Pre-commencement communications pursuant to Rule 13e-4(c) under the Exchange Act (17 CFR 240.13e-4(c))

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) Effective May 25, 2017, Thomas R. Watjen retired from the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Unum Group (the “Company”), including as its non-executive Chairman, in accordance with his previously disclosed decision not to stand for re-election at the Company’s 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Also effective May 25, 2017, Edward J. Muhl retired from the Board in accordance with the Company’s bylaws, which impose a mandatory retirement age of 72.

(e) At the Company’s 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders held on May 25, 2017, shareholders approved the Unum Group Stock Incentive Plan of 2017 (the “2017 Plan”), as described in Item 5.07 below. The Human Capital Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board had previously adopted the 2017 Plan on February 21, 2017, subject to shareholder approval. A description of the material features of the 2017 Plan is set forth under the heading “Approval of the Unum Group Stock Incentive Plan of 2017” on pages 96 through 105 of the Company’s definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 13, 2017 (the “Proxy Statement”). This description of the 2017 Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2017 Plan, which was included as Appendix A to the Proxy Statement and is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.

On May 24, 2017, the Committee approved the forms of award agreements (the “Award Agreements”) to be used for grants of restricted stock units and performance share units under the 2017 Plan if the 2017 Plan was approved by shareholders at the Company’s 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Restricted stock unit and performance share unit awards are granted to employees pursuant to the Company’s long-term incentive compensation program each year only if a specified level of Company performance is achieved.

The restricted stock unit agreements include a form for non-employee directors and a form for employees, which are filed herewith as Exhibits 10.2 and 10.3, respectively. Both forms of restricted stock unit agreements provide for time-based vesting and acceleration of vesting in connection with certain events, including termination due to death, disability or a qualifying retirement. The form of restricted stock unit agreement for employees provides for pro-rata vesting in the event of termination by the Company as a result of job elimination or requalification or by the employee for good reason (as applicable), and also includes certain confidentiality, non-solicitation, and non-disparagement obligations that apply for up to one year following termination of employment, with the exception of confidentiality which applies until such information is no longer confidential.

The form of performance share unit agreement for employees, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.4, provides for vesting based on the achievement of prospective three-year performance goals relating to average operating earnings per share and average return on equity, modified up to +/- 20% based on the Company’s total shareholder return (“TSR”) relative to specified peer companies. After taking into account this relative TSR modifier, actual payouts may range from 0% to 180% of the target number of units. The form of performance share unit agreement provides for the potential to receive the full number of units that could be earned based on actual performance in the event of termination due to death, disability or a qualifying retirement, provided that in the case of termination due to disability or a qualifying retirement the employee must comply with certain confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation, and non-disparagement obligations (the “PSU obligations”) throughout the remaining performance period. In the event of termination by the Company as a result of job elimination or requalification or by the employee for good reason (as applicable), the employee is eligible to receive a pro-rata portion of the units that could be earned based on actual performance provided that the PSU obligations are satisfied throughout the remaining performance period. In any event, the PSU obligations apply for up to one year following termination of employment, with the exception of confidentiality which applies until such information is no longer confidential.

The Award Agreements also provide for acceleration of vesting upon certain terminations of employment occurring within two years following a change in control of the Company.

The foregoing description of the Award Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each of the Award Agreements, copies of which are filed herewith as Exhibits 10.2, 10.3, and 10.4.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.
