PROXY STATEMENT

PROSPECTUS OF

OF CAÑON BANK CORPORATION

GLACIER BANCORP, INC.

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Cañon Bank Corporation Shareholders:

As you may know, the boards of directors of Cañon Bank Corporation (CBC) and Glacier Bancorp, Inc. (Glacier) have agreed on a merger of CBC with and into Glacier. Immediately following the merger, Cañon National Bank, CBC's subsidiary, will merge with and into Glacier Bank, Glacier's subsidiary, and will continue to operate under the name of and as a part of Bank of the San Juans, a division of Glacier Bank.

Under the terms of the Plan and Agreement of Merger, dated July 30, 2015, Glacier will issue to CBC's shareholders, a total of 554,229 shares of Glacier common stock, and make a cash payment equal to $16,250,000, with each portion of the merger consideration being subject to adjustment as described in the attached proxy statement/prospectus.

In the merger, each outstanding share of CBC common stock will be exchanged for a fixed number of shares of Glacier common stock and a fixed amount of cash. The number of shares of its common stock that Glacier will issue (554,229) is subject to adjustment in the event that the average closing price for Glacier common stock prior to closing, calculated in accordance with the merger agreement, is less than $24.92 or more than $33.72, in order to avoid the termination of the merger agreement. The total cash portion of the merger consideration will be reduced to the extent CBC's capital prior to the closing of the merger, calculated in accordance with the merger agreement, is less than $21,000,000. For purposes of illustration only, if the amount of CBC's capital was calculated in accordance with the merger agreement as of August 18, 2015, such capital would have been $21,555,265. If CBC's capital prior to the closing of the merger is greater than $21,000,000, CBC will, upon written notice to Glacier and effective immediately prior to the closing of the merger, declare and pay a special dividend in the amount of such excess.

Assuming for purposes of illustration only that the cash portion of the merger consideration payable by Glacier is $16,250,000, you will receive $1,874.56 consisting of a combination of $986.04 in cash and 33.6304 shares of Glacier common stock for each of your shares of CBC common stock. This valuation is based on the $26.42 closing price of Glacier common stock on August 21, 2015. CBC common stock is closely held and not actively traded. The most recent third-party transaction in CBC common stock occurred in February 2015, at a price of $1,005.00 per share. Assuming the exchange of all outstanding CBC common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, CBC shareholders will own approximately 0.7% of Glacier's outstanding common stock following the merger.

We will hold a special shareholders meeting to vote on the merger agreement. The special meeting of the shareholders of CBC will be held on Wednesday, October 7, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. local time, at the Hampton Inn, 102 McCormick Parkway, Cañon City, Colorado, 81212. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed form of proxy.

On behalf of the board of directors of CBC, I recommend that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

The board of directors of CBC has determined that the merger agreement is fair to and in the best interests of CBC and its shareholders and recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. In that regard, the board of directors of CBC obtained an independent fairness opinion from FIG Partners LLC, which is attached as Appendix C to the proxy statement/prospectus that accompanies this notice.

Please do not send your CBC common stock certificates at this time. You will receive instructions on how to exchange your stock certificates prior to the closing of the merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Why am I receiving these materials?

We are sending you these materials to help you decide how to vote your shares of Cañon Bank Corporation (CBC) common stock with respect to the proposed merger with Glacier Bancorp, Inc. (Glacier). The merger cannot be completed unless CBC receives the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of CBC s outstanding common stock. CBC is holding a special meeting of shareholders to vote on the proposals necessary to complete the merger. See The Merger. Information about the special meeting is contained in this document. See CBC Special Shareholders Meeting.

This document is both a proxy statement of CBC and a prospectus of Glacier. It is a proxy statement because the board of directors of CBC is soliciting proxies from CBC shareholders in connection with the merger. It is a prospectus because Glacier will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of CBC common stock in the merger.

What will CBC shareholders receive in the merger?

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Glacier will pay cash and issue shares of its common stock in exchange for all outstanding shares of CBC common stock. Subject to the adjustments described below, Glacier will issue a total of 554,229 shares of common stock, and will pay $16,250,000 in cash, for all of the shares of CBC s outstanding common stock in the merger.

The cash portion of the merger consideration to be paid by Glacier in the merger will be subject to adjustment depending on the CBC Closing Capital , as defined in the merger agreement, immediately prior to the closing of the merger. If the CBC Closing Capital is less than $21,000,000, Glacier will reduce the cash portion of the merger consideration by the amount of such deficiency. The cash portion of the merger consideration to be paid by Glacier in the merger is also subject to adjustment to take into account any proposed dissenting shares of CBC common stock.

If the CBC Closing Capital is greater than $21,000,000, CBC will, upon written notice to Glacier and effective immediately prior to the closing of the merger, declare and pay a special dividend in the amount of such excess.

The portion of the merger consideration consisting of Glacier common stock is initially set at 554,229 shares, although the number of shares may be adjusted in certain circumstances based on whether Glacier common stock is trading either higher or lower than certain specified prices in the merger agreement immediately prior to the closing of the merger, in order to avoid the termination of the merger agreement.

On August 21, 2015, the closing price of Glacier s common stock was $26.42 per share. If the average closing price (determined over a 20 trading day period prior to the closing of the merger, calculated 10 days prior to the closing) of Glacier s common stock exceeds $33.72, the number of shares of Glacier common stock issued in the merger can be reduced, unless CBC elects to allow the merger agreement to terminate. Conversely, if the average closing price is below $24.92, the number of shares of Glacier common stock issued in the merger can be increased, unless Glacier elects to allow the merger agreement to terminate. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Table of Contents

By voting to approve the merger agreement, CBC shareholders will give the CBC board of directors the authority to elect, with the advice of CBC's legal counsel and its financial advisor, to cause CBC to accept a reduction in the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger, if the Glacier average closing price exceeds $33.72 as described above. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

What will I receive in the merger?

The merger consideration to be received by each shareholder of CBC is a pro rata interest in a pool of merger consideration consisting of 554,229 shares of Glacier common stock and $16,250,000 in cash, the stock and cash portions being subject to adjustment as described above. As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, there were 16,480 shares of CBC common stock outstanding.

Assuming for purposes of illustration only that (i) there is no increase or reduction of the cash portion of the merger consideration, and (ii) the average closing price for Glacier common stock is $26.42 (the closing price for Glacier common stock on August 21, 2015), each share of CBC common stock would receive a total value equal to $1,874.56, consisting of $986.04 in cash and 33.6304 shares of Glacier common stock.

Generally, the cash/stock mix of merger consideration will be paid as described above that is, $986.04 in cash and 33.6304 shares of Glacier common stock for each share of CBC common stock (based on the closing price for Glacier common stock on August 21, 2015). See The Merger Merger Consideration.

When will the merger occur?

We presently expect to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2015. The merger will occur after the approval of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of CBC common stock, after the merger has received regulatory approval and following the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the merger described in the merger agreement. Glacier and CBC are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible. If the merger does not occur for any reason by February 28, 2016, either Glacier or CBC may unilaterally terminate the merger agreement.

How soon after the merger is completed can I expect to receive my cash or Glacier common stock?

Glacier will work with its exchange agent to distribute consideration payable in the merger as promptly as practicable following the completion of the merger.

Will the shares of Glacier common stock that I receive in the merger be freely transferable?

The Glacier common stock issued in the merger will be transferable free of restrictions under federal and state securities laws.

When and where will the special meeting take place?

CBC will hold a special meeting of its shareholders on Wednesday, October 7, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. local time, at the Hampton Inn, 102 McCormick Parkway, Cañon City, Colorado, 81212.

Table of Contents

Who may vote at the special meeting?

The board of directors of CBC has set Monday, August 24, 2015, as the record date for the special meeting. If you were the owner of CBC common stock at the close of business on Monday, August 24, 2015, you may vote at the special meeting.

What vote is required to approve the merger agreement?

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of CBC's outstanding common stock. As described in this proxy statement, certain of the directors and certain principal shareholders of CBC have agreed to vote the shares they own in favor of the merger agreement. Such persons own approximately 88% of outstanding CBC common stock. See CBC Special Shareholders Meeting and The Merger Voting Agreement.

What vote is required to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate?

The proposal to adjourn the CBC special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger, will be approved if a majority of the shares of CBC common stock present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, are voted in favor of the proposal.

How do I vote?

To vote, please indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote and then sign, date, and mail your proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.

Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If your shares of CBC common stock are held in your own name, you may change your vote as follows:

You may send a written notice to the Secretary of CBC stating that you would like to revoke your proxy and provide new instructions on how to vote;

You may complete and submit a later-dated proxy card; or

You may attend the meeting and vote in person. If you intend to vote in person and your shares of CBC common stock are held by a broker, you should contact your broker for instructions.

If you choose either the first or second method above, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy card to CBC's Secretary prior to the vote at the special meeting.

What happens if I return my proxy but do not indicate how to vote my shares?

If you sign and return your proxy card, but do not provide instructions on how to vote your shares of CBC common stock, your shares of CBC common stock will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Table of Contents

What do I need to do now?

We encourage you to read this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety. Important information is presented in greater detail elsewhere in this document, and documents governing the merger are attached as appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, much of the business and financial information about Glacier that may be important to you is incorporated by reference into this document from documents separately filed by Glacier with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). This means that important disclosure obligations to you are satisfied by referring you to one or more documents separately filed with the SEC.

Following review of this proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign, and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares of CBC common stock can be voted at CBC's special meeting of shareholders.

Should I send in my common stock certificates now?

No. Please do not send your CBC common stock certificates with your proxy card. You will receive written instructions from Glacier's exchange agent shortly before the closing of the merger on how to exchange your CBC common stock certificates for the merger consideration.

What risks should I consider?

You should review carefully our discussion under Risk Factors. You should also review the factors considered by the CBC board of directors in approving the merger agreement. See Background of and Reasons for the Merger.

What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

Glacier and CBC expect to report the merger of CBC with and into Glacier, and the contemporaneous merger of Cañon National Bank with and into Glacier Bank, as tax-free reorganizations for United States federal income tax purposes under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code). In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, Garlington, Lohn & Robinson PLLP, special tax counsel to Glacier, has delivered an opinion to Glacier that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a).

In a tax-free reorganization, a shareholder who exchanges his or her shares of common stock in an acquired company for shares of common stock in an acquiring company, plus cash, must generally recognize gain (but not loss) on the exchange in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the fair market value of the shares of acquiring company common stock (including any fractional shares) and cash received pursuant to the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) over the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of acquired company common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger), or (2) the amount of cash (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) received pursuant to the merger.

For a detailed discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger, see The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Table of Contents

We urge you to consult your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you. Tax matters are very complicated and in many cases tax consequences of the merger will depend on your particular facts and circumstances.

What do I do if I do not agree with the merger? Do I have appraisal or dissenter's rights?

If you are a CBC shareholder and you do not agree with the merger, vote against the merger agreement, and take certain other actions required by Colorado law, you will have dissenter's rights under the Colorado Business Corporation Act Sections 7-113-101 through 7-113-302. Exercise of these rights will result in the purchase of your shares of CBC common stock at fair value, as determined in accordance with Colorado law. Please read the section entitled "The Merger - Dissenter's Rights of Appraisal" for additional information.

The Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of CBC with and into Glacier, and immediately thereafter the merger of Cañon National Bank with and into Glacier Bank. In the merger, your shares of CBC common stock, if you do not dissent, will be exchanged for a combination of shares of Glacier common stock and cash. After the merger, you will no longer own shares of CBC. For additional information, see "The Merger."

The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement in its entirety.

In the merger, Glacier will issue shares of its common stock and pay cash for all shares of CBC common stock outstanding as of the date of the closing of the merger.

