Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 7, 2015, BBCN Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Wilshire Bancorp, Inc., a California corporation (Wilshire). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which have been approved by the board of directors of both the Company and Wilshire, Wilshire will merge with and into the Company, with the Company being the surviving corporation (the Merger).

Concurrently with or as soon as reasonably practicable after the consummation of the Merger, Wilshire Bank, a California-state chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Wilshire (Wilshire Bank), will merge with and into BBCN Bank, a California state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (BBCN Bank), with BBCN Bank being the surviving bank (the Bank Merger), pursuant to a separate merger agreement between Wilshire Bank and BBCN Bank.

Under the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each outstanding share of Wilshire common stock will be converted into 0.7034 (the Exchange Ratio) shares of the Company's common stock, with any fractional shares paid in cash. At the Effective Time, (i) each outstanding option to acquire shares of Wilshire common stock will be assumed by the Company and be converted into a right to acquire shares of the Company's common stock, subject to adjustments to the exercise price and number of shares issuable upon exercise of such option based on the Exchange Ratio; and (ii) each restricted share of Wilshire common stock will be assumed by the Company at the Effective Time and be converted into restricted shares of the Company's common stock, as adjusted by the Exchange Ratio. In addition, at the Effective Time, the Company will also assume the obligations of Wilshire with respect to its issued and outstanding junior subordinated debt securities.

Under the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, the board of the surviving corporation will consist of 16 members, with the Company and Wilshire designating nine and seven directors respectively to serve on such board, Steven S. Koh, Wilshire's chairman, will serve as chairman of the board and Kevin S. Kim, the Company's chairman, president and chief executive officer, will serve as president and chief executive officer of the combined corporation. The Merger Agreement also provides for the appointment of a consolidation committee consisting of three representatives from each company to oversee the integration process. In addition, prior to the closing, the Company will offer to enter into a consulting agreement with Wilshire's chief executive officer pursuant to which, if such offer is accepted, such individual would be engaged as a consultant for the surviving corporation on a one-year term, with compensation and other terms as determined by the consolidation committee.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties customary for transactions of this type. In addition, each party has agreed to various customary covenants and agreements, including, among others, (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during this period, (iii) to convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon the Merger, notwithstanding any acquisition proposal or intervening material event arising after signing, (iv) to recommend approval of the Merger to its stockholders and, subject to certain exceptions, not make any changes to such recommendation, (v) not solicit, initiate, or knowingly encourage any alternative proposal to acquire the Company or Wilshire; and (vi) subject to certain exceptions, not to provide any non-public information in connection with any such proposal, or engage in any discussions or negotiations regarding or any such proposal.

The consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including receipt of regulatory approvals, receipt of the requisite approval of the shareholders of the Company and Wilshire, the absence of any law or order prohibiting the closing, and effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by the Company with respect to the stock to be issued in the Merger. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party and compliance of the other party with its covenants, in each case subject to certain materiality standards.

The Merger Agreement contains customary termination rights for the Company and Wilshire, including the right to terminate if the other party suffers a material adverse effect after the date of the Agreement. In addition, each party is entitled to a termination fee in the amount of $40,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated as a result of, among other circumstances, the other party's entry into an alternative acquisition proposal within 18 months after the date of termination of the Merger Agreement or any failure by the other party to hold a shareholder meeting, recommend approval of the Merger to its shareholders or abide by its covenants not to solicit or engage in any alternative proposal, in each case, subject to the other conditions triggering such payment as provided in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger is expected to close in mid-2016.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein. The Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about the Company, Wilshire or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Wilshire or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties, and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 7, 2015, the Company and Wilshire issued a joint press release and held a joint investor conference call (with simultaneous webcast) to announce the execution of the Merger Agreement. Copies of the press release and the slide presentation used on the conference call are attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively. These materials are incorporated herein by reference and the foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to such materials.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains statements regarding the proposed transaction between the Company and Wilshire, the expected timetable for completing the transaction, future financial and operating results, benefits and synergies of the proposed transaction and other statements about the future expectations, beliefs, goals, plans or prospects of the management of each of the Company and Wilshire. These statements are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections and management assumptions about the future performance of each of the Company, Wilshire and the combined corporation, as well as the businesses and markets in which they do and are expected to operate. These statements constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as expects, believes, estimates, anticipates, targets, goals, projects, intends, plans, seeks, and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements which are not statements of historical fact. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to assess. Actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. The closing of the proposed transaction is subject to regulatory approval, the approval of the shareholders of the Company and Wilshire, and other customary closing conditions. There is no assurance that such conditions will be met or that the proposed transaction will be consummated within expected time frame, or at all. If the transaction is consummated, factors that may cause actual outcomes to differ from what is expressed or forecasted in these forward-looking statements include, among things: difficulties and delays in integrating the Company and Wilshire and achieving anticipated synergies, cost savings and other benefits from the transaction; higher than anticipated transaction costs; deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the merger, including difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; required governmental approvals of the merger may not be obtained on its proposed terms and schedule, or without regulatory constraints that may limit growth; competitive pressures among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly and have an effect on revenues; the strength of the United States economy in general, and of the local economies in which the combined corporation will operate, may be different than expected, which could result in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit and have a negative effect on the combined corporation's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses; changes in the U.S. legal and regulatory framework; and adverse conditions in the stock market, the public debt market and other capital markets (including changes in interest rate conditions) which would negatively affect the combined corporation's business and operating results. For a more complete list and description of such risks and uncertainties, refer to the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, as amended, Wilshire's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, as amended, as well as other filings made by the Company and Wilshire with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). Except as required under the U.S. federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Company disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statements after the distribution of this press release, whether as a result of new information, future events, developments, changes in assumptions or otherwise.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed merger, the Company will file with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus of the Company and Wilshire, as well as other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction. Shareholders are urged to read the Registration Statement and the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus regarding the merger when it becomes available and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information. You will be able to obtain a free copy of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as well as other filings containing information about the Company and Wilshire at the SEC's Internet site (www.sec.gov). You will also be able to obtain these documents, free of charge, from the Company at www.BBCNbank.com under the tab "Investor Relations" and then under the heading "SEC Filings" and from Wilshire at www.wilshirebank.com under the tab "Investor Relations" and then under the heading "SEC Filings".

Participants in Solicitation

The Company, Wilshire and their respective directors, executive officers, management and employees may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the merger. Information concerning the Company's participants is set forth in the proxy statement, dated May 1, 2015, for the Company's 2015 annual meeting of stockholders as filed with the SEC on Schedule 14A. Information concerning Wilshire's participants is set forth in the proxy statement, dated April 9, 2015, for Wilshire's 2015 annual meeting of stockholders as filed with the SEC on Schedule 14A. Additional information regarding the interests of participants of the Company and Wilshire in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the merger will be included in the registration statement and joint proxy statement/prospectus to be filed with the SEC.
