community. Based on its analysis, Commerce Street Capital is of the opinion that the merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Central Community, as more fully described in the fairness opinion that is included as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

The full text of the opinion of Commerce Street Capital, dated January 17, 2014, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Central Community stockholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

Commerce Street Capital will receive a fee contingent upon the completion of the merger for services rendered in connection with advising Central Community regarding the merger, including the fairness opinion and financial advisory services provided to Central Community. As of the date of Commerce Street Capital's written opinion, such fee would have been approximately 1% of the total transaction consideration.

Commerce Street Capital's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total transaction consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any Central Community stockholder as to how the stockholder should vote at the special meeting of Central Community stockholders. This summary of the opinion of Commerce Street Capital set forth in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

Following is a summary of the analyses performed by Commerce Street Capital in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the Central Community board of directors by Commerce Street Capital. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Commerce Street Capital in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Commerce Street Capital to the Central Community board of directors, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Commerce Street Capital.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Commerce Street Capital did not attribute weight to any particular analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Commerce Street Capital may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, Commerce Street Capital believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Central Community board of directors and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Commerce Street Capital made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Central Community and BancorpSouth. The analyses performed by Commerce Street Capital are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Commerce Street Capital's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to Central Community stockholders. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Commerce Street Capital's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Central Community might engage. In addition, as described above, Commerce Street Capital's opinion to the Central Community board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Central Community board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Commerce Street Capital reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of Central Community and BancorpSouth and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the Merger Agreement;

certain historical publicly available information concerning BancorpSouth;

the nature and terms of recent merger transactions; and financial and other information provided to Commerce Street Capital by the management of Central Community.

Commerce Street Capital conducted meetings and had discussions with members of senior management of Central Community for purposes of reviewing the future prospects of Central Community. Commerce Street Capital also took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, Commerce Street Capital assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information related to Central Community and BancorpSouth and relied upon the accuracy of the representations of the parties contained in the Merger Agreement. Commerce Street Capital also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Commerce Street Capital by Central Community were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of Central Community as to the future financial performance of Central Community. Commerce Street Capital has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of Central Community.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Commerce Street Capital determined that the transaction consideration was fair from a financial point of view to Central Community stockholders.

Regulatory Approval

The merger must be reviewed and approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve. BancorpSouth filed an application under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act with the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis on February 26, 2014.

Completion of the bank merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt of approvals by the FDIC, the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance and the Texas Department of Banking. As a Mississippi state non-member bank, BancorpSouth Bank has filed an application with the FDIC for approval of the merger under Sections 18(c) and 18(d) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act. The FDIC may disapprove the application if it finds that the merger tends to create or result in a monopoly, substantially lessens competition or would be in restraint of trade. BancorpSouth Bank filed this application with the FDIC on February 5, 2014 and has been notified that the FDIC will provide expedited processing to this application. Following approval of the application by the FDIC, the United States Department of Justice has up to 30 calendar days to submit any adverse comments relating to competitive factors resulting from the merger. While Central Community and BancorpSouth do not know of any reason that the Department of Justice would challenge regulatory approval by the FDIC and believe that the likelihood of such action is remote, there can be no assurance that the Department of Justice will not initiate such a proceeding, or if such a proceeding is initiated, as to the result of any such challenge.

On February 7, 2014 the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance preliminarily approved the pending merger of Central Community's bank subsidiary into BancorpSouth Bank. Final approval by the Mississippi Department of Banking and Consumer Finance is expected to be received prior to approval of the Merger Agreement by Central Community stockholders. Also, in connection with the proposed bank merger, Central Community and BancorpSouth filed with the Texas Department of Banking on February 5, 2014 a notice of the pending merger, provided a copy of all applications filed with any federal agency in connection with the merger and paid a fee as prescribed by regulation of the Texas Department of Banking. Approval of the bank merger by the Texas Department of Banking is expected to be received following FDIC and Federal Reserve Board approvals.

The merger cannot proceed in the absence of these required regulatory approvals. The approval of any notice or application merely implies satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, and does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the consideration to be received by, or fairness to, stockholders. Regulatory approval does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the proposed merger.

We cannot assure you as to whether or when the requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the date of receipt of any of these approvals, the terms thereof or the absence of any litigation challenging them. Likewise, we cannot assure you that the U.S. Department of Justice or a state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result of that challenge.

BancorpSouth and Central Community are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties' completion of the merger other than those described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. If any additional governmental approvals or actions are required, the parties presently intend to seek those approvals or actions. The parties cannot assure you, however, that any of these additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as an acquisition by BancorpSouth using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with FASB ASC topic 805, Business Combinations. Central Community will be treated as the acquired corporation for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Central Community's assets, liabilities and other items will be adjusted to their estimated fair value on the closing date of the merger and combined with the historical book values of the assets and liabilities of BancorpSouth. Applicable income tax effects of these adjustments will be included as a component of the combined company's deferred tax asset or liability. The difference between the estimated fair value of the assets (including separately identifiable intangible assets, such as core deposit intangibles), liabilities and other items (adjusted as discussed above) and the purchase price will be recorded as goodwill. Consolidated financial statements of BancorpSouth issued after the merger will reflect these fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Central Community.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizes the material anticipated United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to Central Community stockholders who hold their shares of Central Community common stock as capital assets. This discussion does not address the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior or subsequent to, or concurrently with, the merger (whether or not such transactions are undertaken in connection with the merger). In addition, this discussion does not address all of the federal income tax consequences that may be important to each taxpayer in light of its particular circumstances, nor does this discussion address the federal income tax consequences that may be applicable to taxpayers subject to special treatment under the Code, such as:

tax-exempt organizations;

financial institutions, insurance companies and broker-dealers or persons who have elected to use the mark-to-market method of accounting with respect to their securities holdings;

stockholders who hold their shares of Central Community common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, wash sale, synthetic security, conversion transaction or other integrated investment comprised of shares of Central Community common stock and one or more other investments;

persons who acquired their shares of Central Community common stock through the exercise of employee stock options, through a benefit plan or otherwise in a compensatory transaction;

stockholders who are not U.S. persons within the meaning of the Code, U.S. expatriates, or that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

stockholders liable for the alternative minimum tax;

pass-through entities and investors in such entities; or stockholders who exercise their dissenters' rights.

No information is provided in this document or the tax opinions referred to below with respect to the tax consequences, if any, of the merger under applicable foreign, state, local and other tax laws, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010. This discussion and the tax opinions are based upon the provisions of the Code, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as in effect as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that future legislative, administrative or judicial changes or interpretations, which changes could apply retroactively, will not affect the accuracy of this discussion or the statements or conclusions set forth in the tax opinions referred to below.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is a part, BancorpSouth has received an opinion of Bracewell & Giuliani LLP, and Central Community has received an opinion of Fenimore, Kay, Harrison & Ford, LLP, that, as of the respective dates of such opinions, if certain factual circumstances exist, the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that BancorpSouth and Central Community will each be a party to that reorganization. The parties will not be required to consummate the merger unless they receive additional opinions of their respective counsel, dated the closing date of the merger, confirming that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that BancorpSouth and Central Community will each be a party to that reorganization.

The opinions of the parties' respective counsel regarding the merger have relied, and the opinions regarding the merger as of the closing date will each rely, on the following:

representations and covenants made by BancorpSouth and Central Community, including those contained in certificates of officers of BancorpSouth and Central Community; and specified assumptions, including an assumption regarding the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

In addition, the opinions of the parties' respective counsel have assumed, and such counsel's ability to provide the opinions at the closing of the merger will depend on, the absence of changes to the anticipated facts or changes in law between the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the closing date. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions is inaccurate, the parties' respective counsel may not be able to provide one or more of the required opinions to be delivered at the closing of the merger and/or the tax consequences of the merger could differ from those described in the opinions that counsel have delivered.

The opinions of the parties' respective counsel do not bind the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and do not preclude the IRS or the courts from adopting a contrary position. BancorpSouth and Central Community do not intend to obtain a ruling from the IRS on the tax consequences of the merger. If the IRS were to assert successfully that the merger is not a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, then each Central Community stockholder would be required to recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of the BancorpSouth common stock and the amount of cash received in the exchange and (ii) the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the Central Community common stock surrendered for such consideration. Such gain or loss would be a capital gain or loss, provided that such shares of Central Community common stock were held as capital assets by the stockholder at the effective time of the merger. Such capital gain or loss recognized would be long-term capital gain or loss if the Central Community stockholder's holding period for the Central Community common stock was more than one year. In such event, a Central Community stockholder's total initial tax basis in the BancorpSouth common stock received would be equal to its fair market value at the effective time of the merger, and the stockholder's holding period for the BancorpSouth common stock would begin on the day after the merger.

Table of Contents

Assuming that the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, neither BancorpSouth nor Central Community will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger. Holders of Central Community common stock will recognize gain, if any, equal to the lesser of:

the amount of cash received; or the amount by which the sum of the amount of cash received and the fair market value, at the effective time of the merger, of the BancorpSouth common stock received exceeds the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Central Community common stock exchanged in the merger.

Any recognized gain could be taxed as a capital gain or a dividend. Such gain will generally be capital gain (provided that such shares of Central Community common stock were held as capital assets by the stockholder at the effective time of the merger), unless the holder's exchange of Central Community common stock for cash and BancorpSouth common stock has the effect of the distribution of a dividend after giving effect to the constructive ownership rules of the Code, in which case such gain might be treated as ordinary income. Any capital gain recognized generally will be long-term capital gain to the extent that, at the effective time of the merger, the holder has a holding period in the Central Community common stock exchanged in the merger of more than one year. Because the determination of whether a cash payment will be treated as having the effect of a dividend depends primarily upon the facts and circumstances of each Central Community stockholder, Central Community stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of any cash received in the merger.