The total merger consideration that Glacier will pay for the shares of CBC common stock will be as follows:

Stock Portion: Glacier will issue a total of 554,229 shares of its common stock, subject to adjustment in the event that the average closing price for Glacier common stock prior to closing, calculated in accordance with the merger agreement, is less than $24.92 or more than $33.72. Assuming that the number of currently outstanding shares of CBC (16,480) does not change prior to the closing of the merger, and assuming that the average closing price of Glacier common stock is $26.42 (based on the per share closing price of Glacier common stock on August 21, 2015), CBC shareholders would receive 33.6304 shares of Glacier common stock for each share of CBC common stock. However, Glacier will not issue fractional shares, and will pay cash in lieu of such fractional shares, as described under "The Merger - Fractional Shares."

Cash Portion: Glacier will pay $16,250,000 in cash, subject to reduction, by the amount (if any) by which the CBC Closing Capital is less than $21,000,000. The CBC Closing Capital is specifically defined in the merger agreement and is equal to an amount, as of the closing date of the merger, equal to CBC's capital stock, surplus and retained earnings determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) on a consolidated basis, and calculated in the same manner in which CBC's consolidated tangible equity capital at May 31, 2015 was calculated, after giving effect to adjustments, calculated in accordance with GAAP, for accumulated other comprehensive income or loss as reported in CBC's or Cañon National Bank's balance sheet. Assuming there is no reduction in the cash portion of the merger consideration, CBC shareholders will receive $986.04 in cash for each share of CBC common stock.

The actual total amount of cash to be paid cannot be determined until shortly before the effective date of the merger. Accordingly, the actual amount of cash that you will receive for each of your shares of CBC common stock, if you do not dissent, will not be determined until shortly before the closing of the merger. See "The Merger - Merger Consideration."

Table of Contents

If the CBC Closing Capital is greater than $21,000,000, CBC will, upon written notice to Glacier and effective immediately prior to the closing of the merger, declare and pay a special dividend in the amount of such excess.

Recommendation of CBC Board of Directors

CBC's board of directors recommends that holders of CBC common stock vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

For further discussion of CBC's reasons for the merger and the recommendations of CBC's board of directors, see Background of and Reasons for the Merger Recommendation of the CBC Board.

Opinion of CBC's Financial Advisor

FIG Partners LLC (FIG) has served as financial advisor to CBC in connection with the merger and has given an opinion to CBC's board of directors that, as of July 29, 2015, the consideration that CBC's shareholders will receive for their shares of CBC common stock in the merger is fair, from a financial point of view, to CBC shareholders.

A copy of the opinion delivered by FIG is attached to this document as Appendix C. You should read the opinion carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by FIG in providing its opinion.

The opinion is addressed to CBC's board of directors and is directed only to the fairness of the per share consideration to the holders of CBC's common stock from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of CBC to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation as to how any CBC shareholder should vote with respect to the merger.

CBC also engaged Keefe Bruyette & Woods for advisory services related to the merger.

For further information, see Background of and Reasons for the Merger Opinion of Financial Advisor to CBC.

Interests of CBC Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When you consider the unanimous recommendation of CBC's board of directors that CBC's shareholders approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that certain members of CBC management have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as CBC shareholders. These interests arise out of, among other things, voting and non-competition agreements entered into by directors of Cañon National Bank; an employment agreement with Mr. William Faris, President of Cañon National Bank and a director of CBC, that will be effective upon the closing of the merger; change in control benefits payable to Mr. William Faris and Mr. James Hawkins in accordance with existing employment agreements with Cañon National Bank; and provisions in the merger agreement relating to indemnification of CBC directors. For a description of the interests of CBC's directors and executive officers in the merger, see The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

The CBC board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in its decision to approve the merger agreement.

CBC Shareholders Dissenters Rights

Under Colorado law, CBC shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and receive cash for the fair value of their shares of CBC common stock. A shareholder electing to dissent must strictly comply with all the procedures required by the Colorado statutes. These procedures are described later in this document, and a copy of the relevant statutory provisions is attached as Appendix B. For more information on dissenters rights, see The Merger Dissenters Rights of Appraisal.

Regulatory Matters

Each of Glacier and CBC has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required by the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the State of Colorado Division of Banking and the Commissioner of the Montana Division of Banking and Financial Institutions. Applications have been filed with these regulatory bodies seeking such approvals. We expect to obtain all such regulatory approvals, although we cannot be certain if or when we will obtain them. See The Merger Regulatory Requirements.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Currently, Glacier and CBC expect to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2015. As more fully described in this proxy statement and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. Neither Glacier nor CBC can provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived. See The Merger Conditions to the Merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement provides that either Glacier or CBC may terminate the merger either before or after the CBC special meeting, under certain circumstances. Among other things, the merger agreement provides that Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if the average trading price of its common stock, determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is above a specified price, unless CBC agrees to accept a reduced number of shares of Glacier common stock, and that CBC may terminate the merger agreement if the average trading price of Glacier stock is below a specified price, unless Glacier agrees to increase the number of its shares of common stock to be issued to CBC shareholders. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fees

If either party terminates the merger agreement due to specified breaches of the merger agreement by the other party, the breaching party will be required to pay the non-breaching party a termination fee of $300,000. See The Merger Termination Fees.

Break-Up Fee

The merger agreement provides that CBC must pay Glacier a break-up fee of $1,625,000, if the merger agreement is terminated due to the failure of the board of directors of CBC to recommend approval of the merger agreement by its shareholders, or is terminated due to the receipt of a superior acquisition proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, which is acted upon by CBC. It should be noted, however, that the failure of CBC's shareholders to approve the merger agreement would not in and of itself trigger the obligation to pay the break-up fee, unless one of the foregoing factors also exists.

Table of Contents

CBC agreed to pay the break-up fee under the circumstances described above in order to induce Glacier to enter into the merger agreement. This arrangement could have the effect of discouraging other companies from trying to acquire CBC. See The Merger Break-up Fee.

CBC Shareholders Rights After the Merger

The rights of CBC shareholders are governed by Colorado law, as well as by CBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws. After completion of the merger, the rights of the former CBC shareholders receiving Glacier common stock in the merger will be governed by Montana law, and by Glacier's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Although Glacier's articles of incorporation and bylaws are similar in many ways to CBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws, there are some substantive and procedural differences that will affect the rights of CBC shareholders. See Comparison of Certain Rights of Holders of Glacier and CBC Common Stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including the matters addressed under the caption Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements, you should consider the matters described below carefully in determining whether to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Risks Associated with the Proposed Merger

Because the market price of the Glacier common stock may fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of the shares of Glacier common stock that you will receive.

Although the number of shares of Glacier common stock that will constitute the stock portion of the merger consideration that will be exchanged for a share of CBC common stock is fixed, at the time of the CBC special shareholder meeting, and prior to the closing of the merger, you will not be able to determine the value of the Glacier common stock that you would receive upon completion of the merger. Any change in the market price of Glacier common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the value of the merger consideration that CBC shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger. Common stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including but not limited to general market and economic conditions, changes in Glacier's business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond the control of Glacier or CBC. You should obtain current market prices for Glacier common stock.

The merger agreement provides that the number of shares of Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger may be decreased or increased, as the case may be, if the average trading price of Glacier common stock, determined pursuant to the merger agreement, is greater than or less than specified prices. The CBC board of directors would make the decision, without resoliciting the vote of CBC shareholders, to either terminate the merger agreement or accept a decrease in the number of Glacier shares to be issued if Glacier's average trading price is greater than a specified price. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement.

The merger agreement limits CBC's ability to pursue other transactions and provides for the payment of a break-up fee if CBC does so.

While the merger agreement is in effect, subject to very narrow exceptions, CBC and its directors, officers and agents are prohibited from initiating or encouraging inquiries with respect to alternative acquisition proposals. The prohibition limits CBC's ability to seek offers that may be superior from a financial point of view from other possible acquirers. If CBC receives an unsolicited proposal from a third party that is superior from a financial point of view to that made by Glacier and the merger agreement is terminated, CBC may be required to pay a $1,625,000 break-up fee. This fee makes it less likely that a third party will make an alternative acquisition proposal. See The Merger Break-Up Fee.

Under certain conditions, the merger agreement requires CBC to pay a termination fee.

Under certain circumstances (generally involving CBC's breach of its representations and covenants in the merger agreement), Glacier can terminate the merger agreement and require CBC to pay a termination fee of $300,000. See The Merger Termination Fees.

Table of Contents

Combining our two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than we expect.

Glacier and CBC have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. Although Glacier has successfully completed a number of mergers in the recent past, it is possible that the integration of Cañon National Bank into Glacier Bank could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of the ongoing business of Cañon National Bank or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. As with any merger of banking institutions, there also may be disruptions that cause us to lose customers or cause customers to take their deposits out of Cañon National Bank.

Unanticipated costs relating to the merger could reduce Glacier's future earnings per share.

Glacier believes that it has reasonably estimated the likely costs of integrating the operations of Cañon National Bank into Glacier Bank, and the incremental costs of operating as a combined financial institution. However, it is possible that unexpected transaction costs or future operating expenses, as well as other types of unanticipated adverse developments, could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of Glacier after the merger. If the merger is completed and unexpected costs are incurred, the merger could have a dilutive effect on Glacier's earnings per share, meaning earnings per share could be less than if the merger had not been completed.

Glacier has various anti-takeover measures that could impede a takeover.

Glacier has various anti-takeover measures in place, which are described elsewhere in this document. Any one or more of these measures may impede the takeover of Glacier without the approval of the Glacier board of directors and may prevent you from taking part in a transaction in which you could realize a premium over the current market price of Glacier common stock. See Comparison of Certain Rights of Holders of Glacier and CBC Common Stock.

Risks Associated with Glacier's Business

Glacier is, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in Glacier's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, as updated by Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2015 and June 30, 2015 and subsequent Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See Documents Incorporated by Reference and Where You Can Find More Information About Glacier included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document, including information included or incorporated by reference in this document may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the merger, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhancements to revenue and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) statements about our respective plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, seeks, estimates, or words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements are based on current beliefs and expectations of management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond Glacier's and CBC's control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations in the forward-looking statements:

the merger may not close when expected or at all because required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals and other conditions to closing are not received on a timely basis or at all;

Glacier's stock price could change before closing of the merger, due to among other things stock market movements and the performance of financial companies and peer group companies, over which Glacier has no control;

benefits from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, including as a result of changes in general economic and market conditions, interest and exchange rates, monetary policy, laws and regulations and their enforcement, and the degree competition in the geographic and business areas in which Glacier and CBC operate;

CBC's business may not be integrated into Glacier's successfully, or such integration may take longer to accomplish than expected; the anticipated growth opportunities and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse developments in relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; and management time and effort may be diverted to the resolution of merger-related issues.

Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Glacier's reports filed with the SEC.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to Glacier or CBC or any person acting on behalf of Glacier or CBC are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Neither Glacier nor CBC undertakes any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to the results presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP), the table above contains certain non-GAAP financial measures. Glacier believes that providing these non-GAAP financial measures provides investors with information useful in understanding Glacier s financial performance, performance trends, and financial position. While Glacier uses these non-GAAP measures in its analysis of Glacier s performance, this information should not be considered an alternative to measurements required by GAAP.

(Dollars in thousands, except per share data)	Year ended December 31, 2011

The reconciling item between the GAAP and non-GAAP financial measures was the third quarter of 2011 goodwill impairment charge (net of tax) of $32.6 million.

The goodwill impairment charge was $40.2 million with a tax benefit of $7.6 million which resulted in a goodwill impairment charge (net of tax) of $32.6 million. The tax benefit applied only to the $19.4 million of goodwill associated with taxable acquisitions and was determined based on Glacier's marginal income tax rate of 38.9%.

