RENEWAL OF CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

On 23 September 2015 the Board approved, among other things, (i) the continuing connected transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Annual Caps applicable thereto; (ii) the Revised 2015 Annual Cap; and (iii) the continuing connected transactions contemplated under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement and the Annual Caps applicable thereto.

Engineering Framework Agreement

The Engineering Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2015. The Company and China Telecommunications Corporation entered into a supplemental agreement on 23 September 2015 and renewed the Engineering Framework Agreement on the same terms (except the pricing terms) for a further term of three years expiring on 31 December 2018. No later than 30 days prior to the expiry of the Engineering Framework Agreement, the Company is entitled to serve a written notice to China Telecommunications Corporation to renew the Engineering Framework Agreement, and the parties shall consult and decide on matters relating to such renewal.

Pursuant to the Engineering Framework Agreement as amended by the supplemental agreement dated 23 September 2015, China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates through bids provide to the Group services such as construction, design, equipment installation and testing and/or engineering project supervision services. The charges payable for such engineering services shall be determined by reference to market rates. Market rates shall mean the rates at which the same or similar type of products or services are provided by Independent Third Parties in the ordinary course of business and under normal commercial terms. When determining the relevant market rates, to the extent practicable, management of the Company shall take into account the rates of at least two similar and comparable transactions entered into with or carried out by Independent Third Parties in the ordinary course of business in the corresponding period for reference. The charges payable for the design or supervision of engineering projects with a value of over RMB500,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$608,125) or engineering construction projects with a value of over RMB2 million (equivalent to approximately HK$2,432,498) shall be the tender award price, which is determined in accordance with the relevant tender procedure of the Group and the relevant laws and regulations in the PRC, including the Bidding Law of the PRC and the Regulations on the Implementation of the Bidding Law of the PRC. The Group shall solicit at least three tenderers for the tender process.

The Group does not accord any priority to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates to provide such services, and the tender may be awarded to an Independent Third Party. However, if the terms of an offer from China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates are at least as favourable as those offered by other tenderers, the Group may award the tender to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates.

Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement

The Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement will expire on 31 December 2015. The Company and China Telecommunications Corporation have entered into a supplemental agreement on 23 September 2015 and

Table of Contents

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Pursuant to the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement as amended by the supplemental agreement dated 23 September 2015, China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates provide the Group with repair and maintenance services, including repair of telecommunications equipment, maintenance of fire equipment and telephone booths, as well as other customer services. The charges payable for the services under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement are calculated on the following basis:

- (1) market prices, which shall mean the prices at which the same or similar type of products or services are provided by Independent Third Parties in the ordinary course of business and under normal commercial terms. When determining the relevant market prices, to the extent practicable, management of the Company shall take into account the prices of at least two similar and comparable transactions entered into with or carried out by Independent Third Parties in the ordinary course of business in the corresponding period for reference;
- (2) where there is no or it is not possible to determine the market prices, the prices are to be agreed between the parties based on the reasonable costs incurred in providing the services plus the amount of the relevant taxes and reasonable profit margin. For this purpose, reasonable profit margin is to be fairly determined by negotiations between the parties in accordance with the internal policies of the Group. When determining the relevant reasonable profit margin, to the extent practicable, management of the Company shall take into account the profit margin of at least two similar and comparable transactions entered into with Independent Third Parties in the corresponding period or the relevant industry profit margin for reference.

Reasons for and Benefits of the Transactions Contemplated under the Agreements

The historical unique relationship and long-term cooperation between China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates and the Group has enabled China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates to gain a comprehensive and deep understanding of the Group's network features and general business needs. Compared to third parties, China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates can more aptly ensure that high quality service is provided at a competitive price, thus lowering service costs. The Group will receive high quality service and can effectively lower its operational expenses.

Due to a long-standing and cooperative relationship in the past, China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates are more able to meet the needs of the Group and to provide responsive support services in a speedy and stable manner, thereby achieving effective business cooperation and synergies. China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates have, for a long time, set up specialised teams dedicated to serving the Group, and made proactive initiatives and technical preparations customised for the development of the Group, with a view to providing the Group with more systematic and efficient services.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

REVISION OF 2015 ANNUAL CAP FOR THE ENGINEERING FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

For the two years ended 31 December 2013 and 2014, the Annual Caps for the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement were RMB16,000 million and RMB16,000 million, respectively (equivalent to approximately HKD19,460 million and HKD19,460 million, respectively). For the year ending 31 December 2015, the Annual Cap for the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement was set at RMB16,000 million (equivalent to approximately HKD19,460 million).