The aggregate tax basis of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger (including any fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Central Community common stock surrendered in the merger, increased by the amount of gain recognized in the exchange (whether characterized as capital gain or a dividend, but excluding any gain recognized with respect to any cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock) and reduced by the amount of cash received in the exchange (excluding any cash received instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock). The holding period of the shares of BancorpSouth common stock received (including any fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock deemed received) will include the holding period of shares of Central Community common stock surrendered in exchange for the BancorpSouth common stock, provided that such shares of Central Community common stock were held as capital assets of the stockholder at the effective time of the merger. Central Community stockholders will not be permitted to recognize any loss for federal income tax purposes.

A Central Community stockholder's federal income tax consequences will also depend on whether his or her shares of Central Community common stock were purchased at different times at different prices. If they were, the Central Community stockholder could realize gain with respect to some of the shares of Central Community common stock and loss with respect to other shares, in which case the stockholder would have to recognize such gain to the extent such stockholder receives cash with respect to those shares of Central Community common stock in which the stockholder's adjusted tax basis is less than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the merger of the BancorpSouth common stock received, but could not recognize loss with respect to those shares of Central Community common stock in which the Central Community stockholder's adjusted tax basis is greater than the amount of cash plus the fair market value at the effective time of the merger of the BancorpSouth common stock received. Any disallowed loss would be included in the adjusted basis of the BancorpSouth common stock. Such a Central Community stockholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor respecting the tax consequences of the merger to that stockholder.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock

Holders of Central Community common stock who receive cash instead of a fractional share of BancorpSouth common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share in the merger and then as having the fractional share redeemed by BancorpSouth in exchange for the cash actually distributed instead of the fractional share, with such redemption qualifying as an exchange under Section 302 of the Code. Accordingly, such holders will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the tax basis of the holder's Central Community common stock allocable to that fractional share and the amount of cash received. The gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and long-term capital gain or loss if the Central Community common stock exchanged has been held for more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Backup Withholding

A holder of Central Community common stock may be subject, under certain circumstances, to backup withholding at a rate of 28% with respect to the amount of cash received in the merger, including cash received instead of fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to BancorpSouth and the exchange agent or furnishes its correct taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules is not additional tax and may be refunded or credited against the holder's federal income tax liability, so long as the required information is furnished to the IRS.

Table of Contents*Dissenters*

Upon the proper exercise of dissenters' rights, a stockholder will exchange all of the shares of Central Community common stock actually owned by that holder solely for cash and that holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and its adjusted tax basis in the shares of Central Community common stock surrendered, which gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period with respect to the Central Community common stock surrendered is more than one year. Long-term capital gains of noncorporate taxpayers are subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Although the law is unclear, if the holder constructively owns shares of Central Community common stock that are exchanged for shares of BancorpSouth common stock in the merger or otherwise owns shares of BancorpSouth common stock actually or constructively after the merger, the consequences to that holder may be similar to the consequences described elsewhere in this section THE MERGER Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences, except that the amount of consideration, if any, treated as a dividend may not be limited to the amount of that stockholder's gain.

Certain Tax Reporting Rules

Under applicable Treasury regulations, significant holders of Central Community stock will be required to comply with certain reporting requirements. A Central Community stockholder should be viewed as a significant holder if, immediately before the merger, such holder held 1% or more, by vote or value, of the total outstanding Central Community common stock, or held stock with a tax basis of $1,000,000 or more. Significant holders generally will be required to file a statement with the holder's U.S. federal income tax return for the taxable year that includes the consummation of the merger. That statement must set forth the holder's adjusted tax basis in, and the fair market value of, the shares of Central Community common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger (both as determined immediately before the surrender of shares), the date of the merger, and the name and employer identification number of BancorpSouth and Central Community, and the holder will be required to retain permanent records of these facts. We urge each holder of Central Community common stock to consult its tax advisor as to whether such holder may be treated as a significant holder.

Pre-Merger Distribution

Central Community may distribute the shares of certain subsidiaries or property to its stockholders prior to the effective time of the merger. The nature of any future distribution is not yet known and therefore the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Central Community stockholders arising from any such distribution cannot be described herein with any accuracy. Any pre-merger distribution of property will be treated separately from the merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The discussion contained herein under the caption Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences of any pre-merger distribution to the holders of Central Community's common stock. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of any tax consequences related to any pre-merger distribution that is applicable or may be applicable to you.

The preceding summary does not purport to be a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects relevant to the merger. Accordingly, Central Community stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Dissenters' Rights

General

Under Delaware law, holders of Central Community common stock are entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal in connection with the merger, provided that such holders meet all of the conditions set forth in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, referred to as Section 262. Pursuant to Section 262, Central Community stockholders who do not vote in favor of the merger and who comply with the applicable requirements of Section 262 will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of such shares as determined by the Delaware Chancery Court if the merger is completed. It is possible that the fair value as determined by the Delaware Chancery Court may be more or less than, or the same as, the merger consideration. Central Community stockholders should note that investment banking opinions as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a sale transaction, such as the merger, are not opinions as to, and do not in any manner address, fair value under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Central Community stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the strict procedures set forth in Section 262 in order to demand and perfect their rights. Central Community stockholders wishing to preserve their rights to appraisal must make a demand for appraisal as described below.

Table of Contents

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of Section 262 required to be followed by dissenting Central Community stockholders wishing to demand and perfect their appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262, the full text of which appears in Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Under Section 262, Central Community is required to notify stockholders not less than 20 days before the special meeting to vote on the merger that appraisal rights will be available. A copy of Section 262 must be included with that notice.

This document constitutes Central Community's notice to its stockholders of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. A copy of Section 262 is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

How to Exercise and Perfect Your Right to Dissent

If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 set forth in Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and consult your legal advisor. If you fail to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262, your appraisal rights may be lost. To exercise appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Central Community common stock, you must:

NOT vote your shares of Central Community common stock in favor of the adoption and approval of the reorganization agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

deliver to Central Community a written demand for appraisal of your shares before the date of the special meeting, as described further below under "Written Demand and Notice";

continuously hold your shares of Central Community common stock through the date the merger is consummated; and otherwise comply with the procedures set forth in Section 262.

If you sign and return a proxy card that does not contain voting instructions, you will effectively waive your appraisal rights because such shares represented by the proxy, unless the proxy is revoked, will be voted for the adoption of Merger Agreement. Therefore, a stockholder who submits a proxy and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must submit a proxy containing instructions to vote AGAINST the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby or abstain from voting on such proposal.

Only a holder of record of shares of Central Community common stock, or a person duly authorized and explicitly purporting to act on that stockholder's behalf, is entitled to assert appraisal rights for the shares of common stock registered in that stockholder's name. A demand for appraisal must be executed by or on behalf of the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as such stockholder's name appears on their stock certificates, and must state that such person intends thereby to demand appraisal of his or her shares of Central Community common stock in connection with the merger. Beneficial owners who do not also hold the shares of record may not directly make appraisal demands to Central Community. The beneficial owner must, in such cases, have the registered stockholder submit the required demand in respect of those shares.

If the shares of Central Community common stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand must be made in that capacity, and if the shares of Central Community common stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand must be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute a demand for appraisal on behalf of a holder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is acting as agent for such owner or owners. Stockholders who hold their shares of Central Community common stock in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms and who wish to exercise appraisal rights are urged to consult with their brokers to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by such a nominee.

Failure to strictly follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 may result in the loss, termination or waiver of appraisal rights. Stockholders who vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will not have a right to have the fair market value of their shares of Central Community common stock determined. However, failure to vote in favor of the Merger Agreement is not sufficient to perfect appraisal rights. If you desire to exercise your appraisal rights, you must also submit to Central Community before the special meeting a written demand for payment of the fair value of the Central Community common stock held by you. Stockholders are encouraged to review the financial information set forth in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus before deciding whether to exercise their appraisal rights.

Written Demand and Notice

A written demand for appraisal should be filed with Central Community before the Central Community special meeting. The demand notice shall be sufficient if it reasonably informs Central Community of your identity and that you wish to seek appraisal with respect to your shares of Central Community common stock. All demands should be delivered to:

Central Community Corporation

P.O. Box 6136

Temple, Texas 76503

Attention: Donald R. Grobowsky

The combined company, within ten days after the effective date of the merger, will notify each stockholder who has complied with Section 262 and who has not voted in favor of the merger that the merger has become effective.

To the extent a stockholder of Central Community properly dissents from the merger and must correspond with Central Community following the closing of the merger, communication regarding dissenters' rights should be directed to the Corporate Secretary at BancorpSouth. Any communication should be sent to: BancorpSouth, Inc., One Mississippi Plaza, Tupelo, Mississippi 38804, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Judicial Appraisal

Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the combined company or any stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and has otherwise complied with Section 262 may file a petition with the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the common stock of Central Community held by all such stockholders. The combined company is under no obligation to and has no present intention to file a petition and holders should not assume that the combined company will file a petition. Accordingly, it is the obligation of the holders of common stock to initiate all necessary action to perfect their appraisal rights within the time prescribed in Section 262. At the hearing on the petition, the Delaware Court of Chancery shall determine which stockholders are entitled to an appraisal of their shares and may require the stockholders who have demanded appraisal to submit their certificates to the Register in Chancery so an appropriate legend can be placed on them. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the dismissal of the appraisal proceedings with respect to your shares.