Table of Contents

The basic and diluted earnings per share reconciling items were determined based on the goodwill impairment charge (net of tax) divided by the weighted average diluted shares of 71,915,073.

The goodwill impairment charge (net of tax) was included in determining earnings for both the GAAP return on average assets and GAAP return on average equity. The average assets used in the GAAP and non-GAAP return on average assets ratios were $6.9 billion and $6.9 billion, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2011. The average equity used in the GAAP and non-GAAP return on average equity ratios were $858 million and $866 million, respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2011.

The dividend payout ratio is calculated by dividing dividends declared per share by basic earnings per share. The non-GAAP dividend payout ratio uses the non-GAAP basic earnings per share for calculating the ratio.

CBC Common Stock

Presently, no active trading market exists for shares of CBC common stock and the CBC common stock is not listed for trading on a national or regional securities exchange or a quotation system. It is unlikely that a market will develop in the foreseeable future for CBC common stock. CBC acts as its own transfer agent and registrar.

CBC SPECIAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

Date, Time, Place

The CBC special meeting of shareholders will be held on Wednesday, October 7, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. local time, at the Hampton Inn, 102 McCormick Parkway, Cañon City, Colorado, 81212.

As described below under Vote Required and Quorum, approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of CBC's outstanding common stock. The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies, requires the approval of a majority of CBC common stock present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy.

Purpose

At the special meeting, CBC shareholders will:

Consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Plan and Agreement of Merger, dated as of July 30, 2015, among Glacier, Glacier Bank, CBC and Cañon National Bank, under the terms of which CBC will merge with and into Glacier. The merger agreement is attached as Appendix A.

Approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger agreement.

Record Date; Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote

The CBC board of directors has fixed 5:00 p.m. on Monday, August 24, 2015 as the record date for determining the holders of shares of CBC common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were 16,480 shares of CBC common stock issued and outstanding and held by approximately 42 holders of record. Holders of record of CBC common stock on the record date are entitled to one vote per share and are also entitled to exercise dissenters' rights if certain procedures are followed. See The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal and Appendix B.

Certain of the directors and certain principal shareholders of CBC have agreed to vote all shares of CBC common stock held or controlled by them in favor of approval of the merger agreement. A total of 14,439 outstanding shares of CBC common stock, or approximately 88% of the outstanding shares of CBC common stock, are covered by the voting agreements. See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger Voting Agreement.

Vote Required and Quorum

The affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of CBC's outstanding common stock is required to approve the merger agreement. At least a majority of the total outstanding shares of CBC common stock must be present, either in person or by proxy, in order to constitute a quorum for the special meeting. For purposes of determining a quorum, abstentions and broker nonvotes

(that is, proxies from brokers or nominees, indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owners or other persons entitled to vote shares as to a matter with respect to which the broker or nominees do not have discretionary power to vote) are counted in determining the shares present at a meeting.

For voting purposes, however, only shares actually voted for the approval of the merger agreement, and neither abstentions nor broker nonvotes, will be counted as favorable votes in determining whether the merger agreement is approved by the holders of CBC common stock. As a result, abstentions and broker nonvotes will have the same effect as votes against approval of the merger agreement.

The proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger agreement, will be approved by a majority of the votes present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting, assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting. If less than a quorum is represented at the special meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the special meeting for a period not to exceed 60 days at any one adjournment.

Voting, Solicitation, and Revocation of Proxies

If the enclosed proxy card is duly executed and received in time for the special meeting, it will be voted in accordance with the instructions given. If the proxy card is duly executed and received but no instruction is given, it is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote the shares represented by the proxy for the approval of the merger agreement and in the proxy holder's discretion on any other matter properly coming before the meeting. Any proxy given by a shareholder may be revoked before its exercise by:

 sending written notice to the Secretary of CBC;

 completing and submitting a later-dated proxy; or attending and voting at the special meeting in person.

CBC is soliciting the proxy for the special meeting on behalf of the CBC board of directors. CBC will bear the cost of solicitation of proxies from its shareholders. In addition to using the mail, CBC may solicit proxies by personal interview, telephone, and facsimile. Banks, brokerage houses, other institutions, nominees, and fiduciaries will be requested to forward their proxy soliciting material to their principals and obtain authorization for the execution of proxies. CBC does not expect to pay any compensation for the solicitation of proxies. However, CBC will, upon request, pay the standard charges and expenses of banks, brokerage houses, other institutions, nominees, and fiduciaries for forwarding proxy materials to and obtaining proxies from their principals.

BACKGROUND OF AND REASONS FOR THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, the board of directors of CBC discussed and considered strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value and achieve future shareholder liquidity. Through Keefe, Bruyette & Woods (KBW), the board of directors of CBC identified Glacier, among other entities, as an attractive future merger partner in view of Glacier's successful track record with other acquisitions, its emphasis on locally managed community banking, its existing presence in Colorado, and its strong financial performance.

In March 2015, KBW contacted Glacier's investment banking advisor, D.A. Davidson & Co. (Davidson) on CBC's behalf to inquire whether Glacier would have an interest in exploring a possible combination with CBC. After some preliminary discussions, Glacier expressed an interest to learn more about CBC. On March 26, 2015, CBC signed a non-disclosure agreement with Glacier for the confidential exchange of nonpublic information in connection with a possible transaction. Thereafter, Davidson delivered a due diligence request list identifying the financial and operational information that Glacier would require in order to submit a preliminary proposal.

From March 31 to May 27, 2015, CBC provided Glacier with supplemental information regarding the financial aspects of its business, its markets and its operations. On April 29, 2015, representatives from Davidson made a presentation to the board of directors of Glacier regarding CBC's financial performance, information on the markets it operates in and what impact a transaction could have on Glacier's operating results. On May 11, 2015, CBC engaged KBW to provide advisory services to CBC in its discussions with Glacier. KBW and CBC agreed that if Glacier delivered terms acceptable to the board of directors of CBC, CBC would negotiate exclusively with Glacier and not negotiate with any other parties or pursue other alternatives. On May 13, 2015, Daniel Tanner, Chairman and President of CBC and William Faris, a member of the board of directors of CBC, met with Michael Blodnick, President and CEO of Glacier, in Denver, Colorado at the offices of CBC's legal counsel to become acquainted and to discuss each organization's approach to community banking and to share financial and operational information.

On June 10, 2015, following consultation between Mr. Blodnick and members of the Glacier board of directors, Glacier delivered a nonbinding term sheet setting forth the proposed terms of the merger, including the principal financial terms. The board of directors of CBC and its financial advisors met on June 15, 2015 to review the proposal. The parties and their legal counsel and financial advisors further negotiated several aspects of the term sheet, and on June 16, 2015, Mr. Blodnick and Mr. Tanner signed the term sheet.

Between June 16 and July 30, 2015, Glacier, CBC and their respective legal counsel and financial advisors conducted appropriate due diligence and drafted and negotiated the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements. Glacier's due diligence review included an extensive loan due diligence review conducted by DLS Consulting and supported by Glacier's Chief Credit Officer. Mr. Blodnick, along with a representative from Davidson, was accompanied on a diligence trip by Mr. Faris to review the branches of CBC and the markets it operates in on July 8 and 9, 2015. Mr. Blodnick, along with a representative from Davidson, met with Mr. Faris, Mr. Tanner and Mr. Darryn Biggerstaff, a member of the board of directors of CBC and Cañon National Bank, in Cañon City, Colorado to discuss the transaction.

CBC engaged FIG Partners LLC (FIG), which did not advise on the transaction, on July 21, 2015 to provide its board of directors an opinion as to the fairness of the acquisition from a financial point of view to CBC shareholders.

On July 29, 2015, the boards of directors of CBC and Cañon National Bank, together with their legal counsel and representatives of KBW and FIG, met to consider the merger agreement. FIG presented its analysis and opinion as to the fairness of the merger, from a financial point of view to CBC shareholders. Among other matters considered, the boards of directors of CBC and Cañon National Bank reviewed the specific terms of the merger agreement, the form and value of the consideration to be received by CBC shareholders, the price and historical performance of Glacier common stock, current market conditions including comparable bank merger and acquisition transactions, and the implications of the merger to Cañon National Bank's employees, customers, and communities. After due consideration of these and other matters, and taking into consideration the fairness opinion delivered by FIG, the boards of directors of CBC and Cañon National Bank approved entering into the merger agreement. One member of the board of directors of CBC, Ernest J. Panasci, abstained from voting to approve the merger agreement, for the stated reason that Mr. Panasci's law firm, Stinson Leonard Street LLP, is acting as legal counsel to CBC and Cañon National Bank in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

On July 29, 2015, the board of directors of Glacier, together with its legal counsel and representatives of Davidson, met to consider approval of the merger agreement. Davidson presented updated pro forma financial analyses and Glacier's legal counsel presented a review of the key terms of the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements. Among other matters discussed, the board of directors and Glacier's advisors discussed the results of due diligence reviews, the terms of the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements, key pricing metrics, the pro forma financial impact of the merger to Glacier's shareholders, risks of the merger, and the timing and process for consummation of the merger, including the results of preliminary discussions with bank regulators. After due consideration of these and other matters, the board of directors of Glacier unanimously approved the merger agreement.

On July 30, 2015, the parties executed the merger agreement and related ancillary agreements. After the close of business on July 30, 2015, the parties issued a joint press release announcing the merger.

Reasons For The Merger - CBC

At the board meeting held on July 29, 2015, the CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors determined that the terms of the merger agreement were in the best interests of CBC and its shareholders. In the course of reaching the decision to approve the merger agreement, the CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors consulted with FIG Partners LLC, their financial advisor, and Stinson Leonard Street LLP, their legal counsel. In reaching their determination, the CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors considered a number of factors. Such factors also constituted the reasons that the boards of directors determined to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that CBC shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement. Such reasons included the following:

the terms of the merger agreement and the value, form and mix of consideration to be received by CBC shareholders in the merger;

Table of Contents

the historical trading ranges for Glacier common stock;

the historic and prospective business of Cañon National Bank;

the likely impact of the merger on the employees and customers of Cañon National Bank;

the future employment opportunities for the existing employees of Cañon National Bank;

information concerning Glacier's financial condition and results of operations as well as the likelihood that Glacier would be able to obtain regulatory approval for the merger;

the opinion of FIG Partners LLC that the merger consideration to be received by CBC shareholders in the merger is fair from a financial point of view;

the expectation that CBC shareholders would have the opportunity to continue to participate in the growth of the combined company and would also benefit from the significantly greater liquidity of the trading market for Glacier common stock;

that Glacier has historically paid cash dividends on its common stock;

the fact that Glacier's common stock is widely held and has an active trading market; whereas CBC's stock is illiquid and is not publicly traded;

the provisions in the merger agreement that provide for the ability of the CBC board of directors to respond to an unsolicited acquisition proposal that the board of directors determines in good faith is a superior proposal as defined in the merger agreement;

the provisions of the merger agreement that provide for the ability of the CBC board of directors to terminate the merger agreement, subject to certain conditions including the payment of a break-up fee, if CBC has entered into a letter of intent or other agreement with respect to a superior proposal; and the likelihood of the merger being approved by applicable regulatory authorities without undue conditions or delay.

The CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors also considered a number of uncertainties and risks in its deliberations concerning the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the following:

that a portion of the merger consideration will be paid through the issuance of a fixed number of shares of Glacier common stock and any decrease in the market price of Glacier common stock will result in a reduction in the aggregate merger consideration to be received by CBC shareholders at the time of completion of the merger subject to the adjustment procedures described under The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement ;

that CBC shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the actual value of the merger consideration which they would receive upon completion of the merger;

Table of Contents

the possible disruption to CBC's business that may result from the announcement of the merger and the resulting distraction of management's attention from the day-to-day operations of CBC's business; and the restrictions contained in the merger agreement on the operation of CBC's business during the period between signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger, as well as the other covenants and agreements of CBC contained in the merger agreement.

