ITEM: 3.02 UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES.

On April 28, 2005 the Company completed a sale, of approximately 1, 640,724 shares of its common stock for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $21,437,537 million. The share prices received from various parties ranged from $10.90 net of fees to $20.00 per share with the sums received varying in part as the common stock market price of free trading shares fluctuated in the market. 1,220,588 of the aforementioned shares, which were placed at an investment fund, PIF for $17.00 a share and involved a stock swap with a shareholder who sold shares in the Company, that they owned, that were over 1 year old from the date of the original issue, to an investment fund for $17.00 a share and then remitted the funds to the Company in exchange for newly issued shares at a discounted price to reflect the restrictions. No warrants were issued. The Company received funds net of all transaction costs. The Company negotiated the purchase price with all of those investors, based upon the market price of the securities at the time of the negotiation and with an appropriate discount for the restrictions on resale. Its common stock was issued to sophisticated, accredited foreign investors or foreign corporations in transactions exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 as amended. Each had access to financial information available in public markets and was given the opportunity to review the Company's books, records and other information that they requested. $1,640,000 was also paid to Earlsdon Investments Ltd. in part as a placement fee re some of the above transactions and for related expensed services including arranging a soon to be announced distribution agreement for a new market region and $2,500,000 was paid to
