The following is an email to Marriott's Franchised Hotel General Managers in the U.S. and Canada sent on, which informs them of the proposed merger between Marriott International and Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide.

Date: November 16, 2015

Subject Line: Marriott International to Acquire Starwood Hotel & Resorts

Franchised Hotel GMs in the U.S. and Canada,

We want to reach out to ensure you have heard the news that Marriott International has signed an agreement to acquire Starwood Hotels & Resorts in a merger transaction. This merger, which was just announced this morning, will bring together two highly complementary businesses. Starwood is a leader in the lifestyle segment whose strong portfolio of brands, loyal customer base, international footprint and beautiful properties will help us achieve our vision of making Marriott International the World's Favorite Travel Company.

Once the merger is complete, Marriott International will be the world's largest hotel company, with 1.1 million rooms across more than 5,500 properties worldwide. This merger creates a unique opportunity for us to be able to meet the varied needs of travelers, whatever their purpose and wherever they are in the world. We are confident that this will generate meaningful value for owners, franchisees, guests and associates.

This integration will require a significant amount of work, and we anticipate it will take many months for the deal to be completed. Until that time, we ask that you not actively engage with Starwood for any Marriott-related business or sales activities. We will provide regular updates on the status of the merger over the course of the coming months.

We look forward to the many opportunities this merger will bring and as always, we thank you for your support.

Best regards,