The foregoing discussion of the reasons that led the CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors to approve the merger agreement and recommend that CBC's shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include all of the material reasons for the board of directors' decision. In reaching their determination to approve and recommend the transaction, the CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors based their recommendation on the totality of the information presented to it and did not assign any relative or specific weights to the reasons considered in reaching that determination. Individual directors may have given differing weights to different reasons. After deliberating with respect to the merger with Glacier, considering, among other things, the matters discussed above and the opinion of FIG Partners LLC referred to above, the CBC and Cañon National Bank boards of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger with Glacier as being in the best interests of CBC and its shareholders.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to CBC

FIG Partners LLC (FIG) has delivered to the board of directors of CBC its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated July 29, 2015, the total merger consideration to be paid to the shareholders of CBC is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting FIG's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by CBC upon FIG with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of FIG, dated July 29, 2015, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix C. CBC shareholders should read this opinion in its entirety.

FIG is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, it values financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, FIG has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. CBC's board of directors selected FIG to render a fairness opinion in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

FIG will receive a fee from CBC of $75,000 for rendering a written opinion to the board of directors of CBC as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger to CBC's shareholders, which is not contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Further, CBC has agreed to indemnify FIG against any claims or liabilities arising out of FIG's engagement by CBC. FIG has not received fees from CBC for any other services performed during the two years preceding the date of this opinion. In addition, FIG has not had a material relationship with any party to the merger for which it has received compensation during the prior two years.

FIG's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total merger consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any CBC shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the special meeting of CBC shareholders. The summary of the opinion of FIG set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

Table of Contents

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by FIG in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the board of directors of CBC by FIG. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by FIG in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by FIG to the board of directors of CBC, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by FIG.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, FIG did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis and factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. FIG may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses. Accordingly, FIG believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the Board of Directors of CBC and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, FIG made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of CBC. The analyses performed by FIG are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of FIG's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to CBC shareholders. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. FIG's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which CBC might engage. In addition, as described above, FIG's opinion to the board of directors of CBC was one of many factors taken into consideration by the board of directors of the Company in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, FIG reviewed and analyzed material bearing upon the financial and operating conditions of CBC and Glacier and material prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the merger agreement;

certain historical publicly available business and financial information of CBC and Glacier including, among other things, quarterly and annual reports filed by the parties with the FDIC and Federal Reserve Board;

filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Glacier; certain financial projections prepared by management of CBC;

the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that FIG considered relevant; and such other analyses and considered such other factors as FIG deemed appropriate.

Table of Contents

FIG also had discussions with members of senior management of CBC and Glacier for purposes of reviewing the future prospects of CBC and Glacier, including information related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings and revenue enhancements expected to be achieved as a result of the merger. FIG also took into account its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering its opinion, FIG assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the publicly and non-publicly available financial and other information furnished to FIG by CBC and Glacier and relied upon the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties contained in the merger agreement. FIG also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with FIG by CBC and Glacier were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of CBC and Glacier as to the future financial performance of the Company. FIG has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of CBC or Glacier.

FIG calculated the medians and averages of the following relevant transaction ratios in the Comparable Transactions National and Comparable Transactions Regional: the percentage of the offer value to the acquired company's total assets; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's stated book value; the multiple of the offer value to the acquired company's tangible book value; and the tangible book value premium to core deposits. FIG compared these multiples with the corresponding multiples for the pending merger based on Glacier's closing price of $29.39 per share as of July 24, 2015, valuing the consideration for the common stock at $16.3 million, or $988.41 per share. The total consideration that would be received pursuant to the merger agreement is valued at approximately $32.5 million, or $1,974.44 per CBC diluted share. In calculating the multiples for the merger, FIG used CBC's tangible book value per share, LTM earnings, total assets, and total core deposits as of June 30, 2015. The results of this analysis are as follows:

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

FIG estimated the present value of all shares of CBC common stock by estimating the value of CBC's estimated future earnings stream beginning in 2015. Reflecting internal projections and FIG estimates based upon discussions with CBC, FIG assumed net income in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 of $2.011 million, $2.495 million, $2.573 million, $2.702 million, and $2.837 million, respectively. The present value of these earnings was calculated based on a range of discount rates of 14.0%, 15.0%, and 16.0%, respectively. In order to derive the terminal value of CBC's earnings stream beyond 2019, FIG performed two separate analyses: 1) an acquisition in 2019 at 18.0 times estimated earnings in the terminal year; and 2) an acquisition in 2019 at 1.50 times estimated tangible book value in the terminal year. The present value of these terminal amounts was then calculated based on the range of discount rates mentioned above. These rates and values were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of CBC's common stock. The two analyses and the underlying assumptions yielded a range of value for all shares of CBC's stock of approximately 1) $1,360.84 per share to $1,847.54 per share, and 2) $1,376.79 per share to $1,946.99 per share, compared to the merger consideration of $1,974.44 per share.

Franchise Valuation

FIG calculated the franchise value of CBC based on the composition of its June 30, 2015 balance sheet. To reach this valuation, Tier 1 Common Capital was added to the Deposit Premium less the Total Credit Mark. In the case of a sale, FIG estimated the potential mark on the loan portfolio to be 2.0% ($3.181 million) and on OREO to be 30.0% ($0.292 million), while adding back reserves of $3.114 million. The tax benefit, using a rate of 35.0%, equals $0.126 million to bring the Total Credit Mark to $0.233 million. The Deposit Premium was calculated by assigning a premium to each account type based on the value each may have to a potential acquirer. The premiums are 0% for certificates of deposit, 4% for savings and money market accounts, 6% for NOW accounts, and 8% for noninterest bearing deposits. This equates to a total deposit premium between 3.0% and 5.0% with a median of 4.55%. Our analysis indicated a median franchise value of $31.444 million, equivalent to $1,908.04 per share, with a range of $1,422.26 to $1,969.15, compared to the merger consideration of $1,974.44 per share.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, FIG determined that the merger consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to CBC shareholders.

Recommendation of the CBC Board of Directors

The board of directors of CBC has unanimously concluded that the proposed merger as described in the merger agreement is in the best interest of CBC and its shareholders. After carefully considering the proposed merger, the board of directors unanimously recommends that the shareholders of CBC vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

THE MERGER

The following is a brief description of the material aspects of the merger. There are other aspects of the merger that are not discussed below but that are contained in the merger agreement. You are being asked to approve the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, and you are urged to read the merger agreement carefully. The merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

Basic Terms of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of CBC with and into Glacier, and immediately thereafter the merger of Cañon National Bank with and into Glacier Bank, Glacier's wholly-owned subsidiary. Following the merger, Cañon National Bank will operate under the name and as part of Bank of the San Juans, a division of Glacier Bank.

In the merger, CBC shareholders will receive a combination of Glacier common stock and cash for their CBC common stock, as described below. See Merger Consideration.

While Glacier and CBC believe that they will receive the necessary regulatory approvals for the merger, there can be no assurance that such approvals will be received or, if received, as to the timing of such approvals or as to the ability to obtain such approvals on satisfactory terms. See Conditions to the Merger and Regulatory Requirements.

Merger Consideration

The merger agreement provides that as of the effective date of the merger, each share of CBC common stock will be converted into the right to receive an amount of merger consideration consisting of a combination of Glacier common stock and cash, as described below.

The stock and cash portions of the total merger consideration will be determined in the following manner:

Stock Portion of Merger Consideration

The total stock consideration payable by Glacier is fixed at 554,229 shares of Glacier common stock. The total stock consideration may be adjusted under certain circumstances if the average trading price of Glacier common stock immediately prior to the closing of the merger is above or below specified prices, as described below under Termination of the Merger Agreement. Based on the closing price of Glacier common stock on August 21, 2015, and assuming that the average closing price prior to the closing of the merger, calculated in accordance with the merger agreement, is above $24.92, the number of shares of common stock that Glacier would be required to issue in the merger would be 554,229. See Questions and Answers What will CBC shareholders receive in the merger?

Cash Portion of Merger Consideration

The total cash consideration payable by Glacier is $16,250,000. This amount is subject to reduction, on a dollar for dollar basis, by the amount (if any) by which the CBC Closing Capital is less than $21,000,000.

Table of Contents

The CBC Closing Capital is specifically defined in the merger agreement and is equal to an amount, as of the closing date of the merger, equal to CBC's capital stock, surplus and retained earnings determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) on a consolidated basis, and calculated in the same manner in which CBC's consolidated tangible equity capital at May 31, 2015 was calculated, after giving effect to adjustments, calculated in accordance with GAAP, for accumulated other comprehensive income or loss as reported in CBC's or Cañon National Bank's balance sheet.

If the CBC Closing Capital exceeds $21,000,000, CBC will, upon written notice to Glacier and effective immediately prior to the closing of the merger, declare and pay a special dividend in the amount of such excess.

The total cash consideration is also subject to reduction to take into account any proposed dissenting shares (shares of CBC common stock as to which shareholders have properly given notice of their intent to assert appraisal rights under Colorado law).

The value of the consideration (in a combination of Glacier common stock and cash) that a CBC shareholder will receive for each share of CBC common stock is the sum of (i) the per-share cash consideration and (ii) the per-share stock consideration. The per-share cash consideration is the amount obtained by dividing the $16,250,000 total cash consideration (subject to adjustment as described above) by the number of shares of CBC common stock outstanding on the effective date of the merger. The per-share stock consideration is the number of shares of Glacier common stock determined by dividing 554,229 (increased or decreased by the adjustments described under Termination of the Merger Agreement below, if the trading price of Glacier common stock immediately prior to the closing of the merger is above or below specified prices) by the number of shares of CBC common stock outstanding on the effective date of the merger.

Assuming for purposes of illustration only that (i) there is no increase or reduction of the cash portion of the merger consideration, and (ii) the average closing price of Glacier common stock immediately prior to the closing of the merger is $26.42 (the closing price for Glacier common stock on August 21, 2015), each share of CBC common stock would receive a value equal to $1,874.56, consisting of $986.04 in cash and 33.6304 shares of Glacier common stock.

Fractional Shares

No fractional shares of Glacier common stock will be issued to any holder of CBC common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued, Glacier will pay cash in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the Glacier average closing price calculated as provided in the merger agreement. No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Glacier common stock.

Effective Date of the Merger

Subject to the conditions to the obligations of the parties to complete the merger as set forth in the merger agreement, the effective date of the merger will occur as soon as practicable after such conditions have been satisfied or waived. Subject to the foregoing, it is currently anticipated that the merger will be consummated during the fourth quarter of 2015. Either Glacier or CBC may terminate the merger agreement if the effective date does not occur on or before February 28, 2016.

Table of Contents

Letter of Transmittal

Within ten business days prior to the closing of the merger, Glacier's exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal to each holder of record of CBC common stock. This mailing will contain instructions on how to surrender shares of CBC common stock in exchange for the merger consideration that the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement.

The merger agreement provides that on or before the effective date of the merger, CBC shall provide to Glacier copies of all CBC common stock certificates marked as cancelled and all CBC shareholders shall provide properly completed and executed letters of transmittal in order to effect the exchange of their shares of CBC common stock for (i) certificates representing Glacier common stock in payment of the stock portion of the merger consideration; (ii) a check, or at the election of the CBC shareholder, a wire transfer (but only if the amount of cash included in such shareholder's merger consideration exceeds $100,000) in payment of the cash portion of the merger consideration; and/or (iii) a check representing the amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any.

