Nokia Litigation Update.

On September 25, 2008, the Administrative Law Judge (the "ALJ") overseeing the U.S. International Trade Commission (the "USITC") proceeding between InterDigital, Inc.'s wholly-owned subsidiaries InterDigital Technology Corporation and InterDigital Communications, LLC (collectively, "InterDigital") and Nokia Corporation and Nokia, Inc. (collectively, "Nokia"), in which InterDigital alleges that Nokia engaged in an unfair trade practice by making for importation into the United States, importing, and selling after importation into the United States certain 3G mobile handsets and components that infringe four of InterDigital's patents, lifted the stay that was imposed on the proceeding on April 14, 2008. The ALJ also ordered InterDigital to consult with Nokia and the Office of Unfair Import Investigations staff and to submit, no later than October 3, 2008, a proposed procedural schedule, including a proposed new Target Date for the USITC's Final Determination.