After the Delaware Court of Chancery determines the holders of common stock entitled to appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Delaware Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through this proceeding, the Delaware Court of Chancery shall determine the fair value of the shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with interest, to be paid, if any, upon the amount determined to be fair value in an appraisal proceeding. In determining the fair value of the shares the Delaware Court of Chancery will take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that "proof of value by any techniques or methods that are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court" should be considered, and that "fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company." The Delaware Supreme Court stated that, in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts that could be ascertained as of the date of the merger that throw any light on future prospects of the corporation. Section 262 provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court also stated that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered. Unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective time through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharges) as established from time to time during the period between the effective time and the date of payment of the judgment.

Stockholders who consider seeking appraisal should consider that the fair value of their shares under Section 262 could be more than, the same as, or less than, the value of the consideration provided for in the Merger Agreement without the exercise of appraisal rights. No representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery. Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, depending on factual circumstances, may or may not be a dissenter's exclusive remedy. The Delaware Court of Chancery may determine the cost of the appraisal proceeding and assess it against the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems equitable. Upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of Central Community common stock entitled to appraisal. In the absence of a court determination or assessment, each party will bear its own expenses.

Table of Contents

Any stockholder who has demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the effective time, be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or receive payment of dividends or other distributions, if any, on the Central Community common stock, except for dividends or distributions, if any, payable to stockholders of record at a date before the merger.

Request for Appraisal Data

If you submit a written demand for appraisal of your shares of Central Community common stock and otherwise properly perfect your appraisal rights, you may, upon written request mailed to the combined company within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, receive a written statement identifying (1) the aggregate number of shares of Central Community common stock which were not voted in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and with respect to which Central Community has received written demands for appraisal; and (2) the aggregate number of holders of such shares. The combined company will mail this statement to you within ten days after receiving your written request. If no petition is filed by either the combined company or any dissenting stockholder within the 120-day period after the effective date of the merger, the rights of all dissenting stockholders to appraisal will cease. Stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the combined company will file a petition with respect to the appraisal of the fair value of their shares or that the combined company will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of those shares. The combined company will be under no obligation to take any action in this regard and BancorpSouth and Central Community have no present intention to do so. Accordingly, it is the obligation of stockholders who wish to seek appraisal of their shares of Central Community common stock to initiate all necessary action with respect to the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262. Failure to file the petition on a timely basis will cause the stockholder's right to an appraisal to cease.

Withdrawal

Even if you submit a written demand for appraisal of your shares of Central Community common stock and otherwise properly perfect your appraisal rights, you may withdraw your demand at any time after the effective date of the merger, except that any such attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the effective date of the merger will require the written approval of the combined company and, once a petition for appraisal is filed, the appraisal proceeding may not be dismissed as to any holder absent court approval. The foregoing, however, will not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered under the Merger Agreement within 60 days after the effective date of the merger. If you withdraw your demand, you will be deemed to have accepted the terms of the Merger Agreement, which are summarized in this document and which is attached in its entirety as Annex B.

The foregoing summary is not intended to be a complete statement of the procedures for exercising appraisal rights under Section 262 and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 262, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Central Community urges any stockholder wishing to exercise appraisal rights, if any, to read this summary and Section 262 carefully, and to consult legal counsel before attempting to exercise appraisal rights. Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in Section 262 may result in the loss of your statutory appraisal rights.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of management of Central Community and Central Community's board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as Central Community stockholders generally.

Central Community's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement. These interests include:

Employment Agreements. BancorpSouth has entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Donald R. Grobowsky, Keith McKeever, T. Gerry Gamble, Richard Procter and Randall Ramsey, as well as certain other officers and employees of Central Community and its subsidiaries, which will be effective, if at all, upon the consummation of the merger. These employment agreements include noncompetition, nonsolicitation and confidentiality obligations to BancorpSouth, and provide for an annual salary, one-time retention and signing bonuses, restricted shares of BancorpSouth common stock and certain additional incentives from BancorpSouth. Mr. McKeever's employment agreement provides for a one-time payment upon the closing of the merger of approximately $450,000. None of the other employment agreements with officers and employees of Central Community provide for similar payments;

Table of Contents

Insurance. The Merger Agreement provides that Central Community will purchase for a period of not less than four years after the effective time of the merger past acts insurance coverage for no less than the four-year period immediately preceding the effective time of the merger under its (1) current directors and officers insurance policy coverage (or comparable coverage), (2) employment practices liability insurance, (3) current financial institutions bond (or comparable coverage), and (4) bankers professional liability, mortgage errors and omissions and fiduciary liability insurance, for each director and officer of Central Community and its subsidiaries currently covered under the comparable policies held by Central Community or its subsidiaries; and Indemnification. The Merger Agreement provides that BancorpSouth will indemnify each director and officer of Central Community, the Bank, FSBT Properties, Inc., Central Community Capital Trust I or First Central Union Capital Trust I as of the effective time of the merger for a period of four years thereafter, against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or before the effective time of the merger, whether asserted or claimed before, at or after the effective time of the merger, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was acting in his or her capacity as a director or officer of Central Community, the Bank, FSBT Properties, Inc., Central Community Capital Trust I or First Central Union Capital Trust I to the fullest extent that the indemnified party would be entitled under the articles of incorporation or bylaws or the similar constituent documents of Central Community, the Bank, FSBT Properties, Inc., Central Community Capital Trust I or First Central Union Capital Trust I, as applicable, as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement and to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Executive officers and directors of Central Community will receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock in the merger on the same basis as other Central Community stockholders. The following chart shows the number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock that may be issued to executive officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of Central Community common stock in the merger:

|--|-----------|
| Beneficial ownership by executive officers, directors and holders of more than 10% of Central Community common stock, and their affiliates, as of March 18, 2014 | 11,948 |
| Maximum number of shares of BancorpSouth common stock to be received in the merger (based on such beneficial ownership) | 2,471,130 |

Thirty-four officers of Central Community or its subsidiaries, as applicable, have entered into employment agreements with BancorpSouth, that will be effective, if at all, at the effective time of the merger. The terms of the employment agreements generally provide annual compensation, a restricted stock award and a retention bonus payable to the individual if they are employed by BancorpSouth six months following the closing of the merger. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Keith McKeever may be entitled to a one-time bonus payable upon closing of the merger. No other individuals are entitled to similar payments at closing.

Officers and directors of Central Community have certain interests under the Merger Agreement regarding indemnification following the merger. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Indemnification.

Mr. Donald R. Grobowsky, the current chairman, president, and chief executive officer of Central Community, will be joining the board of directors of BancorpSouth. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT - Management and Operations

Following the Merger.

Comparison of Rights of Stockholders

At the effective time of the merger, Central Community stockholders who receive shares of BancorpSouth common stock will automatically become BancorpSouth shareholders. BancorpSouth is a Mississippi corporation governed by provisions of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act and BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended. Central Community is a Delaware corporation governed by provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law, and Central Community's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. See COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

The shares of BancorpSouth common stock issued in connection with the merger will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act, as amended, except for shares issued to any Central Community stockholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of BancorpSouth after completion of the merger. An affiliate of a corporation, as defined by the rules promulgated under the Securities Act, is a person who directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, that corporation. Affiliates generally include directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of 10% or more of a company's capital stock. Former Central Community stockholders who are not affiliates of BancorpSouth after the completion of the merger may sell their shares of BancorpSouth common stock received in the merger at any time.

Former Central Community stockholders who become affiliates of BancorpSouth after completion of the merger will be subject to the volume and sale limitations of Rule 144 under the Securities Act until they are no longer affiliates of BancorpSouth. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not cover resales of BancorpSouth common stock received by any person upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of or rely on this Proxy Statement/Prospectus in connection with or to effect any resale of BancorpSouth shares.

Source of Funds for Cash Portion of Merger Consideration

BancorpSouth intends to pay the cash portion of the merger consideration to the Central Community stockholders from funds available to BancorpSouth at closing. BancorpSouth currently intends these funds to be comprised primarily of available cash.

Prior Execution of Agreement and Plan of Reorganization by and between Ouachita Bancshares and BancorpSouth

On January 8, 2014, BancorpSouth announced that it entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Ouachita Bancshares and its subsidiary bank, Ouachita Independent Bank, a Louisiana state bank with total assets of approximately $652.2 million, total loans of approximately $477.8 million, total deposits of approximately $549.7 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $53.1 million as of December 31, 2013. Ouachita Independent Bank is a full service commercial bank with 13 locations in Louisiana and one location in Mississippi.

Under the terms of the definitive agreement, Ouachita Bancshares shareholders will receive an aggregate of $22,875,000 in cash and 3,675,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock for all outstanding shares of Ouachita Bancshares common stock, subject to certain conditions and potential adjustments. The merger has been approved by the boards of directors of both BancorpSouth and Ouachita Bancshares and is expected to close during the second quarter of 2014. The transaction is subject to certain conditions, including the approval by shareholders of Ouachita Bancshares and customary regulatory approvals.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary of certain terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is incorporated into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus by reference and, with the exception of exhibits and schedules to the Merger Agreement, is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Terms of the Merger

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of Central Community with and into BancorpSouth, at which time the separate corporate existence of Central Community will cease and BancorpSouth will be the surviving corporation. BancorpSouth will continue to exist as a Mississippi corporation. It is contemplated that immediately following the merger of Central Community and BancorpSouth, the Bank will merge with and into BancorpSouth Bank, with BancorpSouth Bank being the surviving bank. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger in the offices of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the State of Mississippi in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law and the Mississippi Business Corporation Act of 1987. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to the Merger.