If a certificate for CBC common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the merger agreement upon receipt of appropriate evidence as to that loss, theft or destruction, appropriate evidence as to the ownership of that certificate by the claimant, and reasonable assurances, such as a bond or indemnity, satisfactory to Glacier in consultation with CBC, and appropriate and customary identification.

Voting Agreement

Certain of the directors and certain principal shareholders of CBC have entered into voting agreements, dated as of July 30, 2015. In the voting agreements, each signing party agrees, among other things, to vote the shares of CBC common stock that he, she or it owns or controls in favor of the merger agreement. The parties who have entered into these voting agreements are entitled to vote a total of 14,439 outstanding shares of CBC common stock, which is approximately 88% of the total outstanding shares of CBC common stock. Accordingly, shareholder approval of the merger agreement is assured.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

Under the Colorado Business Corporation Act (CBCA), CBC shareholders are entitled to exercise dissenters' rights and to receive the fair value in cash of their shares of CBC common stock if they fully comply with the provisions of the CBCA relating to dissenters' rights, if the merger agreement is approved and the merger is consummated. The following summary of the CBCA provisions with respect to dissenters' rights is qualified in its entirety by reference to those statutes. Shareholders anticipating exercising dissenters' rights with respect to the merger are strongly encouraged to consult their legal counsel and tax, financial or other appropriate advisors.

The CBCA requires that shareholders be accorded dissenters' rights in connection with the proposed merger transaction. A copy of the relevant portions of the CBCA, Sections 7-113-101 through 7-113-302 are included as Appendix B. The following discussion of dissenters' rights is qualified in its entirety by reference to those statutes.

A shareholder may elect to dissent from the proposed merger transaction and, upon consummation of the transaction, to receive the fair value of such shareholder's CBC common stock.

Table of Contents

In order to properly exercise dissenters' rights the shareholder must:

Not vote in favor of the merger agreement; and

Prior to the time of the vote taken by CBC shareholders, notify CBC of the shareholder's intent to exercise dissenters' rights.

Except in certain circumstances specified in the CBCA, a shareholder electing to assert dissenters' rights must generally assert such rights with respect to all shares of CBC common stock beneficially owned by the shareholder. A notice of intent to demand payment under dissenters' rights given to CBC shareholders must be in writing. If a shareholder fails to meet the requirements for assertion of dissenters' rights such shareholder is not entitled to payment for his, her or its shares under the CBCA.

If a shareholder properly asserts dissenters' rights and the proposed merger is consummated, Glacier, as the surviving corporation in the merger, will send each shareholder who has properly exercised dissenters' rights a dissenter's notice, notifying the shareholder of, among other things, the completion of the merger and providing the shareholder instructions for the deposit of certificates representing the dissenter's shares of CBC common stock and supplying a form for demanding payment. A dissenting shareholder failing to timely demand payment or to deposit certificates representing the dissented shares of CBC common stock is not thereafter entitled to receive payment for his, her or its shares under the CBCA.

Glacier, as the surviving corporation in the merger, is required to pay all dissenting CBC shareholders who have properly and timely exercised dissenters' rights, deposited certificates and demanded payment of the fair value for their shares of CBC common stock. The amount of payment is determined by Glacier and made to dissenting shareholders within time frames specified by the CBCA. If a shareholder is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment determined by Glacier, such shareholder may notify Glacier in writing, within 30 days after Glacier made or offered to make payment, of the shareholder's own estimate of the fair value of his, her or its shares of CBC common stock and demand payment for such amount (less any payment made by Glacier). Glacier may, after the receipt of such demand, elect to pay the additional amount demanded or, within 60 days following receipt of such demand, commence a legal proceeding for a determination of the fair value of the shares.

Conditions to the Merger

Consummation of the merger is subject to various conditions. No assurance can be provided as to whether these conditions will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the merger will be completed.

Certain conditions must be satisfied or events must occur before the parties will be obligated to complete the merger. Each party's obligations under the merger agreement are conditioned on satisfaction by the other party of conditions applicable to them. Some of these conditions, applicable to the respective obligations of both Glacier and CBC, are as follows:

approval of the merger agreement by CBC shareholders; accuracy of the other party's representations in the merger agreement and any certificate or other instrument delivered in connection with the merger agreement;

compliance by the other party of all material terms, covenants, and conditions of the merger agreement; that there shall have been no damage, destruction, or loss, or other event or sequence of events, that has had or potentially may have a material adverse effect with respect to the other party;

Table of Contents

that no action or proceeding has been commenced or threatened by any governmental agency to restrain or prohibit or invalidate the merger;

the parties shall have agreed on the amount of the CBC Closing Capital, as defined in the merger agreement; and the registration statement filed with the SEC, required to register the Glacier common stock to be issued to shareholders of CBC, has become effective, and no stop-order suspending such effectiveness has been issued and no proceedings for that purpose have been initiated or threatened by the SEC.

In addition to the above, the obligations of Glacier under the merger agreement are subject to condition that Cañon National Bank's allowance for possible loan and lease losses is adequate to absorb its anticipated loan losses.

Additionally, either Glacier or CBC may terminate the merger if certain conditions applicable to the other party are not satisfied or waived. Those conditions are discussed below under Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Either Glacier or CBC may waive any of the other party's conditions, except those that are required by law (such as receipt of regulatory approvals and CBC shareholder approval). Either Glacier or CBC may also grant extended time to the other party to complete an obligation or condition.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be amended upon authorization of the boards of directors of the parties, whether before or after the special meeting of the shareholders of CBC. To the extent permitted under applicable law, the parties may make any amendment or supplement without further approval of CBC shareholders. However, after shareholder approval, any amendments that would reduce the amount or change the form of the consideration that CBC shareholders will receive in the merger would require further CBC shareholder approval.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement contains several provisions entitling either Glacier or CBC to terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances. The following briefly describes these provisions:

Lapse of Time. If the merger has not been consummated on or before February 28, 2016, then at any time after that date, the board of directors of either Glacier or CBC may terminate the merger agreement and the merger if (i) the terminating party's board of directors decides to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members, and (ii) the terminating party delivers to the other party written notice that its board of directors has voted in favor of termination.

Mutual Consent. The parties may terminate the merger agreement at any time before closing, whether before or after approval by CBC shareholders, by mutual consent if the board of directors of each party agrees to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members.

Table of Contents

Glacier Average Closing Price Greater than $33.72. By specific action of its board of directors, Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if the Glacier average closing price (as defined in the merger agreement) is greater than $33.72.

If Glacier provides written notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement because the Glacier average closing price is greater than $33.72, CBC may elect, within three business days of its receipt of such notice, to accept an adjustment to the total stock consideration through the issuance of fewer Glacier shares; in such event, the total stock consideration will be the number of Glacier shares equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $18,689,000 by the Glacier average closing price. If CBC makes the election to accept such decrease in the number of Glacier shares to be issued, no termination of the merger agreement will occur, and the merger agreement will remain in effect in accordance with its terms, except as the total stock consideration has been adjusted.

Glacier Average Closing Price Less than $24.92. By specific action of its board of directors, CBC may terminate the merger agreement if the Glacier average closing price is less than $24.92.

If CBC provides written notice of its intent to terminate the merger agreement because the Glacier average closing price is less than $24.92, Glacier may elect, within three business days of its receipt of such notice, to adjust the total stock consideration through the issuance of additional Glacier shares so that the total stock consideration issued in the merger is equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $13,811,000 by the Glacier average closing price. If Glacier elects to increase the number of shares to be issued, no termination of the merger agreement will occur, and the merger agreement will remain in effect in accordance with its terms, except as the total stock consideration has been adjusted.

No Regulatory Approvals. Either party may terminate the merger agreement if the regulatory approvals required to be obtained are denied, or if any such approval is conditioned on a substantial deviation from the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, subject to certain rights granted in the merger agreement to appeal the denial of such regulatory approval.

Breach of Representation or Covenant. Either party may terminate the merger agreement (so long as the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement) if there has been a material breach of any covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement by the other party, which is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the closing of the merger.

Failure to Recommend or Obtain Shareholder Approval. Glacier may terminate the merger agreement (so long as it is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement), if (i) the CBC board of directors fails to recommend to its shareholders approval of the merger, or (ii) modifies, withdraws or changes in a manner adverse to Glacier its recommendation to shareholders to approve the merger. Additionally, regardless of whether the CBC board of directors recommends approval of the merger to its shareholders, Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if CBC shareholders elect not to approve the merger agreement.

Impracticability. Either party may terminate the merger agreement upon written notice to the other party if the board of directors of the party seeking termination has determined in its sole judgment, made in good faith and after due consideration and consultation with counsel, that the merger has become inadvisable or impracticable by reason of actions taken by the federal government or the government of the States of Montana or Colorado to restrain or invalidate the merger or the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Superior Proposal Termination by CBC. CBC may terminate the merger agreement if its board of directors determines in good faith that CBC has received a Superior Proposal as defined in the merger agreement. This right is subject to the requirement that CBC may terminate the merger agreement only if CBC (i) has not breached its covenants regarding the initiation or solicitation of acquisition proposals from third parties; and (ii) subsequent to delivering the notice of termination to Glacier, CBC intends to enter into a letter of intent, acquisition agreement or similar agreement relating to such Superior Proposal, (iii) CBC has provided Glacier with at least five days prior written notice that CBC intends to accept a Superior Proposal and has given Glacier, if it so elects, an opportunity to amend the terms of the merger agreement (negotiated in good faith between Glacier and CBC) in such a manner as would enable CBC to proceed with the merger and (iv) simultaneously upon entering into a letter of intent or agreement relating to the Superior Proposal, it delivers to Glacier the break-up fee described below.

Superior Proposal Termination by Glacier. Glacier may terminate the merger agreement if (i) an Acquisition Event (as defined in the merger agreement) has occurred or (ii) a third party has made a proposal to CBC or its shareholders to engage in, or has entered into an agreement with respect to, an Acquisition Event, and the merger agreement and the merger are not approved at the special meeting of CBC shareholders.

Termination Fees

Subject to certain exceptions, CBC will pay Glacier a termination fee of $300,000 if Glacier terminates the merger agreement based on a CBC breach of its representations or breach of its covenants and Glacier will pay CBC a termination fee of $300,000 if CBC terminates the merger agreement based on a Glacier breach of its representations or breach of its covenants.

Break-Up Fee

If the merger agreement is terminated because (i) the CBC board of directors fails to recommend shareholder approval of the merger agreement or modifies, withdraws or changes its recommendation in a manner adverse to Glacier; or (ii) CBC terminates the merger agreement after receiving a Superior Proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) and Glacier declines the opportunity to amend the terms of the merger agreement to enable CBC's board of directors to proceed with the merger; or (iii) Glacier terminates the merger agreement after CBC's receipt of a Superior Proposal followed by an immediate Acquisition Event (as defined in the merger agreement), then CBC will immediately pay Glacier a break-up fee of $1,625,000. If the merger agreement is terminated by Glacier due to CBC's receipt of a proposal to enter into an Acquisition Event and the merger agreement is not approved at the CBC special shareholders meeting, and prior to or within six months after such termination, CBC or Cañon National Bank enters into an agreement, or publicly announces an intention to engage in an Acquisition Event, or within 12 months after such termination an Acquisition Event has occurred, then CBC will promptly pay Glacier the break-up fee of $1,625,000.

Allocation of Costs Upon Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated (except under circumstances that would require the payment of a termination fee or break-up fee) Glacier and CBC will each pay their own out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the transaction and, except for any applicable termination or break-up fees, will have no other liability to the other party.