The Company has decided to increase the Annual Cap for the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement for the year ending 31 December 2015 to RMB20,000 million (equivalent to approximately HKD24,325 million), subject to the requisite approval of the Independent Shareholders being obtained. All terms and conditions of the Engineering Framework Agreement shall remain unchanged and valid until 31 December 2015.

The increase in Annual Cap for the year ending 31 December 2015 in relation to the Engineering Framework Agreement is mainly attributable to the following reasons:

- (1) The Group's rapid increase in capital expenditure leads to an expected accompanying growth in engineering projects. In the first half of 2015, the Group's capital expenditure amounted to RMB36.7 billion, representing an increase of 58.8% over the same period in 2014. The Group estimates that its capital expenditure for 2015 will be approximately RMB107.8 billion, representing an increase of RMB30.9 billion and growth of 40.2% when compared to 2014.
- (2) The optimisation of the Company's investment structure leads to a rapid development of the 4G and wireline broadband network, which in turn leads to a rapid growth in the amount of connected transactions relating to engineering design, construction and supervision services between China Telecommunications Corporation and the Company in 2015. To actively promote the development of its 4G business in 2015, the Company invested RMB30.2 billion in the 4G and wireline broadband network engineering projects in the first half of 2015, accounting for 82% of the amount of total investment of the Company over that period. The Company estimates that the amount of its investment in the 4G and wireline broadband network engineering projects will continuously increase throughout the second half of 2015, and therefore the expected total amount of such investment in 2015 will be substantially higher than that in 2014.
- (3) Inflation and the increase in labour costs have driven an increase in the overall cost of engineering design, construction and supervision services provided under the Engineering Framework Agreement. In the first eight months of 2015, the consumer price index (CPI) in China has increased by 2.0% over the same period of last year.

Table of ContentsLETTER FROM THE BOARD

For the year ended 31 December 2014, the amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement was approximately RMB15,478 million (equivalent to approximately HKD18,825 million). From 1 January 2015 to 30 June 2015, the amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement was approximately RMB7,830 million (equivalent to approximately HKD9,523 million). From 1 January 2015 to the Latest Practicable Date, the amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement has not exceeded the pre-determined Annual Cap.

When determining the above Revised 2015 Annual Cap, the Board has considered: (i) the historical amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement for the year of 2014 and for the period from 1 January 2015 to 30 June 2015; (ii) the existing business scale and operations of the Company together with the latest business plans for the year ending 31 December 2015; and (iii) the expected solid development of its services.

As far as the Directors are aware, the Annual Cap of the Engineering Framework Agreement for the year ending 31 December 2015 has not been exceeded as at the Latest Practicable Date. Based on the actual circumstances relating to the capital expenditure and management of engineering projects of the Company and other currently available information, the Directors estimate that the amount incurred under the Engineering Framework Agreement from 1 January 2015 to the date of EGM will not exceed the pre-determined 2015 Annual Cap.

THE RENEWED ANNUAL CAPS

Under Rule 14A.53 and 14A.68(4) of the Listing Rules, in respect of a continuing connected transaction which is not fully exempted, a cap must be set and disclosed. The historical amounts, the Annual Caps or the Revised 2015 Annual Cap (as the case may be) for the year ending 31 December 2015 and the Renewed Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 for each of the transactions contemplated under the Agreements are set out below:

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

As far as the Directors are aware, none of the Annual Caps of the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement for the year ending 31 December 2015 has been exceeded as at the Latest Practicable Date. Each of the Annual Caps of the Agreements for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 have been determined by reference to the nature of the transactions contemplated under the respective Agreements, the existing scale and operations of the Company's business, the business plan of the Company and the inflationary pressures for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018.

