Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 29, 2005, Western Digital entered into a second amendment (the "Amendment") to the volume purchase agreement with Komag Incorporated and Komag USA (Malaysia) Sdn, dated June 6, 2005 and amended on July 22, 2005 (the "Komag VPA"). The Amendment is part of an ongoing effort by Western Digital to diligently work with strategic suppliers to help ensure adequate supply of key components for its hard drives. The Amendment increases the specified media volumes that Komag supplies Western Digital from additional new production capacity. Komag's supply obligations and Western Digital's purchase obligations under the Komag VPA, as amended, are for an initial period ending eighteen months after Komag has commenced full capacity production from its new capacity, subject to certain extension and renewal periods.

The above description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Registrant's annual report on Form 10-Q for the period ending December 30, 2005, with portions omitted and filed separately with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to a request for confidential treatment.