Conduct Pending the Merger

The merger agreement provides that, until the merger is effective, CBC will conduct its business only in the ordinary and usual course. The merger agreement also provides that, unless Glacier otherwise consents in writing, and except as required by applicable regulatory authorities, CBC will refrain from engaging in various activities such as:

effecting any stock split or other recapitalization with respect to CBC or Cañon National Bank, or pledging or encumbering any shares of CBC or Cañon National Bank stock;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, declaring or paying any dividends, or making any other distributions with respect to shares of CBC or assets of CBC;

acquiring, selling, transferring assigning or encumbering or otherwise disposing of any material assets having a value greater than $100,000, or making any material commitment other than in the ordinary course of business;

soliciting or accepting deposit accounts of a different type from accounts previously accepted by Cañon National Bank or at rates materially in excess of prevailing interest rates, or, other than as permitted by the merger agreement, incurring any indebtedness for borrowed money;

offering or making loans or other extensions of credit of a different type, or applying different underwriting standards, from those previously offered or applied by Cañon National Bank, or offering or making a new loan or extension of credit in an amount greater than $1,000,000 without prior consultation with Glacier, which consultation will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed and which will be deemed provided if Glacier has not responded to such request within 3 business days after Glacier's receipt of a loan package concerning the loan at issue;

making any negative provisions to the ALLL or failing to maintain an adequate reserve for loan and lease losses;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, acquiring an ownership or leasehold interest in real property without conducting an appropriate environmental evaluation and providing specified information and notices to Glacier;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, entering into, renewing, amending or terminating any contracts calling for a payment of more than $25,000, with a term of one year or more;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, entering into or amending any contract calling for a payment of more than $25,000, unless the contract may be terminated without cause or penalty upon 30 days notice or less;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, entering into any personal services contract; selling any securities other than in the ordinary course of business, or selling any securities even in the ordinary course of business if the aggregate gain or loss realized from all sales after the date of execution of the merger agreement would exceed $25,000, or transferring investment securities between portfolios;

other than as permitted by the merger agreement, implementing or adopting any material changes in its operations, policies or procedures;

Table of Contents

other than in accordance with binding existing commitments, making capital expenditures in excess of $25,000 per project or related series of projects or $50,000 in the aggregate; and entering into material transactions or making any material expenditures other than in the ordinary course of business except for expenses reasonably related to the completion of the merger.

Cañon National Bank Management and Operations After the Merger

Immediately following the merger of CBC with and into Glacier, Cañon National Bank will be merged with and into Glacier Bank. It is anticipated that the former Cañon National Bank branches will merge with and operate after the closing as Bank of the San Juans, a division of Glacier Bank, (referred to as the Division) consistent with Glacier s organizational structure.

As described below under Interest of Certain Persons in the Merger, Mr. William Faris, President of Cañon National Bank and a director of CBC, has entered into an employment agreement with Glacier Bank, effective upon closing of the merger, pursuant to which he will serve as Executive Vice President and Regional Market President of Bank of the San Juans, a division of Glacier Bank.

Employee Benefit Plans

The merger agreement confirms Glacier s intent that Glacier s current personnel policies and benefits will apply to any employees of CBC and Cañon National Bank who remain employed following the closing of the merger. Such employees will be eligible to participate in all of the benefit plans of Glacier that are generally available to similarly-situated employees of Glacier. For purposes of such participation, current employees prior service with CBC and/or Cañon National Bank will constitute prior service with Glacier for purposes of determining eligibility and vesting, including vacation time and participation and benefits under the applicable Glacier or Glacier Bank severance plan for employees in effect at the time of any termination.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Certain members of the CBC board of directors and management may be deemed to have interests in the merger, in addition to their interests as shareholders of CBC generally. The CBC board of directors was aware of these factors and considered them, among other things, in approving the merger agreement.

Stock Ownership. CBC directors, executive officer and their spouses beneficially owned, as of the record date for the special meeting, 7,046 shares of CBC common stock, representing approximately 42.75% of all outstanding shares of CBC common stock. The directors and executive officers of CBC will receive the same consideration in the merger for their shares as other shareholders of CBC.

Voting Agreement. Certain of the directors and certain principal shareholders of CBC have entered into voting agreements, dated as of July 30, 2015. Pursuant to the voting agreements, each signing person agrees to vote the shares of CBC common stock that he, she or it owns or controls in favor of the merger. A total of 14,439 outstanding shares, or approximately 88% of the outstanding shares of CBC common stock, are covered by the voting agreements. Accordingly, shareholder approval of the merger is assured.

Table of Contents

Cañon National Bank Director Non-Competition Agreement. Each member of the board of directors of Cañon National Bank has entered into a non-competition agreement with Glacier, CBC and Cañon National Bank. Except under certain limited circumstances, the non-competition agreement prohibits such directors from becoming involved in a business competing with Glacier or any of Glacier's subsidiaries, divisions or affiliates within the Colorado counties of Fremont, Pueblo, El Paso, Moffat, La Plata, Mesa, Routt, Rio Blanco, Archuleta or any other county in the State of Colorado where Glacier or Glacier Bank has a commercial banking office as of the date of the execution of the covenant not to compete. The term of the non-competition agreement commences upon the effective date of the merger and continues until the later of (i) two years following the closing of the merger or (ii) two years following termination of such director's service on the board of directors of the Division.

Employment Agreement. Glacier Bank has entered into an employment agreement with William Faris, President of Cañon National Bank and a director of CBC. The employment agreement is effective on (and conditioned upon) the closing of the merger, and is for a term of three years. The agreement provides that Mr. Faris' title will be Executive Vice President & Regional Market President of Bank of San Juans, a division of Glacier Bank. Mr. Faris will receive an annualized base salary of $180,000, and will be entitled to participate in Glacier Bank's profit-sharing and LTIP plans, as well as any group life insurance, disability, health and accident insurance plans, and other employee fringe benefit plans that Glacier or Glacier Bank may have in effect from time to time for its similarly situated employees.

If Mr. Faris' employment is terminated for Cause or he terminates his employment without Good Reason (as such terms are defined in the employment agreement), Glacier Bank will pay him the salary earned and expenses reimbursable incurred through the date of termination.

If Mr. Faris' employment is terminated without Cause or he terminates employment with Good Reason, then contingent upon his execution of a release of claims, Glacier Bank will pay him a lump sum payment equal to the amount of annualized base salary remaining to be paid under the term of the employment agreement.

The employment agreement provides that during the term of the agreement and for a period after employment with Glacier Bank has ended, Mr. Faris will not (i) engage in any activity in Fremont, Pueblo or El Paso counties in Colorado, or any other county in Colorado into which Glacier or Glacier Bank expands its business during the term of the agreement, that is competitive with the business of Glacier or Glacier Bank, or (ii) persuade or entice, or attempt to persuade or entice, any employee of Glacier or Glacier Bank to terminate his or her employment with Glacier or Glacier Bank, or any person or entity to terminate its business relationship with Glacier or Glacier Bank.

Change in Control Benefits. Two executive officers of Cañon National Bank are currently parties to employment agreements with Cañon National Bank that provide for severance payments in the event of a change in control of Cañon National Bank. The employment agreement with Mr. William Faris, President of Cañon National Bank and a director of CBC, provides that if a Change of Control (as defined in the employment agreement) occurs during any term of Mr. Faris' employment, Cañon National Bank will pay him a severance payment equal to three times his then applicable annual salary whether he is employed by the transferee (acquiring bank) or not, to be paid in substantially equal installments over 12 months. The employment agreement with Mr. James Hawkins, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Cañon National Bank, provides that if a Change of Control (as defined in the employment agreement) occurs during any term of Mr. Hawkins' employment, Cañon National Bank will pay him a severance payment equal to one year of his then applicable annual salary, but only if he is not employed for at least 30 days after the Change of Control.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers; Insurance. The merger agreement provides that Glacier will, for a period of four years following the closing of the merger, indemnify the present and former directors and officers of CBC and Cañon National Bank against liabilities or costs that may arise in the future, incurred in connection with claims or actions arising out of or pertaining to matters that existed or occurred prior to the effective date of the merger. The scope of this indemnification is to the fullest extent that such persons would have been entitled to indemnification under applicable law and the articles of incorporation or bylaws of CBC and Cañon National Bank, as applicable.

The merger agreement also provides that for a period of four years following the closing of the merger, Glacier will use reasonable best efforts to cause to be maintained in effect, director and officer liability insurance substantially similar to that maintained by Glacier with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred before the effective date of the merger.

Regulatory Requirements

Closing of the merger is subject to approval by the appropriate banking regulatory authorities, including the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the State of Colorado Division of Banking and the Commissioner of the Montana Division of Banking and Financial Institutions.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

This section describes the anticipated material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger of CBC with and into Glacier (Holding Company Merger), and the contemporaneous merger of Cañon National Bank with and into Glacier Bank (Bank Merger), to U.S. holders of CBC common stock who exchange shares of CBC common stock for a combination of shares of Glacier common stock and cash pursuant to the mergers.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of CBC common stock who for United States federal income tax purposes is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) holds CBC common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding CBC common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

Table of Contents

This discussion addresses only those CBC shareholders that hold their CBC common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code, and does not address all the United States federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular CBC shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to CBC shareholders that are subject to special rules, such as:

financial institutions;

pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

dealers in securities;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting;

persons who exercise dissenters' rights;

persons who hold CBC common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction;

certain expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;

foreign persons; and shareholders who acquired their shares of CBC common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger.

The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion.

In connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, Garlington, Lohn & Robinson, PLLP, special tax counsel to Glacier, has delivered an opinion to Glacier to the effect that the Holding Company Merger and the Bank Merger will for federal income tax purposes qualify as reorganizations within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code Section 368(a); and both Glacier and CBC expect to report the mergers accordingly on their federal income tax returns. The opinion is based on assumptions, representations, warranties and covenants, including those contained in the merger agreement and in tax representation letters provided by Glacier, CBC, Glacier Bank and Cañon National Bank. The accuracy of such assumptions, representations and warranties, and compliance with such covenants, could affect the conclusions set forth in such opinion. The opinion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Glacier and CBC have not requested and do not intend to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the United States federal income tax consequence of the mergers. Accordingly, each CBC shareholder should consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the merger to such holder.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally to Holders of CBC Common Stock. If the Holding Company Merger is a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the tax consequences are as follows:

CBC shareholders will exchange all of their CBC common stock for a combination of Glacier common stock and cash in the Holding Company Merger. Accordingly, holders of CBC common stock will recognize gain in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Glacier common stock and cash received by a holder of CBC common stock exceeds such holder's cost basis in its CBC common stock, and (2) the amount of cash received by such holder of CBC common stock (except with respect to any cash received instead of fractional share interests in Glacier common stock, as discussed in the section entitled "Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Glacier Common Stock");

a CBC shareholder's aggregate tax basis in the Glacier common stock received in the Holding Company Merger will be equal to the shareholder's aggregate tax basis in such shareholder's CBC common stock surrendered, decreased by the amount of any cash received and increased by the amount of any gain recognized; and the holding period of Glacier common stock received in exchange for shares of CBC common stock will include the holding period of the CBC common stock for which it is exchanged.

If holders of CBC common stock acquired different blocks of CBC common stock at different times or at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of CBC common stock and such holders' basis and holding period in their shares of Glacier common stock may be determined with reference to each block of CBC common stock. Any such holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and Glacier common stock received in the exchange should be allocated among different blocks of CBC common stock and with respect to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Glacier common stock received in the merger.