The decrease in the Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 in relation to the Engineering Framework Agreement is mainly attributable to the close correlation between engineering design, construction and supervision services and the scale of the capital expenditure and the investment structure of the Company. It is currently anticipated that the overall capital expenditure of the Company will remain stable and will gradually decline over the next two to three years. As a result, the Annual Cap will also decline by a certain degree.

The increase in the Annual Caps for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 in relation to the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement is mainly attributable to the anticipated gradual increase in ancillary telecommunications services, particularly channel services, network repair and maintenance services and equipment installation services as a result of the expansion of the scale of the Company's operations along with the further expansion of the Company's network scale.

The consideration under each of the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement will be satisfied in cash and no payment will be made on a deferred basis.

LETTER FROM THE INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

To assess the fairness and reasonableness of the pricing policy of the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement, we have randomly selected 4 sample copies of contracts entered into between the Group and China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates during the period from 1 January 2013 to 30 September 2015 with respect to the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement. For this purpose, reasonable profit margin is to be fairly determined by negotiations between the parties in accordance with the internal policies of the Group. When determining the relevant reasonable profit margin, to the extent practicable, management of the Company shall take into account the profit margin of at least two similar and comparable transactions entered into with Independent Third Parties in the corresponding period or the relevant industry profit margin for reference;

To assess the fairness and reasonableness of the pricing policy of the transactions contemplated under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement, we have randomly selected 4 sample copies of contracts entered into between the Group and China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates during the period from 1 January 2013 to 30 September 2015 with respect to the transactions contemplated under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement. Based on our review of the sample contracts, we noted the following:

- (i) regarding the ancillary telecommunications services based on market-oriented prices, the Group obtained the quotations of the similar services from other Independent Third Party and that the terms and conditions, including the service charges, offered by China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates are no less favourable than those offered by the Independent Third Parties;
- (ii)

regarding the ancillary telecommunications services based on the contractual prices, the level of service fee charged by China Telecommunication Corporation and/or its associates is comparable with similar transactions entered into between the Group and Independent Third Parties. We noted that the Company had implemented the said pricing policy above.

Table of ContentsLETTER FROM THE INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

Having taken into account the pricing mechanism as stated above and the nature of certain transactions contemplated under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement, we consider that the pricing mechanism under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement and its terms are fair and reasonable.

I. Revised 2015 Annual Cap for the Engineering Framework Agreement

For the two years ended 31 December 2013 and 2014, the Annual Caps for the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement were RMB16,000 million and RMB16,000 million, respectively (equivalent to approximately HKD19,460 million and HKD19,460 million, respectively). For the year ending 31 December 2015, the Annual Cap for the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement was set at RMB16,000 million (equivalent to approximately HKD19,460 million).

LETTER FROM THE INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

It is noted that the Revised 2015 Annual Cap will be increased from RMB16,000 million to RMB20,000 million (equivalent to approximately HKD24,325 million), representing an increase of approximately 25% as compared to the existing Annual Cap for the year ending 31 December 2015 for the Engineering Framework Agreement. All terms and conditions of the Engineering Framework Agreement shall remain unchanged and valid until 31 December 2015. As stated in the Board Letter, the increase in the Annual Cap for the year ending 31 December 2015 is mainly attributable to (i) the increase in capital expenditure of the Group leading to an expected accompanying growth in engineering projects; (ii) the optimisation of the investment structure of the Group leading to rapid development of the 4G and wireline broadband network and substantially increases the investment on the 4G and wireline broadband network engineering projects; and (iii) inflation and the increase in labour costs, which have driven an increase in the overall costs of the construction, design and engineering project supervision services provided under the Engineering Framework Agreement. When determining the above Revised 2015 Annual Cap, the Board has considered: (i) the historical amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement for the year of 2014 and for the period from 1 January 2015 to 30 June 2015; (ii) the existing business scale and operations of the Company together with the latest business plans for the year ending 31 December 2015; and (iii) the expected solid development of its services.

