Brasil Telecom Clarifies Bovespa's Inquiry

In response to the request, subject of the letter dated January 26, 2005, reproduced below:

We require clarification about the article published by newspaper Valor Econômico, dated January 25, 2005, entitled "Citigroup may give up the share capital of BrT", as well as other information considered important, the company being obliged to confirm with the people connected to its controlling group.

After consulting our controlling shareholder, we inform that there are no transactions in course that would result in a change of control of Brasil Telecom.

The Company remains open to any other future clarification as may be deemed necessary.

Brasília, Brazil, January 28, 2005.