Gain that holders of CBC common stock recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such holders have held (or are treated as having held) their CBC common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. Long-term capital gain of non-corporate holders of CBC common stock is generally taxed at preferential rates. In addition such gain may be subject to the 3.8% Unearned Income Medicare Contribution Tax on net investment income. In some cases, if a holder actually or constructively owns Glacier stock other than Glacier stock received pursuant to the merger, the recognized gain could be treated as having the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Internal Revenue Code Section 302, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon each holder's particular circumstances, including the application of the constructive ownership rules, holders of CBC common stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules to their particular circumstances.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Glacier Common Stock. A holder of CBC common stock who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Glacier common stock will generally be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having that fractional share of Glacier common stock redeemed for cash. As a result, a holder of CBC common stock will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the basis in his, her or its fractional share interest as set forth above. Except as described above, this gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Payments of cash to a holder of CBC common stock may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption satisfactory to Glacier and the exchange agent or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's United States federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Reporting Requirements. CBC shareholders who are significant holders are required to file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth certain information, including, but not limited to, their tax basis (determined immediately before the Merger) in the CBC common stock exchanged in the Merger and the fair market value (determined immediately before the Merger) of the CBC common stock exchanged in the Merger. For these purposes a significant holder is a holder of CBC common stock who immediately before the Merger (i) owned at least 1% of the total outstanding stock of CBC by vote or value or (ii) owned stock of CBC with a tax basis of at least $1 million. All CBC shareholders will be required to retain permanent tax records of the basis of CBC common stock exchanged and the Glacier common stock and cash received in the Merger.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may be important to you. Thus, you are strongly encouraged to consult your tax advisor as to the specific tax consequences resulting from the merger, including tax return reporting requirements, the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, and other tax laws and the effect of any proposed changes in the tax laws.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The acquisition of CBC will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting by Glacier under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, using the acquisition method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of CBC will be recorded by Glacier at their respective fair values at the time of the merger. The excess of Glacier's purchase price over the net fair value of assets acquired including identifiable intangible assets and liabilities assumed will be recorded as goodwill. Goodwill will be periodically assessed for impairment but no less frequently than on an annual basis. Prior period financial statements are not restated and results of operation of CBC will be included in Glacier's consolidated statement of operations after the date of the merger. The identifiable intangible assets with finite lives, other than goodwill, will be amortized against the combined company's earnings following completion of the merger.

COMPARISON OF CERTAIN RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF GLACIER AND CBC COMMON STOCK

Montana law and Glacier s articles of incorporation and bylaws govern the rights of Glacier s shareholders and will govern the rights of CBC s shareholders, who will become shareholders of Glacier as a result of the merger. The rights of CBC s shareholders are currently governed by Colorado law and by CBC s articles of incorporation and bylaws. The following is a brief summary of certain differences between the rights of Glacier and CBC shareholders. This summary is not intended to provide a comprehensive discussion of each company s governing documents. This summary is qualified by the documents referenced and the respective laws of Montana and Colorado. See also Where You Can Find More Information About Glacier.

General

Under its articles of incorporation, Glacier s authorized capital stock consists of 117,187,500 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share. No shares of preferred stock are currently outstanding.

Under its articles of incorporation, CBC s authorized capital consists of 1,000,000 shares of common stock, without par value, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share.

The following is a more detailed description of Glacier s and CBC s capital stock.

As of June 30, 2015, there were 75,531,258 shares of Glacier common stock issued and outstanding, in addition to (i) options for the purchase of 1,000 shares of Glacier common stock, and (ii) 194,548 shares of unvested restricted stock awards, under Glacier s employee and director equity compensation plans.

Preferred Stock

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, Glacier had no shares of preferred stock issued. The Glacier board of directors is authorized, without further shareholder action, to issue preferred stock shares with such designations, preferences and rights as the Glacier board of directors may determine.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, CBC had no shares of preferred stock issued. The CBC board of directors is authorized, without further shareholder action, to issue preferred stock shares with such designations, preferences and rights as the CBC board of directors may determine.

Dividend Rights

Dividends may be paid on Glacier common stock as and when declared by the Glacier board of directors out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. The Glacier board of directors may issue preferred stock that is entitled to such dividend rights as the board of directors may determine, including priority over the common stock in the payment of dividends.

The ability of Glacier to pay dividends basically depends on the amount of dividends paid to it by its subsidiaries. The payment of dividends is subject to government regulation, in that regulatory authorities may prohibit banks and bank holding companies from paying dividends in a manner that would constitute an unsafe or unsound banking practice. In addition, a bank may not pay cash dividends if doing so would reduce the amount of its capital below that necessary to meet minimum applicable regulatory capital requirements. State laws also limit a bank's ability to pay dividends. Accordingly, the dividend restrictions imposed on the subsidiaries by statute or regulation effectively may limit the amount of dividends Glacier can pay.

Dividends may be paid on CBC common stock as and when declared by the CBC board of directors out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. CBC's payment of dividends is generally subject to the same considerations described above with respect to Glacier.

Voting Rights

All voting rights are currently vested in the holders of Glacier common stock and CBC common stock, with each share being entitled to one vote.

The articles of incorporation of Glacier provide that shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. The articles of incorporation of CBC provide that shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors or for any other purpose.

Preemptive Rights

Neither Glacier's nor CBC's shareholders have preemptive rights to subscribe to any additional securities that may be issued.

Table of Contents

Liquidation Rights

If Glacier is liquidated, the holders of Glacier common stock are entitled to share, on a pro rata basis, Glacier's remaining assets after provision for liabilities. The Glacier board of directors is authorized to determine the liquidation rights of any preferred stock that may be issued.

If CBC is liquidated, the holders of CBC common stock are entitled to share, on a pro rata basis, CBC's remaining assets after provision for liabilities.

Assessments

All outstanding shares of Glacier common stock are, and the shares to be issued in the merger will be, fully paid and nonassessable. Shares of CBC common stock are fully paid and nonassessable.

Amendment of Articles and Bylaws

The Montana Business Corporation Act (MBCA) authorizes a corporation's board of directors to make various changes of an administrative nature to its articles of incorporation. Other amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation must be recommended to the shareholders by the board of directors, unless the board determines that because of a conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation, and must be approved by a majority of all votes entitled to be cast by each voting group that has a right to vote on the amendment. The Glacier board of directors may, by a majority vote, amend Glacier's bylaws.

The Colorado Business Corporation Act (CBCA) authorizes a corporation's board of directors to make various changes of an administrative nature to its articles of incorporation. Other amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation must be recommended to the shareholders by the board of directors, unless the board determines that because of a conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation, and must be approved by the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum exists. The bylaws of CBC provide that the directors may amend or repeal the bylaws, unless the articles of incorporation of applicable Colorado law reserve such power exclusively to the shareholders, or the shareholders, in amending or repealing a particular bylaw provision, provide expressly that the directors may not amend or repeal such bylaw. The shareholders may amend or repeal the bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by the directors.

Approval of Certain Transactions

The MBCA does not contain any anti-takeover provisions imposing specific requirements or restrictions on transactions between a corporation and significant shareholders. Glacier's articles of incorporation contain a provision requiring that specified transactions with an interested shareholder be approved by 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding shares unless it is (i) approved by Glacier's board of directors, or (ii) certain price and procedural requirements are satisfied. An interested shareholder is broadly defined to include the right, directly or indirectly, to acquire or to control the voting or disposition of 10% or more of Glacier's voting stock.

CBC's articles of incorporation do not contain any anti-takeover provisions.

Table of Contents

Board of Directors Number of Directors

Glacier's articles of incorporation provide that the number of directors may not be less than seven or more than 17. Glacier's board currently consists of 10 members, each of whom is currently serving an annual term.

CBC's bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be fixed by resolution of the board of directors from time to time. The board of directors of CBC currently consists of four members, each of whom is currently serving an annual term.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

Under the MBCA, indemnification of directors and officers is authorized to cover judgments, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses arising out of actions where the director or officer acted in good faith and in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and in criminal cases, where the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. Unless limited by the corporation's articles of incorporation, Montana law requires indemnification if the director or officer is wholly successful on the merits of the action. Glacier's bylaws provide that Glacier shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, including indemnification for payments in settlement of actions brought against a director or officer in the name of the corporation, commonly referred to as a derivative action. Under the MBCA, any indemnification of a director in a derivative action must be reported to shareholders in writing prior to the next annual meeting of shareholders.

Glacier's articles of incorporation provide that the personal liability of directors and officers for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the full extent permitted by the MBCA.

Under the CBCA, indemnification of directors and officers is authorized to cover judgments, amounts paid in settlement, and expenses arising out of actions where the director or officer acted in good faith and in or at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and in criminal cases, where the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. Unless limited by the corporation's articles of incorporation, Colorado law requires indemnification if the director or officer is wholly successful on the merits of the action. CBC's articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that CBC shall indemnify its directors to the full extent permitted by the CBCA, provided, however, that such indemnification shall not apply to expenses, penalties, or other payment incurred in connection with an administrative proceeding or action instituted by a federal or state of Colorado bank regulatory agency, which proceeding or action results in a final order assessing civil money penalties or requiring affirmative action by such person in the form of payments to CBC, and further provided that CBC shall in no event pay for or reimburse expenses incurred by a director who is a party to an administrative proceeding or action instituted by a regulatory agency in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding.

CBC's articles of incorporation provide that to the fullest extent permitted by the CBCA, a director shall not be liable to CBC or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

Potential Anti-Takeover Provisions

Glacier's articles of incorporation include certain provisions that could make more difficult the acquisition of Glacier by means of a tender offer, a proxy contest, merger or otherwise. These provisions consist of a requirement that any Business Combination (as defined in the articles of incorporation) be approved by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding shares unless it is either approved by the board of directors or certain price and procedural requirements are satisfied.

In addition, the authorization of preferred stock, which is intended primarily as a financing tool and not as a defensive measure against takeovers, may potentially be used by management to make more difficult uninvited attempts to acquire control of Glacier (for example, by diluting the ownership interest of a substantial shareholder, increasing the amount of consideration necessary for shareholder to obtain control, or selling authorized but unissued shares to friendly third parties).

The supermajority approval requirement for certain business transactions and the availability of Glacier's preferred stock for issuance without shareholder approval, may have the effect of lengthening the time required for a person to acquire control of Glacier through a tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, and may deter any potentially unfriendly offers or other efforts to obtain control of Glacier. This could deprive Glacier's shareholders of opportunities to realize a premium for their Glacier common stock, even in circumstances where such action was favored by a majority of Glacier's shareholders.

CBC's articles of incorporation do not contain anti-takeover provisions.

CERTAIN LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the Glacier common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed upon for Glacier by its special counsel, Moore, Cockrell, Goicoechea & Johnson, P.C, Kalispell, Montana.

DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

6.1 Director and Shareholder Agreements. 6.2.2 Treatment of Past Service. For purposes of such participation, current employees' prior service with CBC and/or the Bank will constitute prior service with GBCI or Glacier Bank for purposes of determining eligibility and vesting (including but not limited to vacation time and participation and benefits under the applicable GBCI or Glacier Bank severance plan for employees in effect at the time of any termination).

6.2.3 No Contract Created. Nothing in this Agreement will give any employee a right to continuing employment.

6.2.4 Severance Payments. Bank employees who are not entitled to severance under the Compensation Plan payments set forth in Schedule 3.1.19 and who stay with the Bank through Closing but are not offered employment with Glacier Bank following the Closing will receive severance payments in accordance with Glacier Bank's severance policy in effect at the Closing on the basis of the number of years or prior service with the Bank at the expense of GBCI.

6.3 Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers. For a period of four (4) years after the Effective Date, GBCI will use reasonable best efforts to cause to be maintained in effect (with reputable and financially sound insurers) director and officer liability insurance substantially similar to that maintained by GBCI with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred before the Effective Time.

SECTION 7.

