Item 1.01.

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 16, 2010, ParkerVision, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a stock purchase agreement (“Stock Purchase Agreement”) with certain clients of a large institutional investment adviser (“Purchasers”) for the sale of an aggregate of 2,829,520 shares (“Shares”) of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Common Stock”), at a price of $0.42 per share. The offering of the Shares is being made pursuant to the Company’s “shelf” Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-156571) that was declared effective on January 20, 2009. A prospectus supplement describing the terms of the Offering was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 17, 2010.

The Stock Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of the Company and is subject to customary closing conditions. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify the Purchasers for liabilities arising out of or relating to (a) any breach of any of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements made by the Company in the Stock Purchase Agreement or related documents or (b) any action instituted against a Purchaser by a third party (other than a third party who is affiliated with such Purchaser) arising from the offering, subject to certain exceptions. The Company also granted to the Purchasers certain preemptive rights with respect to the Company’s Common Stock. If, at any time during the 180 days following the closing of the sale of the Shares, the Company offers to sell Common Stock or rights to purchase Common Stock in a public or private offering for cash, each Purchaser shall be afforded the opportunity to acquire from the Company, for the same price and on the same terms as such shares or rights are offered, the amount of such shares or rights required to enable such Purchaser to maintain its percentage ownership (measured immediately prior to such offering). Percentage ownership is calculated as the aggregate number of shares held by the Purchaser as of the date of determination divided by the total number of shares outstanding as of such date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Purchasers do not have preemptive rights in connection with the issuance by the Company of securities upon the exercise, conversion or exchange of any securities issued and outstanding as of November 16, 2010 or the issuance of securities by the Company pursuant to any employee incentive or benefit plan, stock purchase plan, stock ownership plan, stock option or equity compensation plan or other similar plan of the Company.

Upon closing, net proceeds from the sale of Shares, after deducting the estimated offering expenses, are expected to be approximately $1.14 million. The Company anticipates that the Offering will close on November 19, 2010.

The discussion in this Current Report is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Stock Purchase Agreement which is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference in this Item.

The Stock Purchase Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding their terms. They are not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Stock Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreements and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreements, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties.