To assess the fairness and reasonableness of the Revised 2015 Annual Cap, we have considered the following:

- (i) for the year ended 31 December 2014, the amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement was approximately RMB15,478 million (equivalent to approximately HKD18,825 million), representing a utilisation rate of approximately 96.7% of the 2014 Annual Cap. From 1 January 2015 to 30 June 2015, the amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement was approximately RMB7,830 million (equivalent to approximately HKD9,523 million), representing a utilisation rate of approximately 48.9% of the existing 2015 Annual Cap. From 1 January 2015 to 30 June 2015, the amount paid by the Group to China Telecommunications Corporation and/or its associates under the Engineering Framework Agreement did not exceed the pre-determined Annual Cap. We have discussed with the management of the Company that the utilisation rate of the existing 2015 Annual Cap for the six months ended 30 June 2015 is higher than that for the corresponding period in 2014, and the transaction amount for the full year of 2015 is expected to exceed the existing 2015 Annual Cap;
- (ii) as advised by the management of the Company, for the first half of 2015, the Group has focused on its key businesses and emerging businesses, including, among others, the 4G services, the broadband services, and the innovative data traffic products, to accelerate the scale development which require more capital expenditure. We have reviewed the Company's 2014 interim report, 2014 annual report and 2015 interim report and noted that the capital expenditure of the Group for the six months period ended 30 June 2014, year ended 31 December 2014 and six months period ended 30 June 2015 amounted to approximately RMB23.1 billion, RMB76.9 billion, and RMB36.7 billion, respectively. The capital expenditure for the first half of 2015 is 59.1% higher than the corresponding period of 2014, and is 31.8% lower than the second half of 2014. As advised by the management of the Company, more engineering and construction projects are usually implemented in the second half of the financial year and therefore it is estimated that the capital expenditure in the second half of 2015 will be higher than the first half of 2015. Furthermore, we have reviewed the capital budget of the Group for 2015 which supports the increase in the Annual Cap. Given the growth in capital expenditure of the Group, the expenditure on engineering projects is expected to rise accordingly;

LETTER FROM THE INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

- (iii) we note from the Company's announcement dated 27 February 2015 that the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology of the PRC had granted China Telecom the permit to operate the LTE/4G digital cellular mobile service (LTE FDD). As advised by the management of the Company, the Company will leverage the competitive edge of the hybrid network and flexibly deploy the LTE network and to collaborate the use of different spectrum resources to meet customers' demand. As disclosed in its 2015 interim report, the number of 4G terminal users as at 30 June 2015 reached approximately 29 million, with a net addition of approximately 22 million from the end of 2014; the number of wireline broadband subscribers as at 30 June 2015 reached 110 million, representing a net addition of 2.61 million from the end of 2014. As advised by the management of the Company, in the second half of 2015, the Group will maintain the expansion trend and increase the investment in its 4G and broadband services and construction, to grasp the market share. Given the complexities and high technical standards involved in the construction of the 4G and broadband network, the management of the Company expected that the Group will have significant growth in the demand for construction, design and engineering project supervision services; and

- (iv) as stated in the Board Letter, inflation and the increase in labour costs will drive an increase in the overall costs of the construction, design and engineering project supervision services provided under the Engineering Framework Agreement.

II. Renewed Annual Caps of the Continuing Connected Transactions

As discussed with the management of the Company, the Renewed Annual Caps for the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement and Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement are determined with reference to the nature of the transactions contemplated under the respective Agreements, the existing scale and operations of the Company's business, the business plan of the Company and the estimated inflation for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018. The consideration under each of the Agreements will be satisfied in cash and no payment will be made on a deferred basis.

a. Engineering Framework Agreement

For the two years ended 31 December 2013 and 2014, and the six months ended 30 June 2015, the historical transaction amounts of the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement are RMB14,543 million, RMB15,478 million, and RMB7,830 million, representing 90.89%, 96.74%, and 48.9% utilisation of the existing Annual Caps, respectively.

LETTER FROM THE INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

We noted that the Renewed Annual Caps for the Engineering Framework Agreement for the years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 (which are RMB20,000 million, RMB19,500 million and RMB19,500 million, respectively) represent a decrease of approximately 0%, 2.5% and 2.5%, respectively when compared to the Revised 2015 Annual Cap for the year ending 31 December 2015. The Company's engineering design and construction services is closely correlated to the scale of the capital expenditure and investment structure of the Company. The plateau trend of the Renewed Annual Caps for the next three years is based on the Company's anticipation that the overall capital expenditure of the Company will remain stable and will gradually decline over the two to three years ending 31 December 2018.

b. Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement

For the two years ended 31 December 2013 and 2014, and the six months ended 30 June 2015, the historical transaction amounts of the transactions contemplated under the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement are RMB11,208 million, RMB11,549 million, and RMB5,556 million, representing 70.05%, 72.18%, and 34.7% utilisation of the existing annual caps, respectively.