The merger will have the effects set forth in Section 79-4-11.07 of the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, Section 81-5-85 of the Mississippi Banking Act, Section 259 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, Section 10.008 of the Texas Business Organizations Code and Section 32.301 of the Texas Finance Code.

BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended, in effect as of the effective time of the merger will be those of the surviving corporation, and BancorpSouth Bank's articles of incorporation and bylaws as in effect upon completion of the bank merger will be those of the surviving bank.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, if the Merger Agreement is approved and the merger is completed, all outstanding shares of Central Community common stock will be converted into the right to receive an aggregate of (i) 7,250,000 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) $28,500,000 in cash subject to an expected downward adjustment as set forth in the Merger Agreement and further described herein.

The amount of per share merger consideration to be received is dependent upon the number of shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and whether the expected downward adjustment to the merger consideration as set forth in the Merger Agreement occurs. Consequently, you will not know the exact per share merger consideration you will receive as a result of the merger when you vote on the Merger Agreement. There were 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding as of January 22, 2014, the date of the Merger Agreement. Assuming no additional shares of Central Community common stock are issued before the closing of the merger and subject to the expected downward adjustment to the cash component of the merger consideration and further described herein, you would receive (i) 206.8061 shares of BancorpSouth common stock and (ii) cash consideration of approximately $812.96, for each share of Central Community common stock that you own with cash to be paid in lieu of any remaining fractional share interest.

The cash portion of the merger consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between $109,250,000 and Central Community's equity capital on the closing date if it is less than $109,250,000. Based upon current information, Central Community estimates that its equity capital will be approximately $105,750,000 on the closing date of the merger, which would result in a downward adjustment to the aggregate cash portion of the merger consideration of $3,500,000, or $99.84 per share (assuming 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger). The amount of Central Community's equity capital will not be known until the closing of the merger, and thus no assurance can be given as to the amount of the expected downward adjustment to the cash portion of the merger consideration if such adjustment is required under the terms of the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, equity capital is defined as the sum of the common stock, capital surplus and retained earnings of Central Community, excluding unrealized securities gains or losses, on a consolidated basis, as determined pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles. For purposes of calculating equity capital, Central Community must include adjustments made for extraordinary items related to the merger as more fully described in the Merger Agreement.

No fractional shares of BancorpSouth common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, Central Community stockholders will receive, without interest, a cash payment from BancorpSouth equal to the average closing price (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of BancorpSouth common stock times the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth common stock to which the stockholder otherwise would be entitled.

The per share merger consideration will not be adjusted to reflect any change in the price of BancorpSouth common stock. BancorpSouth expects the market price of BancorpSouth common stock to fluctuate as a result of market factors beyond its control between the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the date on which the merger is completed and thereafter. Because the market price of BancorpSouth common stock is expected to fluctuate and may decrease, the implied market value of BancorpSouth common stock that Central Community stockholders may receive in the merger may increase or decrease prior to completion of the merger. For further information concerning the historical market prices of BancorpSouth common stock and Central Community common stock, see PRICE RANGE OF COMMON STOCK AND DIVIDENDS. BancorpSouth cannot assure you that the market price of BancorpSouth common stock will not decrease before or after the merger.

The following table shows the implied value of the merger consideration into which one share of Central Community common stock would be converted in the merger at various hypothetical reference closing prices of BancorpSouth common stock at the effective time of the merger, first excluding any cash consideration and then including the cash consideration without giving effect to any adjustment pursuant to the Merger Agreement:

| Closing Price of BancorpSouth Common Stock | Implied Value per Share of Central Community Common Stock⁽¹⁾ | Implied Value per Share of Central Community Common Stock⁽²⁾ |
|---|--|--|
| | $24.50 | $5,066.75 |
| 24.75 | 5,118.45 | 5,931.41 |
| 25.00 | 5,170.15 | 5,983.11 |
| 25.25 | 5,221.85 | 6,034.81 |
| 25.50 | 5,273.56 | 6,086.52 |
| 25.75 | 5,325.26 | 6,138.22 |

- (1) The implied value per share of Central Community common stock in this column assumes 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock are issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger and is calculated without regard to any cash consideration.
- (2) The implied value per share of Central Community common stock in this column assumes 35,057 shares of Central Community common stock are issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger and includes cash consideration without giving effect to any adjustment pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, all shares of Central Community common stock held by Central Community or its subsidiary bank, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with a debt previously contracted, will be canceled and will cease to exist, and no BancorpSouth common stock or other consideration will be delivered in exchange for such shares. Also at the effective time of the merger, all shares of BancorpSouth common stock held by Central Community or its subsidiary bank, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with a debt previously contracted, will become treasury stock and all other shares of BancorpSouth common stock outstanding as of the effective time will remain outstanding.

At the effective time of the merger, Central Community stockholders, other than those who perfect dissenters' rights in accordance with Delaware law, will have no further rights as Central Community stockholders, other than the right to receive their per share merger consideration. After the effective time of the merger, there will be no transfers on Central Community's stock transfer books of shares of Central Community common stock. If, after the effective time, stock certificates representing shares of Central Community common stock are presented for transfer to Registrar and Transfer Company, the exchange agent for the merger, they will be canceled and exchanged for either cash or certificates representing shares of BancorpSouth common stock as provided in the Merger Agreement.

If, prior to the merger, shares of BancorpSouth common stock are changed into a different number or class of shares as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or if a stock dividend is declared on the shares of BancorpSouth common stock with a record date prior to the merger, the stock portion of the merger consideration will be adjusted accordingly.

Treatment of Stock Options

Central Community has represented in the Merger Agreement that there are no existing options, stock appreciation rights, stock appreciation units, warrants, call convertible securities or commitments of any kind obligating Central Community to issue any authorized and unissued Central Community stock or preferred stock.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains a number of representations and warranties by Central Community (on its own behalf and on behalf of its subsidiaries other than subsidiaries that will be distributed by Central Community prior to the merger) and BancorpSouth regarding aspects of their respective businesses, financial condition, structure and other facts pertinent to the merger that are customary for a transaction of this kind. They include, among other things, representations as to:

the organization, existence, corporate power and authority of each company and their respective subsidiaries;

the capitalization of each company and their respective subsidiaries;

the absence of conflicts with and violations of law and various documents, contracts and agreements;

the consents or approvals of or filings or registrations with any governmental authority or third party necessary in connection with the consummation of the merger;

the absence of any proceedings pending, knowledge of any proceedings threatened, or knowledge of any basis for such proceedings to be brought;

the fair presentation in all material respects of reports and financial statements provided to the other company;

compliance with applicable laws;

the filing of all reports, registrations and statements with applicable regulatory agencies; and the absence of any event or circumstance which is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect.

The Merger Agreement also contains an additional representation and warranty solely by BancorpSouth regarding the timely filing of SEC reports, which is customary for a transaction of this kind. It includes, among other things, representations as to the timely filing of all material reports and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file with the SEC pursuant to the Exchange Act for the past three years.

The Merger Agreement also contains a number of additional representations and warranties solely by Central Community regarding aspects of its business, financial condition, structure and other facts pertinent to the merger that are customary for a transaction of this kind. They include, among other things, representations as to:

ownership of investments such as securities, including municipal bonds;

loan portfolio matters and reserve for loan losses;

the absence of certain loans and related matters;

Director Support Agreements

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each of the directors of Central Community and the Bank, other than those individuals who otherwise entered into employment agreements with BancorpSouth to serve as officers following the effective time of the merger, executed director support agreements. Upon execution of the Merger Agreement, each of the directors and certain officers of Central Community and the Bank entered into a voting agreement and irrevocable proxy, together referred to as the voting agreement. The voting agreement obligates these directors and officers to vote their shares of Central Community in favor of the merger and against approval of any other proposal to acquire the stock or assets of Central Community, subject to certain limitations involving their fiduciary or other legal obligations. The voting agreement further restricts these directors and officers from seeking competing proposals for the acquisition of Central Community or the assets of Central Community. The voting agreement will remain in effect until the consummation of the merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after approval of the merger by Central Community stockholders, as set forth in the Merger Agreement, including by mutual consent of BancorpSouth and Central Community. In addition, the Merger Agreement may generally be terminated by either party if:

a court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or other governmental entity issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action is final and non-appealable or any of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are disapproved by any governmental entity or other person whose approval is required;

and, under certain terms and conditions, determines that it is a superior proposal to that of the Merger Agreement and that the failure to accept such proposal would cause the board of directors to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law; but Central Community must notify BancorpSouth of the superior proposal at least five business days before terminating the Merger Agreement, during which time BancorpSouth has the right to adjust the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement so that the superior proposal no longer constitutes a superior proposal.

In addition, BancorpSouth may terminate the Merger Agreement, without the consent of Central Community, if any required regulatory approval is obtained subject to restrictions or conditions on the operations of Central Community, the Bank, BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank that are reasonably unacceptable to BancorpSouth.

BancorpSouth also has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement on or prior to April 22, 2014, if the results of any environmental inspections or surveys of Central Community properties identify certain potential or current violations of environmental laws or environmental law requires certain remedial or clean up action that could have a material adverse effect on Central Community.

BancorpSouth may also terminate the Merger Agreement if Central Community has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations contained in the Merger Agreement in a manner adverse to BancorpSouth, the board of Central Community resolves to accept a competing acquisition proposal or the board of Central Community changes its recommendation regarding the merger.

then, unless BancorpSouth is in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the Merger Agreement, Central Community will be required to pay BancorpSouth a termination fee of $8,000,000 plus up to $750,000 for BancorpSouth's expenses related to the merger.