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT AND ABANDONMENT OF TRANSACTION

7.1 Termination by Reason of Lapse of Time. If Closing does not occur on or before February 28, 2016, either GBCI or CBC may terminate this Agreement and the Merger if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the terminating party's board of directors decides to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members; and
- (b) the terminating party delivers to the other party written notice that its board of directors has voted in favor of termination.

7.2 Termination Due To GBCI Average Closing Price Greater Than $33.72.

7.2.1 GBCI's Right to Terminate. By specific action of its board of directors, GBCI may terminate this Agreement and the Merger by written notice to CBC on the Business Day immediately following the Determination Date, if the GBCI Average Closing Price is greater than $33.72 (without taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date) unless CBC makes the election set forth in Section 7.2.2.

7.2.2 CBC's Right to Adjust Consideration. If GBCI provides written notice to CBC in accordance with Section 7.2.1, then within three (3) Business Days following CBC's receipt of such notice, CBC may elect by written notice to GBCI to accept an adjustment to the Total Stock Consideration through the issuance of fewer GBCI Shares; in such event, the Total Stock Amount shall be the number of GBCI Shares equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $18,689,000 by the GBCI Average Closing Price rounded up to the nearest whole share (prior to taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date).

If CBC makes such election to accept such decrease in the number of GBCI Shares, no termination will occur pursuant to Section 7.2.1, and this Agreement will remain in effect according to its terms (except as the Total Stock Amount has been adjusted).

7.3 Termination Due To GBCI Average Closing Price Less than $24.92.

7.3.1 CBC's Right to Terminate. By specific action of its board of directors, CBC may terminate this Agreement and the Merger by written notice to GBCI on the Business Day immediately following the Determination Date, if the GBCI Average Closing Price is less than $24.92 without taking into account the declaration or effects of a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar transaction involving the issuance of GBCI Common Stock for which no consideration is received between the Execution Date and the Determination Date, unless GBCI makes the election set forth in Section 7.3.2.

7.3.2 GBCI's Right to Adjust Consideration. If CBC provides written notice to GBCI in accordance with Section 7.3.1, then within three (3) Business Days following GBCI's receipt of such notice, GBCI may elect by written notice to CBC to adjust the Total Stock Consideration through the issuance of additional GBCI Shares; in such event, the Total Stock Consideration shall be the number of GBCI Shares equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $13,811,000 by the GBCI Average Closing Price.

If GBCI elects to increase the Total Stock Consideration, no termination will occur pursuant to Section 7.3.1, and this Agreement will remain in effect according to its terms (except as the Total Stock Consideration has been adjusted).

7.4 Other Grounds for Termination. This Agreement and the Merger may be terminated at any time before Closing (whether before or after applicable approval of this Agreement by CBC's shareholders, unless otherwise provided) by CBC (on behalf of itself and the Bank) or GBCI (on behalf of itself and Glacier Bank) as follows:

7.4.1 Mutual Consent. By mutual consent of CBC and GBCI, if the board of directors of each party agrees to terminate by a majority vote of all of its members.

7.4.2 No Regulatory Approvals. By CBC or GBCI, if the regulatory approvals required by Section 5.1 are denied (or if any such required approval is conditioned on a substantial deviation from the Merger); provided, however, that either party will have fifteen (15) Business Days following receipt of such denial to appeal the decision, and if such appeal is timely made, either party will have sixty (60) days to prosecute diligently and overturn such denial, and such other party may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4.2 during such period of time; provided further, however, either party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 during such period of time.

7.4.3 Breach of Representation. By CBC or GBCI (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are not qualified as to materiality and is not then in breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are qualified as to materiality) if there has been a material breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement that are not qualified as to materiality or a breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality on the part of the other party, which breach is not cured within thirty days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the end of such thirty day period; provided, however, that neither party will have the right to terminate this unless the breach of such representation or warranty, together with any other such breaches, would entitle the party receiving such representation not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 5.2.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by CBC) or Section 5.3.1 (in the case of a breach of a representation or warranty by GBCI). In the event of termination pursuant to this Section 7.4.3, the terminating party will be entitled to receive from the other party a termination fee as described below.

Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4.3

7.4.4 Breach of Covenant. By either party (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are not qualified as to materiality and is not then in breach of any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants in this Agreement if they are qualified as to materiality) if there has been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement that are not qualified as to materiality or a breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality on the part of the other party, which breach is not cured within thirty days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the end of such thirty day period. In the event of termination pursuant to this Section 7.4.4, the terminating party will be entitled to receive from the other party a termination fee.

7.4.5 Failure to Recommend or Obtain Shareholder Approval. By GBCI (provided that GBCI is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements in this Agreement), if (a) CBC's Board of Directors (i) fails to recommend to its shareholders the approval of the Merger or (ii) modifies, withdraws or changes in a manner adverse to GBCI its recommendation to shareholders to approve the Merger; or (b) regardless of whether CBC's Board of Directors recommends to its shareholders the approval of the Merger, CBC's shareholders elect not to approve the Merger.

7.4.6 Impracticability. By either GBCI or CBC, upon written notice given to the other party, if the board of directors of the party seeking termination under this Section 7.4.6 has determined in its sole judgment, made in good faith and after due consideration and consultation with counsel, that the Merger has become inadvisable or impracticable by reason of actions taken by the federal government or the governments of the States of Montana or Colorado to restrain or invalidate the Merger or this Agreement.

7.4.7 Dissenting Shares. By GBCI if holders of 5% or more of the outstanding shares of CBC Stock are Proposed Dissenting Shares.

7.4.8 Superior Proposal Termination by CBC. By the board of directors of CBC upon written notice to GBCI if such board of directors has in good faith determined that an Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that CBC may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.4.8 unless (i) it has not breached Section 4.1.10, (ii) subsequent to delivering such notice of termination, it intends to enter into a letter of intent, acquisition agreement or similar agreement relating to such Superior Proposal, (iii) it has provided GBCI at least five (5) days' prior written notice advising GBCI that the board of directors of CBC is prepared to accept a Superior Proposal and has given GBCI, if it so elects, an opportunity to amend the terms of this Agreement (and negotiated with GBCI in good faith with respect to such terms) in such a manner as would enable CBC's board of directors to proceed with the Merger, and (iv) simultaneously upon entering into such letter of intent, acquisition agreement or similar agreement relating to such Superior Proposal referred to in clause (ii), it delivers to GBCI the Break-Up Fee.

7.4.9 Superior Proposal Termination by GBCI. By GBCI upon written notice to CBC if (i) an Acquisition Event will have occurred or (ii) a third party will have made a proposal to CBC or its shareholders to engage in or entered into an agreement with respect to an Acquisition Event, and this Agreement and the Merger are not approved at the CBC Meeting.

7.5 Termination Fee Payable By CBC. Due to expenses, direct and indirect, incurred by GBCI in negotiating and executing this Agreement and in taking steps to effect the Merger, CBC will pay to GBCI a termination fee of $300,000 if GBCI terminates this Agreement pursuant to Sections 7.4.3 (breach of representation) or 7.4.4 (breach of covenant). If such termination fee becomes payable pursuant to this Section 7.5, it will be payable on GBCI's demand and must be paid by CBC within three Business Days following the date of GBCI's demand.

7.6 Termination Fee Payable By GBCI. Due to expenses, direct and indirect, incurred by CBC in negotiating and executing this Agreement and in taking steps to effect the Merger, GBCI will pay to CBC a termination fee of $300,000 if CBC terminates this Agreement pursuant to Sections 7.4.3 (breach of representation) or 7.4.4 (breach of covenant). If such termination fee becomes payable pursuant to this Section 7.6, it will be payable on CBC's demand and must be paid by GBCI within three Business Days following the date of CBC's demand.

7.7 Break-Up Fee. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.4.5(a) (Failure to Recommend), Section 7.4.8 (Superior Proposal Termination by CBC), or Section 7.4.9(i) (Superior Proposal Termination by GBCI Immediate Acquisition Event), then CBC will immediately pay to GBCI $1,625,000 (the Break-Up Fee). If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.4.9(ii) (Superior Proposal Termination by GBCI Subsequent Acquisition Event) and prior to or within six months after such termination, CBC or the Bank enters into an agreement, or publicly announces an intention, to engage in an Acquisition Event, or within twelve months after such termination an Acquisition Event will have occurred, then CBC will promptly pay to GBCI the Break-Up Fee.

7.8 Cost Allocation Upon Termination. In connection with the termination of this Agreement under this Section 7, except as provided in Section 7.5, 7.6 or 7.7, each party will pay its own out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with this Agreement and will have no other liability to the other parties. The parties agree that the agreements herein with respect to the termination fees and Break-Up Fee are integral parts of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty.

dissenter shall certify in writing, in or with the dissenter's payment demand under section 7-113-204, whether or not the dissenter (or the person on whose behalf dissenter's rights are asserted) acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date. With respect to any dissenter who does not so certify in writing, in or with the payment demand, that the dissenter or the person on whose behalf the dissenter asserts dissenter's rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before such date, the corporation may, in lieu of making the payment provided in section 7-113-206, offer to make such payment if the dissenter agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the demand.

(a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 7-113-206 or offered under section 7-113-208 is less than the fair value of the shares or that the interest due was incorrectly calculated;

(b) The corporation fails to make payment under section 7-113-206 within sixty days after the date set by the corporation by which the corporation must receive the payment demand; or

(c) The corporation does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares as required by section 7-113-207 (1).

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter causes the corporation to receive the notice required by subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

§ 7-113-301. Court action

(1) If a demand for payment under section 7-113-209 remains unresolved, the corporation may, within sixty days after receiving the payment demand, commence a proceeding and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay to each dissenter whose demand remains unresolved the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding described in subsection (1) of this section in the district court for the county in this state in which the street address of the corporation's principal office is located, or, if the corporation has no principal office in this state, in the district court for the county in which the street address of its registered agent is located, or, if the corporation has no registered agent, in the district court for the city and county of Denver. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered agent, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in which the domestic corporation merged into, or whose shares were acquired by, the foreign corporation would have commenced the action if that corporation were subject to the first sentence of this subsection (2).

Table of Contents

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unresolved parties to the proceeding commenced under subsection (2) of this section as in an action against their shares, and all parties shall be served with a copy of the petition. Service on each dissenter shall be by registered or certified mail, to the address stated in such dissenter's payment demand, or if no such address is stated in the payment demand, at the address shown on the corporation's current record of shareholders for the record shareholder holding the dissenter's shares, or as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to such order. The parties to the proceeding are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding commenced under subsection (2) of this section is entitled to judgment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation, or for the fair value, plus interest, of the dissenter's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 7-113-208.

§ 7-113-302. Court costs and counsel fees

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 7-113-301 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation; except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under section 7-113-209.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with part 2 of this article; or

(b) Against either the corporation or one or more dissenters, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this article.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to said counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Sections 35-1-451 through 35-1-459 of the Montana Business Corporation Act (MBCA) contain specific provisions relating to indemnification of directors and officers of Montana corporations. In general, the statute provides that (i) a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as such, unless limited by the articles of incorporation, and (ii) a corporation may indemnify a director or officer if he is not wholly successful in such defense, if it is determined as provided in the statute that the director meets a certain standard of conduct, provided that when a director is liable to the corporation, the corporation may not indemnify him. The statute also permits a director or officer of a corporation who is a party to a proceeding to apply to the courts for indemnification or advance of expenses, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, and the court may order indemnification or advancement of expenses under certain circumstances set forth in the statute. The statute further provides that a corporation may in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by resolution provide indemnification in addition to that provided by statute, subject to certain conditions set forth in the statute.

The articles of incorporation of Glacier provide, among other things, that the personal liability of the directors and officers of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by the MBCA. Glacier s bylaws provide that the corporation shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, including indemnification for payments in settlement of actions brought against a director or officer in the name of the corporation.
