News Release

Second Leading Independent Proxy Advisory Firm Recommends That Puma Biotechnology Shareholders Reject Eshelman's Consent Solicitation by REVOKING CONSENT on Puma's BLUE Consent Revocation Card

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Dec. 29, 2015 - Puma Biotechnology, Inc. (NYSE: PBYI) ( Puma or the Company ) announced that Glass Lewis & Co., another leading independent proxy advisory firm, recommends that Puma shareholders revoke all consents on the BLUE Consent Revocation Card thereby rejecting the consent solicitation by Fredric Eshelman. The Company announced last week that ISS had made the same recommendation to Puma shareholders.

We welcome the support of Glass Lewis, said Alan H. Auerbach, Chief Executive Officer and President of Puma. It is encouraging that both ISS and Glass Lewis, while applying their own unique criteria, came to the same conclusion that validated our Board composition and agreed with the Company that Eshelman had not justified any changes. Eshelman's actions are clearly not in the best interests of Puma's shareholders. We sincerely appreciate the support we continue to receive from our shareholders.

The Company urges shareholders to show support for their Company by signing, dating and returning their BLUE Consent Revocation Card today. Company shareholders are reminded that their revocation is important, no matter how many or how few shares they own. Shareholders who have questions or need any assistance revoking their consents may contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated, which is assisting the Company in this matter, toll-free at (888) 750-5834 or (212) 750-5833.