If either BancorpSouth or Central Community terminates the Merger Agreement:

after July 21, 2014 (or August 20, 2014, if regulatory approval has not been obtained by July 21, 2014), and if at the time of termination, the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part has been declared effective for at least 25 business days prior to such termination and Central Community has failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Central Community special meeting by such date, or without regard to timing, if Central Community's stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and an acquisition proposal exists at the time of termination, then, unless BancorpSouth is in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the Merger Agreement, Central Community will be required to pay BancorpSouth up to $750,000 for its expenses related to the merger.

If either BancorpSouth or Central Community terminates the Merger Agreement, and within 12 months of termination of the Merger Agreement Central Community enters into an acquisition agreement with a third party:

after July 21, 2014 (or August 20, 2014, if regulatory approval has not been obtained by July 21, 2014), and if at the time of termination, Central Community's stockholders have not approved the Merger Agreement, or without regard to timing, if Central Community's stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement and an acquisition proposal exists at the time of termination,

Table of Contents

then, unless BancorpSouth is in material breach of any covenant or obligation under the Merger Agreement, Central Community will be required to pay BancorpSouth a termination fee of $8,000,000 plus up to $750,000 for BancorpSouth's expenses related to the merger.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Subject to compliance with applicable law, the Merger Agreement may be amended by Central Community and BancorpSouth, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time. After any approval of the Merger Agreement by Central Community stockholders, however, there may not be, without further approval of the Central Community stockholders, any amendment of the Merger Agreement which reduces the amount or changes the form of the consideration due under the Merger Agreement, other than as contemplated in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of BancorpSouth and Central Community.

Waiver

Prior to the merger, BancorpSouth and/or Central Community, as applicable, may extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party to the Merger Agreement, waive any inaccuracies in the representations or warranties of the other party contained in the Merger Agreement or waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other party contained in the Merger Agreement.

Pre-Merger Divestiture of Certain Subsidiaries and Assets

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Central Community is required to divest of all of its ownership and financial interest in all of its subsidiaries other than the Bank, FSBT Properties, Inc., Central Community Capital Trust I and First Central Union Trust I, prior to the closing of the merger. The subsidiaries of Central Community to be divested prior to completion of the merger are as follows:

FSBT Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Central Community that primarily serves as the holding company for the Texas entities set forth below.

Group Investment Holdings, Inc., a Texas corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of FSBT Holdings, Inc. that holds certain real estate acquired from the bank at foreclosure and 100% of Texas Limestone Materials, LLC, the operator of a foreclosed quarry.

First State Central Texas Insurance, LLC, a Texas limited liability company that serves as the 1% general partner of First Central Texas Insurance, Ltd. FSBT Properties, Inc. owns a 50% interest in First State Central Texas Insurance, LLC.

First Central Texas Insurance Ltd., a Texas limited partnership that is a general Central Texas insurance agency. FSBT Holdings, Inc. owns a 49.5% limited partnership interest and First State Central Texas Insurance, LLC owns a 1% general partnership interest in First Central Texas Insurance Ltd.

ITCOT, LLC, a Texas limited liability company that is the holding company for Independence Title Company of Austin, LLC. FSBT Holdings, Inc. owns 33.33% of the membership interests in ITCOT, LLC.

Independence Title Company of Austin, LLC, a Texas limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of ITCOT, LLC that engages primarily in providing title insurance services in the greater Central Texas area.

First Community Title Company, a Texas corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of FSBT Holdings, Inc. that engages primarily in providing title insurance services in Bell County and Coryell County.

Fountainwood Plaza Shopping Center, LLC, a Texas limited liability company that holds a development property in Williamson County, Texas. FSBT Holdings, Inc. owns 50% of the membership interests in Fountainwood Plaza Shopping Center, LLC.

Lago LVRC, LLC, a Texas limited liability company that owns a development property in Travis County. FSBT Holdings, Inc. owns 50% of the membership interests in Lago LVRC, LLC.

To accomplish the divestitures required by the Merger Agreement, FSBT Holdings, Inc., Group Investment Holdings, Inc., and First Community Title Company will be converted into limited liability companies and the equity interests of all of the subsidiaries being divested will be assigned such that each of the subsidiaries being divested will be direct or indirect subsidiaries of the post-conversion FSBT Holdings, Inc. limited liability company entity. Following completion of this internal corporate reorganization and approval of the merger by the stockholders of Central Community, but prior to completion of the merger, Central Community will distribute 100% of the membership interests in the post-conversion FSBT Holdings, Inc. limited liability company entity to the stockholders of Central Community, pro rata based on their current ownership of Central Community common stock.

Table of Contents

In addition to the disposition of the subsidiaries described above, the Merger Agreement requires that Central Community take all steps necessary to cause the Bank before the merger to divest interests in certain foreclosed properties to the post-conversion Group Investment Holdings, Inc. limited liability company entity prior to the subsidiary disposition described above and prior to the consummation of the merger. Central Community estimates that such properties have a book and fair market value of approximately $15.5 million, although depending on market conditions, that estimate could vary.

Following completion of the transactions described above and distribution of the post-conversion FSBT Holdings, Inc. limited liability company membership interests to the stockholders of Central Community, the post-conversion Group Investment Holdings, Inc. limited liability company entity will purchase from FBST Properties, Inc. four office buildings and partnership interests in First Central Texas Insurance, Ltd. at book value and will further assume a related mortgage. Following these transactions, the post-conversion FSBT Holdings, Inc. limited liability company entity, together with its direct and indirect subsidiaries, will hold assets with an estimated combined book value of approximately $27.0 million and an estimated combined fair market value of approximately $33.6 million. At this time, management of Central Community anticipates that the pre-merger reorganization and distribution of membership interests may result in an additional federal income tax liability estimated to be approximately $2.3 million, although that amount could change based on market conditions and the structure of the dispositions. Any additional federal income tax liabilities will be accrued prior to closing of the merger, and will reduce Central Community's equity capital for purposes of determining whether Central Community will meet its minimum equity threshold of $109,250,000 as required by the Merger Agreement. Central Community believes that its equity capital on the closing date will be less than $109,250,000 and accordingly, the cash portion of the merger consideration paid to the Central Community stockholders will be reduced.

In addition to the anticipated federal income tax consequences to Central Community of the subsidiary and asset dispositions described above, these dispositions will also have federal income tax consequences to the stockholders of Central Community which are separate from the tax consequences resulting from the merger with BancorpSouth. In particular, the distribution of 100% of the membership interests of the post-conversion FSBT Holdings, Inc. limited liability company membership interests will constitute a taxable dividend to the stockholders of Central Community to the extent of Central Community's current and accumulated earnings and profits. It is important to note that the stockholders of Central Community will not receive cash as part of this pre-merger distribution. Accordingly, it will be necessary for stockholders of Central Community to satisfy their individual tax liabilities associated with the pre-merger distribution from other sources, including, without limitation, cash that they will receive in connection with the completion of the merger with BancorpSouth. Central Community stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

by proxy and entitled to vote in the election of directors at a meeting of stockholders at which a quorum is present, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws of a corporation.

Central Community's governing documents provide that at each annual meeting, except in the case of vacancies, each director shall be elected and hold office until his successor is elected and qualified. Directors need not be stockholders.

If there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in the manner provided by statute.

If, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole board (as constituted immediately prior to any such increase), the Delaware Court of Chancery may, upon application of any stockholder or stockholders holding at least ten percent of the total number of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, summarily order an election to be held to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office.

The restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth explain that the rights to indemnification contained therein are intended to be greater than that otherwise provided for in the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, are contractual in nature, and in that respect are mandatory, despite a person s failure to meet the standard of conduct required for permissive indemnification under the Mississippi Business Corporation Act.

The amended and restated bylaws of BancorpSouth provide for indemnification of certain persons who were or are parties or are threatened to be made parties to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, in cases other than action by or in the right of BancorpSouth. Also, in the case of actions by or in the right of BancorpSouth, certain persons who were or are parties or are threatened to be made parties to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of BancorpSouth to procure a judgment in its favor may generally be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such persons in connection with defense or settlement of the action or suit, except that no indemnification shall be made if such persons breached certain fiduciary duties to BancorpSouth unless, and only to the extent that a court

To the extent that a current or former director or officer is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of such an action, suit or proceeding, the corporation is required by Delaware law to indemnify such person for expenses actually and reasonably incurred. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by Delaware law do not exclude any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Expenses (including attorneys fees) incurred by a current or former director or officer in defending any action, suit or proceeding may be paid in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be so indemnified.

The amended and restated bylaws of BancorpSouth provide that any indemnification pursuant to the bylaws shall be made only as authorized in specific cases upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act also generally allows, with some exceptions, BancorpSouth to indemnify and advance expenses to officers to the same extent as to directors, and if a person is an officer but not a director, to such further extent as may be provided by BancorpSouth's governing documents, a resolution of the board of directors or by contract.

Amendments to

Organizational Documents

Articles of Incorporation/Certificate of Incorporation

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act provides that BancorpSouth has the power to make and amend bylaws not inconsistent with BancorpSouth's restated articles of incorporation.

The affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding voting stock of BancorpSouth is required to amend or repeal (i) the provisions of the restated articles of incorporation of

Under Delaware law and the Central Community governing documents, the certificate of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote on the amendment and, if entitled to vote by class of shares, by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote on the amendment.

Bylaws

The amended and restated bylaws of BancorpSouth provide that the bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new bylaws may be adopted by the board of directors at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors.