We noted that the Renewed Annual Caps for the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement for the years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 (which are RMB16,000 million, RMB16,500 million and RMB17,000 million, respectively) represent a stable increase of approximately 0%, 3.1% and 6.3%, respectively when compared to the Annual Caps for the year ending 31 December 2015.

As discussed with the management of the Company, the Company's ancillary telecommunications services is closely related to the Company's network expansion plan. The increasing trend in the Renewed Annual Caps for the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement over the next three years is based on the anticipated gradual increase in ancillary telecommunications services, particularly channel services, network repair and maintenance services and equipment installation services as a result of the expansion of the scale of the Company's operations along with the further expansion of the Company's network scale.

To arrive at our view on the Annual Caps for the Engineering Framework Agreement and Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement for the three years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018, we have performed the following work:

- (i) reviewed the audited historical amount for the years ended 31 December 2013 and 2014, and the unaudited historical amount for the six months ended 30 June 2015, as well as the Annual Caps for the years ended 31 December 2013, 2014 and 2015 in relation to the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement to understand the historical growth trend;

LETTER FROM THE INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

- (ii) reviewed the calculation and assumptions adopted in estimating the Revised 2015 Annual Cap for the year ending 31 December 2015 and the Renewed Annual Caps in relation to the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement for the three years ending 31 December 2018 prepared by the Company; and
- (iii) reviewed the forecasted capital expenditure to be incurred on the development of the 4G and wireline broadband network, channel services, network repair and maintenance services and other equipment services of the Group.

Based on the foregoing, we are of the view that the Revised 2015 Annual Cap for the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Renewed Annual Caps for each of the years ending 31 December 2016, 2017 and 2018 in relation to the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement reflect the normal business growth of the Company and are fair and reasonable.

F. Annual Review on the Continuing Connected Transactions

As discussed with the management of the Company, the Company will comply with the annual review requirements of the Listing Rules, in particular:

- (a) the independent non-executive Directors must review the Continuing Connected Transactions every year and confirm in the annual report whether the transactions have been entered into:
 - (i) in ordinary and usual course of business of the Group;
 - (ii) on normal commercial terms or better; and
 - (iii) according to the agreement governing them on terms that are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Shareholders as a whole.
- (b) the Company must engage its auditors to report on the Continuing Connected Transactions every year. The auditors of the Company must provide a letter to the Board confirming whether anything has come to their attention that causes them to believe that the Continuing Connected Transactions:

- (i) have not been approved by the Board;
- (ii) were not, in all material respects, in accordance with the pricing policies of the Group;
- (iii) were not entered into, in all material respects, in accordance with the relevant agreement governing the Continuing Connected Transactions; and
- (iv) have exceeded the annual caps.

Table of Contents

- (e) the Company must promptly notify the Stock Exchange and publish an announcement if the independent non-executive Directors and/or the auditors cannot confirm the matters as required. The Stock Exchange may require the Company to re-comply with the announcement and shareholders' approval requirements and may impose additional conditions.

In light of the above, we are of the view that appropriate measures will be in place to govern the conduct of the Continuing Connected Transactions and assist in safeguarding the interests of the Independent Shareholders.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Having taken into account the above principal reasons and factors, we consider that: the terms of the Continuing Connected Transactions, the Revised 2015 Annual Cap and the Renewed Annual Caps are fair and reasonable and that the transactions contemplated under the Engineering Framework Agreement and the Ancillary Telecommunications Services Framework Agreement are entered into in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group, on normal commercial terms or better and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Therefore, we advise the Independent Board Committee to recommend the Independent Shareholders to and also recommend the Independent Shareholders vote in favor of the relevant resolutions to approve the Revised 2015 Annual Cap, the renewal of the Continuing Connected Transactions and the Renewed Annual Caps applicable thereto at the EGM.

Yours faithfully, For
