Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Huntington Bancshares Incorporated announced on January 14, 2009 that Stephen D. Steinour, age 50, has been elected Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, succeeding Thomas E. Hoaglin, who had served in these capacities since 2001. Mr. Steinour was appointed to serve as a Class III member of the Board of Directors serving a term expiring in 2011. Mr. Hoaglin will remain with Huntington to assist with transition matters until he retires from service as an employee and as a director on February 28, 2009.

Mr. Steinour was with Citizens Financial Group in Providence, Rhode Island from 1992 to 2008, where he served in various executive roles, with responsibilities for credit, risk management, wholesale and regional banking, consumer lending, technology and operations among others. He was named president in 2005 and chief executive officer in 2007. In 2008, Mr. Steinour joined Cross Harbor Capital partners in Boston as a managing partner.

In connection with the commencement of his employment, Huntington and Mr. Steinour entered into an employment agreement effective as of January 14, 2009 with an initial term ending on December 31, 2013 subject to automatic three-year renewal periods upon expiration of the initial term and each renewal term. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Steinour will serve as Huntington's President and Chief Executive Officer, reporting directly to the Board of Directors and will be initially appointed, and thereafter nominated, to serve as a member of the Board. While serving on the Board he will be Chairman of the Board. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Steinour has an initial annual base salary of $1,000,000, is eligible for an annual target incentive award opportunity equal to 110% of annual base salary (and a guaranteed minimum bonus of no less than 50% of the target incentive payment for 2009), is eligible for long-term incentive awards with a target award opportunity of 31.25% of annual base salary for each three-year performance cycle and is generally entitled to employee benefits, fringe benefits, perquisites and annual equity awards on terms and conditions no less favorable than those provided to other senior executives of the company.

In connection with entry into the employment agreement, Huntington awarded Mr. Steinour an inducement option to purchase 1,000,000 shares of Huntington's common stock, with a per share exercise price equal to $4.95, the closing price of Huntington's common stock on January 14, 2009. The option vests in equal increments on each of the first five anniversaries of the date of grant, and expires on the seventh anniversary. The option was granted as an inducement option outside the terms of Huntington's 2007 Stock and Long-Term Incentive Plan, but will be subject to the terms of the plan.

The employment agreement provides that, upon a termination of Mr. Steinour's employment without "cause" or for "good reason" (each, as defined in the agreement), he is entitled to certain accrued amounts, a pro-rata annual incentive payment for the year of termination, which may be based on the higher of the target incentive payment and the incentive payment paid to Mr. Steinour for the year prior to the year of termination or may be based on actual performance, a lump sum cash severance amount equal to two times the sum of his annual base salary and the higher of the target incentive payment and the incentive payment paid to Mr. Steinour for year prior to the year of termination and pro-rata long-term incentive plan awards for any open cycles, based on actual performance. Mr. Steinour's severance benefits are subject to the limitations imposed due to Huntington's participation in the Capital Purchase Program under the U.S. Treasury's TARP program.

Huntington and Mr. Steinour also entered into a change in control agreement, referred to as an Executive Agreement, to provide certain protections in the event of any actual or threatened change in control of Huntington, which is substantially similar to the Executive Agreement previously entered into between Huntington and Mr. Hoaglin.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by the text of these agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 hereto.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 14, 2009, Huntington issued a press release announcing the election of Stephen D. Steinour as Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