Under Delaware law, the power to amend the bylaws shall be in the stockholders entitled to vote, and the corporation may, in its certificate of incorporation, confer the power to amend the bylaws upon the directors; provided, however, that the fact that such power has been so conferred upon the directors shall not divest the stockholders of the power, nor limit their power, to amend the bylaws.

In addition, pursuant to the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, BancorpSouth's shareholders may amend or repeal BancorpSouth's amended and restated bylaws and the board of directors may amend or

Pursuant to the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, a BancorpSouth shareholder generally is entitled to appraisal rights and to obtain payment of the fair value of shares in the event of the following corporate actions, with certain exceptions and limits: (i) consummation of a merger to which BancorpSouth is a party if shareholder approval is required for the merger by the Mississippi Business Corporation Act and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, except that appraisal rights are not available with respect to shares of any class or series that remain outstanding after consummation of the merger; (ii) consummation of a share exchange to which BancorpSouth is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the exchange, except that appraisal rights are not available with respect to any class or series of BancorpSouth shares that is not exchanged; (iii) consummation of certain dispositions of assets if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the disposition; (iv) amendment of the restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth that reduces the number of shares of a class or series owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if BancorpSouth has the obligation or right to repurchase the fractional share so created; or (v) other situations provided for Central Community's governing documents provide that the bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed or new bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the board of directors at any regular or special meeting if notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new bylaws is contained in the notice of any special meeting. The power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws by the board of directors shall not divest or limit the power of the stockholders to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws.

Central Community's stockholders have dissenters' rights with respect to certain corporate actions. See THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights.

The Delaware General Corporation Law provides if Central Community, by vote of its stockholders, becomes a party to a merger or consolidation, then a stockholder who votes against the action has the right to dissent, subject to certain conditions set forth in Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The right to dissent, however, generally does not exist in the case of: (i) stockholders holding shares of any class of stock or depository receipts in respect thereof, which at the record date, were listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and (ii) shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in Section 251(f) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

would give that person (i) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of all voting power; (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority of all voting power; or (iii) a majority or more of all voting power.

In general, the voting rights of control shares are restored if, by reason of subsequent issuance of shares or other transactions by the issuing public corporation, the voting power of those control shares is reduced to a range of voting power for which approval has been granted or is not required, upon transfer of such shares to certain other persons or upon the expiration of three years after the date that the shareholders failed to approve a resolution according voting rights to those control shares.

The Mississippi Control Share Act does not apply to BancorpSouth because BancorpSouth is not an issuing public corporation and has not elected to be subject to the Mississippi Control Share Act in its restated articles of incorporation.

Votes on Extraordinary Corporate Transactions

The restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth provide that the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of voting stock is required in the event that the board of directors does not recommend to the shareholders a vote in favor of a merger or consolidation of BancorpSouth with, or a sale, exchange or lease of all or substantially all of the assets of BancorpSouth to, any person or entity.

Pursuant to the Mississippi Business Corporation Act, in the case of a merger or share exchange, with some exceptions, Central Community's governing documents provide that the board of directors are expressly authorized, when and as authorized by the stockholders in accordance with statute, to sell, lease, or exchange all or substantially all of the property and assets of Central Community, including its good will and its corporate franchises, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property including shares of stock in, and/or other securities of, any other corporation or corporations, as the board of directors deem expedient and for the best interests of Central Community.

BancorpSouth's board of directors must submit the plan of merger or share exchange to the shareholders for approval and the approval of the plan of merger or share exchange generally requires the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the plan exists.

Central Community's governing documents and the Delaware General Corporation Law generally provide that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the agreement of merger or consolidation must be submitted to the Central Community stockholders at an annual or special meeting for the purpose of acting on the agreement.

The Mississippi Business Corporation Act provides that a sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to certain exceptions, requires approval of BancorpSouth's shareholders if BancorpSouth would leave the corporation without a significant continuing business activity. If BancorpSouth retains a business activity that represented at least 25% of total assets at the end of the most recently completed fiscal Further, the Delaware General Corporation Law provides that on matters other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter will be the act of the stockholders, unless the vote of a different number is required by law or the corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

The board of directors must submit the proposed disposition to the shareholders for their approval and the approval of a disposition by the shareholders shall require the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the disposition exists.

with Certain
Stockholders, including Business Combinations
Involving Interested Stockholders*

The Mississippi Shareholder Protection Act generally provides that in addition to any vote required by law or BancorpSouth's governing documents and subject to certain exceptions, certain business combinations with interested shareholders shall be approved by the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by outstanding shares of voting stock of BancorpSouth, voting together as a single class, and two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting stock other than voting stock held by the interested shareholder who is (or whose affiliate or associate is) a party to the business combination or an affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder, voting together as a single class. Pursuant to the Mississippi Shareholder Protection Act, a business combination includes mergers, share exchanges, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities, and similar transactions with interested shareholders, and an interested shareholder is generally any person or entity that beneficially owns 20% or more of the voting power of any outstanding class or series of BancorpSouth stock.

Central Community Stockholder Rights

Under Delaware law, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon is required to approve a merger or consolidation.

Pursuant to the Delaware General Corporation Law, Central Community may not engage in any business combination with any interested stockholder for a period of three years following the time that such stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless: (i) prior to such time the board of directors of Central Community approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder; (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of Central Community outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding those shares owned (a) by persons who are directors and also officers and (b) employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentiality whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or (iii) at or subsequent to such time the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3 % of the outstanding voting stock which is not owned by the interested stockholder.

The amended and restated articles of incorporation of BancorpSouth provide that the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of voting stock of BancorpSouth and the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 67% of the outstanding shares of voting stock of BancorpSouth not held by a shareholder owning or controlling 20% or more of BancorpSouth's voting stock at the time of the proposed transaction (which is referred to as a controlling party) is required for the approval or authorization of a merger, consolidation, sale, exchange or lease of all or substantially all of BancorpSouth's assets if the transaction involves any controlling party, with certain exceptions such as approval of the transaction by a majority of the entire board of directors.

The Delaware General Corporation Law generally defines a business combination to include (i) a merger or consolidation, (ii) a share exchange, sale, lease, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition, (iii) the issuance or transfer of equity securities with or to an interested stockholder, (iv) any transaction involving the corporation or any direct or indirect majority-owned subsidiary of the corporation which has the effect, directly or

ARTICLE II.

CONSIDERATION AND EXCHANGE PROCEDURES

Section 2.1 Merger Consideration.

(a) The 35,054 shares of Company Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding any Treasury Shares (as defined herein)) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be cancelled and converted into and represent the right to receive in the aggregate (i) an amount of cash equal to $28,500,000, unless otherwise adjusted as provided in Section 2.3, (the Aggregate Cash Consideration) and (ii) 7,250,000 shares of common stock, $2.50 par value, of BancorpSouth (BancorpSouth Common Stock), plus cash in lieu of any fractional share of BancorpSouth Common Stock as determined in accordance with Section 2.1(c) (together with the Aggregate Cash Consideration, the Aggregate Merger Consideration). At the Effective Time, all such shares of Company Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each certificate previously representing any such shares shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the allocable portion of the Aggregate Merger Consideration. Each share of Company Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding any Treasury Shares (as defined herein)) shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be cancelled and converted into and represent the right to receive (i) unless otherwise adjusted as provided in Section 2.3, an amount of cash equal to $813.03 (the Per Share Cash Consideration) and (ii) 206.8238 shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock (together with the Per Share Cash Consideration, the Per Share Merger Consideration).

(b) Each share of Company Stock held in the treasury of the Company and each share of Company Stock owned by any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary (as defined herein) of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time (the Treasury Shares) (other than (i) shares of Company Stock held, directly or indirectly, in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like or otherwise held in a fiduciary capacity that are beneficially owned by third parties and (ii) shares of Company Stock held in respect of a debt previously contracted) shall be cancelled without any conversion and no payment or distribution shall be made with respect thereto.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, BancorpSouth will not issue any fractional shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock otherwise issuable pursuant to the Merger. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional shares, BancorpSouth shall pay to each former holder of Company Stock otherwise entitled to receive such fractional share an amount of cash determined by multiplying (i) the Average Closing Price by (ii) the fraction of a share of BancorpSouth Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 2.1. Average Closing Price of BancorpSouth Common Stock shall be the average of the closing price per share of BancorpSouth Common Stock on The New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) (as reported in The Wall Street Journal or, if not reported thereby, another alternative source as chosen by BancorpSouth) for the ten (10) consecutive trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day preceding the Closing Date.

Section 2.2 Anti-Dilutive Adjustment. The aggregate number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock to be exchanged for each share of Company Stock shall be adjusted appropriately to reflect any change in the number of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock by reason of any stock dividends or splits, reclassification, recapitalization or conversion with respect to BancorpSouth Common Stock, received or to be received by holders of BancorpSouth Common Stock, when the record date or payment occurs prior to the Effective Time.

Section 2.3 Adjustment to Merger Consideration for Equity Capital.

