Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

In response to the deteriorating market conditions in the third quarter, the Company is exercising its right to abandon a number of homesite option contracts. As a result, the Company anticipates that it will incur significant deposit write-offs and abandonment charges in the third quarter of 2007.

Additionally, the Company is currently reviewing its inventories and other assets for possible impairment charges. Due to weaker than anticipated net sales orders and declining prices, the Company currently also expects to record significant asset impairment charges in the third quarter of 2007.

The Company anticipates that recording the asset impairment charges, deposit write-offs and abandonment charges will cause the Company to breach one or more of the covenants in its Second Amended and Restated Revolving Credit Agreement and First Lien Term Loan Credit Agreement. The Company is proposing to enter into the attached amendments to these agreements.

For lenders interested in executing the attached amendments, please access the intralinks site for the Company's lenders.
