Edgar Filing: INTEL CORP - Form 8-K

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 22, 2007, Intel Corporation (Intel), STMicroelectronics NV (STMicroelectronics), and certain affiliates of Francisco Partners L.P. (Francisco Partners and collectively, the Parties) entered into a Master Agreement (the Master Agreement) to form a private, independent semiconductor company (Numonyx) that will design, develop and manufacture NOR and NAND flash memory products. On December 22, 2007, the Parties entered into a Letter Agreement (Letter Agreement) that extends the termination date under the Master Agreement from December 31, 2007 to March 28, 2008.

In addition, the Parties have re-negotiated the commitment letter with certain lenders which originally stated that the lenders would provide up to $1.55 billion in debt financing for Numonyx. The revised financing terms involve a senior loan of up to $650 million and a $100 million committed revolving credit facility to Numonyx. The financing terms will result in certain changes to the terms of the Master Agreement which are being negotiated by the Parties. The Parties currently plan to close the transactions contemplated by the Master Agreement in the first quarter of 2008.

The above description of the material terms of the Master Agreement and the Letter Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of each of the agreements.

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements regarding proposed transactions by Intel and other entities relating to or with Numonyx; Numonyx's future operations; and future capital raising transactions by Numonyx. Actual events or results may differ materially from those contained in these forward-looking statements. Among the important factors that could cause future events or results to vary from those addressed in the forward-looking statements are risks arising from the possibility that the closing of the transaction may be delayed or may not occur; the ability to retain key employees and customer and supplier relationships; the potential for unexpected liabilities related to the disposition of the assets; changes in Intel's and STMicroelectronics's ability and commitment to contribute assets to Numonyx; and litigation or regulatory matters involving intellectual property, antitrust and other issues that could affect the closing of the transactions, the future operation of Numonyx and/or Intel's or other entities' dealings with Numonyx.

In addition, please refer to the documents that Intel files with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K. The filings by Intel identify and address other important factors that could affect its relationship with Numonyx and could cause its financial and operational results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements set forth in this Form 8-K and in Intel's other filings. Intel is under no duty to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this Form 8-K to conform to actual results.
