Narrative Discussion of Summary Compensation Table

The elements of the Company's executive compensation include base salary, bonus, if awarded, and stock option awards. Base salary increases for the executive officers are reviewed on an annual basis by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Base salary increases of the named executive officers in fiscal year 2015 averaged 5.2% and were based on individual and company performance for fiscal year 2014.

The Committee believes that, as a general rule, annual compensation in excess of base salaries should be dependent on the Company's performance, and should be awarded based on recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer to the Committee and in the discretion of the Board. Accordingly, each fiscal year, the Committee reviews and approves a cash incentive bonus plan designed to motivate executive officer and key personnel to achieve the financial and operational objectives of the Company. No bonuses have been awarded for fiscal 2015 performance.

On November 5, 2010, the Board of Directors of the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Bailey, which provides for a term of up to seven years with a beginning salary of $300,000 and participation in an annual incentive program with a target bonus opportunity of 50% of his then-current salary, plus an opportunity for a greater bonus if he achieves stretch goals measured by compound annual earnings growth significantly exceeding fiscal year earnings goals, subject to the Board's discretion. In addition, as part of the agreement Mr. Bailey was granted stock options equivalent to approximately 13½% of all issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock as of the actual date of commencement of his employment term. Such options vest and become exercisable in increasingly larger increments on the anniversary dates of the commencement date of his employment.

The 2005 Stock Option Plan (the "2005 Plan") rewards select executives and key employees as an incentive for them to join or remain in the service of the Company. The Compensation and Stock Option Committee administers this Plan. There were no stock option grants awarded to any of the named executive officers in fiscal 2015.