(a) If the Equity Capital (as defined below) on the Closing Date shall be less than $109,250,000, the Aggregate Cash Consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between $109,250,000 and the Equity Capital on the Closing Date.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, Equity Capital shall equal the sum of the common stock, capital surplus and retained earnings of the Company, excluding unrealized securities gains or losses, on a consolidated basis, as determined pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and as agreed between the Company and BancorpSouth. For purposes of calculating Equity Capital, the Company shall include deductions made for certain extraordinary items related to the Merger, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including reductions for (i) the after-tax amount of all costs and expenses associated with the divestiture of all Subsidiaries of the Company other than the Retained Subsidiaries (as defined herein) as provided in Section 5.14 and the Quarry Disposition as provided in Section 5.15, (ii) the after-tax amount of all costs and expenses related to the Merger, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, (iii) any amounts required to be added to the Company's allowance for loan losses pursuant to Section 5.9, (iv) the after-tax premium or additional cost incurred to provide for the continuation of certain of the Company's insurance policies pursuant to Section 5.8, (v) the estimated after-tax amount of any penalty or liquidated damages associated with the termination of the Company's contracts with any provider of electronic banking and data processing services prior to or following the Closing Date pursuant to Section 5.6; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall not include any de-conversion costs or fees; (vi) the after-tax amount of the accrual through the Closing Date in accordance with GAAP, and confirmed by a third-party consultant of BancorpSouth, of any future benefit payments due under any salary continuation, deferred compensation or other similar agreements,

(vii) the after-tax amount of any cost to fully fund and liquidate any Company Employee Plan (as defined herein) and to pay all related expenses and fees to the extent such termination is requested by BancorpSouth pursuant to Section 7.4, (viii) the after-tax amount of any payments to be made pursuant to any existing employment, change in control, salary continuation, deferred compensation or other similar agreements or severance, noncompetition, retention or bonus arrangements between the Company or the Bank and any other Person, and (ix) the after-tax amount of any fees and commissions payable to any broker, finder, financial advisor or investment banking firm in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that, adjustments with respect to (iv) (ix) shall be mutually determined by BancorpSouth and the Company. Except for the foregoing clauses (i) through (ix), costs and expenses required by BancorpSouth pursuant to this Agreement to be incurred by the Company shall not be included in (reduce) the Equity Capital of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, Equity Capital shall be calculated after giving effect to the Subsidiary Disposition and the Quarry Disposition.

Section 2.4 Dissenting Shares. Each share of Company Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, the holder of which has not voted in favor of nor consented in writing to the approval of the Merger and who has properly perfected his dissenter's rights of appraisal by following the exact procedure required by Section 262 of the DGCL is referred to herein as a Dissenting Share. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, each Dissenting Share shall not be converted into or represent the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration pursuant to this ARTICLE II and shall be entitled only to such rights as are available to such holder pursuant to the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Each holder of Dissenting Shares shall be entitled to receive the value of such Dissenting Shares held by him in accordance with the applicable provisions of the DGCL; provided, such holder complies with the procedures contemplated by and set forth in the applicable provisions of the DGCL. If any holder of any Dissenting Shares shall effectively withdraw or lose his dissenter's rights under the applicable provisions of the DGCL, each such Dissenting Share shall be deemed to have been converted into and to have become exchangeable for, the right to receive the Per Share Merger Consideration without any interest thereon in accordance with the provisions of this ARTICLE II.

Section 2.5 Exchange of Shares.

(a) BancorpSouth shall deposit or cause to be deposited in trust with Registrar and Transfer Company (the Exchange Agent) (i) book entry shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and (ii) cash in an aggregate amount sufficient to make the appropriate payments (A) of the Aggregate Cash Consideration, as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 2.3, (B) to holders of Dissenting Shares pursuant to Section 2.4, if any, and (C) to holders of a fraction of a share of BancorpSouth Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.1(c) (such shares and cash being referred to as the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose, except as provided in this Agreement.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each record holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates, which as of the Effective Time represented shares of Company Stock (the Certificates), a letter of transmittal that will specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Per Share Merger Consideration into which the shares of Company Stock represented by such Certificate(s) will have been converted pursuant to this Agreement (collectively, the Transmittal Materials). Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate, together with the Transmittal Materials duly completed and executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the allocable portion of the Aggregate Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.1, as may be adjusted pursuant to Section 2.2 and Section 2.3, and such Certificate shall forthwith be cancelled. No interest will be paid or accrued with respect to the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock or cash payable upon surrender of the Certificates. Until surrendered in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5, after the Effective Time, each Certificate (other than Certificates representing Treasury Shares or Dissenting Shares) shall represent for all purposes only the right to receive the allocable portion of the Aggregate Merger Consideration without any interest thereon.

(c) No dividends or other distributions declared after the Effective Time with respect to shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock and payable to the holders thereof shall be paid to the holder of a Certificate until such holder surrenders such Certificate and duly completed and executed Transmittal Materials to the Exchange Agent in accordance with this Section 2.5. After the surrender of a Certificate and duly completed and executed Transmittal Materials in accordance with this Section 2.5, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without interest thereon, which had become payable after the Effective Time with respect to the shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock issuable in respect of such Certificate.

(d) After the Effective Time, the stock transfer ledger of the Company shall be closed and there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of the Company of the shares of Company Stock which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to BancorpSouth, they shall be promptly presented to the Exchange Agent for exchange as provided in this Section 2.5.

(e) Any portion of the Exchange Fund (including the proceeds of any investments thereof) that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of the Company for six (6) months after the Exchange Agent mails the Transmittal Materials pursuant to this Section 2.5 shall be returned to BancorpSouth upon demand, and any shareholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with the exchange procedures in this Section 2.5 shall look to BancorpSouth only, and not the Exchange Agent, for the payment of any Per Share Merger Consideration in respect of such shares.

(f) If any shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the issuance thereof that the Certificate so surrendered shall be appropriately endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form (reasonably satisfactory to BancorpSouth) for transfer, and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of shares of BancorpSouth Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(b) If this Agreement is approved by such shareholders, the Company will take all reasonable actions to aid and assist in the consummation of the Merger, and will use commercially reasonable efforts to take or cause to be taken all other actions necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including such actions as it and BancorpSouth reasonably consider necessary, proper or advisable in connection with filing applications and registration statements with, or obtaining approvals from, all Governmental Bodies having jurisdiction over the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

If the Closing does not occur, the foregoing indemnities shall survive the termination of this Agreement. BancorpSouth shall not have any Liability or responsibility of any nature whatsoever for the results, conclusions or other findings related to any Environmental Inspection, secondary investigation or other environmental survey. If this Agreement is terminated, then, except as otherwise required by law, reports to any governmental authority of the results of any Environmental Inspection, secondary investigation or other environmental survey shall be made by the Company in the exercise of its sole discretion and not by BancorpSouth. BancorpSouth shall make no such report prior to Closing unless required to do so by law, and in such case will give the Company reasonable prior notice of BancorpSouth's intentions so as to enable the Company to review and comment on such proposed report.

(c) BancorpSouth shall have the right to terminate this Agreement within ninety (90) days after the date of this Agreement if (i) the results of such Environmental Inspection, secondary investigation or other environmental survey are disapproved by BancorpSouth because the Environmental Inspection, secondary investigation or other environmental survey identifies violations or potential violations of Environmental Laws that is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect on the Company; (ii) any past or present events, conditions or circumstances that could reasonably be expected to require further investigation, remedial or cleanup action under Environmental Laws involving an expenditure reasonably expected by BancorpSouth to exceed $100,000 or that is reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or the Bank; (iii) the Environmental Inspection, secondary investigation or other environmental survey identifies the presence of any underground or above ground storage tank in, on or under any Company Real Property that is not shown to be in compliance with all Environmental Laws applicable to such tank, or that potentially has had a release of petroleum or some other Hazardous Materials that has not been remediated in accordance with applicable Environmental Law; or (iv) the Environmental Inspection, secondary investigation or other environmental survey identifies the presence of any asbestos-containing material or mold in, on or under any Company Real Property, the removal or abatement of which could reasonably be expected to involved an expenditure in excess of $100,000. In the event BancorpSouth terminates this Agreement or elects not to proceed to Closing pursuant to this Section 5.12(c), if the Company reimburses BancorpSouth for the costs

Any results or findings of any Environmental Inspections will not be disclosed by BancorpSouth to any third party not affiliated with BancorpSouth, unless BancorpSouth is required by law to disclose such information.

(d) The Company agrees to make available upon request to BancorpSouth and its consultants, agents and representatives all documents and other materials relating to environmental conditions of any Company Real Property including the results of other environmental inspections and surveys to the extent such documents are in the actual possession of the Company. The Company also agrees that all engineers and consultants who prepared or furnished such reports may discuss such reports and information with BancorpSouth and, at BancorpSouth's cost and expense, shall be entitled to certify the same in favor of BancorpSouth and its consultants, agents and representatives and make all other data available to BancorpSouth and its consultants, agents and representatives.

TERMINATION

Section 9.1 Termination.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, this Agreement may be terminated and the Merger contemplated hereby may be abandoned by action of the board of directors of BancorpSouth or the Company at any time prior to the Effective Time if:

(i) any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or other Governmental Body shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall be final and non-appealable;

(ii) any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are disapproved by any Governmental Body or other Person whose approval is required to consummate any of such transactions;

(iii) the Effective Time has not occurred on or before the one hundred eightieth (180th) day following the date of this Agreement, unless one or more of the Regulatory Approvals has not been received on or before the 180th day after the date of this Agreement, in which case the Effective Time has not occurred on or before the two hundred tenth (210th) day following the date of this Agreement, or such later date as has been approved in writing by the Boards of Directors of BancorpSouth and the Company; but the right to terminate under this Section 9.1(a)(iii) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any material obligation under this Agreement has been the cause of, or has resulted in, the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such applicable date; or

(iv) the Company Shareholder Approval shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the Company Shareholder Meeting.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time by action of the board of directors of the Company if BancorpSouth shall fail to comply in any material respect with any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, or if any of the representations or warranties of BancorpSouth contained herein shall be inaccurate in any material respect. If the board of directors of the Company desires to terminate this Agreement because of an alleged breach or inaccuracy as provided in this Section 9.1(b), the board of directors must notify BancorpSouth in writing of its intent to terminate stating the reason therefor. (c) This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time by action of the board of directors of BancorpSouth if (i) the Company fails to comply in any material respect with any of its covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, or if any of the representations or warranties of the Company contained herein shall be inaccurate in any material respect, (ii) any approval required to be obtained from any regulatory authority or agency is obtained subject to restrictions or conditions on the operations of the Company, the Bank, BancorpSouth or BancorpSouth Bank which, in the reasonable judgment of BancorpSouth, would adversely impact the economic or business benefits of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or otherwise would, in the reasonable judgment of BancorpSouth, be so burdensome as to render inadvisable the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (iii) any of the conditions set forth in Section 5.12(c) shall have occurred. In the event the board of directors of BancorpSouth desires to terminate this Agreement because of an alleged breach or inaccuracy as provided in Section 9.1(c)(i), the board of directors must notify the Company in writing of its intent to terminate stating the reason therefor. The Company shall have fifteen (15) days from the receipt of such notice to cure the alleged breach or inaccuracy, if the breach or inaccuracy is capable of being cured.

