Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On February 21, 2019, Voya Financial, Inc. (the “Company”) made changes to the compensation arrangements of Rodney O. Martin, Jr., the Company’s Chief Executive Officer; Michael S. Smith, the Company’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; and Charles P. Nelson, CEO of the Company’s Retirement and Employee Benefits business, each of whom is a named executive officer (as such term is defined in Item 402 of Regulation S-K) of the Company.

Mr. Martin’s target long-term incentive opportunity has been increased, effective beginning for 2019 performance, to 750% of his annual base salary (for a target long-term incentive opportunity of $7.5 million).

Mr. Smith’s annual base salary has been increased, effective as of March 1, 2019, to $640,000, Mr. Smith’s target annual cash incentive opportunity has been increased, effective beginning for 2019 performance, to 175% of his annual base salary (for a target annual cash incentive opportunity of $1.12 million), and Mr. Smith’s target long-term incentive opportunity has been increased, effective beginning for 2019 performance, to 350% of his annual base salary (for a target long-term incentive opportunity of $2.24 million).

Mr. Nelson’s annual base salary has been increased, effective as of March 1, 2019, to $730,000, Mr. Nelson’s target annual cash incentive opportunity has been increased, effective beginning for 2019 performance, to 150% of his annual base salary (for a target annual cash incentive opportunity of $1.095 million), and Mr. Nelson’s target long-term incentive opportunity has been increased, effective beginning for 2019 performance, to 300% of his annual base salary (for a target long-term incentive opportunity of $2.19 million).

In addition, on February 21, 2019, the Company granted performance-based stock options (the “Options”) to certain of its senior management, including the Company’s principal financial officer and other named executive officers, at a strike price equal to $50.03, the closing price of Company common stock on the grant date, as reported by the New York Stock Exchange.

The Options are subject to vesting conditions based on the achievement of certain cost savings targets on or before December 31, 2020. The Options generally become exercisable one year following achievement of the relevant vesting condition. In the event of a change in control of the Company, the performance conditions on vesting will be waived and the Options will become vested and exercisable on the first anniversary of the change of control (with exceptions for certain terminations of employment). The Options have a term of ten years from the grant date, but to the extent that the relevant vesting condition has not been met by December 31, 2020, any unvested Options will expire without value.

Mr. Smith was granted Options with respect to 71,174 shares of the Company’s common stock; Mr. Nelson was granted Options with respect to 71,174 shares of the Company’s common stock; and Christine Hurtsellers, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company’s Investment Management business (and a named executive officer) was granted Options with respect to 71,174 shares of the Company’s common stock.

A description of the Voya Financial, Inc. 2014 Omnibus Employee Incentive Plan, under which long-term incentive awards and Options are granted, is contained in the Company’s Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 16, 2014, under the captions “Compensation of Executive Officers-Compensation Discussion and Analysis-2013 Compensation-Annual Cash and Deferred Equity-Based Incentive Compensation”, “-Long-Term Equity-Based Incentive Compensation”, “-Critical Compensation and Other Policies”, and “-Summary of Plan-Voya Financial, Inc. 2014 Omnibus Employee Incentive Plan”, and such descriptions are hereby incorporated into this Item 5.02 by reference.