(d) This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time upon the mutual written consent of BancorpSouth and the Company and the approval of such action by their respective boards of directors.

(e) This Agreement may be terminated at any time before the Company Shareholder Approval by the board of directors of the Company if before such time, the Company receives an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal and the board of directors of the Company determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with the Financial Advisor and the Company's outside legal counsel), that (i) such Acquisition Proposal (if consummated pursuant to its terms and after giving effect to the payment of the Termination Fee and BancorpSouth Expenses (each as defined herein) is a Superior Proposal and (ii) the failure to terminate this Agreement and accept such Superior Proposal would cause or would be reasonably likely to cause it to violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law; provided, however, that the Company may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(e) unless:

(i) the Company has provided prior written notice to BancorpSouth at least five (5) business days in advance (the Notice Period) of taking such action, which notice advises BancorpSouth that the board of directors of the Company has received a Superior Proposal, specifies the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (including the identity of the Person or Group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act) making the Superior Proposal); and

(ii) during the Notice Period, the Company negotiates, and causes the Financial Advisor and the Company's outside counsel to negotiate, with BancorpSouth in good faith (to the extent BancorpSouth desires to so negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Superior Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal, and the board of directors of the Company considers such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement resulting from such negotiations and concludes in good faith based upon consultations with the Financial Advisor and the advice of the Company's outside legal counsel that such Superior Proposal remains a Superior Proposal even after giving effect to the adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement proposed by BancorpSouth.

If during the Notice Period any revisions are made to the Superior Proposal and the board of directors of the Company in its good faith judgment determines such revisions are material, the Company shall deliver a new written notice to BancorpSouth and shall comply with the requirements of this Section 9.1(e) with respect to such new written notice, except that the new Notice Period shall be three (3) business days. Termination under this Section 9.1(e) shall not be deemed effective until payment of the Termination Fee and/or BancorpSouth Expenses as required by Section 9.3.

(f) This Agreement may be terminated at any time before the Closing by the board of directors of BancorpSouth if (i) the Company has breached the covenant contained in Section 5.5 in a manner adverse to BancorpSouth; (ii) the board of directors of the Company resolves to accept a Superior Proposal; or (iii) the board of directors of the Company Board effects a Change in Recommendation.

Section 9.2 Effect of Termination. Except as provided in Section 9.3, if this Agreement is terminated by either BancorpSouth or the Company as provided in Section 9.1, this Agreement shall become void and have no effect, without any liability on the part of any party or its directors, officers or shareholders, except that the provisions of Section 5.12, Section 7.2, Section 9.2 and Section 13.5 shall survive termination of this Agreement. Nothing contained in this Section 9.2 shall relieve any party hereto of any liability for a breach of this Agreement.

Section 9.3 Termination Fee and Expenses. To compensate BancorpSouth for entering into this Agreement, taking actions to consummate the transactions contemplated hereunder and incurring the costs and expenses related thereto and other losses and expenses, including foregoing the pursuit of other opportunities by BancorpSouth, the Company and BancorpSouth agree as follows:

(a) Provided that BancorpSouth is not in material breach of any covenant or obligation under this Agreement (which breach has not been cured within fifteen (15) days following receipt of written notice thereof by the Company specifying in reasonable detail the basis of such alleged breach), if this Agreement is terminated by:

(i) the Company under the provisions of Section 9.1(e), then the Company shall pay to BancorpSouth the sum of $8,000,000 (the Termination Fee) plus all expenses incurred by BancorpSouth in connection with the proposed transaction in immediately available funds, provided that the aggregate amount of all such expenses shall not exceed $750,000 (BancorpSouth Expenses);

(ii) BancorpSouth under the provisions of Section 9.1(f), then the Company shall pay to BancorpSouth the Termination Fee plus the BancorpSouth Expenses in immediately available funds;

(iii) either BancorpSouth or the Company under the provisions of (A) Section 9.1(a)(iii), if at the time of termination, the Registration Statement has been declared effective for at least 25 business days prior to such termination and the Company shall have failed to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Company Shareholder Meeting in accordance with Section 5.1, or (B) Section 9.1(a)(iv), if, at the time of termination, there exists an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company, then the Company shall pay to BancorpSouth the BancorpSouth Expenses in immediately available funds; or

(iv) either BancorpSouth or the Company under the provisions of (A) Section 9.1(a)(iii), if at such time the Company Shareholder Approval has not occurred, or (B) Section 9.1(a)(iv), if, at the time of termination, there exists an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company and, with respect to either clause (A) or (B), within twelve (12) months of the termination of this Agreement, the Company enters into an Acquisition Agreement with any Person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, then the Company shall pay to BancorpSouth the Termination Fee in immediately available funds, which shall be in addition to the BancorpSouth Expenses to be paid pursuant to Section 9.3(a)(iii).

(b) The payment of the Termination Fee and/or BancorpSouth Expenses shall be BancorpSouth's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to termination of this Agreement as set forth in this Section 9.3. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Termination Fee described in this Section 9.3 be payable on more than one occasion.

(c) Any payment required by Section 9.3 shall become payable within two (2) business days after receipt by the non-terminating party of written notice of termination of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the payment of the Termination Fee is required pursuant to Section 9.3(a)(iv), then such payment shall become payable on or before the date of execution by the Company of an Acquisition Agreement.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, an Acquisition Agreement means any letter of intent, agreement in principle, memorandum of understanding, merger agreement, asset or share purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or any similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal.

(e) For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal means any proposal (whether communicated to the Company or publicly announced to the Company's shareholders) by any Person (other than BancorpSouth or any of its Affiliates) for an Acquisition Transaction involving the Company, any Subsidiary or any future Subsidiary of the Company, or any combination of such Subsidiaries, the assets of which constitute, or would constitute, 20% or more of the consolidated assets of the Company as reflected on the Company's most recent consolidated statement of condition prepared in accordance with GAAP.

(f) For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Transaction means any transaction or series of related transactions (other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) involving: (i) any acquisition or purchase from the Company by any Person or Group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act), other than

(g) For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal which the board of directors of the Company reasonably determines, in its good faith judgment based on, among other things, the advice of the Company's outside counsel and the Financial Advisor, (i) to be more favorable from a financial point of view to the Company's shareholders than the Merger taking into account all terms and conditions of the proposal and (ii) reasonably capable of being consummated on the terms proposed, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory (including the advice of the Company's outside counsel regarding the potential for regulatory approval of any such proposal) and other aspects of such proposal and any other relevant factors permitted under applicable law; provided, that for purposes of the definition of Superior Proposal, the references to 20% and 80% in the definitions of Acquisition Proposal and Acquisition Transaction shall be deemed to be references to 50%.

Section 13.7 Controlling Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement and any claim, controversy or dispute arising under or related in any way to this Agreement and/or the interpretation and enforcement of the rights and duties of the parties hereunder or related in any way to the foregoing, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal, substantive laws of the State of Mississippi applicable to agreements entered into and to be performed solely within such state without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws thereof.

Section 13.8 Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed: (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto; (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto; and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure. No failure or delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

Section 13.9 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable. In all such cases, the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to substitute a valid, legal and enforceable provision which, insofar as practicable, implements the original purposes and intents of this Agreement.

Section 13.10 Entire Agreement. Except for the Confidentiality Agreement, this Agreement and the exhibits and attachments hereto represent the entire agreement between the parties respecting the transactions contemplated hereby, and all understandings and agreements heretofore made between the parties hereto are merged in this Agreement, including the exhibits and schedules delivered pursuant hereto, which (together with any agreements executed by the parties hereto contemporaneously with or, if contemplated hereby, subsequent to the execution of this Agreement) shall be the sole expression of the agreement of the parties respecting the Merger. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that, in executing and delivering this Agreement, it has relied only on the written representations, warranties and promises of the other parties hereto that are contained herein or in the other agreements executed by the parties contemporaneously with or, if contemplated hereby, subsequent to the execution of this Agreement, and has not relied on the oral statements of any other party or its representatives.

This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts (including by means of telecopied signature pages or electronic transmission in portable document format (pdf)), any one of which need not contain the signatures of more than one party, but all such counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 13.12 Assignment; Binding on Successors. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, trustees, administrators, guardians, successors and permitted assigns, but shall not be assigned by any party without the prior written consent of the other parties.

ANNEX B

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title and, subject to paragraph (b)(3) of this subsection, § 251(h) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either: (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 251(h), § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for

Annex B - 1

appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 251(h), § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, within the later of the consummation of the tender or exchange offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, later than the later of the consummation of the tender or exchange offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.
